You can not use the author or publishers past results, illustrations or screen shots of earnings as any indication of what you will earn or to offer assurance that you will achieve the same in future.

The money you make and income achieved is based on multiple factors, we do not know you, your business ethics, how serious or motivated you are and whether you are prepared to do what is necessary to get started, so can't comment on what you will earn or achieve from mini Blogs.

For this reason the author/promoter does not guarantee or imply that you will make a load of cash, get rich, do as well as himself or achieve any income that is illustrated in the examples or even make any money at all, your reading this course confirms you accept and understand the above.

Get The Insider Secrets 30 Minute Web Broadcast Video

Recently I did a 30 minute live web broadcast covering setting up mini blogs with ads running on them, I show my computer screen on the recorded broadcast so you can see what I am referring too as I talk and if you would like access to the recording, you can watch it online for a small payment of just £7. Simple click the link below to make payment and you can be viewing it instantly, it is a great addition to this eBook.

Forward

You are about to learn about a way to generate automated income with blogs, blogs which you set up in different niches and areas of interest that all have ads running with related products that viewers to them will find of interest, click and earn you commission.

This publication will introduce you to Simeon Tuitt Directs Profit From Blogs Blueprint. In case you are not familiar with what a Blog is, it is basically an online diary where you share and post updates about yourself, a subject or interest that others will find of interest and revisit to read what you have to say, they can even comment on your blog postings and it makes blogs a great social tool for personal or business promotion.

Earn From Contextual Related Ads On Your Blog

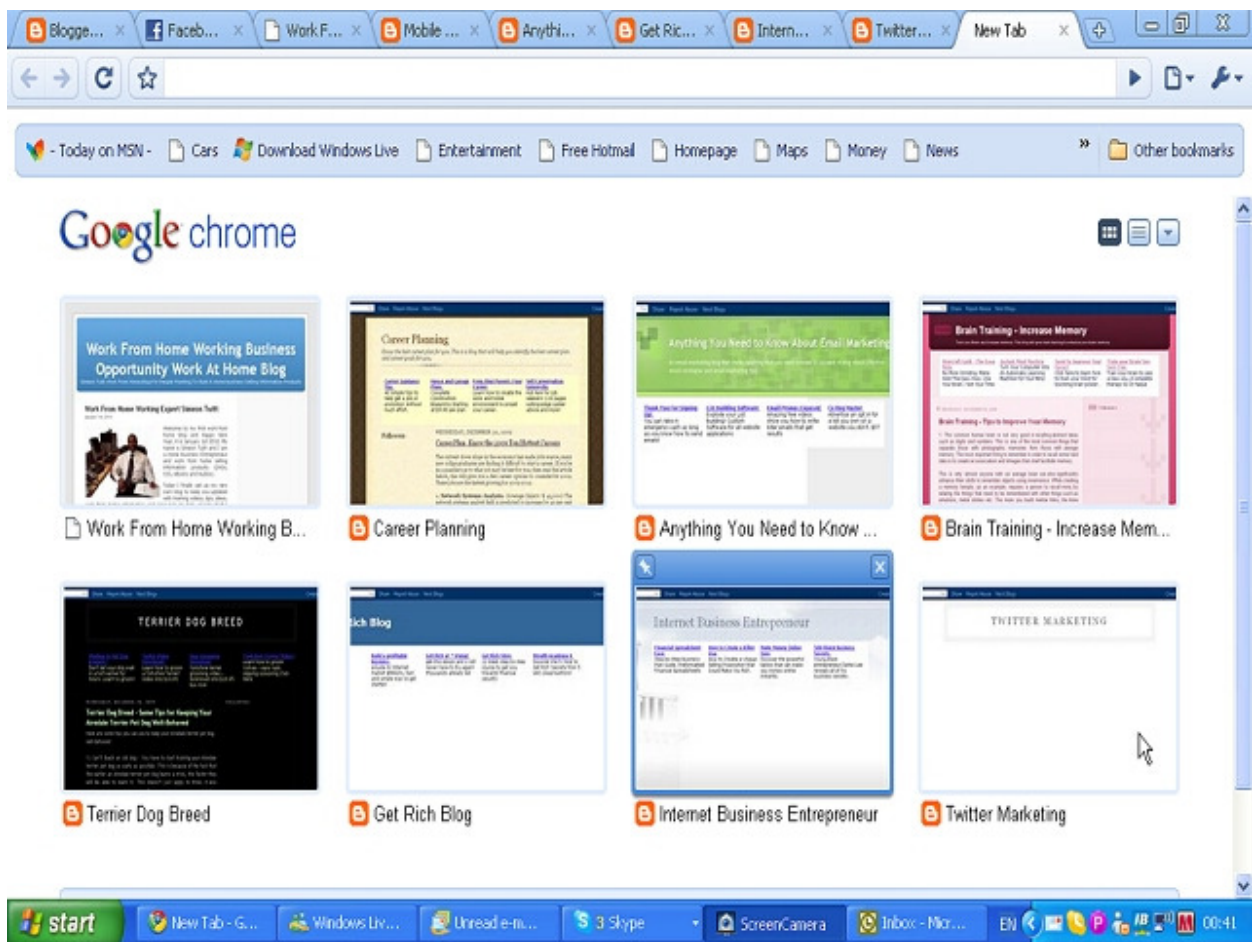

Through the next few pages you're going to learn how to set up your very own blog and how to integrate ads for related information products to it that will generate you commission each time someone clicks and orders the product mentioned. All the products you will have running ads for on your blog are information products that are instantly downloadable the moment someone buys, so there is no shipping and instant customer gratification. Since there are no shipping costs you can earn commissions as high as 50% - 75% from each sale you make, below you will see an example of one of my blogs with contextual ads at the top of it.

Simple, Easy But Works

I bet you are thinking this is too simple and couldn't possibly work to generate an income, well the fact is people view blogs of interest and since they will be doing this, you want to have blogs out there they are viewing with ads that will interest them, so they have the opportunity to click you ads and earn you money.

The truth is people are hungry for information and they search the internet for it, if they are on your blog, the chances are they were looking for the information your blog supplies and if that is good information they are more likely to take a look at the ads you have running on your blog for related information. If they like the sites that you earn commission from enough to buy, then they get a great problem solving product and you get a commission for connecting someone with it, so everyone is happy. Below you can see a few blogs I have running in different niche areas of interest, so as you can see I do not focus on one area.

Preliminary Requirements

On the off chance you do not have an e-mail address you will need one of these to get started with a blog, so you can set up a free e-mail account with: Gmail: <http://www.gmail.com>

Introduction

Thank you for purchasing this manual, this book has been designed to show you how to set up and profit from mini niche blogs running contextual ads that make you money when people click on them and order from the site. Although short in length by the end of it you will understand how to create a blog quickly in any niche and run ads that can generate you commission of 50% - 75% per sale on the related products you have running on your blog.

