Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

Danger ahead...Economy has yet to face biggest recession challenge...

'The 2-year Treasury note yield exceeded that of the 10-year note by the highest margin in about 22 years Friday afternoon. That phenomenon, known as an inverted yield curve, has been a telltale recession sign particularly when it goes on for an extended period of time. In the present case, the inversion has been in place since early July'

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

Don't allow that hag to interfere with your sovereignty.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...’

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america. This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

In reality it is just a piece of petrified wood ... Another piece of evidence that shows again that Apollo program is indeed a fake and a fraud

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Shame on me. I believed this fraud for most of my life and I should have known better in 1969.

Other than Kodak film (and Hasselblad cameras) that could not function at lunar temperatures (not to mention the radiation or outgassing in a vacuum)

or the total lack of any blast crater

or the lack of rockets on lift-off from the moon

or the sounds heard while on the "lunar" surface

or the laser-ranging which started in 1962

or the waving flags

or the improbable "pressure [space] suits"

or the violations of Newton's 2nd law

or the ridiculously inadequate guidance systems

or the relatively poor special effects (not even CGI)

or the lack of telemetry

or the lack of radiation protection

or the utter quiet of a 140+ decibel engine

or the ludicrous lack of computer power

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? (Read More...)”

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar

proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

Don't allow that hag to interfere with your sovereignty.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. But many experts are warning that much worse is ahead, and we continue to get more evidence of this with each passing day..”

Escobar: Russia & China Haven’t Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. In reality it is just a piece of petrified wood ... Another piece of evidence that shows again that Apollo program is indeed a fake and a fraud

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Shame on me. I believed this fraud for most of my life and I should have known better in 1969.

Other than Kodak film (and Hasselblad cameras) that could not function at lunar temperatures (not to mention the radiation or outgassing in a vacuum)

or the total lack of any blast crater

or the lack of rockets on lift-off from the moon

or the sounds heard while on the "lunar" surface

or the laser-ranging which started in 1962

or the waving flags

or the improbable "pressure [space] suits"

or the violations of Newton's 2nd law

or the ridiculously inadequate guidance systems

or the relatively poor special effects (not even CGI)

or the lack of telemetry

or the lack of radiation protection

or the utter quiet of a 140+ decibel engine

or the ludicrous lack of computer power

or the "moon rocks" from....well, petrified wood?

or the "astronauts" dangling from wires

or the Lunar Rover which looks like a Mattel model

....but they did make a full-scale model for 60 million bucks

or the billions in additional funds for "Paperclip"

or the total lack of stars or photos of the sky

or the very suspicious look to the front-screen filming

or the clues in "Eyes Wide Shut" and elsewhere (etc.)

or the incredible effort by NASA and JTRIG to shut down discussion of the fraud, and mock those who would expose it....

or (for bonus points) the lack of an airlock on the LEM

Other than that, maybe we really went? The TV told me so.

EOD If The Streets Of America Are This Chaotic Now, What Will They Be Like When Things Really Start Hitting The Fan?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/if-the-streets-of-america-are-this-chaotic-now-what-will-they-be-like-when-things-really-start-hitting-the-fan/>

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? (Read More...)”

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

The mentally ill mobster/criminal former president of the disunited states

<https://twitter.com/i/status/1530322212309200896>

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

HISTORY Here are notable past Taiwan Headlines

https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/here-are-all-latest-taiwan-headlines ...news in the extremely fluid Taiwan theater of pre-war.

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

Don't allow that hag to interfere with your sovereignty.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

5 Things That You Should Start Doing Immediately To Prepare For The Severe Recession That Is Ahead <http://endoftheamericandream.com/5-things-that-you-should-start-doing-immediately-to-prepare-for-the-severe-recession-that-is-ahead/> “..Sadly, it is likely that a recession is already here. The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. But many experts are warning that much worse is ahead, and we continue to get more evidence of this with each passing day..”

