My most important prayers to Ya (God) are as follows:

I pray that humankind evolve through science indefinitely, always, but that humankind not fall prey to his own devices.

I pray that all of the suffering and hardship of humankind end, due to scientific advances, may his pain be no more, or at least significantly reduced.

I pray that humankind especially develop such sciences as needed to be immortal without pain, AI, and robotics as such that work of him is no longer required. That instead we can each and all pursue what we want to pursue.

I pray for my protection and well being along with that of my immediate family.

I pray for good things to come into my life and the faith to know that they will, that even as I sit I may expect something good to happen.

Please show my prayers to God. Please have him carefully read them. If that instruction is possible of you.

God I pray that you receive this book and hear my prayers. And I pray they are not only received but answered.

God I pray my prayers be acted on substantially before 2040 A.D.

God I pray not to be damned by my own words.

And God I pray that these things become as well as they may possibly be.

Hear now, God, my prayers unto you:

1. I pray to be made everything Lucifer.
2. I pray to be The Devil's Son, equal to Christ.
3. I pray to be the Anti Christ whose image is worshipped.
4. I pray that my family always be kept available to me
5. I pray for My People of Perfect Sense to be established.
And pray that My People of Perfect Sense always be kept available to me.
6. And I pray that I have an abundance of Honor, Prestige, Obedience, Service, Wealth, and Sex given to me by human kind.
7. I pray for the success of all of my writings.
8. I pray that my writings rule the course of human kind.
9. I pray that my writings be a guide that the angels, angels of all kinds, and higher beings, use to shape the course of the Earth
10. I pray to be immortal in the flesh
11. I pray for the advancement of science to have this happen. I pray that through science man can do anything.

12. And I pray to never be harmed by anyone or anything.
13. I pray to never be confined. I pray for eternal freedom.
14. I pray that I be given "The Little Blue Rock." I pray for all the wealth of the world and the Earth itself!
15. I pray to be blessed with the unexpected.
16. I pray that great things be revealed to me.
17. I pray that whatsoever I taste that Satan, Shiva, Agnes, Lilith, and Mammon can taste it to, whenever they wish to.
18. I pray for complete freedom to do anything whatsoever I desire.
19. I pray to sit upon a throne of great power and authority, where nothing could ever remove me from it.
20. I pray that Satan can hear my words.
21. I pray for a great memory palace which contains all of my childhood things. That things of my childhood fills its rooms.
22. I pray for a great taste palace which stores everything that I like the most, food, toys, and otherwise.
23. I pray that I have a glow in the dark home in between these.

24. And I pray that behind it be a great magic palace.
A place where the right kind of magic can be done.
25. And underneath that I want a Master of Expression Palace. A place where I can express myself as I would, broadcasting all things to the world.
26. I pray for the best of jewels. White gold, diamonds, sapphire and rubies, jade and fine quartz,
and all gems and metals beautiful and rare to adorn me.
27. I also pray for the best of clothes. Clothes ever clean. Clothes that only I could have, the best of the best clothes.
28. I pray that Orion be so.
29. I pray that Sefra be so.
30. I pray that Link, Pippy, and Ler be so.
31. I pray that the people of Orion know me sense me, feel me to be their own.
32. I pray that they all become so after their development through a new and successful religion.
33. And I pray they be on my side. With me, wherever I go, to wherever I'd venture, I pray for protection and blessings through them.
34. I pray for the success of all my writings. And for thorough involvement within them. I pray to be a well developed author.
35. I pray to be free from prosecution.

36. I pray for a cure for my schizophrenia.
37. I pray to never be homeless again without good and strong resources.
38. I pray to be given the benefit of the doubt, always.
39. I pray for the success and wealth and power of my immediate family.
40. I pray that though I work a lot I am much more rewarded than not. That what I do always pays double or more. And though rest isn't as much, that rest be full and complete.
41. I pray that I need not sleep, ever. But not to be negatively effected by that.
42. I pray that I may articulate words well conveying what I would the best way.
43. I pray for great rewards for my output of work.
44. I pray for all things sweet and good for my food. That I enjoy my food well and that I taste food well, fully enjoying what I eat.
45. I pray never to have diabetes or other dietary problems.
46. I pray to be safe from over bearing pain.
47. I pray that you save me from overbearing pain, I jury, death, or danger in my times of need.
48. I pray that I, Satan, and his angels are not subjugated to torment.

49. I pray that I and my own have a place our own.
50. I pray for those unduly suffering, and for the relief of that suffering.
51. I pray that through science “the old curse” on humanity is vanquished.
52. I pray that science solves all problems.
53. I pray for general absence from synthetic reality if it would be I could enter into it unawares. That I know when things are real and things are not real.
54. I pray I never do drugs unless it is a mild barbiturate (like speed.)
55. I pray for a better alternative to jail for they that are incarcerated.
56. I pray that science rapidly but fully build a utopia.
57. I pray that I have a strong presence online without being online. I pray that Ai is developed to bring my writings to life. That the internet has me on it apart from myself and that I am discussed often and I pray for the general ability to write well, efficiently, prolifically, and attractively. Amen.

Day Two Prayers

1. With regards to the temperature, I pray to be in a constant temperature from 75 to 90 degrees

- Fahrenheit. I pray to never be cold again or exhausted from heat.

20. I pray for frequent downloads of all of my books.
21. I pray for food preferable, tasty, and good.
22. Biscuits and gravy, fried zucchini, fried shrimp, cocktail sauce, fried mushrooms, ranch sauce. I also want Reuben sandwiches, pretzel bread, shock tarts sours, name brand gummi bears, sweet tarts, all sorts of chocolate, all kinds of candy.
23. As well I want good pizza, chili rejenos, good and sweet cereal, oolong tea, sausage and biscuits, steaks, thick steaks, donuts, and pigs in a blanket with cheese and ketchup.
24. I pray for a quality Mickey Mouse watch, the best fitting and best otherwise cargo pants, a good and durable fanny pack, out door sandals that never tear up, 100% wool socks, arm warmers, very warm and thick long johns top and bottom, an over coat thick like a blanket with many pockets, and a Steelers football hat.

25. I pray that I have a good home, wherever I am
26. I pray for more freedom than regular people, even much more.
27. I pray for a collection of board game pieces.
28. I pray for tolerance in playing with my own things
29. I pray for a very nice trumpet and to be good at playing it
30. I pray for thick plastic walls and stainless steel floors.
31. I pray for a movie theater in my large home.
32. I pray for servants to have my things kept clean, even spotless
33. I pray for a person to play dungeons and dragons with
34. I pray for a friend who is into computers, both building them and programing them
35. I pray for final fantasy strategy guides and a full set of early video game Manuals, up unto the super nes.

36. I pray for the success of SEGA and that they maintain a level of wickedness, creating demonic, fantasy based Satanic infused games.
37. I pray that I use my time well each day and by what I do, success given to it.
38. I pray that my enemies be punished through and through. That every I'll ever done me there is a harsh punishment unto them
39. But I pray for all good things for my family and all them who are truly my friends
40. I pray to come to rule the Earth forever. That many millions of years pass by, yet I still rule
41. I pray that my out there worlds increase and be developed well by use of my Five Planets book series.
42. I pray that I am given every measure of respect from others and encounter none who disputes my peacefully well being
43. I pray that my restrictions have a way of lessening.
44. I pray that trouble never build to high against me
45. I pray for the best made radio and a dozen or two dozen stations producing my favorite music only.