Do not be fooled and think this information isn't valuable because it isn't 40 – 100 pages long, I have a lot of pictures in this eBook to guide you quickly through each step of the process of getting everything set up and have done this to save you reading lots of filler content.

I want to keep this eBook short and sweet and user friendly so it doesn't look like a daunting complicated way to generate an extra or multiple incomes, because the simple fact is setting up mini blogs is easy once you know how. But since people place value on quantity rather than quality, I have included images of every single step through setting up a blog and adding contextual ads.

Towards the end of this manual you will also notice a page asking for your feedback and any tips you have found useful. Some of these tips will be included within the 2nd edition of this eBook. Should you like to have your name included next to your comments, please say so in the e-mail.

As a thank you for purchasing this book you will benefit from being able to earn from the promotion of future products I create, details are contained at the rear of this eBook.

Regards,

Simeon Tuitt

Setting Up A Blog

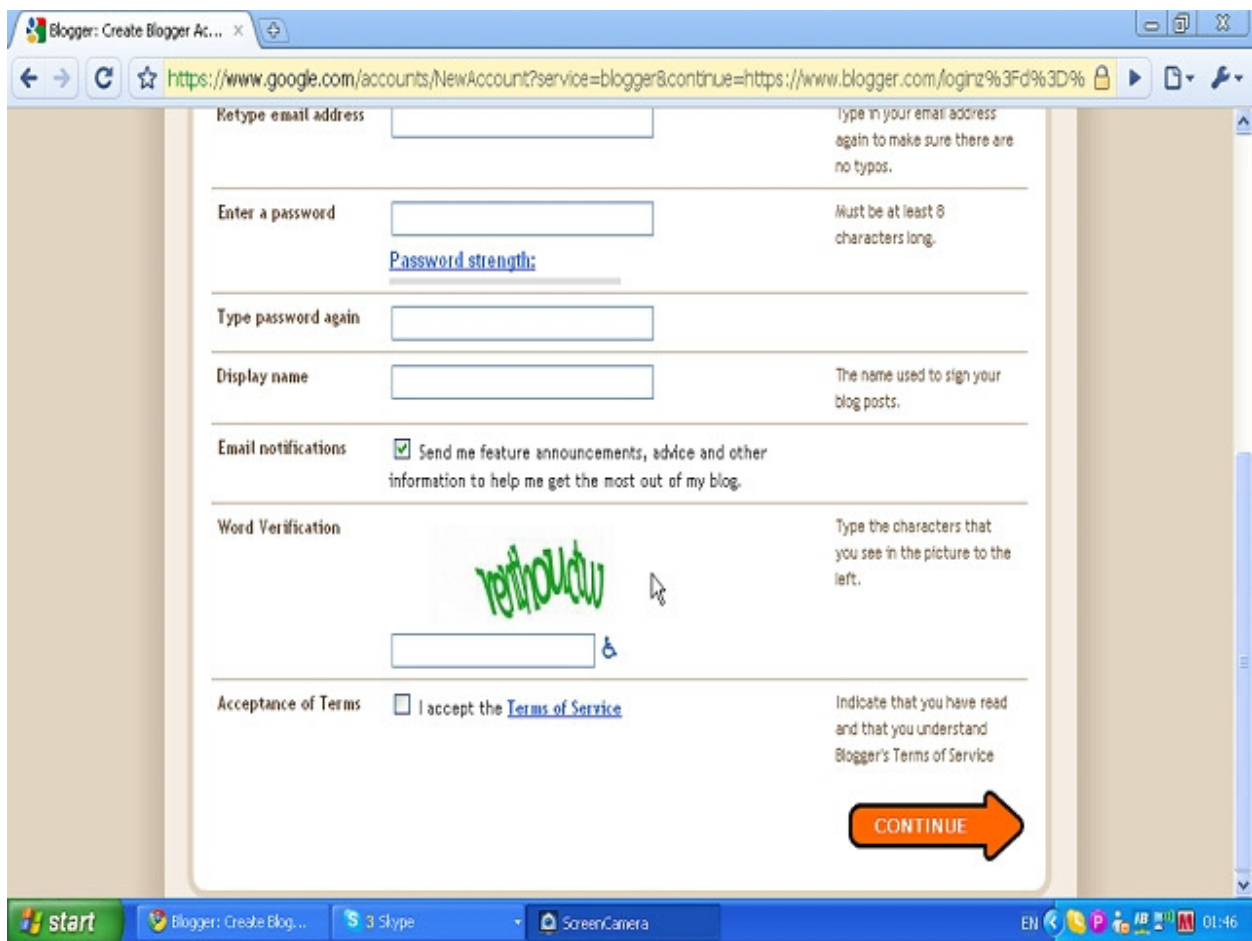

Here is where we will get started, this is where everything starts getting real short and sweet, I will not bore you with long text as the pictures say it all, I will just include a line or two to tell you what you should be seeing through each step and what to click to go through this set up process.