Escobar: Russia & China Haven’t Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

Goldman: "Positioning, Sentiment, & Liquidity All Incredibly Depressed. Feels Like We Are Due For A Real Pullback" Some very concerning market observations from Goldman trader John Flood discussing the real rot below the market surface: Monday was the lightest volume session of the year with 9.32b shares trading across all US equity exchanges breaking previous low mark of 9.4b back on 7/11/22. YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 – 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

The simple answer: Fewer people working, but more people working more than one job, a rotation which picked up in earnest some time in March and which has only been captured by the Household survey. And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...’

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america. Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative* to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

In reality it is just a piece of petrified wood ... Another piece of evidence that shows again that Apollo program is indeed a fake and a fraud

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Riiight...and they haven't been back because...oh yeah, they got rid of their Saturn rockets ... and, they were in the past but not in the present/future impervious to radiation; ie., van allen belt, etc.. Oh, they probably could do it now, arguably; they're working on it. But, of course, Mars is quite another thing. The amounts of money for these boondoggles/frauds are staggering; yet, pale in comparison to the frauds on wall street. Shame on me. I believed this fraud for most of my life and I should have known better in 1969.

Other than Kodak film (and Hasselblad cameras) that could not function at lunar temperatures (not to mention the radiation or outgassing in a vacuum)

or the total lack of any blast crater
or the lack of rockets on lift-off from the moon
or the sounds heard while on the "lunar" surface
or the laser-ranging which started in 1962
or the waving flags
or the improbable "pressure [space] suits"
or the violations of Newton's 2nd law
or the ridiculously inadequate guidance systems
or the relatively poor special effects (not even CGI)
or the lack of telemetry
or the lack of radiation protection
or the utter quiet of a 140+ decibel engine
or the ludicrous lack of computer power
or the "moon rocks" from....well, petrified wood?
or the "astronauts" dangling from wires
or the Lunar Rover which looks like a Mattel model
....but they did make a full-scale model for 60 million bucks
or the billions in additional funds for "Paperclip"
or the total lack of stars or photos of the sky
or the very suspicious look to the front-screen filming
or the clues in "Eyes Wide Shut" and elsewhere (etc.)
or the incredible effort by NASA and JTRIG to shut down discussion of the fraud, and mock those who would expose it....
or (for bonus points) the lack of an airlock on the LEM
Other than that, maybe we really went? The TV told me so.

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar

proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

HISTORY Here are notable past Taiwan Headlines

<https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/here-are-all-latest-taiwan-headlines> ...news in the extremely fluid Taiwan theater of pre-war.

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

Don't allow that hag to interfere with your sovereignty.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

Goldman: "Positioning, Sentiment, & Liquidity All Incredibly Depressed. Feels Like We Are Due For A Real Pullback" Some very concerning market observations from Goldman trader John Flood discussing the real rot below the market surface: Monday was the lightest volume session of the year with 9.32b shares trading across all US equity exchanges breaking previous low mark of 9.4b back on 7/11/22. YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 – 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...’

Europe.” - ““This is not just my opinion,” said Chomsky, “it is the opinion of every high-level US official in the diplomatic services who has any familiarity with Russia and Eastern Europe. This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia.”

“Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, “George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it”

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? (Read More...)”

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar

proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

Danger ahead...Economy has yet to face biggest recession challenge...

‘The 2-year Treasury note yield exceeded that of the 10-year note by the highest margin in about 22 years Friday afternoon. That phenomenon, known as an inverted yield curve, has been a telltale recession sign particularly when it goes on for an extended period of time. In the present case, the inversion has been in place since early July’

HISTORY Here are notable past Taiwan Headlines

<https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/here-are-all-latest-taiwan-headlines> ...news in the extremely fluid Taiwan theater of pre-war.

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

DON'T ALLOW THAT HAG TO INTERFERE WITH YOUR SOVEREIGNTY.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. But many experts are warning that much worse is ahead, and we continue to get more evidence of this with each passing day..”

Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...'

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? In reality it is just a piece of petrified wood ... Another piece of evidence that shows again that Apollo program is indeed a fake and a fraud

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar

proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. ZEROHEDGE

Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

The most intelligent, rational legal position:

Laurence Tribe, a Harvard law professor, argued that not holding Trump accountable would be equally harmful.