46. I pray that my primary needs are always met, such as tobacco, iced tea, good food, and good entertainment.
47. I ask that my tastes are more the tastes of others. That what I like is best liked by others, because of the simple fact of me liking it.
48. I pray for visions showed me, in the clouds, on the Earth
49. I pray to have a good relationship, be on good terms, and be the perfect person for Satan and his angels.
50. I pray for admiration and influence toward people.
51. I ask to be one worshipped extensively
52. I ask for complications in my life to be minimal.
53. I pray that if ever I am angry that it quickly subsides.
54. I ask to regard myself better, that my own life and self image over powers and out weighs other's.
55. I pray asking that my road be a good road. That were I'd go I'd e, and once there know it well before moving onto something else.
56. I pray to be like a goat if it is I am like any animal, may it be a goat.

57. As one that finds people but yet stays within himself. Leaving them in thought. Being with his own thoughts, not thoughts imparted by others, as away, on the mountains, as an individualist.
58. I pray that my best characteristics are individuality, having a mind my own, enjoying things, generally, not easily bored. Making my use of time well. To both have earned and feel the joys of pride. To have established myself and as one that is naturally good at improving, and improving, and improving yet more his existence
59. And so I pray that things for me never get legitimately or genuinely bad. But I stead things tend to get better for me. If not in a leap, at least in steps. And that my future is well tended to.
60. I pray for minimal failure.
61. I pray to know my tastes well. That simple things be substantial for me, and always had.
62. I pray to have the desires of my heart.
63. I pray that those who'd hi der, hurt, contort, or worsen me, are sent far, far away and kept from me.
64. I pray to be well established. I pray that the way I direct others is a good and desirable one.

65. And I certainly pray for the mind to create things that are goodly for others: according to what I am doing at any given time.
66. I pray that old things always be given new life. Especially for those things which I loved and appreciated in my past.
67. I pray for the never ending re emergence of those things from my childhood and when done new, done good, too.
68. I pray particularly that video game things of my youth are always brought back, never given up on, and never fully relinquished.
69. I pray that programing software becomes so damn smart that creating ones own video game is very easy.
70. I pray that video games for the early days gaming consoles come about in large numbers, whether their quality is poor or exceptional.
71. I pray that the environment and social structure on Earth resemble Orion's, Sefra's, Ler's, Puppy's, And Link's.
72. I pray that science develops rapidly. That it doesn't just add. It multiplies. That it solve all human suffering. That it makes humans into obvious gods.

73. And I pray that though this is so that I am kept safe from loosing myself in it, such as within a synthetic reality.
74. And if I ever fall into a synthetic reality I ask you, God, to save me from it.
75. And I pray that as my thoughts go during the week that when Sunday I sleep and when Monday comes, the desires of my heart come into place. Amen.

Day Three Prayers

1. Who, Ya, is more qualified than me to be The Anti Christ or Satan's Son?
2. You know that my suffering was great in most of my days.
3. Know and remember me, Ya, for my suffering but experience, too.
4. That I was locked up for years and homeless, severely deranged meanwhile.
5. The full and long nights of crying.
6. "For I was hungry" And you gave me shit- food from the garbage, and sometimes not even that.
7. "For I was thirsty," and you gave me piss.

8. And among that I took a cup of dark urine, drank it and declared myself Anti Christ.
9. You forced upon me fasting. And I demand to be compensated.
10. In madness I went about, no doubt. And you herald before me a presence of hell.
11. You must remember me in my youth. You must excuse me. You must be greater than my sin, or else I am the maker of my own bad fate. But do not let me incur punishment from my sin.
12. Be with me rather as someone sharing a game where I am.
13. Have my writings be thoroughly adhered to if only to make things more interesting. As globally transformative as the Gospel of your Son, Jesus.
14. Please protect me from harm, even before that protect me, from its source: protect me from malice, from being hated.
15. Be with me hidden on this journey of mine but there.
16. No matter if I demand separation from you, be with me still, always.
17. I ask that my taste magic work. And too my visualization. And I ask to have a psychic connection with the world. To be good at these. And I pray they work, even very well, sometimes.

18. I ask to never have to be put under analgesia, please! For it is like death.
19. And I pray that there comes a day I don't have to and don't need to sleep.
20. Put in my life good music and good food.
21. Whether my work is good or bad, or even wicked, let it be.
22. Whether my work is good or isn't, please let it prosper, and reward me with prosperity.
23. I stand for something that hasn't been yet done but I cannot succeed without you.
24. I ask for great prestige and honor, admiration and interest of me.
25. I ask for service and obedience, fear and faith of me from my counterparts here on Earth.
26. I ask for pleasure for feasts, for celebration and victory
27. I ask to receive things as I sit and wait. That interesting things occur in my life and the faith to know they always will. That nothing be the same for too long. But no challenges! Keep my life easy, Lord.
28. I ask to be The Light. That in regards to light, that element in nature made by you, that I know it well and master it's many uses.
29. I ask that Jesus be The Water.
30. I ask that You, Ya, be Time

31. That Satan be Nature
32. A d I ask that the indevine spirit be being lost in the details.
33. Where I go may I influence.
34. Through science, all problems solved.
35. Homes for the homeless and good food. Cold drinks too, better than water.
36. May science move in the direction of ending our suffering here on Earth.
37. May Man finally become as one with great gods, as through death, trial and error, and ages of suffering, Man has earned his inception into true godhood!
38. I pray for a good seat. A really, really good seat — one comfortable lending to a variety of different ways to sit upon it. And it lasts indefinitely. That it be my thrown.
39. I ask that San Francisco never see rain again but that rain be sent where it receives it's water.
40. I pray that rain not fall upon me as I suffered before waking up homeless in the cold rain.
41. I ask that nothing bad ever happen to those I truly love, my family.
42. I ask that you gather around me My People of Perfect Sense and that they forever be mine.

43. I want good things, like a white gold to g with a pentagram blue crystal on top, a rose engraved thereon with an L in the middle.
44. May the people oppressed in modern day North Korea escape from their suffering! May they find freedom from their cruel dictator.
45. I pray that for the truly good, no harm befall them and their family.
46. I pray to have a weeping willow
47. I pray that in my own heaven that board game pieces pave the street, and candy.
48. I pray that there be an underground place of living be so as such instead of just up higher and higher.
49. I want a large collection of video game manuals, in original form, a good collection of Final Fantasy items. And I want a large amount of MS DOS RPG games, old vintage computers, modding equipment, the ability to mod better than anyone, just about, and for a set of talents involving computers, software, game consoles, electronics, and programming.
50. I ask for my friend, as sincerely as such, be one a bit older, bearded, and having knowledge about old computers and games, dungeons and dragons, and that certain area of interest. And may my good friend haven't any other friend!