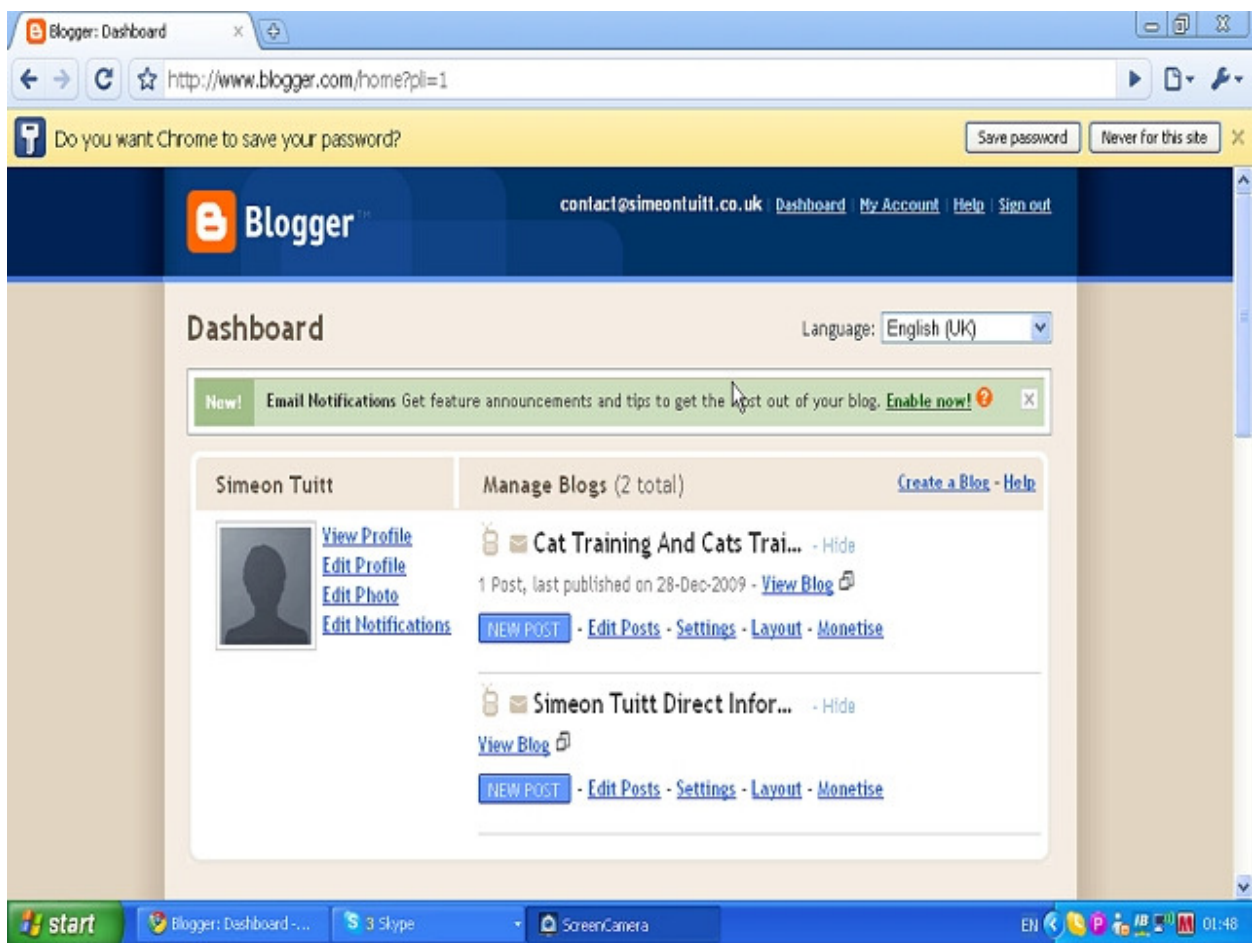

Above you can see the www.Blogger.com main page, on the page you can see a button saying 'Create A Blog' this is the button you need to click to get started, so if you have not already done so, open up your web browser and enter in the web site address above and click 'Create A Blog'.

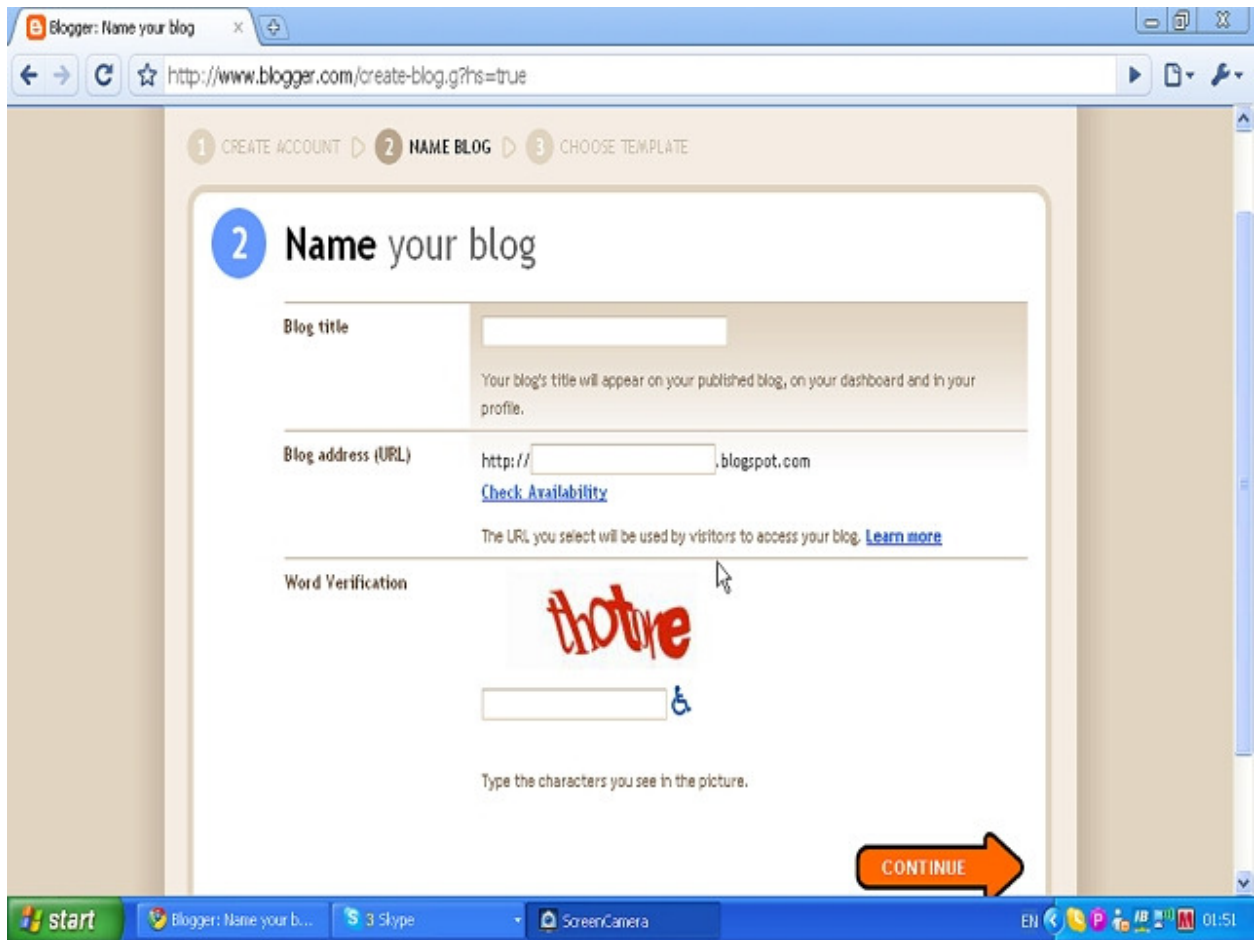

Once you have clicked the 'Create A Blog' button you will see the above page or something similar, this is the sign up page and you just need to enter in your details to create your account.

Above you can see the second half of the sign up page after scrolling down the screen, so fill it all in and click the continue button on the bottom right.