"I certainly recognize that indicting a former president would generate lots of social heat, perhaps violence," Tribe said. "But not indicting him would invite another violent insurrection."

Goldman: "Positioning, Sentiment, & Liquidity All Incredibly Depressed. Feels Like We Are Due For A Real Pullback" Some very concerning market observations from Goldman trader John Flood discussing the real rot below the market surface: Monday was the lightest volume session of the year with 9.32b shares trading across all US equity exchanges breaking previous low mark of 9.4b back on 7/11/22. YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 - 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

The simple answer: Fewer people working, but more people working more than one job, a rotation which picked up in earnest some time in March and which has only been captured by the Household survey. And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...’

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme

and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New

<https://twitter.com/i/status/1530322212309200896>

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions

be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar

proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

DON'T ALLOW THAT HAG TO INTERFERE WITH YOUR SOVEREIGNTY.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

The most intelligent, rational legal position:

Laurence Tribe, a Harvard law professor, argued that not holding Trump accountable would be equally harmful.

"I certainly recognize that indicting a former president would generate lots of social heat, perhaps violence," Tribe said. "But not indicting him would invite another violent insurrection."

Goldman: "Positioning, Sentiment, & Liquidity All Incredibly Depressed. Feels Like We Are Due For A Real Pullback" Some very concerning market observations from Goldman trader John Flood discussing the real rot below the market surface: Monday was the lightest volume session of the year with 9.32b shares trading across all US equity exchanges breaking previous low mark of 9.4b back on 7/11/22. YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 – 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

The simple answer: Fewer people working, but more people working more than one job, a rotation which picked up in earnest some time in March and which has only been captured by the Household survey. And since the Establishment survey is far slower to pick up on the nuances in employment composition, while the Household Survey has gone nowhere since March, the BLS data engineers have been busy goalseeking the Establishment Survey (perhaps with the occasional nudge from the White House especially now that the economy is in a technical recession) to make it appear as if the economy is growing strongly, when in reality all they are doing is applying the same erroneous seasonal adjustment factor that gave such a wrong perspective of the labor market in the aftermath of the covid pandemic (until it was all adjusted away a year ago). In other words, while the labor market is already cracking, it will take the BLS several months of veering away from reality before the government bureaucrats accept and admit what is truly taking place...’

That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."*

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

‘...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

*The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

DON'T ALLOW THAT HAG TO INTERFERE WITH YOUR SOVEREIGNTY.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

The most intelligent, rational legal position:

Laurence Tribe, a Harvard law professor, argued that not holding Trump accountable would be equally harmful.

"I certainly recognize that indicting a former president would generate lots of social heat, perhaps violence," Tribe said. "But not indicting him would invite another violent insurrection."

Goldman: "Positioning, Sentiment, & Liquidity All Incredibly Depressed. Feels Like We Are Due For A Real Pullback" Some very concerning market observations from Goldman trader John Flood discussing the real rot below the market surface: Monday was the lightest volume session of the year with 9.32b shares trading across all US equity exchanges breaking previous low mark of 9.4b back on 7/11/22. YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 – 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america. Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

‘...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.’

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia.”

“Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, “George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. 6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? \(Read More...\)”

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

SOME POSTED REACTIONS TO PELOSI TAIWAN VISIT:

the ho is in taiwan china bluffed....

DON'T ALLOW THAT HAG TO INTERFERE WITH YOUR SOVEREIGNTY.

These western bastards MUST be put in their place.

Let her land, then arrest her. That should wipe the smirk off of the Democrats, and Republican's faces.

Neocons are mad dogs

I'm sure they booked her a room with a broom closet.

Pelosi looks like a witch from hades. Set a couple dozen drones against her plane path and see if they collide. If successful call it a good day.

American gangsters do not stop their bullying, they must be stopped at all costs.

Hope the old wrinkle gets it. One says that wisdom grows with age but there seem to be exceptions. Mainly in the USA.

USA would very much like to start another proxy war without any risk for their people and military.

But will the Taiwanese prove foolish enough to sacrifice themselves by doing a favour to the puppet master?