51. I pray to be compelling, an interesting person
52. I pray that I change the world, significantly, and for the better.
53. I pray that people making eBooks have broader success and that many helpful sites and software regarding it come to be. I pray too that my own books are never lost. That they are successful. That they are very well circulated.
54. I pray for the rapid development of artificial reality, AI, technology, medicine, and such tarry not.
55. I ask that I don't have to take you seriously. But that rather things be taken in terms as a game being played where the loser never really loses, certain never to eternal hell fire damnation.
56. I pray not for power of my own dealing, authority over all, but rather than science proliferate. That it expands and develops in the way we become great gods each and all. And I pray I not get lost in that place. Have me situated well with it, all of us.
57. I pray that all have all they need, especially with food and drinks, but also comfort and entertainment. May our science take us there. I pray that AI and robotic tech advances so well as to let us do our own work and not another's. So then let us do our own things such as writing or painting while technology does the dirt.

58. I pray that human kind overcome all ailments and strife. For a truly brighter day to come soon.
59. I pray not to take other people's things as though by might of right it is all mine. Rather I pray that everyone has everything s/ he could possibly need.
60. I waive my role of Anti Christ preferring rather those things spoken of, these that wouldn't coincide with worldwide rule, but that I desire greater than control over others, of anyone, really. And along with that may none be a dictator.
61. Empower the People of America, Lord, to defeat and overthrow cruel dictatorships. Abolish kings far and wide. May all wo/men be given great undeniable freedom.
62. I pray for brighter days that are not too bright. As we could get lost in our new world set us free, redirect us, return us into regular realities. Whether than delving too far into unending pleasure.
63. I pray to be The Devil's Son, whom stature cannot be denied but only regarded as solemnly special. I pray that the Middle Ground be for my Christian Satanist. Isn't it so that such a belief, in particular how it was made, serve as a balance, a compromise, and not for one, nor the other but its own?

64. Let me have good food, good music, sweets, tobacco, good health, in a life everlasting here upon The Middle Ground. Lead me into great things.
65. Please lead me into great things, bring them to me and take me into them. But put not with it bother, trouble, or strife. May good things come to me that I can fully wrap my arms around.
66. I ask for a psychic connection of the world. That what I think, so is the world already, or will. And that what the world thinks or will, so do I. In effect that my own thoughts change the world or senses it's change.
67. Let me not be angry. And when not, during the times that I took the higher ground, meet me there, and publish my enemy.
68. If a person is a particular threat to me, remove him from me, even if he must be injured or slain. I do not deserve these kinds of people in my life!
69. But have me be a little more tolerable and have me finding appreciation for all, whether not flying to an outrage over anything petty, perhaps leading to my own undoing and punishment.
70. At night watch over me. May the Demons themselves protect me as o go about.
71. Restore in me things lost and forgotten by me, or otherwise turned away from. Return me to things I left behind. Restore my previous love for my old ways, and thereby may I never be diluted, but rather squeeze more into the concentration before it spoils.

In Ya's name I pray, Amen.

Day Four Prayers

1. Ya please be with me all of my days. Be a guiding light in my darkest hour. Have mercy on me to make up for where I lack but always approve who I am, minimally changing me unless change is in my own dire need to be one well and fully functioning.
2. Consume my enemies at any time they have become too much. Let not my understanding regard others hatefully. May I regard people as well as I can, and keep my head low. And in so doing, have earned a position of greater freedom and authority.
3. Be with me in the snow. Save me from the blizzard. Rescue me from the heat. Bring to me water, and when starving, a treat.
4. May my companions and counterparts be choice, but never known for too long. May people know me well. But not overstep any boundaries I feel I have the right to have.

5. Popularize my writings and have reflected in them the best of things. May they speak well of me and change the Earth all together into The Devil's Earth, Nazia.
6. Keep from me your rules and temperance. Let me be on the Earth that is mine. Be proven you should not tread on my Earth. And leave your rule over it behind. Take from it the rule of Jesus and supplement it with mine.
7. Don't find fault in your child who speaks his heart and has kept his own truth despite not agreeing with you altogether.
8. Rather find your creation his own working man and see past his own faults with great mercy and simple acceptance.
9. Make in me Lucifer, the Devil's Son, one as earth changing as Jesus.
10. Build for me many a great Church
11. Put before me servants
12. Have my residence here be optimal and lacking nothing
13. May these things be soon and everlasting. Make for me the best residence, greater than any other's, on Earth, which is to become Nazia
14. Protect my People of Perfect Sense, and put me in their heart and mind wherever and whenever I be.

15. Bring the souls of My People of Perfect Sense unto me. Draw them to me and keep them with me, always.
16. Make me "The Gray Sheppard of The Gray House." Give to me all rule over this, "The Middle Ground."
17. But all these things be as nothing without my primary prayers:

That humankind through science become as complete gods. That suffering and difficult hardship be no more. To very well live immortal and complete through the advances of science, and the same for each and all of my family. May the impersonal work of humans be no more, but rather s/he be set free to pursue their own interests. And let not these sciences damn and ruin us! Hales-Nema, so noted in memory.

18. Put me upon a quest dear lord to be the master of my own existence. If I lack control over my own existence, provide me all that I need in order to. May my existence be purely well, lacking nothing.
19. Remove from me petty errands.
20. Heal my victims and may I never deliver true harm to any one. May I not lash out with my fist or overly aggravate the undeserving. Those who do become my quarry, may they be healed well and full, and forgive me.

21. I pray to regard your name as one heavy and meaningful. I pray for my own earth and my own. I pray for greater than "daily bread," I pray rather for a feast among the Devil and his angels. May my blood be blue.
22. May I be wrapped in the black wings of Lilith as I am situated to rule in the name of Satan. And may I suckle on the milk of iniquity, the indevine.
23. And may it be a great war of religion be. And when the dust settles I become as ruler over all. May my position as Devil's Incarnate, His Son, The Anti Christ, so be, and be everlasting.
24. Have me sit upon a throne in hell only being lesser than The Devil himself.
25. And may nothing I ever do bring me harm.
26. And have it be I am wise.
27. And have it be I am tactical.
28. And have it be as a web that unwinds.
29. Have people baited by me in The Name of The Devil
30. And give me authority over all humankind.
31. Else my path lead their someday or to a place even greater, and ever greater, in the best way that it could be

32. I desire worship.
33. I desire wealth.
34. I desire honor, prestige
35. I desire service, and obedience,
36. And I desire undeniable authority over all of humankind.
37. May my power never be stripped once given.
38. And if it is, return it to me, or put me in a place where your enemies are put under my authority.
39. Though you rescue whom you will from my hand, give me a portion of your wrath. Work your wrath through me, oh Ya.
40. Vindicate me. Put upon me less rules than others. Give me very liberal freedom knowing that these I've earned after many years of suffering, becoming who I am today.
41. Remember my suffering and either wash it away fully and thoroughly through a life long lasting better, or else have me walk around in my wasted rags knowing it is my past dirt I must carry.
42. Then either wash from me my dirt and put me into better clothes. Or accept my actions as they are.
43. I certainly desire a good home and one never taken from me. Give me a good home, and from there, and also meanwhile, make the Earth itself my idea home. Marry me to the World.