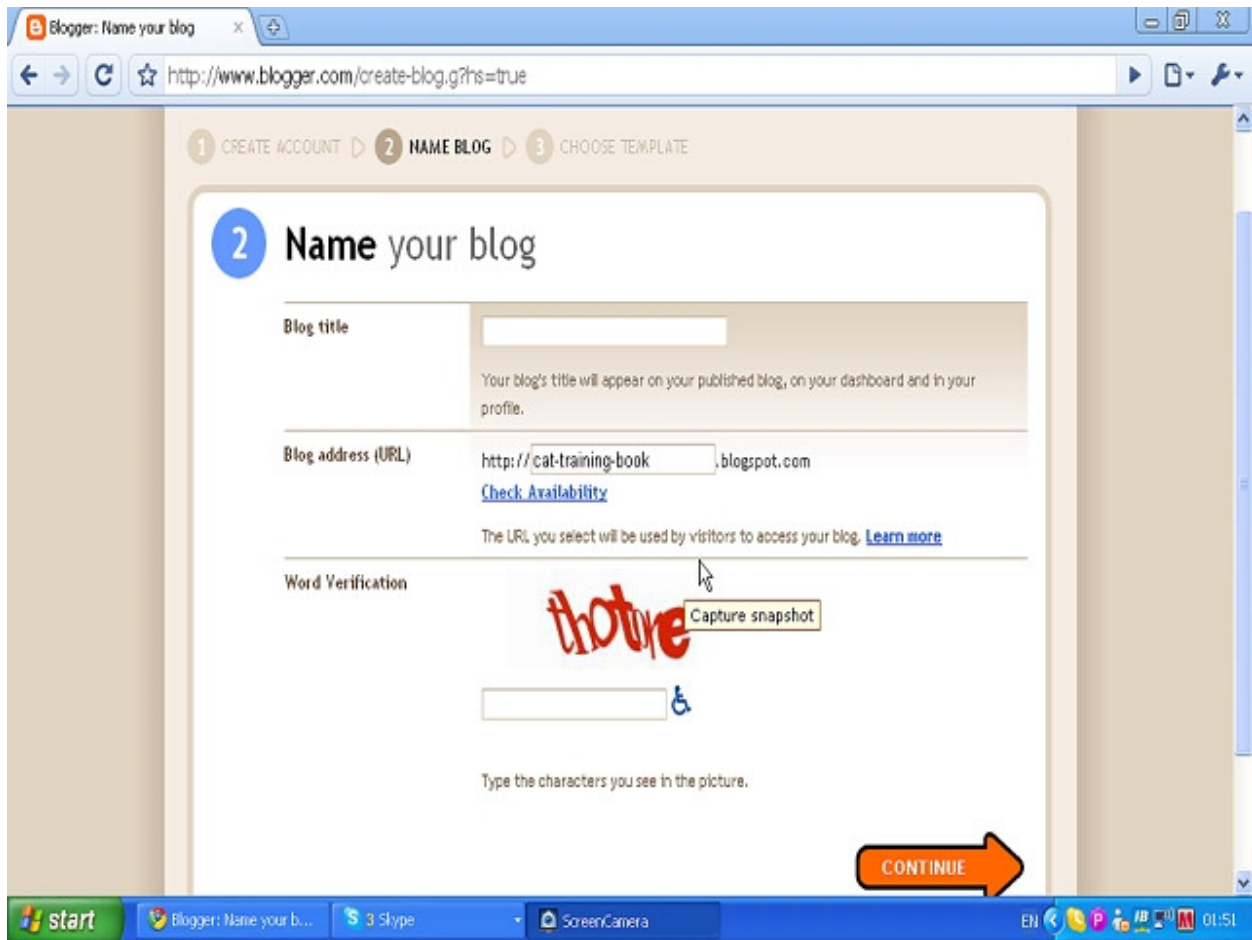

Above you can see the inside of one of my blog accounts, yours will be blank if it is the first blog you are setting up but as you can see there is a create blog link and once you click that you can start a blog.

Above is the next page you will see when you clicked continue on the previous page, this is the page that you will name your blog on, you should name your blog with words related to the topic of the blog, so I recommend you write a blog on a topic you know about or have an interest in. Above you will see it says 'Blog address URL' http://

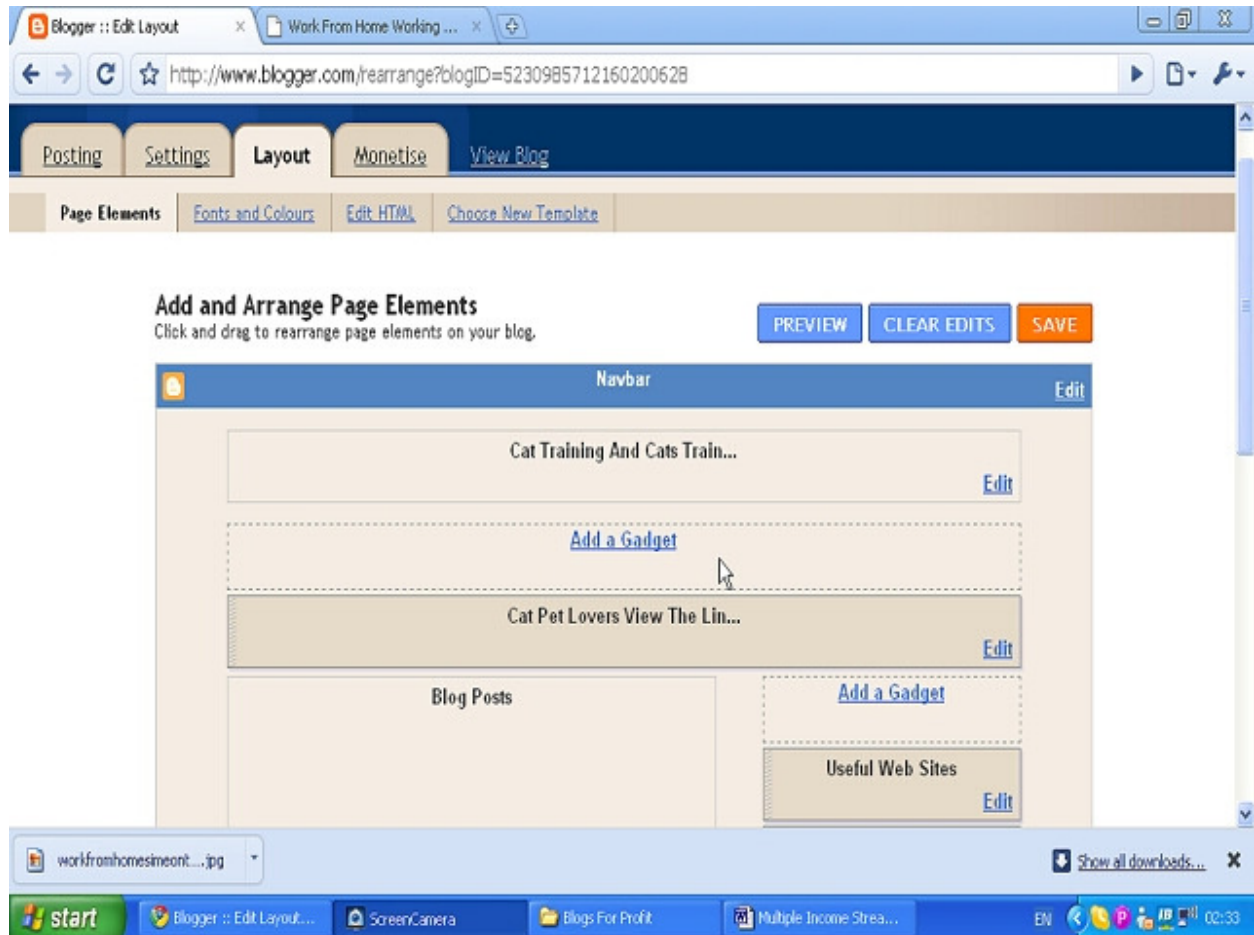

After (http://) you then enter a name for your blog and then click 'Check Availability' to see if the blog name you want is available.

