

Introduction

A television was showing a late-night talk show called the "Bob Owen Show".

Bob: Thank you for tuning in, I am Bob Owen and this is the Bob Owen show. For those who are just tuning in, our topic for tonight is "Do our planets actually have feelings?". It has been an interesting conversation and we have heard many points of views from believers and skeptics. I have with me a very special guest tonight. He is one of the highest officials from our beloved Temple of Nature on Unison Continent. High Priest Quan Lee.

The crowd applauded and cheered as High Priest Lee waved at them and sat down.

Bob: Thank you so much for being here.

Lee: Thanks for having me Bob.

Bob: Tonight, you have heard many points of views from our topic of discussion. With you being from the Temple of Nature, what kind of insight can you shed here?

Lee: It has been interesting indeed. Some people had some astounding points. With me being the High Priest of the Temple, I can assure you our planets do have feelings and it has been communicating them to us. We're just too blind to see it.

Bob: What kind of feelings do you think our planet have towards us?

Lee: Honestly Bob, our planet is fed up with us.

Bob: Why do you say that?

Lee: Just think of it. Every time a natural disaster happens that is our planet displaying its emotions upon us. You ever notice that every time a war starts, or something tragic happens, a natural disaster takes place? Our planet was doing great before mankind settled on this beautiful planet 100,000 years ago. Same with Earth, this planet is no different and humans have been treating it like crap. Just like they do on Earth.

Bob: So, you are saying Mother Nature would kill thousands of people just because she is mad at us. That is cruel don't you think?

Lee: Yes, Mother Nature can be cruel, but not as cruel as human nature. Have you watched nature at its finest? The way the animals interact in their own habitat is amazing. You will notice the only time they kill is if they are hungry or if personal territory is invaded. Of course, humans are the same, but humans kill animals for sport which is causing a lot of species to become endangered. We kill each other over race, political disagreements, sex, religion, social status, gangs, sexual preference, etc. The list goes on and on. We pollute the air, land, and water. There are wars going on where thousands of innocent people are having their lives ruined and even losing their lives because two country leaders can't settle disagreements between themselves. There is no change taken place, so yes, Mother Nature and the planet is fed up. You never know they could be plotting against us right now.

CHAPTER 1: Ginia

OUTSIDE THE PLANET GINIA.

Ginia is basically a larger version of Earth but has a thick ring around it like Saturn. There is a massive space station that orbits the planet called The Outer World Observation Center (OWOC). This space station provides dozens of important functions for the planet and the galaxy. It is a checkpoint for intergalactic travel, a docking and rest area for space ships traveling between planets, and most importantly it monitors a lot of the planet's activity such as weather, the ozone content, surveillance, and more. The space station looks like a giant metallic egg with 3 large metallic rings connected to it.

Captain Leroy Jenkins, a suave looking African American male, was summoned to the observation headquarters.

Leroy: Adam, Lloyd, what's the status of everything?

Adam: Well, there is a couple of irregularities that we called you in for.

Leroy: What's going on?

Lloyd: We have seen temperature fluctuations in the atmosphere and on land.

They walked to a screen that showed a display of Ginia on it.

Adam: One of the main issues is the ozone over Industry City has decreased by 50 percent since yesterday.

Leroy: 50 percent in just 24 hours. How is that possible? I know all the pollution in the area has been slowly eating the ozone for a while, but how could it have decreased that much in such a short period of time?

Adam: We are in the process of determining that. It's a major concern because it's the time of year where Ginia is closest to the sun and no ozone means no heat barrier. The people there could be cooked alive if the ozone in that area disappears.

Leroy: I will issue the warning out to them.

Lloyd: Besides the temperature fluctuations, it looks like we're reading heat spikes in the areas volcanoes are located. They have been reporting mini tremors all around the globe as well.

Leroy: All volcanoes, even Mt. Finine?

Lloyd: Yes sir.

Adam: The last thing we have, we picked something up on the sound radar earlier. It could be nothing, but we just want you to hear it and get your take on it.

Leroy: Let's hear it.

They walked to the Sonic Sound room. Leroy put on the headphones and Adam played the sound. "Pretty Young Thing" by Michael Jackson was playing. Leroy started bobbing his head to the song.

Leroy: I am pretty sure Michael Jackson was not what you wanted me to hear.

Adam: No sir, sorry about that.

Adam played the right sound. It sounds like electrical humming, rain, and a female crying.

Leroy: It sounds like someone is crying. Where did this come from?

Adam: It was facing the planet when we picked it up.

Lloyd: We were thinking that we probably had it amplified too much and picked up some women crying. But the coordinates that we picked up the sound is in the Sand Ocean of Monochello Continent.

Leroy: Who knows, we may have just recorded our own planet crying. We will have to confirm that. I will send this to the Temple of Nature. They will know.

ON THE PLANET GINIA.

UNISON CONTINENT

50 miles east of Unison City, there is a huge military base school, and sanctuary called Unison District. A tall, handsome, African American young man named Markus Avery, was sleeping. He was suddenly woken up when his phone started ringing and someone was banging on his door.

Markus: (to himself) You got to be kidding me.

He answered his phone first and it was his friend Josh.

Markus: (on the phone) What the hell do you want Josh?

Josh: Yo, hurry up and answer your door.

Markus hung up his phone and then opened the door for Josh. Josh is a tall, skinny, Hispanic young man.

Josh: We are being summoned my brother.

Markus: By who?

Josh: Instructor Natalie. She wants us to meet up with the team at the Temple of Nature.

Markus: Great, a temple mission.

Josh: Those are the best one's man.

Markus: You must have forgotten what happened the last mission.

Josh: No, I didn't forget. Unfortunate events led to you getting violated by cannibalistic gnomes. It was funny as hell.

Markus: That's not even fair man.

Josh: Life isn't fair, and you know I will never let you forget that.

Markus: So, we meet up at the Temple. When does she want us there?

Josh: 1700 hours.

Markus: Sounds good. I got time to take care of a few things before I go.

Markus's dorm room looked like a luxury 1-bedroom apartment. He had a lot of Nature type pictures and paintings hanging on his wall. Josh picked up a picture of their squad.

Josh: It's crazy how we started off with 20 people and now down to 7.

Markus: That damn war with Octo District cost us a lot.

Josh: Thank God, it's over now.

Markus: Yeah, it still could have been avoided in my opinion. We had to intervene with a civil war that had nothing to do with us.

Josh: That may be true, but we still saved a lot of people.

Markus: Yeah, we did. I am going to get ready. I'll see you at the Temple.

Josh: Okay. I gotta gas up my Airship anyway.

Markus and Josh gave their secret handshake and then Josh left.

ON RIED CONTINENT.

Industry City is a large industrial city full of factories. This is the planet's most polluted city due to the smog, car exhaust, and factory smoke. There was a massive heat wave over the city. Caitlyn, a 10-year-old Caucasian girl, was walking home. She was drenched in sweat. She walked into the house and her granddad was watching the news.

The reporter was standing in the street of downtown.

Reporter: Today has reached record breaking heat in Industry City. Residents have been warned to wear their Extreme Sun Block because the temperature has reached 150 degrees. Ladies and Gentlemen this is a dangerous situation as many have already either died or been hospitalized due to heat stroke. The Governor has issued a mandatory evacuation since the heat is predicted to rise.

Grandad changed the channel to another news report.

Reporter 2: A huge battle has erupted in the village of Gripton on Monochello Continent. Local rebels have engaged in a gunfight with the Octo District soldiers resulting in about 60 people losing their lives including women and children.

Grandad: Wow what is going on with our world?

Caitlyn walked inside.

Caitlyn: Grandad I'm home.

Grandad: Thank God. I got worried for a minute. They're evacuating the city. I got you a plane ticket to Unison Continent so you can stay at the Temple of Nature. I want you to go get packed because it leaves in 2 hours.

Caitlyn: No problem. I will be ready in 10 minutes.

Caitlyn ran upstairs and packed her clothes. She pulled out a necklace that had a pink diamond as its pendant. The pink diamond was glowing.

Caitlyn: (to herself) I never seen it do that before.

Grandad: HURRY UP SO WE CAN GET THE HELL OUT OF HERE!

Caitlyn: I'M COMING!

MONOCHELLO CONTINENT

At the Octo District, Headmaster Johnson was sitting at his desk watching the news. General Brown walked in.

Brown: Headmaster Johnson.

Johnson: General Brown, how long have you been working for me?

Brown: About 4 years now.

Johnson: Yes, and in these 2 years have I ever had an "Open Door" policy where you can just come in whenever you please.

Brown: (confused) No sir.

Johnson: So, let's start this over shall we.

General Brown walked out the office and closed the door. He started giving Headmaster Johnson the middle finger on the other side of the door before he started knocking.

Johnson: That's better. Come in.

General Brown walked in.

Johnson: Did you see the news recently? These rebels are growing in numbers and is posing an actual threat to us. Unison District gave them too much hope.

Brown: Well, on a good note, our Search Team found that Yellow Diamond you sent them to find.

Johnson: Where did they find it?

Brown: In the middle of the Sand Ocean. Many of them lost their lives to get that for you Headmaster.

Johnson: Their deaths won't be in vain.

Brown: Sir, you do know these are Idacast Diamonds. They rightfully belong where they are or at the Temple. Removing them from their place could be a devastating blow to the planet.

Johnson: Nothing has happened yet. Now let's go find the other ones. We will be rich beyond our wildest dreams and can buy this planet or any planet we want.

Brown: With all due respect, there are other treasures out there that will make you rich.

Johnson: Are you doubting my plans? It's bad enough I had to surrender to Unison District. Once we make the "Peace Speech" tomorrow at the World Conference, we will collect all the diamonds and start the process.

ON AVALINE CONTINENT.

Avaline Continent is the Arctic of Ginia. It is always covered in snow. They will get at least 2 months of good spring weather before it becomes come cold again. On Mt. Glacius, a couple, Amy and Mike, were hiking. There was a blizzard making the hike difficult. They made it to a secret cave.

Amy: Hey Mike, look at this.

Mike: It's beautiful in here.

The cave walls were made of crystal clear ice crystals. The stalagmite and stalactites were also crystal clear. It looked as if they were in a cave made of glass. Mike and Amy continued to explore the cave. They made to huge room with a blue, basketball sized diamond floating in the middle of the room.

Mike: Oh my God. Is this one of the Idacast Diamonds the Temple was talking about?

Amy: It looks like it.

In the background, a giant, orange, lizard like eye was watching them.

Mike: We need to inform the Temple that we found one of the diamonds.

Amy: Don't touch it babe. Remember there is always some Guardian that protects these diamonds.

They walked out the cave and the giant eye that was watching them closed.

CHAPTER 2: Hurricane Heather

Over Ried Continent, Caitlyn was on the plane headed to Unison Continent. She was watching the Bob Owen show. It was the segment with High Priest Lee. Caitlyn's necklace started glowing again. The flight attendants were handing out food. Suddenly, the plane shook violently. The flight captains turned on the seat belt signs.

Pilot: Ladies and Gentlemen, if I could please have you return to your seats and fasten your seat belts. It's going to be a bumpy ride.

In the cockpit, the pilots were fastening their seat belts.

Pilot: The weather service said that there are storms forming within seconds in the area that we are passing thru.

Co-Pilot: Within seconds?

Pilot: Yes, as in it is taking seconds for thunderstorms to form.

Storm clouds started quickly forming. The clouds were very dark gray and some were pitch black. The turbulence made the plane shake violently. A lot of people were holding on for life, some were praying, crying, and a couple people were having fun with it. Caitlyn looked out the window and saw nothing but constant lightning flashes illuminating the thunder clouds.

Co-Pilot: What should we do?

Pilot: Increase the speed and get out this area.

The pilots made the plane go faster. The turbulence stopped and they were finally in the clear.

Pilot: Well, you don't see that every day.

AT RIED DISTRICT.

Jolin, a beautiful Asian young lady, was training her martial arts in the gym. Her friend, Lalaine, a Hispanic young lady, walked in in uniform.

Lalaine: Jolin, guess what?

Jolin: What's up Lalaine?

Lalaine: Guess.

Jolin: You're pregnant?

Lalaine: NO!

Jolin: You're going to try to get pregnant?

Lalaine: No. Okay stop guessing.

Jolin: Then what is it?

Lalaine: I passed the Instructor's Test this morning and they are promoting me to Instructor also. They're transferring me to the Unison District today just like you.

Jolin: (excited) Yes, so both of us are going to Unison District. Thank God, I thought I was going to be there all alone.

Lalaine: Yup. Why are you in here training? Shouldn't you be getting packed? The flight leaves in like 2 hours.

They heard a loud clap of thunder outside so they ran to the hallway. A lot of people were gathered looking out the window. It was downpouring.

Lalaine: I thought was wasn't supposed to get rain today.

Jolin: Well hopefully they don't cancel the flight because of the weather or else we won't be leaving until tonight.

ON TANAMO CONTINENT

There was a tour group taking a tour through the jungle.

Tour Guide: As you can see, our jungle is the world's most luxurious jungles on the planet.

Tourist 1: What about the reputation of it being the planet's most dangerous jungle.

Tour Guide: It just depends on what part of the jungle you are in. There are a lot of dangerous creature lurking around, along with poisonous plants and insects. You must know what part of the jungle they reside in. Our tour path does not cross into any hostile territory. Now ladies and gentlemen, once we get up this hill, you will see the most spectacular view of Mt. Finine.

They made it up the hill and the crowd was amazed by the view of Mt. Finine. Mt. Finine is a dead super volcano the size of Mt. Everest. The tourist got out the bus and started taking pictures.

Tour Guide: Mt. Finine is the world's largest super volcano. Its last eruption was about 300,000 years ago; in which it was an extinction level event.

Tourist 2: Is it dead?

Tour Guide: Yes, it is. We don't have to worry about an eruption in our lifetime.

A mini tremor shook the ground. The tourist and tour guide looked around in confusion. The tour guide looked at the base of the volcano and saw there was steam coming from it. Deeper into the jungle, two forest rangers were walking.

Forest Ranger 1: Another scenario, what if a huge bear pops out of nowhere and just started beating the shit out of you. Not even eating you, just beating you to a pulp.

Forest Ranger 2: Where the hell do you come up with these things man?

Forest Ranger 1: I don't know, they just pop up.

Forest Ranger 2 stopped.

Forest Ranger 1: What's wrong?

Forest Ranger2: Just listen.

Forest Ranger 1: I don't hear anything.

Forest Ranger 2: Exactly. The jungle isn't silent like this. We would hear something. Birds, insects, animals running around, it's too damn quiet.

Forest Ranger 1: Wow, I wonder what is going on.

UNISON CONTINENT

In the cafeteria, Markus and Josh was getting food from the buffet.

Markus: What type of mission do you think it is?

Josh: I'm betting it is either a search and rescue, or a treasure hunt?

Markus: You can't bet on both; it must be only one thing you're betting on.

Josh: Fine, I bet it's a treasure hunt.

Markus: And I bet it is a search and rescue

Josh: How much?

Markus: 20 dollars.

Josh: You're on.

They sat down and the news was on. It was a weather report.

Josh: HOLY SHIT LOOK AT THE SIZE OF THAT STORM!

Markus: TURN UP THE T.V.

Someone turned up the T.V.

Reporter on T.V.: This massive storm developed in just an hour. Storms with this intensity takes about 2 days to get to a category 5 storm. Hurricane Heather is now headed towards the northeast area of Monochello Continent. Everyone on Fort City, and all towns and villages are ordered to evacuate the area immediately before the storm hits.

While they we're watching the news, a group of students were talking loud. Markus threw his biscuit at them.

Markus: HEY, shut up, we are trying to watch this because we're the ones that will have to do search and rescue when shit hit the fan.

2 Security Guards walked up to Markus and Josh.

Guard: The Headmaster would like to speak with you in his office. Could you please follow us?

Markus and Josh looked at each other in confusion. As they were walking to the office, they were trying to figure out why they were being called.

Josh: Markus, what you do this time?

Markus: I didn't do anything, what did you do?

Josh: Nothing.

Markus: Did you sleep with his sister again?

Josh: No. Did you kill another one of his dogs?

Markus: No, and the last dog I killed of his was by accident.

Josh: Yeah right.

Markus: Should we just make a run for it and say these guys never came to us?

Josh: We'd have to head straight for the temple.

Markus: Let's go then.

Markus and Josh started running and the guards chased them.

OUTSIDE GINIA.

In O.W.O.C, Captain Jenkins walked in the headquarters and met up with Adam and Lloyd.

Jenkins: It's been 3 hours and we got a category 5 hurricane that appeared out of nowhere in Ried Continent. How the hell did that happen? You think it has anything to do with the rising heat due to the ozone.

Adam: It's hard to say, but we have a big issue with the hurricane. Besides the winds being clocked at 250 mph and it is producing a shit ton of tornadoes, you need to look at one thing that makes this catastrophic.

Lloyd pulled up a satellite of the hurricane.

Jenkins: It's already completely out of Ried Continent and head towards Monochello Continent.

Lloyd: You see the areas that are neon green?

Jenkins: Yes, there's a lot of them.

Adam: The hurricane formed over the most polluted area of Ried Continent. Those green spots are areas of highly concentrated hydrofluoric and sulfuric acid.

Jenkins: How do we know that?

Lloyd: There are a lot of reports stating the rain was eating the metal before communications cut off.

Jenkins: Hopefully a lot of people evacuate like they were told.

They looked out the window to view the storm on Ginia.

Jenkins: They called a World Conference, so I must get to Ginia. It shouldn't last long. You two hold down the fort while I am gone.

Adam: No problem Captain.

Jenkins: Anything else happens let me know so I can let the World Leaders know.

BACK ON GINIA

In the middle of the ocean between Ried Continent and Monochello Continent. A group of hurricane hunters were flying towards the hurricane in a huge plane. There were 2 pilots and 3 meteorologists inside the plane.

Pilot 1: We will be approaching the storm in 1 minute.

The plane looked like it was headed into a huge cloud wall. The clouds were pitch black with lightning flashing constantly. As the plane made it to the storm, the turbulence became heavy.

M1: Winds are being clocked at 250 miles per hour.

M2: Wow.