44. And so having married it make it not only mine but make mine its.
45. I ask to be compensated for all of this suffering you put me through. That I don't forgive you is your own fault. How can I depend on you? How can I trust you? Should I even expect my prayers to you will be answered? Are you worthy of being called my father? You had me starve. You had me homeless. And locked up. You put Schizophrenia in my mind. You have caused me pain. What kind of father is that? That is a dead beat father, one gravely negligent of his child.
46. So I'd you expect me to regard you as my father than you have already lost that opportunity. I will accept you no more. I will take Satan as my father and regard you as worthless, useless, and negligent.
47. Because those that follow you, they are lost. They become wrapped up in your biblical nonsense and fear you. I say none love you but that they fear you.
48. You are a bully, one cruel, and demanding, one brutal, uncivil.
49. You are as a being that when things don't go his way, it rages. It must have perfection, and your followers are truly cursed, altogether cursed.

50. I pray that you somehow know this is true. Do you not know your self that well?

Day Five Prayers

1. I ask for a newly made plasma TV.
2. I ask for graph paper, troll dolls, cherry cider, iced black sugarless tea, and good food, good pens, a locking file cabinet, a quality brief case, a durable and large fanny pack, well, good looking clothes, those durable, and idols—of many sizes with great quality
3. I ask my drinks always be cold and to have them throughout the day never lacking black tea, ice, and a good new and large cup.
4. I pray my food be choice, like a well cooked thick beef steak.
5. I ask for a 72 key Yamaha keyboard.
6. I ask for computer parts old and new in large amounts.
7. I ask for warmth and to be kept from the cold, with new and warm clothes and a sleeping bag, one new from time to time.
8. I want a thick over coat with many pockets
9. I want good food like cat fish and nachos with jalapenos—fried cheese sticks, fried little burritos, and fried jalapenos. Sour cream bean and beef burritos, and all things sweet. Cupcakes! And blue berry muffins! Banana pudding with wafers. And especially peanut butter fudge. The best cold milk cereals, with half and half milk. And sometimes egg nog. Also my drink: The Lucifer: Tea, Coffee, Rum, with a splash of lime.

10. I ask for my world to be less health paranoid. I ask for separation and protection from their grimy hands. Keep me from health imposing dictates, and set forth The Separation of Medics and State.
11. I ask for the success of Scientology and that the Christian Satanist be their Ally.
12. I ask that The Worldly Oppositionist/ Christian Satanic Church be far, far greater than the Church of Satan, and in fact the most powerful Church since the Catholic's.
13. I ask to be "The Grey Pope" who resides in "The Grey House," and after that be made "The Glowing Pope," who resides in his "Glowing Bright Home." To be the Light. Ya to be Time. Jesus Water. SATAN nature.
14. I ask for special attention from you and a special purpose from you- that of changing the world around him. And to evolve humankind.

15. I ask to be granted a special sort of privacy, to be kept alone even when I am others or another. That I am more left alone, even in crowds.
16. I pray to never be infested with virus, bug, or illness. I pray to never suffer with cancer, stroke, or brain damage. I pray to be carefully and thoroughly protected from torture and confinement. And to be rescued and removed from all of these things, but moreover, that they are stopped before they start.
17. Lift up high those who are Christian Satanist.
18. Change the world through and through with Christian Satanist.
19. Make me a creator of many religions. Simply give me the basis to make them, one after the other, with always more to come.
20. Empower Christian Satanist to change the world.
21. Lift them up into the perfect of people and lavish and spoil them one and all.
22. Have the angels gear the world by it's design of my writings.
23. Let me not keep a mediocre fate. Put me from a no one to and all one.

24. Bring to me notoriety. And give me great wealth, as money is power. Liberate me from the limitations imposed from my poor state. Give me so much money and wealth that none can deny or oppress me.
25. Give to me the Earth itself, or at least let me borrow it for awhile, enough to have spent all my joy there on until all joy is spent and is of no more any difference to me.
26. Then let their come a time when I take another and yet another.
27. Give me the responsibility and capacity to change the world I am on and give me all power and authority to do so
28. Be as the one who has done what he wishes that be done
29. And when I see a star and pray unto it then make my prayers heard and answered.
30. And when I pray to an idol, have it's deity hear me and execute my wishes
31. Make me good friends with The Devil and all things iniquitous
32. Shape the world through my wishes and the design I hold
33. With any one little missing part, put in the missing piece.

34. I pray I never die, nor am reincarnated, or go to heaven, or truly descend into hell. But that if harmed too greatly or am in the face of unresolvable danger that I awaken in a new bed, a bed elsewhere, and am not at all harmed or in danger from where I rise.
35. I pray to be most complete as one step before most others. That I be made better before I make the same step ahead as others. Before I advance, in intellect, in stature, in mindfulness, in all good and important things, have me reach it's best point before I move forward.
36. And in as such let me not fall headlong into a place I know not and am not ready for. Make me as one who can grasp tightly on what he is today before he becomes something he altogether knows not the next day.
37. But if it troublesome and trifle, strife and difficulty, have me move beyond it and arrive at places of comfort
38. Bring me to a place of comfort and give me the ability to bring myself to places comfortable
39. Bring about peace from my life, peace of myself within myself and the same for those around me regarding me.

40. Give into my existence the games of the gods. That I be a good character in it as a movie, to be used as most favorably. A shining piece to be used in the game
41. Sprout forth before me a beautiful garden. Remove the weeds. Water the plants that I have sowed which are favorable, removing any weeds I've grown.
42. Have me removed from frustration.
43. Have me removed from hate
44. And remove me from vindictive people, if there is no hope for my well being around them
45. Those that blatantly violate my well being and peace, destroy
46. Destroy among me my impossible enemy. If I had sought peace but they have refused it, them destroy, other than my family.
47. My family, keep them in peace and we'll being. Bring about a good life for them. Bond us more closely together.
48. Give me a life alone with my family. Give me a wife and theirs a spouse for each. But let us be alone in the world. And give us all things that are in it without others here to dispute that claim.

49. Make into my family a principality.
50. Set before me a path most desirably and have my road be it's master. Make me master of the path I tread on, without equal, without any better than I.
51. And if I choose to walk a different road let it too be my road, one without equal than me before I depart from it.
52. In me strive for perfection.
53. In me be absolved to do the best to.
54. Make my cross light, my burden small, my strife too trivial to bear upon my shoulders. And may those shoulders be quite strong
55. Let me peacefully proceed this day to become the Master of his Way, proceed me to this day unto a place of warm welcoming and power, soon to lack nothing, but that things only improve until I have obtained what I seek: notoriety.
56. Be with me always. Accept me. Be not angry against me. But rather agree with me. Welcome good changes in my life, putting them forth. Making my life as good as it could be. Being fully appreciated, and one of full and widespread fame.