Will she be handing out cookies?

I hope that China blows her plane out the sky.

really wish china follows through with shooting down this thing's plane

She looks like Vomit

Who said Medusah was a fantasy, one look at Pelosi and you will be vaporized or wish you had !

this is just being done by a power hungry very old senile hag, saying Look at Me!

Yes, I'll go with Pelosi is grandstanding to draw attention away from her personal corruption scandal.

witch

Crazy , corrupt Nancy is not worth a war in any way, shape, or form . This is insane!

This isn't going to end well...

The New Age Of Orwellianism <https://www.zerohedge.com/political/new-age-orwellianism> Remarkably, it is the same ideologues who are eager to change the well-accepted definitions of “recession” and “inflation” who remain perplexed as to what exactly a “woman” is.

The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. But many experts are warning that much worse is ahead, and we continue to get more evidence of this with each passing day..”

Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? In reality it is just a piece of petrified wood ... Another piece of evidence that shows again that Apollo program is indeed a fake and a fraud

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

A PIECE of moon rock given to an overseas politician by the United States is actually a lump of petrified wood, museum authorities revealed yesterday. The matchbox-sized exhibit (pictured) was originally given to Dutch prime minister Willem Drees in 1969 by then-US ambassador William Middendorf as a souvenir of the Apollo 11 moon landing. The Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam received the rock upon Drees's death in 1988.

"It's a ... pretty-much-worthless stone," said Frank Beunk, a geologist involved in the investigation.

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

“...The “fourth man,” Baer claims, was “more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames],” someone who spied for “the game” and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the “Holy Grail” of American counterintelligence “who knew how to play the game to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

<http://endoftheamericandream.com/what-would-a-global-nuclear-conflict-look-like/> I simply do not understand why so many on the left and so many on the right seem determined to push us into a military conflict with Russia. If we get into a shooting war with Russia, one side or the other will inevitably decide that they want to use their nuclear weapons before the other side conducts a surprise first strike of their own. But no matter who strikes first, the whole world would lose, because the vast majority of the global population would end up dead within a few years. This is why I have been so adamant about trying to find a peaceful solution to the crisis in Ukraine. If we have a nuclear conflict with Russia, the vast majority of you that are reading this article would die...

Unfortunately, nothing was done and now it is already happening. The creatures that inhabit our oceans are dying off. The insects are dying off. The birds are dying off. All around us there is death on a massive scale, but most people don't understand what is taking place. The U.S. economy contracted during the first quarter of 2022, and the Atlanta Fed’s GDPNow model is currently projecting -1.2 percent growth for the second quarter. Two quarters of negative growth in a row would mean that we are officially in a recession at this moment. But many experts are warning that much worse is ahead, and we continue to get more evidence of this with each passing day..”

Escobar: Russia & China Haven't Even Started To Ratchet Up The Pain Dial <https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/escobar-russia-china-havent-even-started-zto-ratchet-pain-dial> The “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet” part was at least formulated to be understood even by simpletons:

“Today we hear that they want to defeat us on the battlefield, well, what can I say, let them try. We have heard many times that the West wants to fight us to the last Ukrainian – this is a tragedy for the Ukrainian people. But it looks like it’s all coming to this. But everyone should know that, by and large, we haven’t really started anything yet.”

Fact. On Operation Z, Russia is using a fraction of its military potential, resources and state of the art weapons.

Then we come to the most probable path ahead in the war theater:

“We do not refuse peace negotiations, but those who refuse should know that the longer it drags, the more difficult it will be for them to negotiate with us.”

As in the pain dial will be ratcheted up, slowly but surely, on all fronts.

YTD daily avg for shares traded across all US equity exchanges sits @ 12.5b. Monday was also the lightest notional trading session of the year w/ $392b trading vs ytd daily avg of $638b. Our desk was a 3 on 1 – 10 scale in terms of overall activity levels. I am personally taken aback by how resilient mkt has been over the past few weeks. I don't see L/Os putting their ~$210b of cash to work. I am seeing them use pockets of strength to sell lower conviction more illiquid names in block form and raise even more cash.

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america. Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.