Pilot: I can't see anything in front.

It looked like they were driving at night with no lights on. The lightning illuminated the clouds and rain around them. Then they made it to an area where the clouds turned neon green.

Pilot: Hey guys look at this.

The glass and metal of the plane started dissolving instantly.

Pilot: What the hell is going on?

They entered an area of acid rain. The pilots and meteorologist on the plane were killed instantly when the downpour of acid rain dissolved their flesh. The plane crashed near a large group of cargo ships that were getting pummeled by the storm. Large 100 feet tall waves and high wind gusts were tossing all the crates in the ocean. There were also about 20 water spouts that looked like F5 tornadoes, tossing around the ships and crates.

About 5 miles from the group, another large cargo ship was handling the storm by itself. The captain was on the main deck.

Captain: This is bullshit. They said it was supposed to be clear skies all the way. So why are we in a hurricane? They didn't even warn us.

The rain stopped as they entered a neon green area. When the rain returned, it started eating the metal within seconds. The metal all around them quickly dissolved and they were exposed to the rain. The crew screamed in agony as the rain dissolved their flesh. Then a huge waterspout tossed the ship.

CHAPTER 3: The World Conference 1

UNISON CONTINENT

At the Unison City Conference Center. All the Presidents of each continent, all head scientist, all Headmasters of each District, and all the heads of O.W.O.C., including Captain Jenkins attended. The world President, Mack Devoy, was in the center.

Mack: Good Morning ladies and Gentlemen, it appears that we have a few issues going on around the planet that needs to be addressed. First off, let's start with Hurricane Heather. Can I have meteorologist Nate Benson to update us.

Nate Benson stepped to his podium.

Nate: Thank you Mack Devoy. As you know Hurricane Heather formed over Reid Continent in most polluted area. Causing the storm to have spots of acidic rain. The cause on why this storm formed so fast is still being analyzed. Nothing has ever happened like this and we were totally unprepared. Right now, the storm is in the middle of the Ried Ocean and is expected to make landfall on Northeast Monochello Continent. Fort City, and many of the towns and villages are doing a good job on making sure everyone is evacuated before the storm hits. The wind is now being clocked at 300 miles per hour. We had to send in a bunch of Photo Probes to get information because a lost a team in the storm earlier today. We will continue to give updates as this storm continues its path.

Mack: Thank you Nate. Now can I have Geologists Bryson Jones to update us?

Bryson Jones stepped to his podium.

Bryson: Thank you Mack Devoy. There has been reports all around the planet of mini quakes shaking cities, towns, and villages. The quakes seem to be getting stronger and more frequent as well. This has also taken us by surprise and we have everyone we can looking for answers on what could be causing this. What makes this event special is the fact that we have been seeing activity coming from all volcanoes around the world, including the dead and dormant ones, especially Mt. Finine. Ladies and Gentlemen, I don't have to tell you why we need to keep an eye on these volcanoes. We have many members of my team analyzing the volcanoes to see if an eruption is possible. We will keep you informed as well. Thank you.

Mack: Thank you Bryson. May I have Captain Leroy Jenkins of the Outer World Observation Center?

Jenkins walks to his podium.

Jenkins: Thank you Mack Devoy. We have seen major fluctuations in the air temperature and the core temperature as well since this morning. The ozone over Industry City is now 70 percent gone which is causing the huge heat wave over the area. As far as if that was a factor for the hurricane is yet to be determined. This took us by surprise also and we don't have many answers as well. I'm sorry. We just don't know why our planet is acting crazy right now.

Mack: We will hold another conference tomorrow night and I expect answers.

Mack got up and walked off with his bodyguards. Headmaster Johnson was looking at Unison District Headmaster Sean Peeples.

Johnson: Look at that bastard. Yeah, his army may be better than mine but once we get those diamonds, he will be on his knees begging for me to accept his surrender and I will make him suffer.

Headmaster Peeples was with General Larus.

Peeples: Why is that frigging idiot staring over here?

Larus: He's still bitter about the surrender. Especially since he will have to announce the peace treaty at the conference in Monochello City tomorrow.

Peeples: Well, he should have thought about that before he killed many innocent people on a power trip. Guys like him don't deserve to be headmaster of any district. Guys like him don't deserve to be a leader of anything. We did a good thing interfering with his civil war. So, if he's bitter he can bring his punk ass over and I'll whoop his ass personally again.

Larus: (Chuckles) that would be funny.

CHAPTER 4: THE TEMPLE OF NATURE

Markus and Josh met up with the rest of their team at the river bank in front of the temple. Joe, Mya, Dennis, Joel, and Kersi were waiting. Joel was petting a huge tarantula, Joe was skipping rocks in the river, Mya was brushing Kersi's hair, and Dennis was putting together his gun. Markus and Josh walked up

Markus: What's up Team?

Joel: You see this huge spider I found by the river?

Josh: And yet you're petting it and you don't know if it's poisonous or not.

Joel: It hasn't bit me yet.

Josh: And what's your back up plan if it bites you.

Joel: It won't bite me.

Joel started screaming.

Joel: OH MY GOD IT BIT MEEEEEE!

Joel took off running to the temple as the others watched him.

Mya: What the hell just happened?

Markus: If I heard him correctly, he got bit by the spider.

Mya saw the spider and shot it 3 times.

Mya: He won't be biting us.

Joe: Joel is always getting bit by something.

Dennis: And he keeps surviving the bites.

Josh went to the spider.

Josh: Mya, why the hell did you shoot the spider in its natural habitat?

Mya: I panicked.

Markus: Ohhhhh, especially on Temple grounds.

Mya: They won't know, unless one of you is going to be a little snitch and tell on me.

Markus: They will know. They always know stuff like that.

Mya: We will see about that.

Kersi: I agree. High Priest Lee or High Priestess Blue always have someone or something watching. Remember when Markus killed that scorpion that was on his pant leg.

Markus: Shut up about that Kersi.

Kersi: I'm just saying. They found out because a bird was watching and reported it.

Josh: So, in a way, if a bird was watching you, it will be the little snitch Mya.

Mya: I don't see no birds around here right now.

Josh: There a lot of trees out here for them to hide in Mya.

Instructor Natalie came up.

Natalie: Are you guys fighting again?

All: no.

Kersi: We was just clearing up misunderstandings.

Natalie: We have 10 minutes to get to the briefing room, so let's get going.

THE BRIEFING ROOM INSIDE THE TEMPLE.

High Priest Lee and High Priestess Blue was waiting for the team. The team made it to the briefing room. There was a huge circular table in the middle with a holographic image of Ginia in the middle.

Blue: Hello team.

All: Hi High Priestess Blue.

They all sat down around the table.

Lee: So, I am sure you have seen the news on the events going on around the world. Hurricane Heather, the heat wave in Industry City, and the mini quakes all around the world.

Joe: Yeah, that just started happening out of nowhere.

Joel came in and had a bandage on his arm.

Joel: I had to get a poison shot.

Blue: Glad you could make it.

Joel sat down and Mya whispered to him.

Mya: I killed your spider.

Joel: (outraged) WHAT!?

His outburst interrupted Lee.

Lee: What the heck is going on?

Joel: She killed my tarantula.

Mya: It bit you Joel.

Joel: Yeah, but you didn't have to kill it.

Natalie: Will you guys settle down before I make both you spend 3 hours on the Beam.

Joel and Mya looked at Natalie and then faced forward.

Natalie: I'm sorry High Priest.

Lee: As much as you guys argue with each other; I should be used to it by now.

Mya: It won't happen again.

Lee: As I was saying, the reason why these events is happening is because the planet is crying.

Kersi: Crying?

Blue: It is called the Geniman Process. Humans have not shown any change in its careless way so the planet has made up its mind on cleansing the planet.

Josh: Like Noah's Ark on Earth.

Lee: Yes, but it's not going to be a great flood.

Kersi: Is there anything we can do to help change the planet's mind?

Blue: There is one thing, and therefore we called you guys up here. Do you remember what the Idacast Diamonds are?

Natalie: Yeah, they are basically the planets regenerator.

Blue: One of the Idacast Diamonds have been removed from its spot. Which we believe is what kicked started all this anarchy. Now we need to locate all 4 diamonds and bring them back here to the alter.

Josh: (to Markus) told you it was treasure hunting mission. You owe me 20.

Markus pulled out a 20-dollar bill and gave it to Markus.

Lee: We were informed that the Blue Diamond is located on Avaline Continent inside Mt. Glacius. Amy and Mike will be here to escort you to the diamond. We have not located the Red or Green Diamond yet.

Joe: Don't we have a Diamond Locater to help find them?

Blue: Yes, we do. The coordinates are showing the Red Diamond is somewhere in the middle of Monochello City by the Coliseum, and The Green Diamond is Tanamo Continent by a town called Tierra Kay. The Yellow Diamond was the one that was removed from its proper area and the coordinates is indicating that it's at the Octo District.

Joel: Friggin' great.

Lee: Yup, so we would need you to sneak into the Octo District and retrieve the diamond.

Natalie: Headmaster Johnson must be using the diamond for a stupid agenda. I don't know what happened, but Headmaster Johnson never used to be that way.

Blue: How do you know that?

Mya: She used to date him before he became the Headmaster.

Natalie: Damn it Mya.

Mya: What? It's true.

Markus, Josh, and Joe was laughing silently.

Natalie: You guys think it's funny. But he was a nice and romantic guy before whatever changed him. I never thought he would be the one to let power change him.

Joel: Not me, I think it's romantic.

Joe: You should just go to the World Peace Conference and seduce him into telling you where it's at.

Natalie: No.

Markus: Take one for the team Instructor.

Mya: I got to do a speech there anyway so I wouldn't mind seeing that.

Josh: He could still be wanting some more of Natalie so you may be able to get something out of him.

Natalie: Oh my God you guys.

Kersi: I think it's a good plan.

Natalie: You too Kersi?

Kersi: You can either drug him or seduce him, however you want to do it and once he tells you where it is, we will move in on Octo District. But you are the only one besides his Generals that he will allow close to him.

Natalie looked at the High Priest and Priestess.

Blue: Honestly, I don't care how you do it, the sooner the better.

Natalie: Okay. I will go to the World Peace Conference tomorrow and try to get him to tell me.

Lee: I really appreciate you guys and the work you do.

Natalie: Anything for the planet.

Lee: Once we get all the diamonds here the planet may forgive us.

MONOCHELLO CONTINENT

In Monochello City. There was a thunderstorm over the city and it was downpouring. There was street construction by the Monochello City Coliseum. The worker was jack hammering the gravel. 2 of his co-workers came up.

Worker 2: Hey Jim, we are going to get some food, you want anything?

Jim: Church's Chicken sounds good.

Worker 1: Alright.

Jim went back to jack hammering. Suddenly, a small quake took place and it made the ground beneath him collapse. He fell inside 20 feet deep. The crack was like looking down a huge trench. Jim looked around him and saw there was an underground cave system. His co-workers ran up to the crack.

Worker 1: JIM! ARE YOU OKAY!

Jim: Yeah. How come the blueprint of this area don't show an underground cave system here.

W2: I don't know.

W1: Hold up Jim, I will go get a ladder for you.

Worker 1 ran to go get a ladder. Jim looked down into the cave hall and saw an area in the distance that had red glowing light.

Jim: Hold up guys, I see a light down here.

Jim started walking towards the light.

Jim: HELLO. IS THERE ANYONE HERE?

He started to see many shadows passing by the lights. The shadows were not human shadows at all. Then he started hearing deep growling. Jim quickly went back to the opening.

Jim: Guys, hurry up and get me the ladder and get me out of here.

Worker 1 came with a rope ladder and tossed it down to Jim. Jim started to climb the ladder. As he was climbing, something snatched Jim off the rope. It moved so fast, his friends were not able to see what it was. When they pulled up the ladder, all that was left was his hands gripping the rope. The 2 workers screamed and ran off to find help.

CHAPTER 5: The World Peace Conference

The next morning Hurricane Heather was approaching Fort City in Monochello Continent. The clouds look like a wall of lightning and rain headed towards them.

OUTSIDE GINIA.

Captain Jenkins walked into the headquarters of O.W.O.C. Adam and Lloyd greeted him.

Adam: We have a situation Leroy.

Jenkins: What is going on?

They walked to the thermal satellite over Ginia.

Lloyd: Notice anything over Industry City.

Jenkins: The ozone layer is completely gone.

Adam: And sunrise is in 20 minutes in that area.

Jenkins: Please tell me everyone evacuated that area like they were supposed to.

INDUSTRY CITY.

As the sun rise, a massive heat wave took over the city. The heat was so intense it instantly cooked anyone or anything that was outside. A lot of the buildings, automobiles, signs, and houses were melting as if it was candle wax. The surrounding areas caught fire from the heat.

UNISON CITY.

Caitlyn's plane landed at the airport in Unison City. She was greeted by High Priestess Blue.

Caitlyn: BLUE!

Caitlyn gave her a big hug.

Blue: Look at you, you're getting so big and so pretty.

Caitlyn. Thank you.

Blue: Is your Grandad coming?

Caitlyn: He said all the flights were full, so he is going to catch one this morning.

Blue: Okay no problem.

Blue grabbed Caitlyn's bags.

Caitlyn: Let's get going. The World Peace Conference will be starting in a couple hours.

As they were walking, they passed a set of televisions that had a breaking news report. A lot of people gathered around to see what was going on.

Reporter: For those of you watching, Industry City has literally been melted this morning when the sun came up. Authorities said that a lot of people did evacuate the city so the casualties should be low.

Blue looked at Caitlyn.

Blue: I hope your grandad made it out before that happened.

Tears started falling down Caitlyn's face.

Caitlyn: What if he didn't make it?

Reporter: Hurricane Heather has made landfall in North East Monochello Continent. Fort City and the surrounding towns and villages is getting battered by this storm.

Blue grabbed Caitlyn's hand.

Blue: Come, let's go see if your grandad made it on any of the planes that left this morning.

AVALINE CONTINENT.

Mike and Amy were climbing down MT. Glacius.

Mike: I think this was a good expedition. We got a lot of cool picture, we found one of the Idacast Diamonds, and we saw abominable snowmen making out with each other.

Amy: Ew don't remind me of that. That image is still in my head.

Mike: Well, I did get a picture. A nice quality one too.

Amy: I will rip that picture up when we get home Mike.

Mike: There will be people who will pay a lot of money for a picture like that.

Amy: When is the temple sending someone to retrieve that diamond?

Mike: I don't know. Maybe today. High Priest Lee said someone will meet us at the hotel.

Amy: Let's hurry up and get off this mountain so we can meet them there.

UNISON CONTINENT.

Jolin and Lalaine's airship landed in the dock yard.

Lalaine: Oh my God, it is so beautiful here.

Kersi greeted them.

Kersi: Hello, you must be the new Instructors. Jolin and Lalaine correct?

Jolin: Yes, that's us.

Kersi: Perfect, I am Kersi, Instructor Natalie was called on duty at the last minute and asked me to give you the tour of our lovely district.

Lalaine: Thanks, Kersi.

Kersi: Follow me please.

Kersi gave Jolin and Lalaine a tour around the whole district. They checked out the library, the cafeteria, the classrooms, the training area, the car garage, the military training area and the dormitory areas. As they were checking out the district, Markus and Josh were being chased by the guards again. They ran passed the girls.

Josh: EXCUSE US.

Markus: COMING THRU.

Jolin and Lalaine stared as the chase passed them,

Lalaine: Well, I can tell it is going to be exciting here.

Kersi: That is Markus and Josh. They are on me and Natalie's team. You'll probably meet them later.

MONOCHELLO CONTINENT.

The World Peace Conference was being held at the Monochello City Coliseum. It is a huge building that looks like Madison Square Garden. Everybody was dressed formal. Mya and Natalie was looking around.

Mya: There is so many people here. I'm nervous as hell to do the speech.

Natalie: Don't worry you will be fine Mya.

Mya: That's easy for you to say.

Natalie: Chances are these people probably won't even pay attention to you. They will either be too focused on their important bullshit rich lives to care what you say. So, think of it as giving a speech to a bunch of drooling babies who have no idea what you're saying.

Mya: Yeah. I'll do that. Thanks Natalie.

Natalie spotted Headmaster Johnson. He was with General Brown.

Natalie: Johnson at our 10 o'clock.

Mya: Ready to put on your seduction mode.

Natalie: Oh god. Not with him. There's way too many cute guys here for me to want to flirt with just him.

Mya: Hey you're the one who dated him in the past. I honestly don't know what you saw in him, but for the sake of the planet, just get it over with.

Mya handed her a condom.

Mya: Just in case old flames fuel again.

Natalie: Mya, I don't need this. It's not going to go that far.

Mya: Okay.

Natalie: Meet me at the bar after your speech.

Mya: Okay no problem.

Natalie and Mya split up. Headmaster Peebles and General Larus was at their booth drinking.

Peebles: There is soooo many hot chicks in here. I don't even care about world peace right now, I want some new booty.

Larus: (chuckles) Well, there has been a few of them staring over here.

Peebles: I saw that too. You think they would get mad if we ditch this place.

Larus: Well, it is the peace conference for Unison and Octo District, they would want you to stay for the handshaking.

Peebles: Damn.

Larus: But at the same time, you already signed the treaty and shook his hand.

Peebles: True.

Peebles spotted 2 women staring over at them.

Peebles: It seems more like I'm at a dance club than a conference, let's go General Larus, booty calls. Get it, I meant to say Duty Calls but I replaced it with booty.

Larus: Yeah, I get it Headmaster.

They both walked up to women. Headmaster Johnson and General Brown was sitting at their booth.

General Brown: Johnson, there is another diamond that's really close to here. They are saying there is an underground cave system near the construction site at the park next to the coliseum.

Johnson: Get some men down there to retrieve it.

Brown: Already done. We have men approaching as we speak.

Johnson: Great.

Natalie walked up to Johnson.

Natalie: Headmaster Johnson

Johnson: Well well well, if it isn't Natalie Deluna. Still looking beautiful as ever.

Natalie: Can I have a word with you?

Johnson: A word huh? What could you possibly want to talk to me about after 5 years? Not to mention betraying the Octo District to become an Instructor at Unison District.