57. Then gather to me My People of Perfect Sense and have me become The Anti Christ, whose image is worshipped. Amen.

Day Six Prayers

1. I pray that people on the whole strive for perfection, that the world become better, as good as it could be
2. Offer us, humankind, the kind of scientific and technological intelligence we need to develop and progress
3. Give us an arm as such that reaches further, further, and yet further
4. Make me light, and make me white
5. Make "white" symbolize me, which is to say, I am known and made of all things white, much more than any other color
6. So I am sugar, salt, milk, rice, paper, stars, lightning and thunder, even electricity and the hottest fire. I am then what I would count as the very best food and things of nature
7. May my soul be bright. May I be light. Fast and strong, quick yet very good.

8. Let me know when I should take the right risks and when I should not
9. Put me before myself the better chance
10. May it all be a game between me, you, the angels above and below
11. And not a thing of such seriousness that I would burn and rot in agony for all time
12. And share with me and my Christian Satanist the secret that this is so, a game, not a serious matter.
13. And keep my Christian Satanists a more pragmatic people as such.
14. May it be that the Christian Satanist is your better follower, not slavish or deluded, not overly serious to you, but rather separate them from these and accept them as Those Pragmatic.
15. Make my writings spread like a raging fire out in the wild, oh Lord! And may the change it causes be as great as what Christ called.
16. If you think I am in danger, send me out not.
17. If you think I should go, have me leave
18. But know that I prefer to be alone, and help me in so staying.
19. Help me make the right choices
20. Give me the right things to say
21. Give to me the right things to do

22. And help me remain quiet and made unbothered quickly, if I must
23. Gather together followers for me and have me teach the grey
24. As one is yours, the others who aren't, and us who are both and forgive me for being double sided but make me good at being double sided.
25. For I am not a shape, not a circle or triangle, but as two lines that you connect and the devil connects, you at the top, Satan at the bottom, or else I am not going to be put together at all.
26. Give to me much authority and Dominion over the Earth
27. And let not my authority be challenged
28. Send through me the wisest of things but more importantly, the most improvement, the most revolution, progress and evolution
29. I do not attest that I be given these freely, but keep them in my capacity to clench onto and firmly hold tight into the day they can be released as a bird unto my sky above
30. Make Earth like that of the Pippin's, The Ler's, The Sefra's, The Orionite's (especially) and The Linkin's. Pull forth together the nature of these three where I am

31. I pray to travel far onto a hot air balloon. To sit by a camp fire. To have an abandoned bus my home, with my family with me, and to have enormously towering trees upon Earth in which people live
32. I pray for a candy land kind of place where there is nothing but fun, sweets, toys, and all good childish things
33. I pray that magic be so much more teal, at least through science. I certainly pray for humankind's rapid scientific advancement, oh Lord!
34. I pray for a more mysterious place where magic is real, from wizards and sorcerers to warlocks, elves to demons, demons to jinns, and to be master of it all
35. Though I may separate from my family, bring me back to them, or them back to me.
36. Put me on the map but difficultly found. And bring to me only the best. Remove from me the dull and boring and certainly the useless. Put before me instead the helpful and useful, but keep from me a high cost for them. I do not want a male buddy. But I do want to me a man of many women.

37. Bring together followers of me and set me deep in their hearts. As they can reason best, have me teach them. Make for me my own people, who are dedicated to me.
38. Give me success in religion that exceeds all other religions, a mile, and many miles beyond what was done before and what it did.
39. I want the best of jewels top and bottom. I want the kind of jewelry of Kings, and wardrobe too. I want 100% wool socks, thick and durable cargo pants, an army clip belt, a durable out door fanny pack, the best Mickey mouse watch, one with indiglo and the best possible battery, I want warm quality long johns top and bottom. Dress me with a many pocketed lab coat, turtle neck shirts, a Steeler's football cap, a blue quartz necklace working magical wonders, and durable out door sandals.
40. I ask that I be lead away from strenuous devotion from the Holy Bible. More than that, it largely be removed from me and my practice.
41. I ask for the wealth necessary to give good things to my family, because I have certainly proved to be a good giver, even though I am poor

42. Keep from me the bossy, the rude, and the demanding.
43. Keep from me the loud, the obnoxious, and the blatant misfits.
44. Put into my life and adequate level of peace and quiet.
45. And give me the wealth necessary to make this happen.
46. By large most of the things I ask for can be gotten my own through wealth. Therefore, Lord, I ask to be invested with great wealth.
47. Inform Satan of my desires and what you do not give, let me sell my soul to him in making up for it.
48. Though my soul be damned these things of which I speak I want, still. Be sure in knowing, I was damned already and that Heaven is a place I would rather not be.
49. I ask for your blessings to be with the Devil and his angels. And that My People of Perfect Sense be established and made mine.
50. I ask to be married to the world and that in "the middle ground" I forever reside, in a place of unimaginably advance sciences.

51. May my bed have been made by you, as you do it better. As I cannot make my own bed help me and teach me how.
52. May my writings be like good meat for good people
53. Stir up strife for those against me and give them no option to deprive me of my fate
54. I ask to be The Devil's Son, equal in authority, power and presence to Jesus. Make me Anti Christ, whose image is worshipped.
55. But I ask to be regarded as differently. As I'd damn myself. Save me anyways. Be upon me power to be kept safe, happy, and we'll off!
56. Please do not let strife stir up in my life
57. When problems or over bearing challenges sprout up, which I am sensitive to, resolve for me.
58. Take a bloody mess of what I've done and clean it for me. Because it is at that time I need you the most.
59. Keep me from incarceration, or else end my life before hand. May I never be locked up.
60. And in fact I pray especially something better for those that are locked up.

61. And like with so many things, science can fix it. So please have science benefit the better being of those locked up.
62. Through science, better food, a safer society, a less degree of difficulty for us all!
63. I pray my purpose and purpose after purpose be acceptable to you. I pray that it be as it has been, as a writer of what he'd write, and have written. Please do not change my purpose. I want to write, particularly religiously.
64. And be with me all of my days. Be by my side. Even if I'd pray you leave, don't, and for the sake of that child devoted to you I was when young, keep this person he became safe and saved.

Amen.

