This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

‘...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.’

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial.

It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance <https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." " ...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."*

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

‘...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.’

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america.

Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the “discovery” of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don’t live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I’ve seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?...”

The rub: ‘Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.’

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

RT The Pope weighs in (in pertinent part): ““What is before our eyes is a situation of world war, global interests, arms sales, and geopolitical appropriation ...The pontiff reiterated his concern, first made public in an interview last month, that NATO may have instigated Moscow’s military offensive against Kiev. He recalled a conversation with a head of state, whom he identified only as “a wise man,” a couple of months before the fighting began. “He told me that he was very concerned about the way NATO was acting. I asked him why, and he said, ‘They are barking at the gates of Russia, and they don’t understand that the Russians are imperial and they will not allow any foreign power to approach them.’””

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

Time to put 'law in america' in its proper perspective. Specifically, much as would be so in an exclusively maximum security prison environment for convicts of the most serious crimes, the notion of laws, rules of law is preposterous. Beyond the propaganda, obfuscation, etc., lies the greatest fraud, certainly of the 20th and 21st centuries; viz., america. Anthropologically speaking, america is unequivocally a total, unmitigated evolutionary disaster.

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

‘...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.’

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth

Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? (Read More...)”

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance <https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

The mentally ill mobster/criminal former president of the disunited states <https://twitter.com/i/status/1530322212309200896>

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

6-16-22 “If you are not alarmed by what is happening to our largest cities, you should check to see if you still have a pulse. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance <https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

CONFIDENCE SINKS TO HISTORIC LOW

<https://news.gallup.com/poll/394103/confidence-supreme-court-sinks-historic-low.aspx>]

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."*

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. Once upon a time, the beautiful new cities that our forefathers constructed were the envy of the entire planet, but now many of them have degenerated into crime-infested hellholes that are absolutely teeming with violent predators. Shoplifting has essentially become a national pastime, open air drug markets operate freely right under the noses of indifferent authorities, and addicts pull down their pants and take a dump whenever and wherever they feel like doing so. Thanks to record levels of illegal immigration, gang membership is absolutely exploding, and human trafficking has reached truly frightening levels. Of course our steadily thinning police forces are overwhelmed at this point. In fact, police in Seattle are stretched so thin that they often are not able “to take reports from rape victims”. And if you are the victim of a non-violent crime in Seattle, good luck ever getting a police officer to pay attention to your case. From coast to coast, communities are descending into a state of utter lawlessness. So if things are this bad already, what will conditions be like when things really start hitting the fan? Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse.

Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

I inserted this here to emphasize what incompetent (I looked in on one of his cases/trial-he was pathetic), corrupt guinea alito is guilty of; people are in prison for far less (disappeared probative documents twice, quid pro quo appointments-3rd cir., sct.). Criminal america's jurisprudence is a cruel joke!

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

Fallen corrupt criminal america is so tragically pathetic!

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge

participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

Typical corrupt jersey guinea alito:'...

'...informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located.

Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989.'

WELCOME TO AMERICA AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin "...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."

“Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it”

incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or

as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

This goes back to George Kennan and, in the 1990s, Reagan's ambassador Jack Matlock, including the current director of the CIA; in fact, just everybody who knows anything has been warning Washington that it is reckless and provocative to ignore Russia's very clear and explicit red lines. That goes way before (Vladimir) Putin, it has nothing to do with him; (Mikhail) Gorbachev, all said the same thing. Ukraine and Georgia cannot join NATO, this is the geostrategic heartland of Russia."*

"Though various US administrations acknowledged and, to some extent, respected the Russian red lines, the Bill Clinton Administration did not. According to Chomsky, "George H. W. Bush ... made an explicit promise to Gorbachev that NATO would not expand beyond East Germany, perfectly explicit. You can look up the documents. It's very clear. Bush lived up to it. But when Clinton came along, he started violating it"

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

The rub: 'Aristotle in book 5 of his Politics distinguishes between democracy and ochlocracy, which latter essentially means rule by those incapable of ruling even themselves.'

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

CONFIDENCE SINKS TO HISTORIC LOW

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or

as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or

as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance <https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

to win.” I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA’s abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing

in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." " ...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance <https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man’s ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian “experts” who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the “fourth man” to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence.”

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." " ...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

[True, of course. There’s no denying, without exception, american corruption, incompetence throughout all agencies, branches of government; literally bringing the nation down from within.]
CIA man's ‘tell-all’ book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) “proceeding” includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

"...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants..." "...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989..."

Albert L. PEIA, Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES of America, et al., Defendants.