Natalie: It's of high importance. And me joining the Unison District didn't bother you when I did transfer there.

Johnson: Whatever you can say to me, you can say in front of General Brown also.

Natalie: Why is one of the Idacast Diamonds at the Octo District? You do know removing that diamond is the reason why all these disasters are taking place around the world?

Johnson: The better question is, do I care? If the planet destroys itself then we can always rebuild it and buy more planets.

Natalie: You're an idiot you know that. What the hell happened to you? You used to always want peace, and had a good heart. What the hell changed you to such a heartless asshole?

Johnson: I am just a guy who admires power and I have a lot of it. This little peace conference won't make a difference once I have all the diamonds in my possession.

Natalie took a drink and tossed the glass at Johnson. Johnson's bodyguards grabbed Natalie.

Johnson: This is a peace conference and you're throwing glass at people. (to the guards) Take her out of here.

Brown: I'll make sure she's personally thrown out.

General Brown grabbed Natalie and escorted her to the door. Mya followed from a distance.

Natalie: God damnit General Brown, you know what he's doing is wrong. A lot of people is going to die because of him. What the hell is wrong with him?

Brown: A lot of people have already died because of him Natalie. But trust me there are a lot of people in Octo District that disagrees with his stupid plan. Some even think that he isn't even the real Headmaster. He will be overthrown. If we need your help we will let you know. I don't know what happened to him either, he was fine, EVERYTHING was fine, and then he snapped and started the stupid war. And now this.

Natalie: Please get that yellow diamond, we need to get it back to the temple. Or open a way to go in there and get it.

General Brown: I'll try, he has it heavily guarded. Meanwhile, there is a cave system in the park next to this coliseum. There is another diamond there. He already has men trying to retrieve it, but you could get to it first.

Natalie looked at the guards that was with General Brown.

Natalie: What about these 2?

Guard 1: I thought it was funny when you had thrown the glass at him.

Guard 2: Would have been better if you shot him.

Brown: Look we're trying to handle this from the inside, there's only a small group we have, but we been trying to make our numbers grow. There's too many that will do what he orders them to do because they are too scared of him. I'll try my best to help you, but it probably won't be enough.

Natalie: Thanks, General Brown.

The General and the guards left Natalie. Headmaster Peebles and General Larus walked up with the girls that was looking at them. Peebles spotted Natalie.

Peeble: Hey Natalie. Um, if anybody asks where we are, tell them I got sick and went home. I didn't want to shake Johnson's hand and get him sick too. Even though he deserves to die from the most horrible disease out there. PEACE.

Natalie: Um, okay Headmaster.

Then they walked off.

Natalie: Wow.

CHAPTER 6: The Big Event.

Mya was inside the ladies' bathroom reading her speech.

Mya: Aw man, God, let something happen so I don't have to do my speech.

Suddenly, a strange wave caused a change in the atmosphere which made everyone dizzy.

Natalie: Holy crap, I just got dizzy.

Seconds later a massive quake took place. The quake was very violent that it shook people off their feet. The structure around them were tearing apart and crushing people who were beneath them. Everyone was panicking and trying to run to safety. The massive quake was happening everywhere except for Unison Continent. Tall building was swaying back and forth and collapsing in the streets.

On Unison Continent, everyone who was watching the Conference on T.V were witnessing the mayhem before the feed cut them off.

Reporter: Ladies and Gentlemen, I believed the feed has been cut, we will continue to brief you as this event unfolds.

Jolin, Lalaine, Joe, Joel, Markus, Josh, and everyone in the district, temple, and all over the continent were gathered around the television.

OUTSIDE GINIA.

Jenkins ran into the headquarters.

Jenkins: WHAT THE HELL IS GOING ON?

Adam: Quakes sir. Measuring way above 10.0 on the Richter scale.

Lloyd: It's happening all over the planet except for Unison Continent.

ON GINIA.

Avaline Continent. The Temple helicopter was waiting for Amy and Mike. Mike and Amy ran to the helicopter. Their hotel was located at the base of Mt. Glacius. The quake set up a series of huge avalanches. The avalanche was moving at high speed towards the hotel and helicopter.

Amy: AVALANCHE.

Mike: COME ON LET'S HURRY UP AND GO.

The pilot took off and reached a safe altitude for the avalanche to pass under them. The avalanche swept the hotel off its foundation like an ice-made tsunami. Amy looked down at the ground and could clearly see the quake waves. It looked like the ripple effect of someone throwing a rock in the lake, but moving on land.

All the coastal cities, except for the ones on Unison Continent were hit by huge tsunamis. No one could escape the huge waves as they crashed upon shore and washed everything and everyone in its path.

MONOCHELLO CONTINENT.

Monochello City Coliseum was taking a huge beating as well. Headmaster Johnson hid under a sturdy table, as well as Natalie and Mya as the building crumbled around them. The quake lasted for 20 minutes before it died down. Natalie stood up from under the table.

Natalie: MYA!

Mya stood up.

Mya: I'M HERE!

Natalie: Thank god.

Outside, many emergency services were scrambling around trying to help survivors. There was a crew trying to help find openings to the coliseum.

OUTSIDE GINIA

Adam, Lloyd, Jenkins and his crew were also scrambling around.

Jenkins: Okay, every available ship must go to Ginia and help search and rescue. We have a lot of room to bring survivors up here until everything is over. Help bring survivors to which District is offering shelter.

Adam: Captain Jenkins. We have another problem here.

Jenkins: What now?

Adam pointed at the monitor.

Adam: The heat level is rapidly rising in every spot that a volcano is located. Including Mt. Finine.

Jenkins: Shit. Get a warning out every town and city by each volcano

ON GINIA.

Every single volcano erupted on Ginia. Including the Mt. Finine. The explosion was so loud the whole world could hear it. Tons of smoke and ashes was being thrown miles into the atmosphere. The pyroclastic flow from a lot of the volcanos decimated nearby towns and cities. The ash from all volcanoes quickly covered the sky and blocked the sun all around the world, except for Unison Continent.

In Monochello City, the ash cloud covered the sky and ash came down like snow. Some people were confused and tasted the ash, only to spit it out when they realized it was not snow. The ash came down heavy as if it was heavy snowfall in a winter storm.

OUTSIDE GINIA.

Everyone in the space station was looking out the window at Ginia. It looked as if the whole planet was covered in a gray and black hurricane with Unison District in the eye.

Adam: Captain. All those people down there.

Jenkins: I know, there's nothing we can do besides pray for them. A lot of the airships from the district should still be able to perform a search and rescue. But I can tell you a lot of people are dying down there.

Tears came to Lloyd's eyes.

Lloyd: I want to help with rescues.

Jenkins: You can come with me to The Temple of Nature. Adam. You're in charge up here until we return.

Adam: Yes Sir.

Jenkins and Lloyd went to one of the rescue airships and took off to Ginia.

ON GINIA

Unison Continent. General Jackson had a group of soldiers gathered up. Josh and Markus were among them.

Jackson: I don't even need to brief you, I am sure you know why we called you here. Headmaster Peebles has ordered a search and rescue. Shit is still dangerous out there so please be extra careful. You will be getting help from other districts and from the Outer World Observation Center. Dismissed.

Everyone headed to their separate airships.

Josh: You want to go to Monochello City and see if Natalie and Mya made it out okay.

Markus: Yeah.

Josh: Okay, I'll head to Avaline Continent then.

Markus: Why there?

Josh: The temple said that an important couple may have crashed when all this happened. So, I should find them.

Markus: Well, be careful my brotha.

Josh: You too.

They did their special handshake and headed to their airship. There was a group of 80 airships. When they approached the volcanic ashes, it looked like they were approaching a huge black and gray ash wall.

Josh: Markus you see that?

Markus: Yeah.

Josh: You think our engines will be able to take all that?

Markus: Mines can. Don't know about yours.

Josh: Forgot yours was all customized.

Markus: But honestly these babies are built to withstand that for rescue missions, so we should be fine.

Josh: That's all you had to say the first time.

Markus: We're about to hit the shit, so I'll contact you when we get back to the district.

They made it to the ash and had to turn on their virtual navigation.

Markus: I can't see nothing.

CHAPTER 7: The Underground Cave.

MONOCHELLO CONTINENT.

At the coliseum. There was a group of rescuers trying to find a way into the coliseum. Mya was helping trapped victims.

Mya: (to herself) God, when I asked you to make something to happen, this is not what I meant.

Headmaster Johnson was searching for doors. He found a maintenance door that led to the underground cave system.

Johnson: Bingo.

Natalie walked up behind him.

Natalie: Do you have any of your people helping outside too? Or are they too busy killing their own citizens to notice what's going on?

Johnson: Ha Ha, there is a cave system here and my troops are on the other side trying to find a way in. We can check it out and come back for the rest.

Natalie: Wait, let me get Mya and we will check it out.

Natalie ran to get Mya. As Natalie ran off, Johnson proceeded to the underground cave without her.

Johnson: I'm not waiting.

Natalie made it to Mya.

Natalie: Hey Mya. Johnson found a door that leads to an underground cave system that would get us out of here.

Mya: Great let's go.

Natalie: Earlier, General Brown told me that there is an underground cave system that had a diamond in it. It could be this underground cave system.

Mya: How do they know about the diamonds and where they're at? I thought only temple officials knew that information.

Natalie: I don't know, but we will find out. Remember about the The Guardians of the Idacast Diamonds. We should be careful if we see it or get around it.

Mya: Yeah, I remember what the High Priest said.

Natalie: Let's go then.

They walked to the door and saw that there were a few people that had already found the door.

Natalie: Great, Johnson must have already gone ahead of us.

They went into the underground cave. It looked like a mine shaft. There were little lights on the ceiling to illuminate the hallway.

Outside, Markus's airship landed in the park next to the coliseum. The ash was still falling like heavy snowfall and piling on the floor. He saw that there were 3 Octo District airships parked by the open trench. There were 2 Octo District soldiers setting up to go down into the trench that leads to the underground cave.

Markus: Excuse me Gentleman, I couldn't help but notice all the fire trucks trying to get into the coliseum, do you know if they found a way in.

Soldier 1: No, that's why we're here, we're seeing if there is a way in through this underground hallway here.

Markus: You mind if I help you.

Soldier 2 sneezed 5 times.

Soldier 2: This damn ash

Markus: Are there more soldiers down there?

Soldier 1: Yeah, they are down there searching. Let's go check on the progress.

They went down the rope ladder. Soldier 2 signaled Soldier 1 to kill Markus. Soldier 1 nodded in agreement. They walked into the hallway.

Headmaster Johnson was still walking around the cave system.

Johnson: This place is like a friggin' mine shaft.

Something passed by him at high speed.

Johnson: What the hell was that?

He started walking faster. Natalie and Mya was walking in the underground cave system.

Mya: It feels like we're back in the mine shafts in Avaline Continent.

Natalie: I know.

They approached a hallway that had a red light coming from a large crack in the wall.

Mya: You see that Natalie.

Natalie: Yeah.

Mya went to the crack and examined it.

Mya: The crack looks big enough for me to squeeze thru.

Natalie. Okay, I'll keep look out right here.

Mya started squeezing through the crack. Johnson was still walking fast. He tripped and fell over an object on the floor.

Markus and Soldier 1 was still walking the hall. The soldier was walking behind Markus and took out his gun. A loud female scream came out of nowhere in the near distance.

Markus: Holy shit, you hear that?

Soldier 1: Yes, I did.

Markus: I think it came from this way.

Markus walked toward the scream and the soldier followed. Just when the Soldier was about to shoot Markus in the head, something ran by that startled him.

Soldier 1: What was that?

Markus: Hell if I know.

Then the creature jumped on the Soldier and ripped him to pieces. The creature had a huge tiger like body, muscular legs and arms, a python face with rows of teeth like a great white shark. It was about 8 feet tall with red reptile skin and black stripes like a tiger. This creature was the Red Guardian (RG), they guard the red Idacast Diamond.

Markus quickly grabbed his gun and shot the RG four times in the head. The RG dropped.

Natalie was still watching as Mya kept squeezing through the hall.

Mya: Natalie, what's going on?

Natalie: I don't know, but I heard a scream and gunshots.

Johnson got up and notices what he tripped on was a dead mutilated body. He landed in a puddle of blood so he had blood all over him.

Johnson: Oh damn.

He ran into to the hallway that Natalie and Mya was in.

Johnson: Natalie.

Natalie: Oh my god, is that blood?

Johnson: Yes, but it isn't mine. It's like a maze in here, I can't find a way out.

Mya made it to the other side of the crack and noticed it was a huge room with the red basketball size diamond floating in the middle.

Mya: Wow.

Then she looked at the ceiling and noticed about 20 RG's staring at her.

Mya: Oh shit.

She quickly ran back into the crack and started moving as fast as she could back to the other side. The RG'S couldn't fit in the crack so they started digging their way to her.

Mya: NATALIE, WE GOT TROUBLE ON THE OTHER SIDE!

An RG ran at Johnson and Natalie shot it.

Johnson: You had a gun at a Peace Conference?

Natalie: I bet you're happy I had one now.

Markus heard the gunshot and ran towards it.

Markus: HELLO!

Natalie heard him.

Natalie: OVER HERE!

Markus reunited with Natalie, Mya, and Johnson. Natalie and Mya hugged him.

Natalie: I'm so happy to see you.

Mya: Please tell me you know how to get out of here. Because we got monsters chasing us.

Markus: Yeah, I do, follow me.

The RG's made it to through the cracks and ran after them. As they were running, they past a few dead mutilated bodies of survivors that came in after Johnson. One jumped on Markus and Natalie quickly shot it in the head before it could bite him.

Markus: Holy shit, thanks Natalie.

Natalie: No problem.

They made it to the opening and reached the rope ladder. Johnson climbed up the ladder first. The RG's approached them. Natalie and Markus stayed behind and shot while Mya went up the ladder.

Mya: Who's next, I got you covered up here.

Natalie tossed her gun up to Mya and Mya started shooting at the RGs while Natalie climbed up. Markus ran out of bullets and had a new clip in less than 3 seconds.

Natalie: I'm up.

Markus threw his gun up to Natalie and climbed up as they shot at the RGs.

Markus: Thanks ladies.

Natalie and Mya turned around and was shocked at the devastation of the city.

Mya: Oh my. This is terrible.

Natalie tasted one of the ash that fell on her.

Natalie: What is this that's falling out the sky?

Markus: Volcanic ash, every volcano in the world erupted at the same time.

Mya: Wow, the planet must have really been pissed at us.

CHAPTER 8: The Next Step.

The Temple of Nature.

High Priest Lee and High Priestess Blue was looking at picture of all the destruction the big event caused.

Lee: This is everything the photo probe got pictures of before it went offline.

Blue: Did we hear any word from Captain Leroy Jenkins?

Lee: No, and O.W.O.C. haven't heard from him in hours either.

Jolin and Lalaine walked in the room.

Blue: Good to see you ladies.

They all gave each other hugs.

Lee: Thanks for coming on such short notice. I believe this mission requires your expertise.

Lalaine: No problem, anything for the temple.

Lee: We're just waiting for the others to arrive.

They heard arguing coming from the near distance and getting closer.

Blue: Sounds like them right now.

Amy and Mike walked in first.

Amy: This is unbelievable.

Natalie, Josh, Markus, Mya, Joe, Joel, Dennis and Kersi walked inside arguing.

Lee: What are you guys fighting about now?

Amy: They're all fighting over who had it worse during the search and rescue.

Blue: Are you serious?

Natalie: Well I believe we did. None of you guys had huge tiger-lizard-snake looking creatures on steroids try to bite your head off.

Joel: Those things can't be that bad.

Lee: What things are we talking about?

Natalie, Markus, Mya, Joel, and Dennis stopped and stared at Jolin, Lalaine, Amy, and Mike because they didn't know who they were.

Kersi: Oh Natalie, this is Jolin and Lalaine, the two new instructors.

Natalie: Oh, I'm sorry.

Lee: And this lovely couple is Amy and Mike. They are also high-ranking treasure hunters of the temple. I trust you guys will get along for this mission.

Blue: What creature were you talking about Natalie?

Natalie: There was this underground cave system that looked like a mine shaft by the Coliseum. It had a bunch of red lizard skin, creatures with muscular tiger bodies and the face of a python.

Mya: The red Idacast Diamond was also in a room in that cave.

Lee: So, you saw the diamond there.

Mya: Yes, and those things were guarding it.

Blue: Those were the guardians of the red diamond. Each diamond has a guardian.

Amy: We didn't see anything hanging around the blue diamond.

They were completely unaware of the giant eye that was watching them the whole time while they were in the room.

Blue: You didn't see anything at all?

Mike: No, nothing attacked us.

Lee: That's odd. Something should have been there.

Blue: Okay, so we know the red diamond is in some underground cave by the Monochello Colosseum, the blue diamond is in Mt. Glacius, and the yellow diamond is at the Octo District. We know getting to two of the diamonds will be difficult.

Mike: What about the green diamond?

Lee: The diamond locator had the green diamond near a town on Tanamo Continent.

Joel: Tanamo Continent isn't the best place to be with Mt. Finine still erupting.

Lee: I know. We may have to wait out the eruptions to continue the mission.

Jolin: Why didn't anything happen to Unison Continent?

Blue: Because Unison Continent is the world's cleanest and purest continent. Plus, it is home to the Temple of Nature. But with everything out dead, it will soon affect us so we must act as soon as possible to revive the planet.

Lee: The best thing to do is wait till the ash cloud is gone. Once that is gone, we will start the mission. You guys please get along. This is our chance to start over and show the planet and Mother Nature that we are worthy enough to remain here.

OUTSIDE GINIA

Jenkins and Lloyd was entering Ginia's atmosphere. Jenkins was singing along to "This is how we do it" by Montell Jordan and grooving to it.

Jenkins: Old school never disappoints.

Their ship was now going thru the thick ash cloud. The airship started shaking violently.

Lloyd: I thought we were supposed to go through the atmosphere over Unison Continent.

Jenkins: That's what I thought too.

The alarms started going off.

Jenkins: SHIT!

Lloyd: The engines are failing, they can't take the ash.

Jenkins: Hold on Lloyd.

The engines exploded.