Day Seven Prayers

1. I pray for crafts to work on
2. I pray for video games to work on
3. I pray to work on game console modding, and to be good at it
4. I pray it be time we'll spent. And I pray it be profitable

5. I pray that what I like the most stays with me.
And that I become good at it
6. I pray for retro games to surface more popularly than ever. Whether remade or in their original form.
7. That old things are given new life and never go away completely
8. I pray not one things stay too long on Earth
9. And that evolution on it is given attention and appropriated
10. May my mouth speak honestly and by honesty be redeemed.
11. I pray that no terrible news ever come my way
12. And that the messenger is timely
13. I pray to have all the time I need in making my future better
14. And my effort today is rewarded the next
15. May I do well at what I do without too much difficulty or pressure upon myself
16. Rather my objective be determined, naturally occurring, and giving of pride
17. May my yesterday look far into the future and my past be far behind as I get better and better, improving all the time, and working a purpose masterfully

18. Lift up by burden and carry for me my cross
19. Challenge those that would waste my time as I'd rather work than waste time ruminating and exchanging thoughts
20. Keep me an individualist, one whom knows his tastes well. And may my tastes themselves be individually construed, contrived, brought about.
21. Make my future get better each day
22. Make my past give well to my future
23. Increase my own heart felt aspirations and also fall upon my lap all good things.
24. Cast away doubt and worry in my thinking and give me optimism and bright side thinking
25. Put sharp silver linings in the clouds over head
26. And save me from disaster
27. Root up the useless in my life
28. Root up the un- worthwhile and the "other man's purpose" from my life
29. Sacrifice the rotten beasts in it. And put their rot away from me
30. Have me triumph in my endeavors
31. Have me face just a little less challenge in reaching for the things I want most
32. Give me much rest

33. Give me adequate time alone
34. And have me surface from a pit thought unclimbable. Pull me out from it and put me back on track
35. May my reward outweigh my effort
36. And may my own effort be substantial
37. But please, oh Lord, do not tax too high my soul
38. Or else I will be unable to afford the things that would make me better
39. And so I need your help, all that you can give, in making my life better, and for that to be lasting
40. I find myself lacking the kind of life I want despite all my efforts
41. And know: my efforts continue daily and will until I have gotten further up
42. I want honor and prestige. I want notoriety
43. I want to make a positive influence on others and the world as a whole
44. And I want wealth of unimaginable proportion.
45. And know that these have been a lasting desire in my heart
46. And so please bring me unto them with speed

47. Give me a good life, one bathed and drenched in wealth
48. That wealth, everlasting and full, all the rest of my days
49. Where science couldn't do before, have it do now
50. Because it is then that wealth and riches would grow on trees, ripe for the picking
51. Improve and accelerate scientific advances to make everyone's life on Earth better.
52. I pray for the ability to enjoy these things, especially food and music, but also toys which I happen to like, and book writing and console moding, software and maybe programing.
53. I tell you my hearts wishes. I tell you them with honesty and without reserve. I speak of the way I want to be, how I want my life to be, and what I want in it.
54. I lack nothing in telling you, intentionally, precisely as could be, as the Christian Satanist that I am.
55. And I pray for my own people
56. I pray that in them you have a people set aside, one that would be good having around: those honest to you and more pragmatic.

57. So in the Christian Satanists they think greatly about you, but more loosely, lest attached/ glued to you. A .pre reasonable follower that has the potential to reach and worship you in a special way
58. I pray for myself that you are stronger than my own satanic mentality, if it can be called that. Because I am a good person. But I am not good enough to be wholly Christian.
59. As I am not angered at you for the life I lead, thoroughly destitute, in the past, I want you around, just not too around, after all.
60. But lift me up and pour upon me your blessings nonetheless.
61. And especially may I enjoy food and music. These two make life good, even better than anything else could.
62. Things can pile and pile in my life into a big and total mess. I could clean it if my spirit was strong enough. But alas it would linger before me until it rots and molds away. I ask if this happens that you step into my life and clean it. Oh Lord, I need your help at such a time.
63. Though I have thought and been evil in your sight, remember me as the child so fully devoted to you.

64. I am a Christian Satanist and by that fact alone nothing can have me separate myself from you, never all together, and I have certainly been more godly than not.
65. You may cut out all evil from me and turn me fully unto you
66. But observe in me qualities I have come to have. These, a treasury I hold, in my hands, are things I've collected from much toil and hardship
67. So let me keep these, my attributes gained, while I have been broken already and hold in my hands the former image of me
68. And I like that I'm age of me
69. And to see my name written down it makes me wonder who that is. It is a unusual thing. One I am unable to understand. One that seems so far away
70. I was stricken. My skull cracked. Before I took the name Lucifer. I have earned that name. You know I am fully worthy of it. And a curse upon those who would take my new name!
71. Give to me my name Lucifer, embody me the Light, and make my color White. But I lack the fourth and ask you to give me the fourth.
72. Situate me into comfort as I do your work.

73. My work, being done, let me test without having to do other work.
74. Give to me the only job I'll do.
75. And keep me away from Heaven. I don't want to go or be there. Set aside a room for me, quarantine me if I am ever there.
76. Send me not to hell, either. But instead, keep me on The Middle Ground, Earth, and places far away, but not Heaven, not Hell.
77. Establish me as ruler over this area. And equip me with what I need to teach here and there.
78. And effectively fill the universe with those Christian Satanic
79. Make Christian Satanic Churches crop up in far away places. Conjure up the spirit of the Christian Satanist. Make the universe slowly but fully become Christian Satanic
80. Make it my purpose and work to bring up perfected Christian Satanism everywhere but your Kingdom, or the Devil's.
81. As for me, make me The Devil's Son who is equal in renown and stature to Jesus himself. In other words make my role of the Devil's Son a mighty and significant one.

82. And as my day winds down give me comfort.
83. May I lay in bed every night relaxed and full of calm. That even if my mind was running through a thousand things a day bring me into peace after the sun goes down
84. May I always have a most comfortable seat, a good size cup of iced tea, a few snacks, and good things to ease me away from stress and self pressure
85. When I think during the week and on the Sunday sleep, may I awaken to a world that has changed.
86. Make the World as the way I am.
87. Make the world like me, in what I want from it, have it give me
88. Have the World know my desires and hand them to me.
89. And keep me from too much sleep. May it even be someday I don't even need to sleep, and yet function just as well. Amen.

Day Eight Prayers

1. As I prayed to be the element Light. And to be the color White. I pray that my number be the number 8.
2. Make these things be mine and define me in both abstract and concrete ways.
3. I pray today asking for peace with people, always, or at least tolerance
4. I pray to be a leader and popular wherever I may be.
5. I pray that I can do things that I do the best
6. That I be the best at what I do.
7. I pray for an interesting existence
8. One that I know I can expect something good to happen never something that complicates my life, though
9. I pray that my friendship with you is not obstructed or lessened by my friendship with those you enemies
10. That I may remain neutral, not put on a side and never having to fight for a side but rather be indifferent
11. May entertainment come my way
12. And good penetrating intelligence
13. May good perception and understanding be mine

14. Though come about in doses good not over loaded
15. In the course of my life have me swallow wisdom and keep it in
16. But never injected as sharp and painful
17. Rather give to me delicately yet powerfully perception, wisdom, and understanding
18. Though not having lofty ideas like a cloud. But instead down to earth and pragmatic. Give me wisdom I can best use and used practical
19. May I sum up surrounding conditions well and interpret them well.
20. Let me have the answers o seek after the most. The more that I need an answer make me able to figure them out, like a good detective using limited information to solve, to determine it's answer.
21. Dress my life like a way tailored suit.
And whatever direction I am on if I choose to change it abruptly, give me a good start.
Teach me all the things I should know before I go on a new journey
22. Put upon my path great gifts, wherever
I may go

23. And give me great material wealth like I never before have known, time and time again.
24. Be like a person to whom you give freely
25. And shower on me things you think would be good for me
26. Shower down on me good material gifts that you think I'd like. Because you, Lord, know what I like even more than I
27. So these things you know I'd like, though as for me they are seldom or even never on my mind, those things give
28. Take time in my life by making it easy and good, one where I lack nothing.
29. And if it is that I suffer without something bring it back
30. And very importantly to me, what I make have it last forever.
31. Copy what I make and keep it for me in Heaven. Keep it forever. And return all things I've lost back to me.
32. Pay special attention to my prayers.
33. May I never lose but always gain. May what I lose be replaced by two things better.