Above you can see I have typed in cat-training-book as the name of my blog so that my blog web address is: <http://cat-training-blogspot.com> . If the blog name you are looking for isn't available try another.

Adding Things To Your Blog

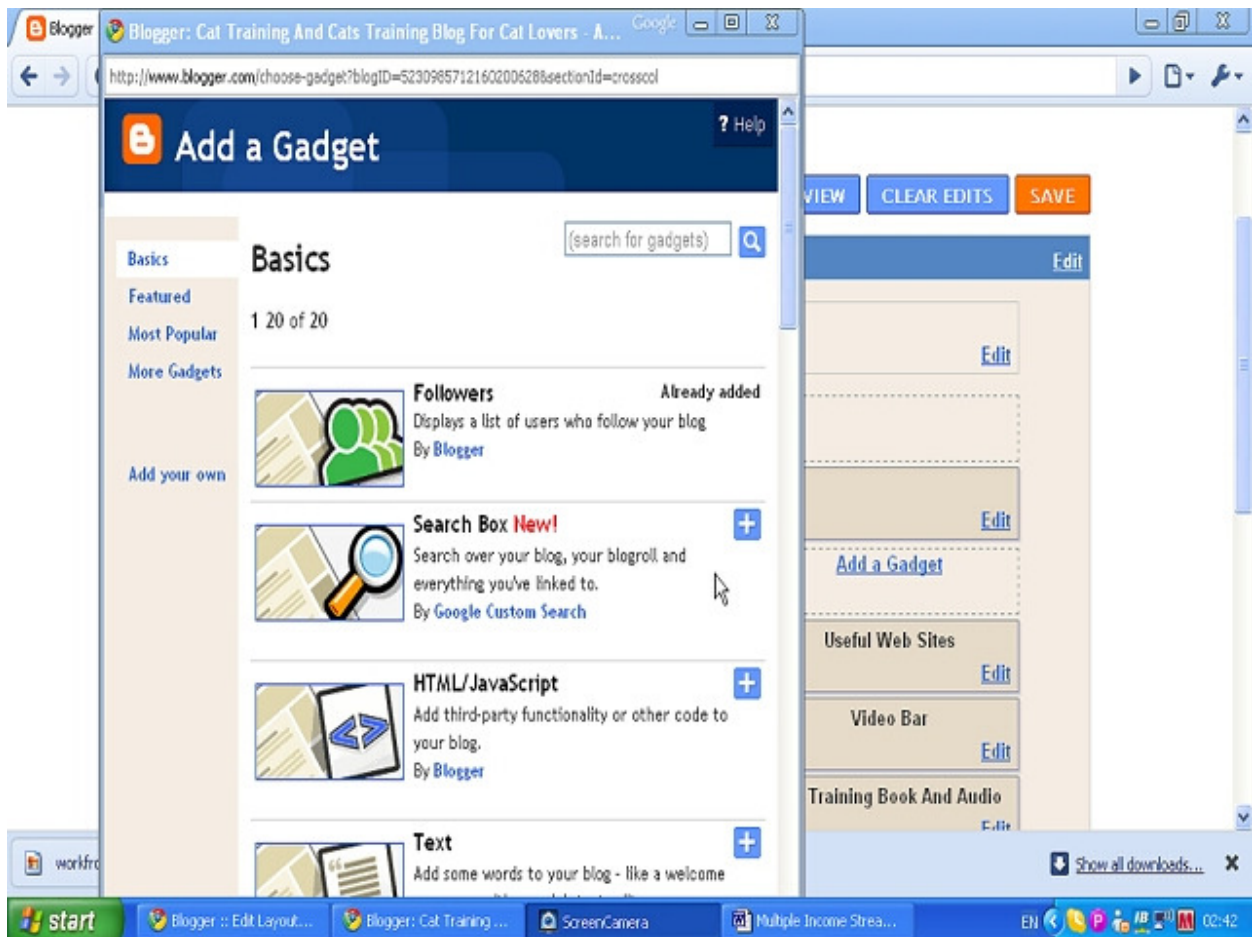

Once you have chosen your blog name you will see a few tabs at the top of the page and you need to click the 'Layout' tab and you can begin building your blog, you can select a template and then begin adding things to your blog like titles, graphics, HTML code, video etc.

Above you can see the layout of the blog, you will notice it says 'Add a Gadget', this is what we will be using shortly to add related product ads on your blog that you earn commission from. On the left hand side of the site it says Blog Posts, this is the section you will write your blog update text in.

Adding A Gadget

Once you have clicked 'Add a Gadget' you will see the following page, this allows you to choose what you want to add in the gadget space you just clicked on your blog. For our purpose here we want to select the HTML/JavaScript Gadget.

Signing Up To ClickBank

Okay right now we need to set you up as a ClickBank.com affiliate so you can promote their digital information products on your blog that are related to the theme of your blog and earn you commission. So what you need to do first is go to the web site www.clickbank.com.

Signing Up As An Affiliate

On this page you can see a sign up page button on the right hand side in green, this is the button you need to click to open your clickbank affiliate account, so click it now and lets move onto filling in the form.

How can we contact you?

Here is the sign up page you will see when you click the green button in the last step, all you need to do now is fill out each section here to open your affiliate account with clickbank.