Jenkins: Where are we, over land or over water?

Lloyd: It says were over Monochello Continent.

Jenkins: Get ready to crash land.

Jenkins and Lloyd sat down, put on their seat belts and braced themselves for crash landing. The ship crash landed in the middle of Monochello City. It crashed thru 3 skyscrapers before hitting the ground, and tumbled a few times before coming to a complete stop in a baseball field.

Jenkins and Lloyd were beat up from the impacts. They both had bloody noses, a lot of scratches and bruises all over their body and face, and black eyes. They struggled to get out their wrecked airship and could barely walk or stand due to the soreness of their bodies.

Jenkins: Are you okay Lloyd?

Lloyd: No, I'm not. I think my arm is broken.

Jenkins looked at Lloyd and noticed he had a huge glass piece in his arm,

Jenkins: Lloyd, you got a huge glass shard sticking from your arm.

A small quake took place and the ground beneath them started opening. Millions of black work creatures started pouring out the crack.

Jenkins: Whoa whoa whoa, what the heck?

Jenkins grabbed Lloyd and helped him run off from the worms.

CHAPTER 9: The Chemical Fallout Zone

5 weeks later, the volcanoes finally stop erupting and the ash cloud cleared up all around the world. Adam walked into the headquarters of O.W.O.C. His associate, Dave, was looking out the window at Ginia.

Adam: Dave, you called?

Dave: Look, the ash cloud disappeared all around the planet.

Everything looked gray except for Unison Continent.

Adam: It's so gray and dead looking.

Dave: We still haven't heard anything from Captain Jenkins. The photo probes we sent down there haven't picked him up on his last transmission over Monochello Continent. We found the ship, but no one inside. So, we know for sure him and Lloyd made it out the ship, but as far as where they went, we can't tell. We have seen people running around and rescues still going on.

Adam: How many people have we brought here from Ginia?

Dave: About 300,000 people last time I checked. The numbers could have doubled in the last week.

Adam: How much room do we have?

Dave: We have enough room to fit another 300,000.

Adam: Let the districts know if they overflow then we can start picking people up down there. If Captain Jenkins is still alive, he will find some way to send us a message.

THE TEMPLE OF NATURE.

Jolin walked into the room and met up with Lee and Blue.

Jolin: Where is everybody at?

Lee: Josh, Lalaine, Joel, and Dennis went to Reid Continent to get something Lalaine needed badly. Amy and Mike is getting things ready for the mission. Natalie, Kersi, Joe and Markus is at Unison District getting ready for the mission also.

Jolin: Lalaine lives in Reid City. And if I'm not mistaken, when the earthquake took place, the Chemical Power Plant had a meltdown. Her house was in that zone.

Blue: The Chemical Power Plant?

Jolin: Yeah, some big-time scientists found some alien chemical that can be used for power. Like Nuclear Power, except it doesn't cause a big explosion. The chemical is known to mutant things at a fast rate and turn people into mutated freaks so they did everything they can contain the chemical.

Lee: If it's so dangerous, why did they use it?

Jolin: Because that chemical was enough to give power for a century so, like any mad scientist and dumb government, they will approve the use of it no matter how dangerous it.

Blue: How do you know about that?

Jolin: I had to do research on them and spy on them for Reid District.

Lee: If the chemical leaked out, would it still be in the air right now.

Jolin: It stays in the air for a week before it clears up. They should be good to breath but if they encounter anyone that's been exposed to it, it may get ugly.

Blue: Well, they are all highly trained so they should be okay.

REID CONTINENT.

Josh's airship landed in a neighborhood on the outskirts of Reid City. Much of the neighborhood was in ruins, but Lalaine's house was in a stable state.

Josh: Lee said that there may be mutant freaks out here so we better watch out.

Joel: Mutant freaks?

Lalaine: There's a power plant around here that used some weird chemical to make power but could turn things into mutated killers.

Dennis: So why the hell are we here then? What is so important that we had to fly all the way here for?

Lalaine: You'll see. It's something we will need for the mission.

They stepped out the airship.

Joel: We're not going to turn into no mutated freaks for breathing this air, are we?

Lalaine: No, the chemical should be out the air. And if you did see it the air would be green.

Josh: Make sure your guns are unlocked and loaded just in case you run into anything.

Josh, Lalaine, Dennis, and Joel stopped at the front door. The house was a two-story pillar house. They all took out their guns and got ready to raid the house.

Josh: Ready?

Joel: oh yeah.

Dennis kicked open the door and they walked in with their guns drawn. They checked every room.

Josh: Clear.

Lalaine: Clear.

Dennis: clear.

Joel: Clear.

Josh: Okay Lalaine, go get what you need so we can get out of here.

They heard screaming in the near distance.

Joel: You hear that?

Josh: Yeah. Sounds like someone is in trouble.

Dennis: Should we check it out?

Josh: If you want to, just be back quick.

Dennis: Come with me Joel.

Joel: Okay.

Dennis and Joel walked out the back door to find out where the scream came from. Lalaine was upstairs looking around. A lot of memories came to her from her childhood up until she had to go to Reid District. Josh was looking around upstairs also.

Outside, Dennis and Joel was walking.

Joel: Hey Dennis, do you guys have a problem with me being a homosexual.

Dennis: Joel, you been on our team for 5 years now, and you're asking me that now. No, we don't have an issue with that at all. No one on the team does. You've saved our asses many times and you are considered family. Besides you know we would have said something if we did have an issue with that. Plus, I'm basically the retard of the group and they love me like family.

Joel: You get picked on all the time.

Dennis: Yeah and so do you. But no matter how much we all fight and how bad our fights get, if anything happens we will still have each other's back.

Joel: True. If any of us end up dying this mission, just want you to know I love you. Like a brother, not the homosexual kind of way.

Dennis: (chuckles) You know we love you too. Why are you getting all sentimental right now?

Joel: I'm just saying, no one lives forever, we had a huge group when I started and now we are down to 7. Any one of us could be the next to die.

Dennis: Dude, shut up with that shit.

They approached a big play ground. There were 2 bodies hanging upside from the swing set and a fire beneath them. There were 3 mutated men walking around. Dennis and Joel hid behind a set of bushes.

Joel: You see that?

Dennis: Yeah, I see it.

One of the freaks went to one of the body's that hanging, ripped open the stomach, and started eating the intestines. Joel turned around and threw up.

Dennis: Really Joel? We've seen worse than that.

Joel: That was unexpected.

Joel felt something tug on his shirt. He looked down at saw a mutated little boy with a human head in his head.

Joel: WHOA!

Joel startled the little boy, so the boy screamed a loud, high-pitched scream. Dennis pistol whipped the kid with his gun to knock him out. The 3 freaks at the playground ran towards them. Dennis shot the 3 in the head.

Joel: Good shot.

At the house, Josh was still looking around at the wreckage. He heard a huge thud in one of the bedrooms ahead of him.

Josh: Um Lalaine?

He opened the door and saw a huge creature ransacking the room. The creature had black reptile skin, it stood about 8 ft. tall, had a very muscular gorilla like body, and a rat like head with sharp teeth. (Gortiles)

Josh: What the hell?

The creature looked at Josh and roared. Josh shot it 4 times in the head and it dropped. Lalaine heard the shots and started running towards Josh. Josh went to the body and took a picture with his camera phone. Another creature bust through the wall next to him and punched Josh so hard he flew through the wall. Lalaine showed up and saw the creature.

Lalaine: Hey you.

Lalaine ran into the hallway and the creature bolted towards her. The creature ran at her so Lalaine used the walls to jump over the creature. While she jumped in the air, she pulled out her gun and shot the creature 5 times in the head. The creature dropped. She took out her phone and took a picture of it too. She walked to the window and saw Josh laying on the ground by his airship.

Lalaine: Josh, are you okay.

Josh: Yeah, I'm fine.

Lalaine: I'll be down in a minute. The gunshots may attract more of those things.

Dennis and Joel heard the gunshots coming from Lalaine's house.

Joel: You hear that?

Dennis: Yeah, that came from the house. Let's go.

6 more mutated freaks approached Joel and Dennis, so they took them out with their martial arts. Afterwards they ran to the house. Lalaine was searching her room for the item she came to grab. Josh went in the airship and turned it on. He looked out the window and saw 30 freaks headed their way.

Josh: Ah, great.

Joel and Dennis made it in the house but a few freaks busted inside also. Dennis and Joel started fighting and shooting them off John Wick style. Joel took a few pocket-sized proximity mines and threw them by the door and outside of the lawn. They exploded whenever the freaks got near them.

Josh was outside shooting the freaks with the guns of his airship to minimize the amount getting into the house. Lalaine finally found what she was looking for.

Lalaine: GOT IT.

She ran to the stairs. Dennis threw a grenade at the freaks by the bottom of the stairs. The explosion blew up stairs and threw Lalaine back against the wall. A lot of debris cut up his arms and face.

Lalaine: HEY YOU ALMOST BLEW ME UP DAMMIT!

Dennis: Sorry.

Joel: Coast is clear for now, we will get to the airship and have Josh pick you up from the second story.

Lalaine: Okay.

More freaks come in through the back door so Joel and Dennis ran to the airship through the front door.

Josh: Where's Lalaine?

Dennis: We got to get her from the second floor. I accidently blew up the stairs on her.

Josh lifted the airship off the ground. A lot freaks started pouring out the front door and trying to jump to his airship.

Josh: let me get rid of these guys to make this easier.

Lalaine was running to the 2nd story balcony but she stepped on a weak spot and fell through the floor. She landed on the floor in the downstairs kitchen, right in the middle of a lot of freaks.

Lalaine: Oh no.

Josh started shooting his airship gun at the freaks downstairs. The bullets tore through the walls and all the freaks. Lalaine stayed down and covered up as the bullets flew past her and blood splattering all over her.

Josh: I think I got most of them, let's get Lalaine.

Lalaine walked out the front drenched in blood.

Joel: There she is.

Josh: I thought you guys said she was upstairs.

Dennis: She was upstairs.

Josh landed the airship and ran to her.

Josh: Are you hit Lalaine?

Lalaine: No, just covered in their blood.

Joel ran to the water hose and started spraying the blood off her.

Josh: They said you was upstairs.

Lalaine: I was but I fell through the floor.

Joel was finished spraying her off.

Lalaine: Thanks Joel.

Dennis: Did you find what you needed?

Lalaine: Yeah. It's the treasure transporter. So, when we find the diamonds we can just have it transported to the temple instead of us having to fly back and put it on the pillars. This will make everything a whole lot easier.

Josh: Come on; let's get out of here before more freaks show up.

They went back into the airship and flew off.

CHAPTER 10: THE BLUE DIAMOND.

The Temple of Nature. They all gathered in the briefing room.

Lee: I understand you guys ran into resistance in Reid Continent.

Lalaine: Mutated people and some weird creatures.

Lalaine pulled out her phone and showed them the pictures.

Lee: this was in Reid Continent?

Lalaine: Two of them were in my house.

Blue: Black reptile skin means that those are demonic creatures.

Josh: So, I got snuck by demons?

Lee: The book reads if the planet ever shuts down, other forces may enter and take over the planet.

Markus: Other forces like Demons?

Blue: Yes. Anything and anyone from the Temple draws them out. So, they may have been looking for the teleporter as well.

Lee: Plus, you guys are all marked by the temple. You bare the tattoo mark so they know you're a target. Their whole mission is to destroy the temple along with anything and anyone who stays here, school here, or train here.

Joel: How do they know that?

Lee: Because the tattoos have an energy connected to it that they sense. They know you pose the biggest threat to them so they will try to take you out more than anything.

Markus: Great, so we're going to have to deal with the Guardians, demonic creature, and whatever freaks are left out there in the Dark Zone.

Natalie: Well Headmaster Peebles have agreed to help us with whatever we need so we should be fine.

Blue: You guys will do fine.

Jolin: Well, I'm ready to bring the planet back to life.

Joel: Me too, let's get this over with.

Lee: Please be careful out there. Remember the Guardians of each diamond, and out of all the demonic creatures you see, most them will only come out night, but there a couple ones that walks the day and can possess you to do crazy things okay. Please watch each other's back.

Natalie: Don't worry, Kersi, Lalaine, Jolin, and I will make sure of it.

They all met up outside the airship landing. There was a waterfall in the background.

Natalie. We are going to split up in 3 different teams, so we can get the diamonds all at once to make this faster. Team 1 will be Me, Dennis and Kersi. Team 2 will be Jolin, Markus, Joel and Mya. Team 3 will be Lalaine, Josh, Amy, and Mike. How does that sound?

Markus: Like we didn't have much of a choice to begin with.

Jolin: You don't like the team?

Markus: I like the team, I just don't like the fact that we didn't get to pick the team.

Josh: Dude, stop being a little bitch and let's go.

Markus: Shut up Josh,

Natalie: By the way, Headmaster Peebles said you two keep running from him whenever he calls you guys to his office. Why?

Markus: Let's just say there are about 20 things that he could be calling us to his office for in which we will get in serious trouble.

Natalie: That doesn't surprise me.

Markus: We will suffer the consequences when the mission is over.

Natalie: Can you guys do me one favor? Please no unnecessary casualties or destruction.

Joel: Are you serious? The Dead Zone is nothing but destruction, how can we destroy it any more than it already is?

Natalie just started at Joel.

Natalie: Smartass. Let's move out.

Amy: Hold up, before we go, let's all pray.

They all stood in a circle and held hands. Amy led the prayer. When the prayer we done, they all got in their airships and took off.

OCTO DISTRICT

General Brown was walking to Headmaster Johnson's Office. Johnson was looking at a map.

Brown: Headmaster, you summoned me?

Johnson: I think it's time we send a bomb squad to that cave so we can retrieve that diamond in Monochello City.

Brown: No problem. I'll brief them in.

Johnson: Oh, and there has been rumors of soldiers starting a rebellion against us, I want you to flush them out. Last thing I need is another civil war in our own district. Dismissed.

Brown: Yes sir.

Brown walked out the office. He walked to the training ground and met up with a female soldier named Iris.

Brown: Iris, people are talking?

Iris: What do you mean?

Brown: There is rumors going around about the rebellion. Whoever is talking needs to shut the fuck up. The point of this is to be secret and the element of surprise. Headmaster Johnson heard the rumors and now wants me to flush you guys out.

Iris: By "you guys", you're referring to yourself too.

Brown: I know. We got outside help coming and we need to find a way past the security for the yellow diamond. Its Johnson's fault our planet shut down and we need to help revive it and restore peaceful order to Octo District.

Iris: Yes sir. I will do what I can to find the talkers. And I will send someone to help find a way past security to the diamond.

Brown: You're the best Iris.

Brown walked off and Iris watched as he walked away.

AVALINE CONTINENT.

Natalie's team landed by the opening to the cave. Natalie, Dennis, and Kersi walked out.

Natalie: I'm surprised this cave is still intact after the Big Event.

They walked in and was amazed at the beauty of the cave.

Dennis: Now this is a cool cave.

Kersi: Everything looks like it's covered in crystals.

Dennis: Should I break a chunk off and offer it to you as an engagement ring?

Kersi: Ew no.

Dennis: We will get married one of these days Kersi.

They approached the room with the diamond.

Natalie: Here it is. The blue diamond.

Dennis: I thought they said there is supposed to be a guardian, I don't see anything.

Kersi: Me neither.

Natalie took out the Diamond Transporter. She put it underneath the diamond and it teleported to the altar at the Temple.

Natalie: One down, 3 to go.

Suddenly, the wall exploded behind them. The huge boulders came really close to crushing them.

Dennis: TIME TO GO.

They ran to the airship while dodging falling boulders and stalagmites. One boulder fell on Dennis's head and knocked him out. Natalie went back to him and dragged him to the airship. When they got inside, Natalie went the driver seat. Kersi strapped in Dennis as Natalie took off.

Natalie: Did you see anything chasing us?

Kersi: No, I didn't.

A huge monster busted out the top of Mt. Glacius. The Blue Guardian (B.G) looked like a 100 ft. long muscular alligator, with blue skin, sharp eagle like claws, and huge dragonfly like wings with blue feathers on them. It started flying after Natalie's airship. Natalie's proximity warning alarm started going off.

Natalie: Why is my alarm going off?

Kersi looked in the back and saw the B.G. approaching at high speed.

Kersi: We got a huge problem behind us.

Natalie looked at the rear camera.

Natalie: Oh shit.

The B.G. teleported in front of the airship.

Natalie: WHOA!

Natalie stopped the airship seconds before it was about to swallow them whole.

Kersi: Oh my god, I shit my pants on that one.

Natalie: Are you strapped in?

Kersi: Yeah.

Natalie: Dennis too?

Kersi: Yeah.

Natalie: gotta go turbo mode.

Natalie pushed a red button and the airship started moving a lot faster. The B.G kept teleporting to keep up.

Natalie: We're already approaching Monochello Continent.

Kersi: Where are the others?

Natalie: They're too far away to help us. I have an idea.

The airship was now over Monochello Continent.

Kersi: Are you headed to Octo District?

Natalie: Yes.

OCTO DISTRICT.

Their headquarters picked up Natalie's airship and the B.G.

Soldier 1: Major Smith, we have two unidentified objects headed towards our airspace.

Major Smith: What color is the dot?

Soldier: Green Sir.

Major Smith: Green is Unison District. Let them know they're entering restricted airspace.

Soldier: Whatever they have with them is big.

Major Smith: Give them the warning and if they continue we'll have an air squad ready to take them off.

Natalie's Airship.

Radio: You are entering restricted airspace, turn around or we will use lethal force.

Natalie: You can use lethal force on the thing behind me.

Octo District sent 3 airships to fly out to them. When the airships arrived, they shot at Natalie and the B.G. A couple bullets tore thru Natalie's airship.

Natalie: Damn, we're hit.

The 3 airships stayed and attacked the B.G. Natalie took off towards Monochello City. The B.G. headed to Octo District. A huge metallic dome covered the district and a huge cannon emerged from the top. They fired the cannon and it blew up the B.G.

Major Smith: Pilots, find that airship and blew them out the sky. They just initiated an attack on us.

Soldier: Shouldn't we alert the headmaster sir?

Major Smith: We just put the dome over the district; he will be in here shortly.