34. And may I have both quality and quantity of good things in my life
35. And what I have my heart set on, that give me.
36. And have me lacking nothing
37. Give to me things that the hidden heart wants.
38. Boost up my energy. Increase my happiness. Limit my toil. Pull me out of boredom. Keep my life interesting. Make my life in the flesh eternal.
39. Anything I've had earlier in life but have no longer, bring back to me
40. And answer the bulk of my prayers through making me universally wealthy rich beyond belief.
41. Never let me be put on anesthesia, for it is like death
42. And if I am cancerous may I be at peace knowing it will leave me, knowing you will cure me, and so do.
43. And may science eliminate all sickness, both mental and physical.
44. Have empathy for those sick
45. Know how great a suffering a person may have

46. And after understanding this, heal them. Give to scientists and chemists the knowledge and use of knowledge needed to remove all sickness
47. And by science remove all greed. Have work not necessary due to AI and robotics. And replicating type of things that give to all food, the best food, with no limit. And so no one will have to starve.
48. May science rapidly develop, fully, and that's all I want.
49. I want to live on a world of incredible science and technology. A place where I lack nothing and do not have to fear criminals, thugs, or eat tasteless things, and one where none be incarcerated, thanks to scientific developments of all kinds. And that is all I want. And I can't want anything much more.
50. I want human kind to become gods, whose scientific advances are Paramount in making that be
51. And that there come a point that they burst through and all things can be done and made

52. And so the end of their suffering, their hardship, the things lacking be damned and remove
53. Punish man's limitations. Kill those instead. Damn those instead. Because when humankind lacks nothing then his evilness is gone. Man wanting nothing will not kill in getting and that runs through and true.
54. May this be a book for you, oh Lord, that is used in making me the person I am
55. May it be for you a guide from your creation on who he wants to be
56. And have me made these things
57. And work on them in regards to me
58. Please consider this book in every dealing with me
59. And may by 2040 humankind's scientific progress pound at the door so strongly as to break us all free.
60. Please do not consider limits when considering me but make me the best I could be and yet more what I could be following
61. But keep my reasoning mind and insight focused on reality, not drifting away, not drifted away

62. Give to my work appreciation and success. May I not ever have to remain regular, normal. But instead raise in stature, whose work is appreciated.
63. And may it be a good work done, but more than that, used well, used thoroughly, used thoroughly well
64. Visit upon my home my followers far and wide
65. And may those of the Earth itself come to me and be mine
66. Pass by me things of little or no good meaning. But bring to me for my keeping all things good
67. Make my existence be as one burning bright for many a person's warmth. And may upon that fire be good food for those with me
68. Give me time alone with my family from time to time. And may we be bonded together
69. May my family never come to hate me, or merely dislike me, nor be ever frustrated by me, and certainly never bitter

70. May all bad things I do be forgiven by them, fully
71. And as I am one that has for them the same, open their heart to me and may I always be welcomed within
72. I pray I never have children. That instead of children, I've made books. So then may my books be children. And give to my children life, life lasting, and reflecting my life my own, and speaking for me, and as a mirror.
73. And that my books give me a presence online without actually being online, but through my books I am there
74. I pray that all of my books last forever and that not even one is ever lost. And I certainly pray they are kept and used.

Amen.

Day Nine Prayers

1. Give to me the best tools I need to do my work
2. And keep my work primarily to be writing
3. Give me what I need both tools and place in which I may freely write

4. Have me forego childish entertainment
5. And to write as an adult would,
6. And living up to his responsibility, and rewarded for the same, whether it be good or bad
7. Keep with me my creature comforts. A good chair, a good drink, and a peaceful place in which to live
8. May people have few words for me
9. And may my words be heavy
10. But may others let me be alone, and not be bothered, and not to bother
11. I pray to be blessed with the unexpected
12. I pray good things just fall into my hands
13. I pray that my followers not be too over bearing. But much with me the same
14. I pray that Final Fantasy be forever, and that my other such tastes prevail just the same
15. I pray you often consider the under dog
16. And that those who were original, the first of their kind, be given the better consideration

17. And that from dust they are newly formed and take back the place where those who followed are put back behind
18. I ask for adventure
19. That for me things not remain too much the same
20. I pray for adventure though light, and it be a thing of no burden but rather something that I'd enjoy
21. Lead the best books my way
22. Keep my tastes unique, my own
23. Bring my way the better books and music too, as well as food and games, and more of everything choice, not popularly derived
24. Make me much an individualist
25. Fill my heart with earned pride
26. Help me succeed that my heart may be proud
27. And give a kind of magical power to the same
28. Alter the world in a way in which I have absolute rule. And that for my family, too.

29. Give to me all good things and never let me lack for anything. Put in my heart the joy of my possessions
30. And what my heart yearns for bring my way
31. And put my mood into the nether that things are always adjusted in my favor
32. Put my anger into the nether and have it mightily fall back down onto the Earth
33. As I am happy, may all be happy
34. And send my questions up into the nether and bring it back down upon me as answers
35. Equip me with items and an environment in which I am not bothered but left alone, and never let happen my harm
36. I want to see ghosts and spirits
37. I want to talk to demons, and even angels
38. I want to enter and return from strange lands, strange realms
39. I want to be mostly fixed on Earth but the doors to such places are never closed
40. Fill my home with original and commissioned final fantasy art

41. Have made the movies I would have happen
42. Very well design the world after my heart. And have it clearly to me known
43. Let me not have the cheaper thing. But rather take it and give me the better.
44. If I am exhausted remove me and place me in peace and comfort
45. And never expect me to walk a mile
46. Keep my body strong and healthy
47. And through science make it ever lasting
48. I pray that because of scientific development I become like a super man, in more meaningful ways than laser eyes. But to fly, never need sleep, and to be immortal, I want science to have happen it upon me. Pack away my old life on that day and take me on a ride to godliness. Strip from us all discomfort, and certainly all suffering, and in any need.
49. If man is to be immortal speed me to that day/ speed it toward me.
50. That one day I am an old man and the next young again because of sciences that let it be

51. Let me not die until that day comes
52. Therefore have them know today what they will need possible on that day before I'm dead. And as a sounding celebration across all lands give to human kind immortality!
53. In whatever way that crime can be reduced or eliminated have happen, too.
54. And protect the children and empower those that protect them, too
55. May hateful people be like unto you criminals. And purge hateful people from my life. But don't send me away. Send them away.
56. Remove and punish those before me whom are blatantly objectionable, course, and rigid, impossible to deal with
57. Send them away onto a road where they are lead right into their doom
58. Doom them that harm me and the innocent putting them on the path that they get worse and meet their master, who terminates them.
59. May I find around me people who are very tolerance t very resilient not ruffled easily. Not needy of me. Not bothersome.