Signing Into Your Affiliate Account

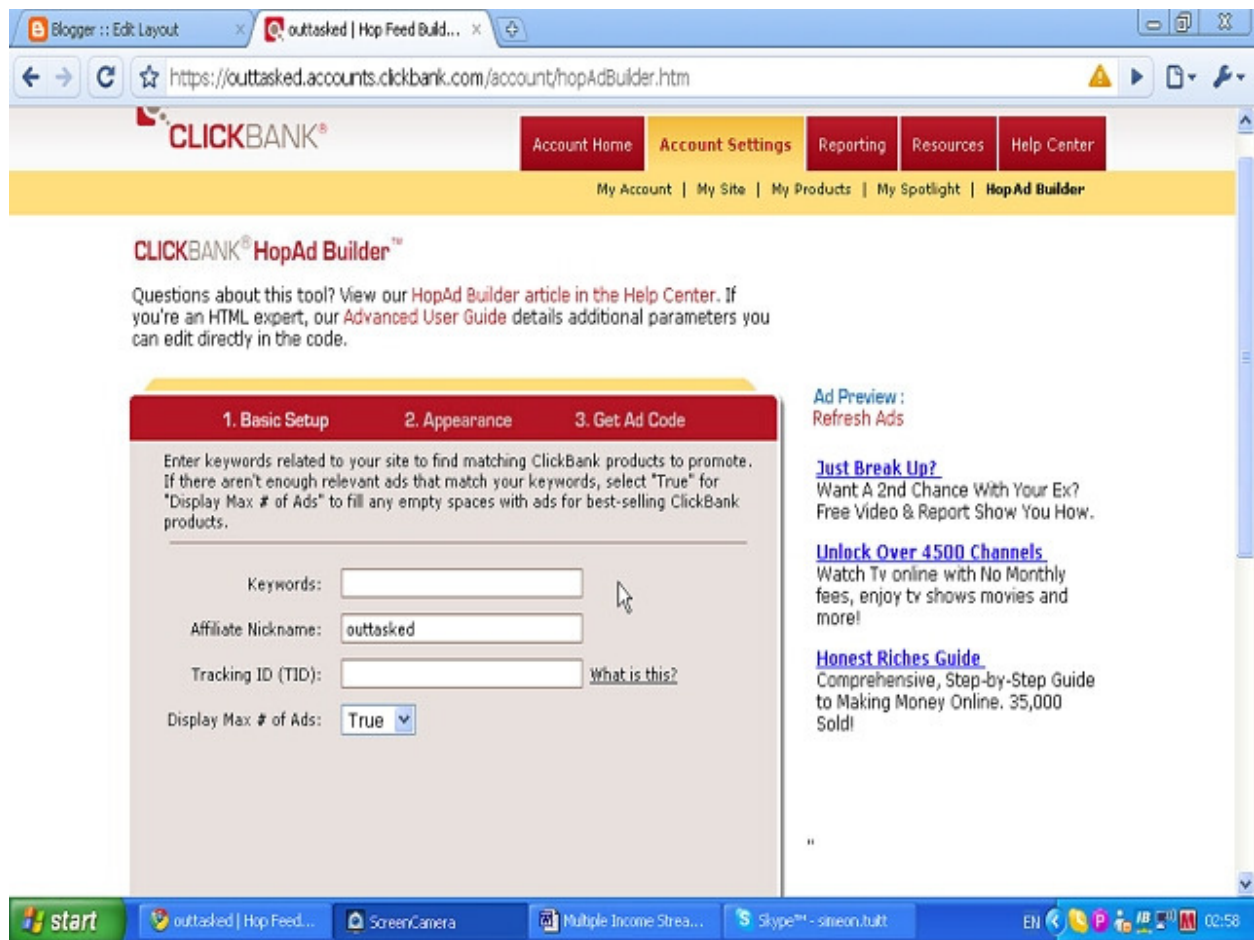

Once you have opened your affiliate account you will need to visit this page to login to your affiliate account, you can see the login link at the top of www.clickbank.com.

Creating A Hop Ad For Your Blog

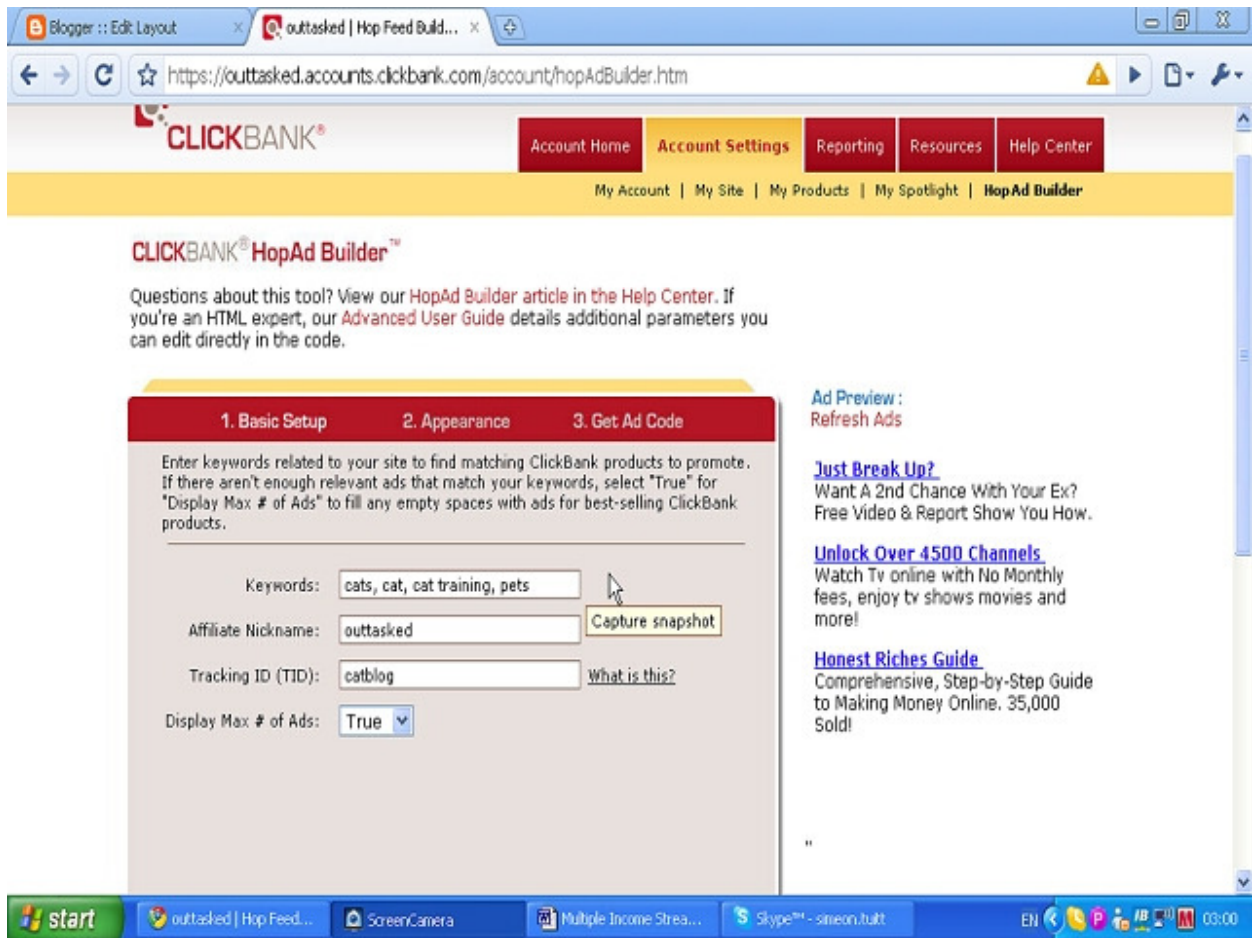

Once you are logged into your affiliate account, you will see a series of red tabs at the top of the page, the one we are interested in right now is the one called 'Account Settings', so click that one and then on the far right you will notice it says 'Hop Ad Builder' click this also so we can begin creating the ads for your blog.