Natalie's Airship. Natalie got on her radio.

Natalie: Come in Unison come in. We will need assistance in Monochello City. My shuttle is going down, we have been hit and we are going down.

Markus heard her distress.

Markus: Natalie what happened?

Natalie: We was chased by a huge monster, we used Octo District to distract it and Octo District shot at us. The ship got hit and is stalling out. I should be able to make it to Monochello City.

Markus: We're almost there anyway, we will meet you there.

Natalie: Okay good. Be advised that Octo District may be hostel now.

Markus: Copy that.

Natalie's controls started to stall out. And her alarms started going off.

Natalie: No no no no.

Kersi: Should we prepare to eject.

Natalie: None of the controls are working. It won't let us open any doors to eject.

Natalie's airship made it to Monochello City and was approaching downtown. Downtown Monochello City is filled with tall skyscrapers.

Natalie: brace yourself Kersi.

The airship busted through 4 skyscrapers before stopping in the 5th one. Natalie had a lot of cuts and bruises on her.

Natalie: Are you okay Kersi?

Kersi: I'm still alive.

Natalie: How's Dennis?

Kersi felt his pulse.

Kersi: Still have a pulse.

Natalie: Let's get out of here before Octo District shows up.

Dennis woke up.

Dennis: damn I feel like I got hit by a car.

He looked around and noticed that everything was wrecked. He also noticed Natalie and Kersi were injured.

Dennis: What did I miss?

Kersi: We need to get out of here fast.

The 3 Octo District airships arrived at the scene. One of the airships searched the buildings Natalie crashes through, the other 2 started shooting at each floor of the last building Natalie's team were stuck in. Natalie, Kersi, and Dennis took cover and ducked as the bullets flew by them. Suddenly, the two airships blew up. Natalie, Dennis, and Kersi ran to the staircase and started running down the steps. Dennis stopped.

Natalie: What Dennis?

Dennis: Did you guys here that?

They heard a loud ferocious roar come from 5 floors above them and heavy footsteps coming down the stairs.

Dennis: I'm not staying to find out what that was.

They started running down the stairs. The heavy footsteps were coming in faster. Debris was falling from the floors above them. They made it to the lobby and headed towards the entrance. When they made it outside, they ran to one of the wrecked airships that was blown out the sky.

Kersi: I wonder who blew up the airships after us.

Dennis: I wonder what was chasing us.

A huge 20ft tall and 20ft long spider-like creature with black reptile skin, busted out the entrance. It had the body of a spider, praying mantis face, and had very muscular legs. Since the sun was blocked from the high rises it could come out the building.

Kersi: Black reptile skin.

Natalie: A demon...

They started running and the remaining Octo District airships hovered.

Dennis: Damn.

The airship started shooting the demon. After it killed the demon, it put a spotlight on the team.

Speaker: put your hands up and keep them up.

They put their hands up.

Speaker: We are friendly's, I'm the one who blew up the other 2 airships. Instructor Natalie Deluna we've been dispatched to help you.

Natalie: Who are you?

The airship door opened and Iris walked out.

Natalie: (smiles) Iris.

She walked up to Iris and gave her a hug.

Natalie: General Brown sent you.

Iris: Yeah, he told me of your mission and figured you would need help with recovering a diamond that's here in the city.

2 Humvees arrived and cut them off. Five people walked out with guns drawn. Captain Leroy Jenkins and Lloyd were among the group.

Jenkins: Why are you here?

Natalie: I am Instructor Natalie Deluna from the Unison District and Temple of Nature. We are here on a mission from the Temple to retrieve an important item that will help revive the planet. We mean you no harm.

Jenkins: I knew I recognized you. Would you like us to eliminate this Octo District vermin?

Iris: HEY, I AM NO VERMIN YOU ASSHOLE!

Natalie: This is Iris, she is helping us.

Iris: Believe it or not, there are some Octo District people that care about getting our planet back.

Jenkins: I'm sorry, it's just that there has been numerous Octo District Airships flying around and none of them are concerned about saving survivors. There's a huge group by the coliseum and they're more focused on some underground tunnel. Anybody that steps foot in that area, they send them away or kill them.

Natalie: That's where we need to go.

Natalie then recognized who Jenkins was.

Natalie: Oh my God, aren't you Captain Leroy Jenkins of the Outer World Observation Center.

Jenkins: Yes, I am.

Natalie: So, this is where you been? Everybody thought you were dead.

Jenkins: Come with us, we will take you to our camp. Those injuries look serious, we will tend to them.

Chapter 11: Blackbear Village

Team 2: Markus, Jolin, Joel, and Mya. Markus was flying around the downtown area looking for Natalie's airship.

Markus: Her last transmission was in this area.

Joel: Hey look, I think that's her airship in the street down there.

Mya: Does it look like it crashed?

Markus: That's not her airship; it's an Octo District airship.

2 Octo District Airships showed up.

Markus: Damn, time to go.

One of the Octo District Airships shot a missile at Markus's Airship. Markus dodged one missile, but the other hit the back of his ship. The impact made Markus's radio shot out its slot and hit him in the head so hard it knocked him out. The airship started spiraling out of control. Joel jumped into the driver seat and tried to stabilize the airship. The ship was moving so fast it had already spiraled out the city and into the desert.

Mya: Strap up everyone.

Markus's body was still being tossed around. The ship crash landed half a mile outside a desert village named Blackbear Village. The 2 airships flew over the village.

Pilot 1: I think we got them.

Pilot 2: You don't want to double tap.

Pilot 1: We'll just send a ground team to confirm. I'm done flying around right now.

Pilot 2: Okay, I'll call for a ground team to investigate.

The airships flew off. Joel and Mya opened the door.

Joel: I think they're gone. Jolin how is Markus?

Jolin felt his pulse.

Jolin: I have a pulse.

Mya: It looks like were by a village, let's go see if we can get any help or anyway to phone Unison District to help us.

Joel: Who's going to carry Markus?

They all looked at each other.

Jolin: I will stay here with him if you guys want to go get help.

Mya: If any Octo District soldiers come back, there are a couple guns in the cabinet by the door.

Jolin: Okay good.

Joel: We will be back as soon as we can.

Joel and Mya started walking towards the village. Jolin looked at Markus and sighed.

Jolin: (sigh) let's hope they get back before a whole squad show up.

Mya and Joel made it to the village. It was badly damaged due to the quake. Some structures were still standing. There was no one in sight.

Mya: this place looks like it's been abandoned.

Joel: Yeah, hopefully we find something.

Back at the airship, Jolin saw that Markus had a huge cut on his arm from the crash. She went to get a bandage for the wound. As she was getting the bandage, a black worm, the same one that came from underground, slithered on Markus and slide into the opened wounds, then the cut healed up. She walked up to Markus and saw the cut was gone, but green slim was on it.

Jolin: (to herself) what the hell?

Mya and Joel made it to an intersection where a bunch of shops were located. There was a convenience store at the corner.

Mya: Hey look, a store. Let's see if they have any supplies.

They went into the store and started searching for supplies. Joel saw a landline phone and went to see if it worked, but was disappointed when he picked it up and there was no dial tone.

Joel: Dang, it doesn't work.

2 Octo District convoy trucks arrived at the store and parked. About 10 soldiers came out and huddled together. Mya and Joel hid and watched them.

At the airship, Markus woke up and looked around.

Markus: Whoa, what happened?

Jolin: We crash landed.

Markus: my body feels like I got beat up with metal bats.

Jolin gave him some pills.

Jolin: Here take this. It's a "Regeneration Pill" It will make you feel better in no time.

Markus took the pill.

Markus: Thanks.

Jolin: You're welcome.

Markus: At least I woke up to a beautiful woman.

Jolin:(smiles) stop it. Mya and Joel went to find supplies in the village nearby, I think we should go help them.

Markus stood up.

Markus: Wow, that pill does work. I feel great now. Where the hell did you get those?

Jolin: From the Temple of Nature.

At the convenience store, Mya and Joel was still hiding and watching the Octo District soldiers. The 10 soldiers spread out and started searching. 5 Soldiers went into the store that Mya and Joel was hiding. Mya screwed on a silencer for her pistol and signaled Joel that a soldier is coming towards him. Joel grabbed the soldier and slit his throat. One walked by Mya, so she grabbed him, and stabbed him 3 times in the neck. Then both Mya and Joel quickly got up, and shot the remaining 3 soldiers in the head with one shot. They regrouped behind the front counter.

Mya: Piece of cake.

Joel: Yup. Is it bad that I get aroused by this?

Mya: (disgusted) Joel, come on man. I don't need to know that.

Gunshots started erupting outside. Bullets tore through the wall and windows. Mya and Joel took cover. The soldiers were shooting at a metallic 2 story complex across the street. Markus and Jolin arrived in the village and heard the gun fight nearby.

Markus: Time to go to work.

Markus and Jolin started running towards the shots. They hid behind a nearby motel and observed the gunfight.

Jolin: Okay, so we have 4 soldiers shooting at the building across the street, looking at the building, there is gunfire coming from a window downstairs in the west end, 2 on the second story from east and west end, and 2 coming from the roof.

Markus: Whoever is in that building is shooting at the Octo District Soldiers, so they must be rebels. Blackbear Village has always been a main hideout for the rebels here.

Mya and Joel shot the 4 soldiers while their backs were turned.

Jolin: Shots just came from the convenience store behind them.

Markus: Yes Ms. Obvious I saw that.

Jolin: That could be Mya and Joel. I'll go make sure.

Markus: I'll go see who in the building.

Markus and Jolin split up. Markus snuck up to the building and pulled out his gun.

Markus: (to himself) hmm, do I need this. Nope, well maybe, damn, I don't know. Let's treat yourself to a nice steak dinner if you don't pull out your pistol.

Jolin was behind him, but Markus didn't notice.

Markus: (to himself) How about a chicken dinner, damn I so undecided?

Jolin: Markus.

Markus got startled.

Markus: Holy shit, how long have you been standing there?

Jolin: Long enough for me to feel I should be worried about your mental health. Who bets a dinner with himself?

Markus: Aren't you supposed to be at the store across the street?

Jolin: (chuckles) Oh no, don't try to change the subject.

Markus ran into the building. Jolin just laughed and went to the store. As Markus was sneaking around, he silently knocked out each soldier he came across. Jolin walked out in the street with her hands up.

Jolin: HELLO!

Joel and Mya looked up.

Mya: What the hell is Jolin doing?

Joel: I don't know, but I am going to help her.

Joel put his hands up and walked out. Mya did the same.

Jolin: WE'RE FROM THE UNISON DISTRICT.

The one on the roof stood up.

GUY: UNISON DISTRICT? WHATS UNISON DISTRICT DOING HERE?

Jolin: WE WERE SHOT DOWN BY OCTO DISTRICT.

Markus walked up behind the guy on the roof.

Markus: You look familiar.

The guy turned around and pointed his gun at Markus.

Markus: Whoa, we are on the same team.

Jolin: DON'T MIND HIM, HE'S WITH US, DOES HE HAVE A GUN POINTED AT YOU?

Guy: NO

The guy put his gun down.

Jolin: MARKUS, WHAT DID YOU DECIDE, A STEAK DINNER OR WHAT?

Markus: (to himself) Geez this woman.

The front door opened and a female stood at the door.

Girl: Come in before another convoy truck shows up.

They walked into the house. The inside looked like a huge hotel lobby. The 5 rebels regrouped. It was 2 females and 3 males. Jolin, Markus, Joel, and Mya stared at them.

Markus: Sorry I had to knock you guys out for a little bit. If it makes you feel any better I usually kill the people that I sneak up on.

Girl: That's comforting.

Joel: Thanks for letting us in here.

Man: Unison District is not our enemy, we need your help.

Joel: Who are you guys anyway?

Man: I'm John.

Man 2: I'm Evan.

Women 1: I'm Peggy.

Women 2: I'm Virginia.

Man 3: I'm Stix.

Markus, Joel, and Mya just stared at them. Jolin noticed.

Jolin: Don't mind them, that is the same look they gave me when they first met me.

John: Well, if you guys don't mind, we need to find some supplies before the sun disappears behind the mountain.

Joel: What happens when the sun goes down? Do you guys have flashlights?

Virginia: When the sun goes down, that's when all hell breaks loose.

Stix: There are a bunch of monsters that come out of nowhere when the sun goes down. We're thinking they're hiding in a cave system close to here.

Mya: Monsters? What monsters?

Peggy: They're all different looking? They have black snake like skin.

Joel: Great, more demons.

Evan: Demons?

Mya: Yeah, demons.

Markus: If we need supplies then we need to start gathering right now. Do you know where a working vehicle is? We need to get to Monochello City.

Stix: We have 3 outside, we can loan you one if you guys could please help us gather more supplies.

Outside, the sun was creeping lower while the crew searched the village for more supplies. They were searching in every house and business they could get to. Jolin was in a house and was looking at the family pictures. She walked into a bedroom that belonged to the young daughter. As she was looking around she noticed a teddy bear on the floor with blood stains on it.

Jolin: (to herself) I wonder if they got out.

A loud bang came from the floor above her. Then she heard fluttering as if a bunch of birds were in the attic.

Outside, Joel and Markus was searching with Stix.

Stix: Before the Big Event, we had a whole team of about 30 rebels here. Half of them were killed in the earthquake, the other half was killed when these monsters arrived out of nowhere. These things are fucking brutal. You said they're demons?

Markus: Yeah, the planet shut itself to start all over again. It's called the Geniman Process. Since the planet is at its most vulnerable, creatures from other dimensions can slip in. In this case, demons from another dimension is taking over. We need to get to Monochello City to get the red diamond so we can revive the planet. Once the planet is revived, these demons will go away.

Joel: Just think of it as maggots feasting on dead flesh. These demons are the maggots. They're pests. Then they grow into flies and become bigger pests.

Stix looked at the sky and noticed the sun was almost about to fade behind the nearby mountains.

Stix: We don't have much time.

A minivan approached the village and stopped to gas up at the convenience store. It was a husband, wife, and two teenage boys. The husband got out of the van and tried to pump gas. The gas wasn't pumping at all.

Husband: Shit, I'm not getting anything.

He went into the store and saw the bodies of the Octo District soldiers.

Husband: Oh my god.

The sun started setting behind the mountains. Stix, Joel, Markus, and Jolin was walking and searching for more supplies at around the village.

Joel: Hey Markus, guess what I found.

Markus: What's up Joel? You know I don't like guessing games.

Joel: I know, but you know I am still going to make you guess.

Markus sighed and looked at what Joel had in his hand. It was a rare desert Gold Beetle. They look like quarter sized lady bugs but with a gold coat.

Markus: Holy shit, is that a Desert Gold Beetle?

Joel: Yup, didn't think these things would survive huh.

Stix: Dude, how could you be comfortable with that?

Joel: It's just a bug.

Stix: No, I was talking about Markus dealing with a homo for many years.

Markus looked at Stix and then looked at Jolin.

Jolin: Are you serious? You fucking piece of shit?

Stix: I am just saying. Lord knows how many times you had to save that poor bastard.

Markus walked to Stix.

Markus: You want to place a bet on that?

Stix: A bet on what?

Markus: A bet that this "Homo" could whoop your ass in anything. Shooting, martial arts, you name it.

Stix: I doubt he can beat me.

Markus: Joel, you want to prove this dumb ass that you are way more than "just a homo".

Joel: My pleasure.

Joel dropped the beetle and his findings. Stix looked at him and laughed.

Stix: Are you serious?

He looked at Markus, Joel, and Jolin and saw that they all had straight faces.

Markus: Yeah, I am serious. I don't need to get mad for him. I can let him handle you because without a doubt he isn't JUST a homo. He is the world's most dangerous homo you will ever meet and have the privilege of having him on your team right now. So, how about you show us how big and bad you are because from my experience, you aint shit homie.

Stix glared at Markus and walked up to Joel.

Joel: You want to grab a weapon or anything? A gun perhaps?

Stix: Shut up faggot.

Joel started laughing hysterically. Stix got frustrated, ran at Joel and attacked him. Joel proved to be more skillful at martial arts than Stix when he kept blocking and reversing his blows.

Stix: Stop playing with me.

Joel: I'm not even playing with you. I am not even putting effort in this to be considered for the category of playing.

Stix ran at Joel and Joel knocked him out with a swift kick to the face.

Jolin: That's what you get you stupid bully.

Markus: See Joel can handle himself, but it pisses me off when people say shit like that to him or any other homosexual person.

Joel: It's fine Markus, thanks for having my back.

Markus: Anytime man.

Suddenly, a huge scorpion-like demon busted out the ground and swallowed Stix.

Markus: WHOA

It was the size of a Humvee and had tarantula legs, scorpion body and pincher and the face of a praying mantis. Mya, Joel, and Markus started running. Thousands of flying demons appeared over the horrible as well. John, Evan, Peggy, and Virginia saw the flying demons coming.

Virginia: Shit, it's time to get inside everyone.

They started running to the fort. Peggy saw the family running.

Peggy: HEY OVER HERE, FOLLOW US.

As the family was running, a scorpion demon popped out the ground at them. It was seconds away from swallowing one of the teenage boys until Joel shot it. Peggy, Virginia, Evan, and John made it the fort and started shutting everything down.

3 more demon scorpions popped out the ground around the family. One of the demon scorpions grabbed the husband with its pinchers and stabbed him repeatedly with its huge stingers. One of the teenage boy tripped and a demon scorpion dragged him under ground. The other teenage boy was grabbed and the demon ran off with him. Joel went after him but was too slow, the scorpion dragged the boy underneath. Blood gushed out the ground and got on Joel.

The demon bats made it to the village and swarmed all over. Joel ran inside the house that was next door to the safehouse. Markus, Mya, and Jolin met up with Peggy, Virginia, John, and Evan.

Markus: We're missing a man.

John: I saw him run into the house next door.

Virginia: We need to get to the roof then.

They ran outside to the roof because there was a huge spotlight. Inside the house next door, Joel was loading his gun.

Joel: This is crazy. Damn demons, huge ass monsters chasing us, Octo District on our ass, what else can go wrong?