“...The facts are taken as alleged in the complaint^[1]. Plaintiff alleges a broad-ranging conspiracy involving the United States of America, the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, various U.S. District Court Judges, various U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Donald Trump, the FBI, and fifteen John Doe defendants...” “...In 1987, Plaintiff commenced an action alleging civil RICO violations in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey to recover money owed to him by a Mr. Dilena. The case was assigned to District Judge Maryanne Trump Barry^[2]. The thrust of his claim was that Mr. Dilena diverted funds owed to Plaintiff and comingled them with illicit drug profits that were then laundered through the Trump casinos. Contemporaneous to the 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff claims that he informed Assistant U.S. Attorney Jonathan Lacey of the RICO scheme and provided him with documents to support his theory. After no answer from Mr. Lacey for several months, Plaintiff learned Mr. Lacey was no longer with the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be found. Plaintiff delivered another package of the same documents several months later to U.S. Attorney Sam Alito.^[3] After no contact for several months Plaintiff learned that Mr. Alito was no longer working in the U.S. Attorney's office and that his documents could not be located. Plaintiff then attempted to tell his story to agents of the FBI, but they were not receptive. As a result of deliberately slow proceedings in his 1987 RICO action, Plaintiff filed for (Chapter 11) bankruptcy in New Jersey in 1988. Later in 1988, he sought to recuse Judge Barry because she was the sister of Donald Trump, owner of the Trump Casinos involved in the RICO scheme. At this time Plaintiff met with then U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee Hugh Leonard to convince him to join Plaintiff's motion to recuse. Mr. Leonard declined. The 1987 RICO action was dismissed in 1989...”

28 U.S. CODE § 455 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE, JUDGE, OR MAGISTRATE JUDGE

(a) Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He shall also disqualify himself in the following circumstances:

(1) Where he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(4) He knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(5) He or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) Is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) Is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(iii) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(c) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(d) For the purposes of this section the following words or phrases shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "proceeding" includes pretrial, trial, appellate review, or other stages of litigation;

(2) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

(3) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(4) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, adviser, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) Ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(e) No justice, judge, or magistrate judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any justice, judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her, that he or she individually or as a fiduciary, or his or her spouse or minor child residing in his or her household, has a financial interest in a party (other than an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome), disqualification is not required if the justice, judge, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, spouse or minor child, as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification.

What Would A Global Nuclear Conflict Look Like?

NANCY PELOSI FINALLY LOSES SOME MONEY BY Sovereign Man

Here's...the most ridiculous stories from around the world:

... "FORGET ELON MUSK. HUNTER BIDEN MUST CLEARLY BE THE GREATEST BUSINESSMAN OF ALL TIME.

Yesterday, NBC News released an analysis of Hunter Biden's hard drive, showing that the Big Guy's son earned a whopping $11 million over the past few years from Ukrainian and Chinese firms with which he did business. It's not clear exactly what Hunter, now a famous artist (what a Renaissance Man!), did to earn such a prodigious sum. Don't worry, though. President Biden is "sure his son did not break the law". Just like he was sure the Taliban would not recapture Afghanistan.

NANCY PELOSI FINALLY LOSES SOME MONEY

Nancy Pelosi's investment acumen is the stuff of legends, perhaps only rivaled by Hunter Biden's business acumen. For years, the US Speaker of the House raked in millions upon millions of dollars from conveniently well-timed stock and options trades— from which she has become one of the wealthiest women in the world. Not bad for a gal who has been in politics for her entire life. She truly embodies the American Dream!"...

ZEROHEDGE Biden Nominates Michael Barr For Top Fed Banking

Eric Holder spent six years as attorney general, and failed to prosecute banks for their criminal wrongdoing or put any bank executives behind bars. Now, he's set to rejoin his old white-collar criminal defense firm, making millions each year helping Wall Street bankers avoid criminal consequences. Worse, it was just reported that the firm, Covington & Burling, has kept an empty 11th floor corner office for Holder awaiting his return. Combined with Holder's purchase a year ago of a $1.5 million condo just 300 feet from his new office raises serious questions about how long Holder knew he would be getting a major payday from his old firm even while it continued to represent companies under Department of Justice investigation. If the firm and Holder agreed on a future job offer, that alone could violate criminal laws. ..."] NY Times Finds Obama's "Most Precise Air Campaign In History" Killed Thousands Of Civilians Previously hidden Pentagon documents show thousands of civilian deaths in Iraq & Syria, including children.

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

<https://www.rt.com/russia/556825-cia-fourth-man-soviet/> 13 Jun, 2022

CIA man's 'tell-all' book reveals more about internal agency incompetence than Russian malfeasance

"...The "fourth man," Baer claims, was "more senior and better placed than [Aldrich Ames]," someone who spied for "the game" and not money, and who was never caught, let alone charged, with spying – the "Holy Grail" of American counterintelligence "who knew how to play the game to win." I remain unconvinced. I look at the CIA's abysmal track record in post-Soviet Russia, and I see an agency trapped by mediocrity and a lack of imagination, a Russia Department staffed by second-tier players (the first team was off fighting terrorists) and guided by erstwhile post-Soviet Russian "experts" who comprehended the rise of Vladimir Putin even less than they understood post-Soviet Russia as a whole, and who were more than willing to allow the fiction of the "fourth man" to be promulgated in order to absolve them of their utter incompetence."