Choosing Products To Promote

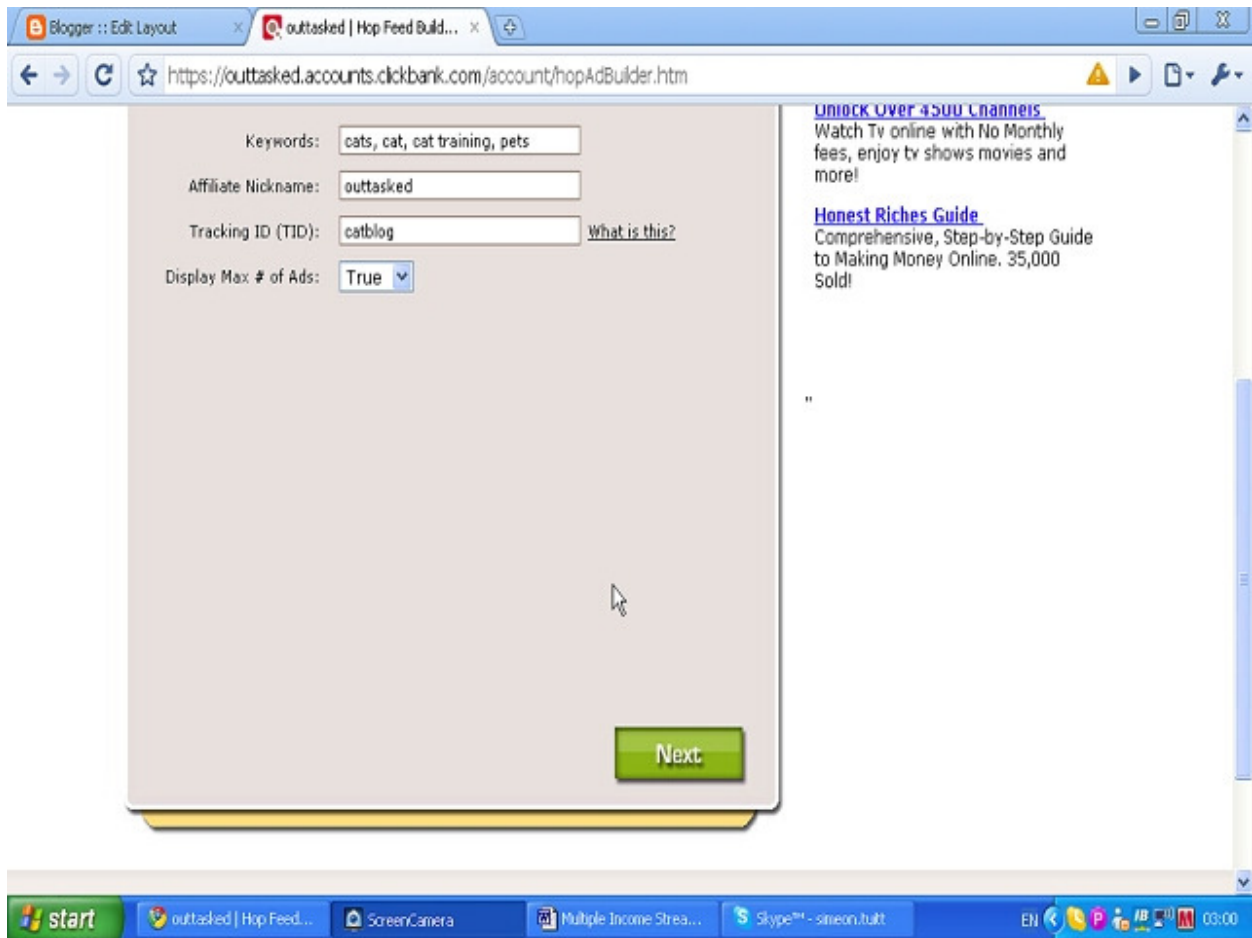

On this page we choose what kind of information products we want ads for on our blog, so in my case for my cat blog I want related products, so where it says 'Keywords' I type cats, cat, pets,, cat training and any other words I can think would trigger a cat or pet related product, this allows the 'Hop Ads' to display relevant rotating ads on my blog, so each time a visit views my blog they are presented with a different ad that I can earn commission from if it sells.

Example Of My Hop Ad Keywords

Above you can see the keywords I typed in when creating my 'Hop Ad' for displaying on my cat training blog. No matter what your blog is about you will be able to display ads on it for related products.

Moving On To The Next Step

The above image is the bottom part of the previous page and once you have entered your keywords you need to click NEXT to continue the ad building process.

Choosing The Style Of Hop Ad To Display

CLICKBANK[®] HopAd Builder[™]

Questions about this tool? View our HopAd Builder article in the Help Center. If you're an HTML expert, our Advanced User Guide details additional parameters you can edit directly in the code.

1. Basic Setup 2. Appearance 3. Get Ad Code

Customize the appearance of your ad box by selecting from popular ad layouts. If you want to further customize the ad to match your site, you can edit the fields below the ad layout selection (not required).

Popular Ad Layouts:

Rows:

Columns:

Width:

Height:

On this page you can choose the style of 'Hop Ad' to display on your blog, so whether you want a banner style ad for your blog or one down the right or left hand side like the preview on the right above, you can select the style of ad to display on your blog.

Moving On After Customising Hop Ad

The above image is the bottom half of the previous page, so you just click NEXT when you have selected the style of 'Hop Ad' to create for your blog widget.

Copy The Hop Ad Code Below

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://outtasked.accounts.clickbank.com/account/hopAdBuilder.htm>. The page is titled "CLICKBANK® HopAd Builder™". The navigation menu includes "Account Home", "Account Settings", "Reporting", "Resources", and "Help Center". Below the navigation, there are links for "My Account", "My Site", "My Products", "My Spotlight", and "HopAd Builder".

The main content area is titled "CLICKBANK® HopAd Builder™" and includes a help message: "Questions about this tool? View our HopAd Builder article in the Help Center. If you're an HTML expert, our Advanced User Guide details additional parameters you can edit directly in the code."