The windows busted open and the demon bats flew inside. Joel ran upstairs while shooting and locked himself in the master bedroom facing the safehouse. All Joel could hear was the wings flapping, the doors and walls banging, and loud shrieking roars from the demon bats. Joel put a proximity mine by the doors and windows just in case the demon bats came inside. It worked because they both exploded and killed a lot of the bats. Joel ducked as the explosion shot thousands of debris in each direction. A lot of them cut him or went into him. The rest of bats smelt the blood and started heading to the room. The spotlight shined into the room and the bats flew away.

Mya: JOEL. JOEL ARE YOU OKAY!?

Joel walked to the hole in the wall. He noticed many of the bats were still flying around the light.

Joel: YEAH, I AM FINE. DAMN THAT LIGHT IS BRIGHT AS HELL.

Mya: STAY IN THE LIGHT AND COME THIS WAY

Joel climbed down the hole in the wall and ran to the safehouse. Mya let him in and hugged him.

Joel: Damn guys its crazy out there.

John: If the lights stay on, they stay away.

Virginia: They never swarmed all over town like this.

Mya: We're from the temple, so they sense us.

Virginia: If they break thru, our safe room is up the stairs.

Outside, a huge snake-like demon was approaching the safehouse at high speed. The cord that supplied the safehouse with power was connected to the huge power generator in the convenience store across from them. The snake caught the cord and ended up pulling the generator out of its place and it went flying thru the walls. The power went out.

John: SHIT, GET UPSTAIRS.

Everyone ran to the panic room upstairs before the demons busted inside. Virginia locked all the doors.

Virginia: There they won't get in.

Jolin: Are we safe in here?

John: Yes, we should be safe. We just gotta ride this out until the sun comes up.

Peggy: If we last that long.

Mya: Well you sure got a shitty attitude.

Peggy: I'm scared bitch, there's thousands of monsters on the other side of those doors.

Jolin: Demons, those things are demons.

Virginia: How do you know that?

Joel: I could have sworn Mya told someone that we were from the temple.

John: You don't have to be rude man, we didn't know that.

Joel: Anyone of you guys homophobic too like your boy Stix?

John: What happened to Stix?

Jolin: The demons got him.

Markus: He deserved it too.

Peggy: Yeah, he wasn't the greatest person.

They heard a loud ferocious roar downstairs. They all stood up and looked around.

Peggy: I don't know what that was just now, but I never heard it before and it came from downstairs.

Mya: It sounded big too.

John: The cameras will show what we're up against.

Markus was sitting in the corner holding his stomach. Jolin walked to him.

Jolin: You okay, you're being unusually quiet right now?

Markus: I think I may be hungry or something because my stomach is killing me right now?

Jolin: People usually say that when they have diarrhea.

Markus: I may have that too. I did eat the burritos from cafeteria.

Everyone met up at the camera monitor. John was controlling it. They couldn't see anything in the screen.

John: I can't see shit on this monitor.

Jolin: Where is the camera pointed at?

John moved the camera more and realized it was facing the wall.

John: Why the hell was the camera facing the wall?

Virginia and Evan looked at each other and smirked. There were hundreds of flying demon-bats, demon-scorpions, and demon spiders.

Joel: I think we can get passed that?

Peggy: How? There is too many of them.

A spider claw busted through the floor. It startled all of them.

Markus: WHOA.

Many more started poking through the floors, so they tried their best to dodge them. One of the spider legs busted through the floor under John's leg. It went into his foot and came out his knee cap. John screamed in agonizing pain as the blood poured out his leg. Then a few more tore through his body as he was laying on the floor screaming. Once the blood poured thru the floor and the demons caught scent of it, they started going crazy trying to get to the top floor. The rest gathered in a corner.

Mya: If we are going to get out of here, now would be the best time.

One of the demon-scorpions busted thru the floor, so the others shoot it.

Joel: Shit.

Joel took out all his incinerating grenades and threw them in the bottom floor while the others continued to shoot the demons that were coming up from the floor.

Joel: GET DOWN.

The grenade exploded and it took out much of the demons that were downstairs.

Joel: Come on let's go.

Virginia: Where?

Joel: To the Humvees you told us about.

They started to run downstairs to the front door. As they were running, a sharp pain shot through Markus's stomach. It made him kneel so Jolin stopped too.

Jolin: Are you okay Markus?

Markus: That damn pain again. This can't be diarrhea

Jolin: We'll we gotta go Markus.

She helped Markus up and they ran to the group while shooting the random demons that tried to attack them. As they were running, Virginia was sucked underground by a demon scorpion. Evan was taken by a group of demon-bats. Alex and Peggy were the only two left from the rebel group. Humvee #1 was Mya, Joel, Peggy. Humvee#2 was Jolin, Markus, and Alex.

Humvee 1: Peggy was the driver, Mya and Joel was shooting at the demons chasing them

Joel: Does this Humvee go any faster.

Peggy: We're about 15 minutes away from Monochello City. We'll be safest there.

Mya: That's where we need to go anyway.

Humvee 2: Alex was driving, Markus and Jolin was shooting.

Markus: We have a shit load of demon-bats on our ass. And I'm out of bullets.

Jolin: Me too.

Alex: We're in a Humvee guys, the gun on the hood.

Markus: Oh yeah.

Jolin: I wanna do it.

Jolin quickly got up and started shooting the gun.

Alex: Too slow man.

Markus: (sigh) Ladies first.

Jolin: Way to be chivalrous.

They made it to Monochello City. As they were on the Highway, Humvee #1 was approaching a bridge that was destroyed. The demon-bats grouped around Humvee #1.

Peggy: I can't see shit.

Peggy lost control of the Humvee and it started to flip and slide. It stopped right before it hit the ledge. Alex stopped his Humvee and quickly got out and started shooting the bats around the crash site. Jolin was using the railgun on the top of the Humvee to kill all bats. Markus and Alex helped them all out. Peggy had a bone sticking out her arm and leg. She was screaming in pain.

Alex: Oh, my god. We need to get her to a hospital.

Markus saw an area of lights.

Markus: There is a bunch of lights out there.

Mya: What if that's Octo District?

Markus: I don't see any Octo District airships or vehicles down there.

Joel: Well let's see anyway.

They helped Peggy in the Humvee and drove to the area with the lights. When they drove up, a group of guys ran up with their guns drawn.

Guy 1: GET OUT THE VEHICLE WITH YOUR HANDS UP.

They all got out the Humvee with their hands up.

Markus: My name is Markus Avery with the Unison District, we have a hurt teammate in here.

Guy 1: Why are you guys driving an Octo District Humvee?

Markus: We stole them.

The guys put their guns away.

Guy 1: That's the most gangster shit I heard in 3 weeks. Come, we have supplies that can help you guys, where is the hurt team mate.

Jolin: She's in the back seat.

The other two guys went to back seat to get Peggy. Once they saw the bones sticking out of her leg and arm they both threw up.

Guy 2: Oh, my god, the whole bone is showing.

Captain Jenkins and Natalie walked up to the scene.

Jenkins: What's going on?

Natalie: Markus, Jolin, Joel.

She ran to them and gave them a hug.

Natalie: Thank god you guys are okay.

Jenkins: You know them.

Natalie: They're on my team. Except for the hurt girl and that other guy.

Mya: Hey, aren't you Captain Leroy Jenkins of The Outer World Observation Center.

Jenkins: Yup that's me.

Markus: So, you been here this whole time. There have been many search parties out for you.

Jenkins: Come in guys, we have much to discuss.

CHAPTER 12: The Green Diamond Situation.

Josh's airship landed in Tanamo Continent during the morning time. Josh, Lalaine, Amy, and Mike got out and looked around. The lush jungle was full of dead trees and volcanic ash that was still on the ground.

Lalaine: It's so ugly here now.

Amy: It used to be beautiful here.

Josh looked at the Diamond locator.

Josh: It says the diamond is close by.

Mike was looking up at Mt. Finine. The volcano was gone due to the explosion of the eruption.

Mike: Dang, Mt. Finine is gone.

Lalaine: Everything else is gone here too, it wiped out everything when it erupted.

Amy: Do you think it wiped out whatever guardian is guarding the green diamond.

Josh: Speaking of that, I haven't heard from Natalie or Markus, I wonder if they found the other diamonds.

Lalaine: I haven't heard from Jolin either, usually she lets me know if she's okay.

Josh: Let's get this diamond and go back to them.

Lalaine pulled out a drone.

Lalaine: I'm going to send this to the temple to see if they teleported any of the other diamonds.

She sent the drone away and it flew off at high speed.

Amy: That is cool. I didn't know they were that fast.

Lalaine: Yeah, it should be there and back in 20 minutes.

Josh: What else you got in that bag?

Lalaine: I honestly don't know what all I have in there.

Josh: There is nothing in there that can blow us up or anything?

Lalaine: No, I wouldn't put anything like that in this bag.

Josh: Okay

They made it to the lake that the green diamond was located. It was a big lake.

Amy: Lake Randon.

Josh: Isn't this the lake with all them dangerous fish.

Mike: Yeah, but I am sure there is nothing living in there anymore.

The water to the lake was a deep gray color.

Lalaine: This lake used to be so beautiful. Clear blue and green water. Now it just looks depressing.

Josh: well, per the locator, it's in the water, not too far from shore.

Lalaine looked at the other end of the lake and saw black smoke.

Lalaine: Hey guys, am I seeing things or is there smoke coming from the other end of the lake?

Josh pulled out his binoculars and saw an Octo District Camp.

Josh: You got to be kidding me. Its Octo District.

Mike: (sigh) What should we do?

Josh: Hopefully they haven't found the diamond yet. We would need to see if they found it, and if not, either beat them to it or take them out and get it.

Lalaine: I'm guessing you are aiming towards take them out and take it.

Josh: (chuckles) It's like you know me well.

Lalaine: You are not hard to figure out.

Josh: All of us being from the temple and different districts, I'm sure we all possess the ability to get this mission done.

Lalaine: Let's do it.

Mike: Yeah, I'm down. I haven't been in any action like you guys have been since this all kicked off.

Josh: (smiles) Lets do this then.

They started making their way to the Octo District camp. At the camp, the group of soldiers were setting their equipment ready to go inside the water. They had about 10 tents set up, and a few crates laying around. There were 2 airships, and 5 jet skis. As they were setting up camp, they were unaware of the many large, neon green tentacles coming out the water. The tentacles looked like extremely long anacondas with huge piranha-like faces and long razor-sharp teeth. The tentacles started grabbing the soldiers and eating them off.

When Josh, Amy, Mike, and Lalaine arrived, it was a bloodbath.

Amy: Oh-my-God.

Josh: What happened here?

Mike: You think the Guardians got them.

They all pulled out their guns.

Josh: Be ready for anything. They said the guardians for the Red Diamond were bad so I am sure the ones for the green diamond is too.

The drone made it back to Lalaine.

Lalaine: Looks like they got the Blue Diamond.

Josh: Okay good, so they would be going after the Red Diamond on Monochello Cointinent.

Lalaine looked at the locator and noticed the diamond was closer to them.

Lalaine: Hey guys, the diamond should be right there, like swimming distance.

A lot of blood was trailing into the water.

Mike: a lot of the blood is trailing into the water, so we I'm guessing.

A tentacle popped out the water and startles Mike. He quickly shot he tentacle in the head.

Mike: WHOA.

Amy saw more tentacles slithering out the water.

Amy: MIKE HURRY OVER HERE.

Mike met back up with the group. Amy gave him a big hug.

Josh: we need to lure those fuckers out the water so we can get the diamond. Lalaine, you know how you keep asking me to fly my airship.

Lalaine: Yup.

Josh: Today is that day.

Lalaine: Hell yeah.

Lalaine started running back to the airship.

Josh: Mike, Amy, any of you good swimmers?

Amy: I am, I can hold my breath for like 5 minutes.

Josh: How the hell is that possible?

Mike: Trust me, she can do it.

Josh: Okay, when Lalaine shoots the thing out the water, I will lure it out into the wood, that's when you should go for the diamond.

Mike: What about me?

Josh: You stay above and if the monster comes back, you lure him another direction.

They started shooting the tentacles they came across. Josh found an ammo crate with bigger guns.

Josh: HELL YEAH.

Lalaine arrived with the airship. She started shooting at the water and shooting missiles as well.

The Green Guardian (GG) came up from the water. It looked like a giant neon green squid with a lot of the snake tentacles on the bottom. As it roared, Josh hit it with an RPG. The GG looked at Josh and glared at him.

GG: Did you just fucking hit me with a missile.

Josh: WHOA, I didn't know these things could talk.

The GG went after Josh, so he ran into the woods. When the lake was clear, Amy and Mike grabbed 2 jet skis and went to the area where the diamond was located. Amy gave Mike a kiss and jumped into the lake. Mike stood watch.

In the woods, Josh was still running and shooting.

GG: GET BACK HERE, IT WON'T HURT AT ALL.

Lalaine kept shooting missiles at the RG. He started swatting at the airship with his tentacles. Lalaine dodged each one and kept shooting. She inflicted major damage to the GG.

Amy made it to the Diamond. She grabbed it and quickly swam back to the surface. Mike grabbed the diamond from her.

Mike: Good job babe.

The GG sensed the diamond, so he quickly headed back to the lake.

Josh: Shit, he's going back to the lake.

Lalaine swooped down and picked Josh up.

Josh: Good Job Lalaine.

Lalaine: Do you want to switch?

Josh: No, I'm going to take him down.

Amy and Mike was headed to other side of the lake with the jet skis. As they were riding, Amy took out the Diamond Teleporter and sent it to the Temple. The GG made it to the water and started swimming towards Mike and Amy and high speed. They were going as fast as they could but the GG was closing in fast.

Lalaine flew over the GG.

Lalaine: Josh, there is a silver ball in my bag, take out, push the button and throw it at the Guardian.

Josh reached in the bag, pulled out the silver ball. Pushed the button, and threw it at the GG. The silver ball stuck to the GG. Just as the GG was seconds away of grabbing Mike and Amy, the ball exploded. The explosion blew up the GG and the blast sent Amy and Mike flying off their jet skis, skidding across the water like skipping stones, and landing on shore. Amy and Mike just laid there when Lalaine arrived. Lalaine and Josh ran to Amy and Mike.

Josh: Are you guys okay?

Lalaine: Any of you hurt?

Amy: I'm okay.

Mike: Me too, just very, very sore.

Josh: (looks at Lalaine) I thought you said there was nothing in that bag that could blow us up. What the hell do you call that silver ball?

Lalaine: I call it a life saver at this moment.

Josh: Yeah, that would be the best thing to call it.

Josh laid on the ground along with Amy and Mike.

Josh: we got to see if they need help in Monochello Continent after we rest. It's been a long morning.

CHAPTER 13: Activation

The Temple of Nature. Caitlyn was in the Diamond room looking at the Blue and Green Diamonds floating. Her diamond necklace was still glowing. High Priestess Blue walked in the room.

Blue: Are you okay Caitlyn?

Caitlyn: I don't know. I am still kind of grieving Grandpa. Being melted or being crushed would be a really messed up way to go.

Blue: I agree. It's been a rough couple of months. But our team is out there making good progress. It looks like they have 2 diamonds already.

Caitlyn: I wish there was something I could do to help. I been training a lot, I'm sure I can help them fight.

Blue: Caitlyn, there is one way you can help them and the planet at this moment.

Caitlyn: How?

Blue: That glowing diamond in your necklace is the generator key. You stick that diamond in the middle of that pillar and it will activate the diamonds.

Caitlyn: What does each diamond represent.

Blue: Each diamond represents different aspects of nature and life. The Blue Diamond is for the weather, sky and sea. The Green Diamond is for nature, growth, harmony, freshness and fertility. The Yellow Diamond is sunshine, joy, happiness, and energy. The Red Diamond is for fire, blood, passion, and love.

Caitlyn: So, with the Blue and Green Diamond here already. When I activate them, that will pretty much kick start the weather and nature process.

Blue: Yes, it will.

Caitlyn: Can I do it now or do I have to wait for all diamonds?

Blue: You can do it now, when the other diamonds arrive it will just activate them also.

Caitlyn took off her necklace and placed it on the pillar. The diamond shot green lasers to the blue and green diamond and they lit up.

Caitlyn: Wow, I had that around my neck this whole time.

Blue: (smiles) You sure did, your granddad was looking after it and felt it was in good hands with you.

Outside, rain clouds started forming outside.

Monochello Continent.

Thunder clouds started forming. It started raining in Monochello City. Natalie, Jolin, Markus, Joel, Dennis, Mya, Kersi, Jenkins, Lloyd, Iris, and the others in the community ran outside. They watched and celebrated as it down poured. The rain clouds started forming around Josh's airship. They all looked at the window.

Amy: Is that rain?

Josh: (Smiles) It sure is.

It started raining in Unison Continent. Everyone went outside in the rain. Everyone was outside at the Temple of Nature also.

Lee: Isn't it incredible. (while talking, shows people celebrating around the world in the rain) How something as simple as rain can bring joy and happiness to a large amount of people. It goes to show you how people take things for granted and once it's taken away they never realize how much they need it.

Monochello City.

Natalie, Jolin, Markus, Joel, Dennis, Mya, Kersi, Jenkins, Lloyd, and Iris were in the planning room.

Iris: Per our special ops team, the Headmaster is going to have them bomb that cave. Everyone they sent in keeps getting killed by creatures that live there.

Natalie: Those things are the guardians of that diamond. Bombing them would be a big help.

Markus: That should be our entry time. Once they bomb the caves, it will reduce our encounters with those things.

Mya: But then that will ruin the whole layout. I won't be able to remember where the room was. And what if the explosion destroys the diamond.

Jenkins: It was my understanding that the diamonds can't be destroyed.

Joel: Are those things really that bad?

Natalie, Mya, and Markus stared at him.

Joel: Okay.

Iris: I will send a message to General Brown to see if he can provide us with some help.

Natalie: If their radios work we can send a message to Unison District also.

Jenkins: So, we strike tonight.

Lloyd: bout time we get some action around here.

Jenkins: What are you talking about? We get action here all the time.

Later that night, it was still raining heavily and the streets were flooding. The group was overlooking the Octo District camp site by the underground cave.

Joel: Damn do you think it's flooded deep in there.