He recalled a conversation with a head of state, whom he identified only as “a wise man,” a couple of months before the fighting began. “He told me that he was very concerned about the way NATO was acting. I asked him why, and he said, ‘They are barking at the gates of Russia, and they don't understand that the Russians are imperial and they will not allow any foreign power to approach them.’”*

Ann Coulter@AnnCoulter

“The more I think about it, this leak of a supreme court draft really is pretty egregious. It must immediately be investigated by the FBI, or alternatively, by an actual law enforcement agency.”

<https://gavinnewsom.com/>

Here is the truth:

I find it the height of perversity that those celebrating a potential Supreme Court ruling overturning Roe v. Wade call themselves pro-life.

- Many of those celebrating the draft opinion oppose funding for prenatal care.
- Many of those celebrating oppose paid family leave.
- Many of those celebrating tried to take away health care under the Affordable Care Act.
- Many of those celebrating oppose a Build Back Better agenda that would make pre-K universal and expand support for child care.
- These people don't even believe in climate science, and that is to say NOTHING of their handling of the pandemic.

These people aren't pro-life. They are pro-birth. And then you are on your own.

So this November we have to beat them. Every far-right radical running for office here in California. And we also have to pass a constitutional amendment protecting the right to access an abortion here in California.

Lawrence Paul Anderson, 42, confessed to breaking into 41-year-old Andrea Lynn Blankenship's home in Chickasha, Oklahoma, on Feb. 12 by breaking down her back door with his shoulder. He then allegedly confessed to killing her and cutting out her heart, taking it across the street to his aunt and uncle's home and sauteing it with potatoes. He then tried to force them to eat it to "release the demons" before he fatally attacked his uncle and nearly killed his aunt. Robin Brown Guist HOW ABOUT THIS: Flamzy Mapo

Have a history teacher explain this if they can.

Abraham Lincoln was elected to Congress in 1846.

John F. Kennedy was elected to Congress in 1946.

Abraham Lincoln was elected President in 1860.

John F. Kennedy was elected President in 1960.

Both were particularly concerned with civil rights.

Both wives lost a child while living in the White House.

Both Presidents were shot on a Friday.

Both Presidents were shot in the head.

Now it gets really weird.

Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy.

Kennedy's Secretary was named Lincoln.

Both were assassinated by Southerners.

Both were succeeded by Southerners named Johnson.

Andrew Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln, was born in 1808.

Lyndon Johnson, who succeeded Kennedy, was born in 1908.

John Wilkes Booth, who assassinated Lincoln, was born in 1839.

Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated Kennedy, was born in 1939.

Both assassins were known by their three names.

Both names are composed of fifteen letters.

Now hang on to your seat.

Lincoln was shot at the theater named "Ford."

Kennedy was shot in a car called "Lincoln" made by "Ford."

Booth and Oswald were assassinated before their trials.

And here's the "kicker":

A week before Lincoln was shot, he was in Monroe, Maryland.

A week before Kennedy was shot, he was with Marilyn Monroe.

AND.....:

Lincoln was shot in a theater and the assassin ran to a warehouse...

Kennedy was shot from a warehouse and the assassin ran to a theater...

I saw this had to share just in case anyone did not know.

Susan Edelman Blank WELCOME TO AMERICA

AMERICA'S MAGICAL THINKING Elizabeth Cronise McLaughlin

"...But it's not just that about which we are in denial. It's also about the death of American mythology. We've been lied to so long in America it's hard sometimes to know truth from fiction. I was born in 1971, and I was raised with history lessons in school that included things like Manifest Destiny (used to justify indigenous genocide, land theft, and the use of Chinese slave labor to build railroads), the "discovery" of America by Columbus (to justify violent colonialism), and the end of the enslavement of Black Americans as a distant historical event (as though the repercussions of it don't live on to this day given that slavery was the foundation of American capitalism and white supremacy). Even as recently as the past few years, many of us have fallen for the lie that this is a real democracy*. Democracy, though, requires real representation and rule by the people, under the theory that the people have the right to rule. Democracy is supposed to be in direct opposition to autocracy, where power of the few (whether monarchs or oligarchs) is lorded over the many through extreme wealth disparity, abuse of power, and control of the many to benefit those in power. I ask you: which one sounds like more like America today? As but one example, over the past few days I've seen polling that indicates that more than 88% of Americans favor background checks on gun sales, and more than 67% favor an assault weapons ban. The likelihood that any such legislation will pass, though, is literally nil absent reform of the filibuster, the end to which lies in the hands of a tiny, tiny number of people. Some of us have known for a long time that America was a lie. Some of us are just waking up to it. How do you grieve the promise of a nation that never was?..."