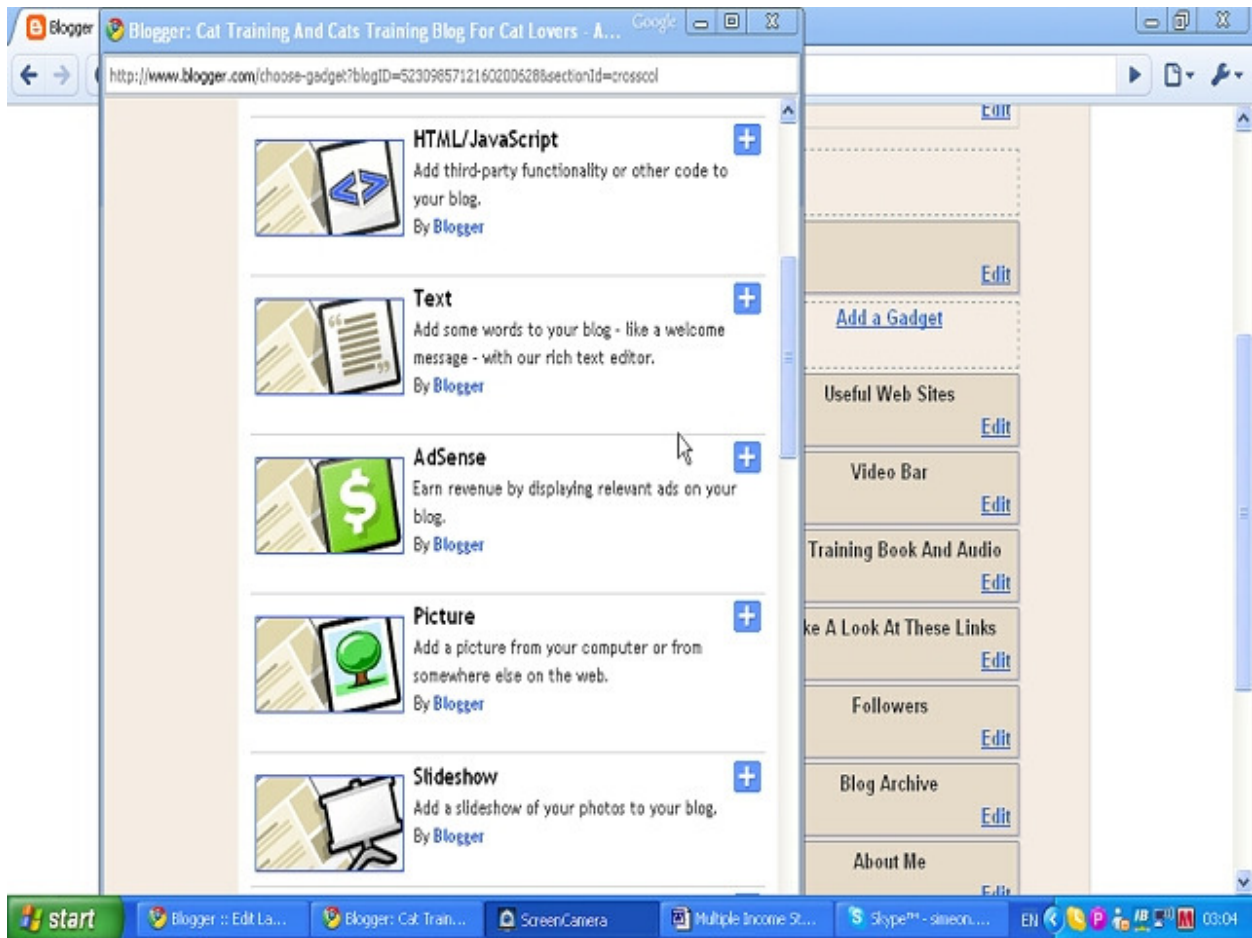

The interface is divided into three steps: "1. Basic Setup", "2. Appearance", and "3. Get Ad Code". The "3. Get Ad Code" step is active, showing instructions: "Copy the following code and paste it into your site or blog in the location where you would like the ads to appear." Below this, there is a dropdown menu for "Output File Type" set to "IFRAME (Recommended)" and a link "What is this?".

The "Your Ad Code:" section contains the following code:

<script type="text/javascript"> hopfeed_template="";
hopfeed_type='IFRAME';
hopfeed_affiliate_bd='catblog';
hopfeed_affiliate='outtasked';
hopfeed_fill_slots='true';
hopfeed_height=250;
hopfeed_width=250;
hopfeed_cellpadding=5;
hopfeed_rows=3;
hopfeed_cols=1;
hopfeed_fast_Nerdness_Arial_Helvetica_Courier

On this page you simply copy the 'Ad Code' in the box below, so high light it and copy it, we will need it.

Go Back To The HTML Gadget

Above you can see the blog gadget section again, if you closed it previously, go back to your blog layout and click 'Add Gadget' and select the HTML/JavaScript section.

Paste The HTML Hop Ad Code You Copied

Here is where we paste the code we copied from clickbank for your 'Hop Ad' to add your ads to your blog.

Make 50% Profit From My Info Products

Now time to show you how you can earn from a variety of products, even if you have not created them or have them in stock, time to introduce you to affiliate programs.

Affiliate programs, what are these Sim I hear you cry. An affiliate program is a way for Authors of products and services to share their profits with people who refer sales to them (affiliates). The beauty of these programs is you can join them FREE and earn anywhere from 5-50% of profits.

Information products are the best thing to promote because they can be delivered quickly and the commissions are usually higher than a physical product because there are no high production, storage or postal charges cutting into the profit of the seller.

The next time you are on the internet and searching a website that offers something for sale, take a look and see if they have an affiliate program, this way you can join it and benefit from sharing your affiliate tracking link with friends so you earn from recommending their products or services.

www.SimeonTuitt.com

While you are at the site above, on the left of the page you will notice a link to my affiliate program, if you click this you can find out about my affiliate program where you can earn 50% commission from the sales of my products I create and promote. Join as an affiliate for FREE today and get promoting using the information contained within my site.

Full details about my affiliate program and how you are paid are contained at my website below also:

<https://www.mcssl.com/SYS/?m=122568&c=s>

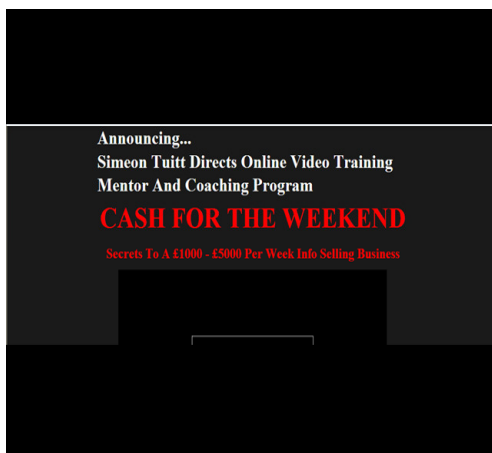

Should you have any questions after signing up FREE as an affiliate, feel free to drop me an e-mail, it is all pretty self explanatory though so you will be okay.