Mya: It shouldn't be too bad Joel.

Iris: there should be a Comm Tent in there. We need to get to it.

They snuck down to the campsite and started taking out Octo District soldiers one by one.

Josh's airship arrived in Monochello City.

Josh: I'm not picking up any of their airship trackers.

Iris and Natalie made it to the Comm Tent.

Iris: I just need the phone, you can use the radio to call Unison District.

Iris picked up the phone to call General Brown, Natalie used the radio to get ahold of Unison District.

OCTO DISTRICT

General Brown received Iris's message. He quickly walked to the Comms Room and shut off their "distress alarm". He received a call from Headmaster Johnson.

General Brown: Yes Headmaster.

Johnson: Tell them to blow the cave now.

General Brown: Yes sir.

AT THE CAMP.

They started bombing the cave. Joel, Mya, and Kersi was right next to the cave when the ground collapsed beneath them and they fell into the cave.

Mya: You guys okay.

Joel: I'm fine.

Kersi: Me too.

One of the RG's jumped on Kersi's back, but Mya and Joel quickly killed it before it could do anything to her.

Kersi: What the hell was that?

Joel: Was that one of the guardians?

Mya: Yes, it was.

Joel: See, they're not so bad.

Mya: Just keep that attitude once you run into more than one of those things.

Fire was still engulfing the walls and water. There were hundreds of dead RG bodies lying on the floor. Markus, Jolin, Dennis, and Lloyd were taking out the guards on the surface. A lot of the Octo District guards were being snatched by the demons lurking in the darkness. Natalie, Jenkins, and Iris jumped into underground cave.

Natalie: Remember stay in the light, these demons are headed our direction because they're drawn to us.

On the surface. Markus met up with Jolin.

Markus: We got rid of most the guards. A lot of them disappeared for some reason.

Jolin: Markus, look at the area that don't have light.

Markus saw all the demons lurking and watching in the darkness.

Jolin: That is why a lot of them disappeared.

Markus: There's so many of them, if these lights fail we'll have to use the fire light in the cave.

Lightning started flashing in the sky. Each lightning flash you could see the demons flying or running from the light.

IN THE CAVE, Mya was guiding Joel and Kersi to the room. The water from the rain was up to their knees.

Mya: This so much easier, yet so much harder at the same time.

Kersi: Why is that?

Mya: The bombs destroyed a lot of the Guardians, but the flood is making it harder to navigate the cave and remember where I'm going.

Kersi: But you can remember, right?

Mya: Yes Kersi, I can remember where it is. (looks around) Sort of.

She saw the glowing red light from the diamond.

Mya: And we are here.

They heard roars and growling in the near distance.

Kersi: It sounds like they are close.

Mya: They will be in the room too, we need to either draw them out or kill them all.

ON THE SURFACE:

Jolin, Markus, Dennis and Lloyd met up at the entrance.

Dennis: Well that went a lot smoother than I thought it would.

Jolin: That is weird.

A bolt of lightning struck the camp and all the lights went out. They heard all the demons roaring and shrieking. Many wings were flapping towards them along with heavy footsteps.

Markus: Time to go in the abyss.

Markus jumped in the hole. The rest followed.

Markus: Damn, that fall looked a lot shorter than I thought.

Jolin: Everything looks shorter when its dark out Markus.

Dennis: Come on let's go find Mya.

Mya, Kersi, and Joel made it to the room with the red diamond, but no Guardians were inside the room. The red diamond was still floating in the middle. Mya looked at the ceiling and there were none there also.

The others were still running and ran into 3 RG's. The RG's lunged in their direction but wasn't going after them, they were going for the demons that were behind them.

In the diamond room, four 8 ft. tall dark shadow demons walked slowly inside the room.

Kersi: Um, guys, what are those?

Mya: Demons.

The demons were whispering to each other. Joel shot at them, but the bullets didn't do anything to these demons.

Joel: Um. Our guns killed the last demons, why isn't it effecting these ones?

One of the Shadow-Demons walked towards the diamond, while the other 3 stared at the team and slowly walked towards them. They could hear the gunshots and other roars from the Guardians and Demons.

Kersi turned around and another Shadow-Demon was behind her.

Mya: KERSI!! LOOK BEHIND YOU.

The demon grabbed Kersi by the back of her neck. Mya and Joel started shooting at it. It threw Kersi against the wall. 6 RG's busted thru the walls and attacked the demons before they could get to the diamond.

Joel: Mya tend to the diamond.

Mya ran to the diamond and an RG ran to the diamond. Mya paused and the RG stared at her. Joel was still shooting the demons, but the RG's were damaging them. The other RG's saw Joel shooting at the demons, so they didn't attack him. Joel ran to Kersi to see if she was still alive.

Mya showed her temple tattoo and the diamond transporter. The RG pointed to the ceiling. Mya looked up and saw large orange eyes staring at her.

In the hallways of the underground cave, Natalie and Dennis were running from bat-demons and spider-demons. Jenkins and Lloyd were setting more fires to keep out the demons. One RG pinned Lloyd to the wall, but the Spider-demon grabbed the RG. Markus, Jolin, and Iris was still running around trying to find Mya and the others while taking out more demons. They came up to the red light but saw many RG's going inside the crack in the wall.

Jolin: That's where the diamond is.

Dennis: Yeah and that's where the guardians are headed too.

Suddenly, and loud furious roar came from the room. All the RG's ran out the room and attacked all the demons instead of attacking them. Jolin, Markus, and Iris ran in the room and saw Mya, Kersi, and Joel.

Jolin: Oh, my God is Kersi okay.

Markus: Is that the diamond?

Mya: Yeah, look up.

They looked up at the ceiling and saw the master Guardian. It looked like a semi-truck sized queen bee with red reptile like skin, tiger stripes, and the same faces as the other ones.

Markus: Whoa.

Mya: They're helping us guys. They're protecting the diamond from those demons outside.

Iris: Natalie and the others are still out there.

Markus: I'll go find them, Mya hurry and transport the diamond.

Markus ran out while shooting. Jenkins and Lloyd ran in with the flamethrowers.

Jenkins: Okay so it seems the monsters are fighting each other and leaving us alone.

Lloyd turned around and saw the others, but there were RG's in the room.

Lloyd: Okay, did we miss something? Were we not supposed to kill those things?

Natalie and Dennis were running and shooting at the demons.

Dennis: It doesn't seem like the fire is doing anything.

Natalie: I think I can remember the way to the coliseum. I am out of bullets.

Dennis: Me too.

Natalie: Follow me.

In the Diamond room. Mya was trying to teleport the diamond but the shadow demons kept showing up and attacking her. The master RG and the rest were doing their best to kill all the demons in the room. Jolin, Joel, Jenkins, Iris, and Lloyd were still shooting at them. They were more afraid of Jenkin and Lloyd's flame throwers. The Master RG did an extremely loud roar. All the remaining RGs ran back to the diamond room. In the hallways, they all ran right past Natalie and Dennis.

Natalie: (confused) Okay, so what is going on?

Dennis: They're running away, but those demons are still coming Natalie.

Natalie and Dennis started running towards the entrance to the Coliseum. Outside the cave, Josh's airship arrived. They looked down and saw hundreds of different demons lurking around and headed into the cave.

Lalaine: Do you see that?

Amy: That's got to be where the red diamond and the others are at.

Josh: Do you have anything in that bag of yours that will help us clear these things out?

Lalaine: I don't know. Let me check.

Lalaine went to her bag and searched around. She pulled out 3 pink metallic ball.

Lalaine: These things may be help.

They opened the door and she dropped the balls. Thousands of demon-bats were flying round their ship. A huge electronic explosion created a dome around the underground cave site and started electrocuting every demon that was caught inside it. A lightning bolt hit Josh's airship and caused it to lose its electronics.

Josh: OH shit. I think we got hit.

His airship started going out of control.

Josh: Get ready to crash land.

In the diamond room. Mya was finally able to transport the red diamond.

Mya: Okay, I transported the diamond.

Joel: Good, let's get to the Coliseum.

They all started making their way towards the coliseum while Jenkins and Lloyd surrounded them with flames to keep the demons away. One of the demons got ahold of Lloyd.

Jenkins: NOO!!

The demon dragged Lloyd around the counter while he screamed for his life. All the RG's started attacking the demons in the entranceway to the coliseum. One of the RG's grabbed Mya's hand and guided them to the closest exit.

Mya: GUYS FOLLOW US.

As they neared the entrance, A giant Tarantula-demon jumped in from of them.

Jenkins: SHIT.

Josh's airship crash landed on the demon and killed it.

Joel: Well, that was convenient.

Josh, Lalaine, Amy, and Mike climbed out.

Mya: JOSH!!

Josh: We came just in time huh?

Mya: You always do, but we need to get to the coliseum.

Markus was still running in the cave looking for Natalie. Suddenly, the sharp pain shot thru his stomach once again. The pain made him fall to his knees.

Markus: (to himself) Damn, what the hell is causing this?

Natalie and Dennis made it to the coliseum entrance. Natalie saw that Josh, Amy, Lalaine, and Mike was with them.

Natalie: Josh, when did you guys get here?

Josh: We crash landed.

Jolin: Markus went to look for you guys. I'll go find him.

Jolin ran off to look for Markus.

Lalaine: Wait Jolin.

The others went into the coliseum and started heading towards the entrance outside.

Further in the cave, Markus was still struggling to move. Jolin found him lying on the ground.

Jolin: Markus! Are you okay?

Markus: There's something wrong with me.

Jolin: We need to get to the coliseum. Unison District should be out waiting for us.

Dozens of demons arrived and started walking slowly towards them. A few RG's came up behind them.

Jolin: shit.

She started shooting at the demons. Markus started screaming and a loud demonic growl came from his scream. His skin started bubbling as if it was water boiling. Jolin started to panic as the RG's backed away from them.

Jolin: oh my god Markus. What's happening to you?

The demons started backing up from them and walking away.

INSIDE THE COLISEUM

Josh, Lalaine, Amy, Mike, Natalie, Iris, Jenkins, Dennis, Joel, Mya, and Kersi was trying to find the entrance.

Natalie: I don't know where the entrance is with all this wreckage.

Mya: Me neither.

Dennis: Should we split up?

They all looked at him like he was an idiot.

Dennis: Okay never mind. Just asking damn.

Natalie: I haven't seen any demons yet.

Joel: What about Jolin and Markus? Someone should go and meet with them.

Lalaine: I'll go.

Joel: I'll go with you.

Lalaine and Joel ran off. The others moved forward. The others made it to lobby part but had to stop.

Josh: Whoa. What the fuck is that?

They all stood still and stayed quiet. The room was filled with spider webs and holes in the ground. There was a demon spider in the middle of one of the webs and a demon scorpion going into the hole. One the ceiling was dozens of demon bats also.

Iris: it seems like it should've been this way in the cave.

They saw lightning and heard the rain and thunder.

Natalie: I hear thunder and rain, there is a way out close by here.

It started lightning again and Josh saw the opening.

Josh: I see the opening. How the hell are we going to make it there?

INSIDE THE CAVE

Jolin was helping Markus walk to the entrance to the coliseum. Lalaine and Joel met up with Jolin and Markus.

Joel: What happened to Markus?

Jolin: I don't know, he is sick, his body is burning up. Like literally boiling.

Joel helped Jolin with carrying Markus.

Lalaine: We got the green diamond.

Jolin: Thank god. I was worried about you.

Lalaine: You know I always make it Jolin.

Joel: Is it me, or did this cave clear out. There's no more guardians or demons running around.

Jolin: I noticed that too.

They made it to the coliseum and started making their way towards the rest of the group.

Joel: I don't know where we are going.

Jolin: I do, I been to this coliseum many times so I can probably figure it out even thru all this wreckage.

Markus finally started feeling better.

Markus: Guys, I think I can walk now.

Jolin: What the hell was happening to you Markus?

Markus: I don't know, but it hurt like hell.

Jolin: Well follow me.

The others were still trying to figure out how to get past the demon spiders and scorpions.

Amy: Did Lalaine bring her bag with her?

Mike: Yeah, she did.

A demon scorpion was sneaking up behind them. It grabbed Kersi with its pincer and she screamed. The group turned around and started shooting at the demon.

Mya: KERSI

Joel: GET HER!!

The pincher snapped Kersi in half. Her blood got all over them. Joel, Mya, Dennis, Josh, and Natalie started screaming and shooting.

All the other demon spiders, scorpions, and bats started rushing towards them. Dennis was going crazy and shooting.

Dennis: YOU GOT MY KERSI YOU MOTHAFUCKAS!!!!!!

Josh: DENNIS, COME ON WE GOTTA GET OUT OF HERE.

Dennis: JUST GO, GET TO THE ENTRANCE.

Dennis grabbed a few grenades and threw them all over the room, then grabbed his last two and unpinned them. The demons were closing in on him and all the grenades exploded. Taking him and many of the demons out in the room.

Josh shook his head then started punching the wall,

Josh: This is bullshit.

Natalie: We can grieve later, we need to get out of here so we can get the last diamond. Their deaths will not be in vain.

They started running towards the opening in the wall. As they were running, The Unison District convoy trucks and Airship busted thru the wall. They started coming in with guns, flamethrowers, and grenade launchers. The team made it to the airships. When the rest of them found Markus, Jolin, Joel, and Lalaine, they escorted them to the rendezvous point. They all made it to the airships and flew off. Joe was on the airship also.

Joe: Glad you guys made it.

Natalie: Not all of us did.

Joe: Who did we lose?

Josh: Kersi and Dennis. Captain Jenkins lost his colleague too.

Joel: (Devastated) We lost Kersi and Dennis?

The team took the time to mourn their fallen comrades.

Natalie: That's it, when we get the last diamond I am going to kill Headmaster Johnson myself.

CHAPTER 14: The discovery

THE TEMPLE OF NATURE.

Jolin was visiting with Lee and Blue in the garden.

Lee: So, you said that Markus had a huge cut, and it healed fast with green stuff coming from it.

Jolin: Yes, and then he kept having sharp stomach pains, and I saw his skin like literally boiling when he had those pains. When that happened the demons and the guardians backed away from him.

Blue: It seems like a little demon may have slipped into him and trying to take over his body. But his body won't allow it to take over so easily. Otherwise he would have turned already. The best way to get it out of him is to give him some of the poison of the Demon Orchid. Once the poison shuts his body down, he will get rid of the worm either by vomiting or defecating. After that, give him a Reconstruct Seed to give him his strength.

Jolin: Can't we just squish it?

Lee: Not after it has already taken a host. But this demon, when he is out, we need to catch it. Did you see Markus here earlier?

Jolin: Yeah, I think he is still here.

Lee: Good, because if he was infested with a dark demon he would not have been able to step foot around here. Mother Nature put an invisible shield over to keep demons out. The ONLY demons that are allowed on temple ground are Bladein Descendant Demons. If he is here, he is being used by one of them. They just don't choose random people, they choose strong people who are in a weakened state so they can gain energy and give them energy as well.

Jolin: So, would it be better to keep the demon inside him?

Blue: I know Markus, he is not going to want to keep that inside him.

Jolin: Why are Bladein Descendant Demon's special?

Lee: The only way to answer that is to have you go to the scroll room and read the scroll of Bladein. We will just say that him and Mother has an alliance. A special alliance.

Jolin: Okay so poison of the Demon Orchid, and the Reconstruct Seed. Got it. When the demon gets out, catch it, and bring it here.

Lee: Yes.

Blue: I heard you lost a couple members of the team.

Jolin: Yeah, we did.

Blue: Just one more diamond to go. Don't worry, the planet will award those who have fallen. Their deaths will not be in vain.

OCTO DISTRICT

Headmaster Johnson was in his office when he called General Brown up. Brown walked in.

Johnson: I hear that the Red Diamond was confiscated by the Unison District and that they took out all our troops there.

Brown: I was unaware of that.

Johnson: Yeah, they tried to send a distress to us, but the lines were cut off. If I am not mistaken, that can only be done from here.

Brown: Yes, that's true.

Johnson: Why haven't you found any of the traitors that I asked you to find.

Brown: We have been looking.

Johnson: Maybe you are looking in the wrong places. Maybe one of the traitors is right in front of my face. You don't think I don't have cameras all over this place.

Brown: Maybe you're the traitor. The last couple years you sure as hell haven't been yourself. You broke every peace treaty with all Districts. You're killing your own citizens. YOU'RE THE FUCKING TRAITOR!

Johnson charged at Brown and threw him against the wall. Then he held Brown up by his neck with one arm. Brown tried to defend himself with his martial arts training, but he was no match for Johnson. Johnson's eyes started glowing orange.

Johnson: First we will destroy Unison District for attacking us with that giant monster and interfering with our operations twice.

Brown: Because of you and this operation the planet is dead. Now it makes since why you're after the diamonds. Why you've changed so much. It wasn't even Johnson.

Johnson: Don't worry, we will reunite you with him in a little bit.

4 soldiers came in.

Johnson: Send this traitor to the concentration camp with the others.

The soldiers took General Brown to the concentration camp and threw him inside a dungeon like cage. There was someone lying down in the dark corner when they threw him in.

Brown: DONT YOU GUYS KNOW THAT AINT THE REAL HEADMASTER. HE'S AN IMPOSTER!!

The guy in the corner got up.

Guy: I have been saying that for 2 years and yet they don't seem to care.

Brown: Who are you?

The guy walked out the corner and it was the real Headmaster Johnson.

Brown: Johnson?

Johnson: I must admit. I am a little disappointed that no one noticed that imposter wasn't me.

Brown: How could we have known? We just thought you went crazy. What happened to you?

Johnson: I was possessed. All I remember was getting back from a hot date and then waking up in here. Next thing I know I am looking at myself and it's telling me they are going to destroy everything I worked so hard for, and the world at the same time. I have tried escaping so many times, tried to get message out that I was here, and asked them to just kill me, but they insist on making me stay here.

Brown: Well, we need to find a way out because we been staging an uprising against you. Well, against your demon clone.

One of the guards was pacing back and forth in front of the cave.

Guard: It seems to be snowing in the desert.

Brown: Let's break out the snowmobile.

Johnson: (Confused) What?!

Brown: that's our secret code. To know who is with the uprising and who isn't. (to guard) What is your name young man?

Guard: Aaron, Aaron Smith sir.

Brown: You see this man right here Aaron, do you know who he is?

Johnson had a huge and thick beard and also long hair.

Aaron: He looks like a homeless version of our headmaster.

Brown: This is Headmaster Johnson. The real one.

Aaron: I KNEW IT. I just won a bet.

Johnson: That's great, but do you happen to have a key or know a way out of here?

Aaron: Sure do. We got your message and have an airship ready for you right now, the only thing I am waiting for is the boom.

The wall behind them exploded. All the alarms went. Aaron escorted Brown and Johnson out to the airship while taking out the few guards that tried to stop them. They made it to the airship and took off.

Brown: Good job Aaron.

Aaron: Thank you sir, where are we headed?

Johnson: Unison District. We need to let them know what the hell is going on.

UNISON DISTRICT.

Natalie was walking with Iris and Jenkins to Headmaster Peebles office. General Larus opened the door. They saluted him and walked in.

Peebles: Instructor Natalie, how are things progressing with the Temple mission.

Natalie: We have one more diamond to go. We did lose a few in the process.

Peebles: I am sorry Natalie.

Natalie: The last diamond is in Octo District and we will need some help with this one.

Peebles: It's in Octo District?

Natalie: Yes sir. This here is Iris. She is a combat pilot with Octo District. Her, General Brown, and others are staging an uprising against the Headmaster so they will help with gaining access inside.

Peebles: Headmaster Johnson just contacted us waging war. I still don't know what we were in war for in the first place.

Iris: Headmaster Johnson has gone crazy.

General Brown walked in.

Brown: Went crazy is an understatement.

Peebles: General Brown. What brings you here?

Brown: I had to escape here. Shit has really hit the fan and the imposter claiming to be our headmaster has waged war against Unison again.

Peebles: Imposter?

Johnson walked in, it took a few seconds for everyone to realize that was him.

Peebles: Johnson is that you?

Johnson looked at Natalie and smile.

Johnson: Hi gorgeous.

Natalie: (Smiles) It is Johnson.

Peebles: Holy shit, what happened to you?

Johnson: I spent the last two years in the damn dungeon of my own district. All I remember was I was on a hot date. After I left her house, I was driving and got hit by something. When I woke up, I was in my dungeon looking at myself. Like a clone of me you know. Whoever this person was called himself Shadow. He said he was going to kill everyone on this planet and release Drago. I spent my time trying to get message out to anyone. I almost escaped like 10 times. Now that I hear what kind of hell he raised in my name, I'm ready to kill that bastard.

Natalie: Well get in line. You have a whole special forces team that wants his head on a stick.

Johnson: So, I hear the last diamond is at my district. Does anyone have a plan on getting it?

MARKUS'S DORM.

Markus was lying in bed sweating. Jolin was next to him and so was Josh. Markus was sipping on the tea mixed the poison of the Demon Orchid. Caitlyn knocked on his door.

Jolin: Come in.

Caitlyn walked in and had a green jar with her.

Caitlyn: Hi guys, High Priest Lee sent me here to give you this special jar and help with catching the worm.

Markus: WHAT WORM!?

Jolin: The demon in you Markus.

Markus: Oh yeah.

I think I need to use the bathroom. Markus tried to get up slowly. When he sat up straight he started projectile vomiting and defecating.

Josh: WHOA! WHAT THE FUCK?

Caitlyn: Ewwwww.

Jolin: Oh my god.

Caitlyn got sick and then she started vomiting. Jolin started vomiting too. Josh was laughing hysterically and recording with his phone.

Josh: (laughing) ya'll are all weak asses.

The worm finally came out of Markus.

Jolin: There it is.

Markus was laying on the ground, so Jolin gave him the reconstruct seed. Josh and Caitlyn was chasing the worm around the district. Jolin stepped in to help.

Josh: Caitlyn. What is so special about the jar?

Caitlyn: It's a demon jar, it contains demons.

Josh noticed the demon was getting bigger. The district alarm started going off.

Caitlyn: What's that?

Josh: The district alarms.

Caitlyn: Why are they going off?

Josh: it only goes off if we're under attack.

Caitlyn: Who is attacking us?

In the headmaster's office, Headmaster Johnson was playing with the alarm switch.

Johnson: Your alarms sound different than mine.

Peebles: You probably just freaked out everyone in this district right now.

Johnson: I wonder if anyone is walking around looking for trouble with their guns.

Almost everyone in the district was out with their guns drawn. Johnson turned the alarm off.

Johnson: Okay I am done.

Peebles: Haven't changed one bit.

Markus met up with Josh, Jolin, and Caitlyn.

Josh: You feeling better?

Markus: After damn near shitting and vomiting my whole insides, cleaning up a huge mess that wasn't entirely mine, and taking an extremely detailed shower. I feel like a new man. What the hell is going on and where is that worm?

Josh: We lost the worm.

Markus Shit.

Natalie, and Iris met up with Markus, Jolin, and Caitlyn.

Natalie: Guys, it's time to get the last diamond and end this.

Josh: About time.

Markus: When do we leave?

Iris: In an hour.

Caitlyn: I can stay and try to catch the worm for you guys.

Jolin: Thank you Caitlyn, we appreciate that.

The team left while Caitlyn stayed behind. Everybody was still running around the district so it made her mission more difficult.

CHAPTER 15: The Last Diamond

Many of the troops were gathered outside the Airship Launch way. Peeble was standing in the podium along with General Larus, General Brown, and Headmaster Johnson.

Peeble: My fellow Unison troops. Today we need you for an assault and rescue mission. We assault the clone of Headmaster Johnson and all his brainwashed guards. We rescue the ones who are imprisoned at the district. There is an important item there that we need to recover that will help revive our planet. A special group has been gathering these items for us and lost a few people during the mission. It's time we give them a hand. I have the real headmaster Johnson next to me, who will tell us how to strike.

Johnson went up to the stand.

Johnson; Thank you Peebles. In the two years of captivity, I don't know if they changed anything around. But if not, I can tell you they are using our prison cells as a dungeon, and our training camp sites as concentration camps. We basically strike those two places to rescue the ones imprisoned. The rest we just go in and get rid of. It's come to my attention that many people are dying and have died under false representation of my name. I always was one to help and keep peace. These demons who have waged war on us and pitted us against each other must be eliminated. And I will gladly help in the battle to come. So, if I die, but an imposter of me stands before you. Kill him.

While the speech was going on, Caitlyn chased the demon worm outside where they all was gathered. The worm made its way into Markus's new airship.

Caitlyn: Dang. COME OUT WORM, I WON'T HURT YOU.

She started hearing banging inside the airship. After the speech, everyone ran to their airships, so Caitlyn ran in the airship and hid. Markus, Josh, Lalaine, Jolin, and Natalie, Joe, and Iris walked into the airship.

Josh: Is this the new airship?

Markus: Yup Yup.

Natalie sat in the driver seat. Everyone else sat down and buckled in. A lot of the airships were already taking off. Natalie was trying to turn on the airship, but it wouldn't turn on.

Natalie: What the fuck, did they give us a broken one?

Jolin saw Caitlyn hiding in the corner.

Jolin: Caitlyn, what are you doing in here?

Caitlyn: the worm is somewhere in here.

The worm slithered its way to the middle of the airship, then started transforming into a tall and very muscular humanoid figure. They all stared at it as it transformed. They all got up and gathered around it with their guns drawn.

Jolin: there's no need for the guns you guys, this is a "Bladein Decendant" demon.

When the demon was fully transformed, he looked like an 8ft tall, muscular man, with gold reptile skin and glowing neon green eyes.

Caitlyn: Wow, look at you.

The demon looked at all them.

Markus: You're the one that was using my body. Who the fuck is you and why are you here?

Demon: I'm Nemvier. I was sent here to eliminate the demon that caused all this.

Natalie: The one who's using the headmaster.

Nemvier: Yes, and I heard that you were headed that way, so I was hitching a ride with you.

Josh: well, that's where we're headed, and we could use your help.

Caitlyn: Can I come?

Jolin: It's going to be very dangerous Caitlyn.

Caitlyn: I can handle myself.

Iris: If she can handle herself we could use the extra help with rescue.

Natalie got in the driver.

Natalie: Let's get going. We have deaths to avenge

They took off and headed to Octo District.

OCTO DISTRICT

The troops were burning bodies that they killed in the concentration camp. Fake Headmaster Johnson was in his office. His eyes were glowing neon red. The alarms started sounding.

Johnson: What is this?

He looked outside and saw all the airships arriving. Half of the airship group landed and deployed by the concentration camp and the other landed by the district. A huge battle erupted. General Brown, General Larus, Headmaster Johnson and Peebles was in an airship together. They landed at the entrance. Natalie and her group landed in the back entrance. As the battle erupted around them, they huddled.

Natalie: Okay, Iris is going to direct us to the room where the yellow diamond is. Once we teleport it we get to go after the demon that caused all this.

Nemvier: I can sense him right now, I can go after him while you guys get to the diamond. The diamond is more important.

Natalie: Well, I want to go with you and kill him with you.

Josh: Yeah me too. How come you get to have the fun of doing that?

Nemvier: Because this demon will be too much for you guys. He may be a weak demon where I'm from, but he will still be too strong for you guys.

Markus: I at least want to shoot him once. I'm sure all of us wants to get at least one-shot in. Joel would too, but he's stuck on another mission.

Nemvier: Okay to make everything go quicker, I'll help go after the diamond with you guys.

Caitlyn: What about me, can I go out and kill. I been practicing my Ornamer powers I know I can help.

They all stared at Caitlyn.

Lalaine: Are you sure?

Caitlyn: Yeah. I can at least help with the rescue.

She ran out the airship and headed towards the camp.

Markus: Um, is anyone going to go after her or is she good?

Josh: I think she will be good.

Caitlyn was taking out soldiers left and right as she was running back and forth. Jolin watched her as she ran off.

Jolin: Um I think she is fine. Let's get going.

They started to head towards the district main entrance. Once they got inside the lobby, they checked a few of the offices that were around them. There was no action going on in the lobby part. Josh was in front with a bullet proof riot shield with a part of the team behind him. Markus had one too with the rest of the team with him. When they got into the cafeteria they were engaged in a huge shootout. They all were shooting in John Wick style, taking out a lot of the troops while making their way to the elevator hall. Headmaster Johnson, Peebles, General Brown, and General Larus was searching the lower level where the diamond is located, they were taking out a few enemy soldiers as well.

Peebles: Where would the diamond be?

Johnson: Right down the hall, that's where we keep all our top-secret items.

G.Brown: I think he may have changed the lock code to the door.

Johnson: I figured that, that's why I added a secret code that would unlock all our shit if we ever lost or forgot the code.

They made it to the hallway, but Shadow was standing in the hallway waiting.

Shadow: Looking for something.

Johnson: Just the motherfucker I was looking for, it's payback time for giving me and my district a bad name.

Shadow: (laughs) It was so fun watching all those people die. Knowing I had the power to control a whole army. Just wait to see what I will be capable of once I get all the Idacast Diamonds.

During the shoot out in the lobby, Nemvier came in and killed every enemy troop in 20 secs. Markus noticed no one was shooting.

Markus: HEY HEY HEY

Everyone stopped shooting.

Josh: What the hell happened?

Markus: I don't know.

Nemvier walked in.

Nemvier: That was fun guys. I think I feel the other demon nearby.

As he walked by, they both stared at him.

Josh: Man, I was having fun.

Markus: I know, we should have gone to the camp.

At the camp, Caitlyn was still helping with the rescue. She was in the dungeons unlocking cells while the others fought off the enemy.

Caitlyn: Everyone I need you to run out the south side.

In the Octo District, Shadow was still standing between Headmaster Johnson, Peebles, General Larus, and Brown. The door behind him lead to the yellow diamond.

Shadow: You guys know I am not going to let you just take the diamond.

G.Brown: Why don't you tell us your name demon?

Nemvier walked in.

Nemvier: If it isn't Shadow.

Shadow: Nemvier, how did I know Bladein would send one of you guys.

HM Peebles: There are more like you.

Nemvier: Yup. A lot more powerful too.

Shadow: But why did they send the weakest bitch of them all?

Nemvier: Probably because a bitch demon snuck into another dimension to destroy another species because he wasn't powerful enough to take over his own. Only a bitch demon needs Mother Nature's Idacast Diamonds to gain power.

Shadow: FUCK YOU!

Shadow ran at Nemvier and engaged in a martial arts battle. Mya, Joe, Markus, and Natalie arrived at the scene.

Mya: Is the diamond behind that door?

HM Peebles: Yeah, we just need to get it open.

Johnson went to the keypad and entered his secret code. The door opened.

Shadow summoned more Gortiles to come help him fight. More arrived outside and started killing off a lot of the troops. Nemvier was fighting them off while fighting Shadow. Mya, Joe, Natalie, and Markus kept fighting while heading to the yellow diamond. Josh, Jolin, Lalaine, and Iris was still in the lobby fighting off the Gortiles.

Josh: LALAIN, DO YOU HAVE ANYTHING IN YOU BAG!?

Lalaine: Shit, I DIDN'T BRING IT THIS TIME.

Outside, Caitlyn was using her Ornamer powers to help protect the others and fight off the Gortiles. Suddenly, lasers came from the sky killing a lot of the Gortiles. Captain Jenkins was back in OWOC and helping with the battle from the space station. They had a huge R.I.P Lloyd banner hanging on the wall.

Jenkins: This is for Lloyd you demon bastards.

Inside the Octo District, Mya finally made it to the diamond and teleported it back to the temple.

Mya: THERE IT'S DONE!

When the last diamond transported to the pillar, a huge green wave covered the whole planet and started rebuilding the planet. While that was happening, Nemvier killed Shadow by ripping off his head. Then all the gortiles and demons turned into dust also. When all the dust settles the world looked brand new.

In the OWOC, a lot of people was looking out at the planet and was amazed by the beauty. Jenkins smiled and nodded his head.

Jenkins: We did it Lloyd, your death was not in vain.

CHAPTER 16: Starting Over

Everyone outside was looking around. All the dead bodies had turned into the green dust and became the planet as well. The headmasters went into Johnsons office.

HM Johnson: Wow, it's been 2 years since I've seen this office.

HM Peebles: Should we make the announcement to the world?

HM Johnson: Yes, we should. Let them know I wasn't behind all of this and helped save the planet.

G. Brown: We need to rebuild.

AT THE TEMPLE OF NATURE

Natalie, Markus, Josh, Mya, Joe, Jolin, and Lalaine was sitting in the briefing room. Mike and Amy walked in. They all were excited to see each other and gave hugs.

Natalie: So, what did we find out?

Amy: (rubs stomach) Were having a girl.

Josh: Ohhhh Mike, you have to watch her when it comes to these boys.

Mike: I know. I wish we could have helped you guys with the last battle, but you know.

Mya: It's fine, Joel couldn't make it either because they sent him on a mission on Earth. He would have been happy to know you guys are having a girl.

Markus: Hey at least you guys and the new baby was safe. We got all the diamonds back, the world is revived, and I guess it's a new start.

Amy: Yes, it is a new start.

High Priest Lee and High Priestess Blue walked in with a gorgeous lady in a green dress.

HP Lee: How are my legends doing?

Natalie: We are okay. We had a huge memorial for all who died. And High Priest Lee is giving a world speech today.

Blue: Guys I want to introduce you to a very special guest with us today.

All the boys were staring at her with their mouths open. Amy notice Mike doing it and punched him in the arm.

Women: Hello guys. I just want to personally say thank you for everything you have done to revive the planet. I know I chose the right group of people to carry out this mission and you guys have certainly proved me right. The planet now has a new appreciation for human life knowing that there are people willing and able to save it if it needs to be save. I wish I could say that for all humans but you guys have made a believer out of me and the planet. Trust me when I say the ones that perished are being well taken care of and loving every minute of it. I just had to come and give you my thanks personally. So, thank you once again, I will see you guys some other time.

The lady walked out.

Jolin: Wait, was that?

Blue: (Interrupts) Lee's, speech should be on, do you guys want to watch it.

They went to watch the speech outside in the outside theater. Many people were there to watch. As everyone applauded and cheered, Jolin held Markus's hand. Markus looked and smiled at her. He noticed that Josh and Lalaine were holding hands too. Lee approached the podium as people around the world watched him. (during his speech, it shows people rebuilding cities and homes, mourning their loved ones who died, people playing in the rain and water, and kids having fun.)

Lee: Ladies and Gentlemen, boys and girls. It is safe to say that our planet is now fully revived and well. I know a lot of people died because of the planet, but I guess we should start with trying to understand the feelings of the planet that we call our home. Why did it do what it did? And I guess it all starts with us. The humans, or as the planet would have called us, parasites. Even the demon started the Geniman Process, it was going to happen already anyway, he just speeds up the process. As I said last time when I was a guest on the Bob Owen show, Mother Nature can be cruel, but not as cruel as human nature. It a shame that something so drastic must take place for people to pay attention and make changes. Hopefully we do see changes. People treating each other better. No more bullying people over social status, financial status, religion, age, sex, or sexual orientation. No more wars over meaningless disagreements. No more polluting the planet. We just basically need to take care of our planet, take care of our home, and it will take care of us.

THE END

William Holloway was born in San Diego, California on September 26, 1984. He has been writing stories since 6th grade and hoping to expand his stories worldwide. He also writes poems and song lyrics. He has performed in many Open Mics and received praise for his story telling and poems. He mainly writes sci-fi fantasy stories with a lot of humor in it. Laughter makes the soul brighter and he loves brightening people's day even when he is having a bad one. They also give a few messages that relate to the hardship going on today. Due to his all-time favorite poet and playwright, William Shakespeare, he writes his stories in script format. There is a lot of dialogue in his stories and feels it is easier to read conversations between each character.

William's mother was in the Navy, so he was raised in many different places along with his younger sister. The longest he stayed, in which he considers his hometown, is Virginia Beach, Virginia and Sierra Vista, Arizona where he graduated high school. He has lived in Louisiana, Georgia, Guantanamo Bay, Connecticut, South Dakota, and current resides in Phoenix, Arizona.