60. Put in my life the emotionally sound.
Those capable of being independent.
Those not around too much unless I really like them. The nerdy, the not over inflated. Not unattractive, not popularly designed.
61. Put out of my life any who do drugs.
Those drunkards, them gang minded, people not my feather. Separate them and confinement them remove them from me and my own.
62. Put in my life such a people involved with science and technology, games and game design, electronics and devil worshippers, and cute Wiccan people that are "special" in my book.
63. May those that are deemed overly unfaithful to you be given to me.
64. I pray to be all things Lucifer, The Light,
The Color White, and the Number Eight.
65. As an angel fallen, once so very devoted in you. But now I am fallen.
66. Make me be superior to Satan, in angelic ways, and sit me at his left hand side.

67. Give me a crown and throne in hell.
And do not burn my body in literal fire.
But have a better destination for me.
68. May the existence of that Lucifer figure in the Bible be a prophesy of me. And may I be it's design.
69. Have me be Lucifer through and through
70. Have it known far and wide that I am
Lucifer
71. And give me the authority to have his name, solely
72. May people regard me as the Anti Christ
73. Bring unto me the false prophet who'd prove me a miracle worker
74. Or rather dispense with the story altogether
75. Take a step back and allow human kind to advance on his own.
76. Equip them with the sciences that will remove this curse upon him
77. In such a way you are otherwise unneded
78. Bear in mind that humans have come a long way

79. And to deprive them of their baggage
I'd to return upon them an evil that by their right they have surpassed
80. Stay off of Nazia and never return
81. First equipping man with every bit of knowledge he and she needs to progress
beyond your curse
82. By your curse people have, for ages, suffered and died.
83. And we're made to pick up the pieces.
84. Piece by piece they collected a remedy looking into all corners of the Earth
85. But you, you bastard, would Ron it from their very hands and pose yourself as something being needed
86. Your son, did he die on the cross for a reward?
87. And if not, then why would he take everything and force all knees to him bend.
88. Is that to him honor? As for me, I find these things quite disgusting. Very repulsive. Flaws. Our blemish.
89. I do not prefer heaven over hell.

Day Ten Prayers

1. Remember me in my many days of complicated suffering.
2. That when a young teenager was starving for food, and living off of sparse food worse than locust and honey
3. The days I bled, cutting myself
4. My twice stitched up wrist
5. The days I was dealt with hatefully
6. The times I was bullied
7. The many enemies surrounding me
8. And remember the me who was homeless and awoke in the cold rain
9. Who by false interpretation of your Bible walked around barefoot
10. And jamming his heel into a wooden spike
11. Walking around that way, and getting a blood clot
12. Remember my suffering as I walked on that foot for days
13. That though I had the perfect belt it didn't fit
14. That the police threw me to the ground and broke my ring finger which remains as such
15. And so the Devil, become my partner
16. The days that I was infested with body lice and scratched until I bled

17. Remember me for my days of hardship and return me upon them into one perfectly qualified to be Satan's Son. Lucifer, whose name cannot be taken
18. That all I've struggled with qualifies me to take that name and be his son. That is the price. That is why I refuse to worship you
19. For I was homeless and tormented even by my supposed friend
20. I was cast out and degraded, daily
21. I was raised by an abusive father. And it is appropriate that the Devil be made then, my father
22. And I will not strive after you in any case
23. Because you made my suffering in the life great while holding no good thing in store for me
24. My arm has been broken as well as my nose
25. And on the day my nose was broken on that day I became Lucifer
26. Remember me in my sleepless days and of the depth of my derangement.
27. And do away with granting my harm once, fully, and for all
28. I've not done much bad in my life and those that have, turn your eyes from me to them
29. Because I am not so deserving an enemy as some people!
30. May I March forth in victory

31. May I hold in my hand Satan's flag
32. May I proceed in greatness and might and conquer my past
33. May I claim what is mine may I triumph and take what little else is owed
34. Until I have all that is owed me and not a drop less
35. Situate me into playing this role greatly and strip from me all obstacles and people that stand in the way of me and great glory!
36. Make my wealth extravagant, as well as my success, through and through
37. And may nothing in my name had been done in vain
38. Place upon me a happy, childish state and make me as unto an adult minded child
39. That I be a grown children one with a working adult brain make it my prime characteristics
40. And defile and Rob those who would take the place I've earned. Cast them out as unworthy robbers
41. Place upon me a stamp of approval as one that must be listened to and regarded well, removing from me any sight of lacking.
42. Let no pressure boil me over. Let me not explode in frustration. Give me every reason to feel secure.

And establish for me almighty power as well as that of my family

43. Strip from my importance others who are not of my family and teach me to put them first. And give me good reason for me to put above and before others
44. Let not the meddling hands of doctors reach underneath my skin. But keep me healthy.
45. And if the day comes that I die just send me elsewhere, where I should be, with all of my memories taken with me, all of my memories kept in tact.
46. Let me never completely lose my memories or suffer brain damage protect my head.
47. Protect my sight and limbs. Protect all of my senses.
48. And make me sharp, of good understanding. Well equipped mentally, and distanced from "herd mentality."
49. Whether I be a wolf, though to indifferent to carelessly slaughter, and not in need of such food. But an independentalist.. an individualist, whose thoughts are of his own origin and making.
50. May I be the best regarded author that ever there was. And give me enough days to have written more books than anyone else.
51. Let not my criticism be regarded well. Have me receive praise

52. And after I have roamed this way for many years, then put my heart on you. That I look back and find nothing but praise and thanks for you.
53. Because it is then that you will earn my respect. I do not want you to abandon me. I know that the greatest things can only come from you. Or at least without you I would be much less. Wrap me in the wings of angels and feed me. But first wrap me in the wings of the fallen.
54. I do know that good things can come from you, and I ask for them.
55. You created me. And you are a greater power than anything, even Satan. If I knew that you were impossible to reason with I would not bother. But I know you better than that. I feel that you will grant me the things that I asked for. But if you don't, don't condemn me for trying.
56. Keep me as someone who is honest with you, straight forward. Because I do not use that as an excuse or reason to be blatant.
57. You are the greatest of all powers. The highest power that could be. Even in the best of greatest I pose no threat to you.
58. If you think I could pose a threat to your sovereignty, be bothered not. I do not want what is yours. I do want greater things. And if even in the least make it the best least. And if I have to earn what I am given even more than may it be.

59. But keep my spirit in tact. And make my suffering minimal. I find no reason to be cursed. I have over come great pain.
60. As there are scars on my body and mind that I have earned give me this body forever, to live everlasting inside of it on the middle ground.
61. Circumference me with good intentions and provide for me well being.
62. May all have common wealth and a good fortune in store for them. But may I be especially rich and we'll invested
63. Take me on a homely quest. A quest of great things to come even though I just sit. As I sit and wait prepare me a plate I cannot resist.
64. Benefit my future and bring me good things that were unexpected.
65. Rouse me from laziness and fill my days productively, never lazy in depression getting up for no good reason.
66. May each day I find something good and fitting to do and it's reward apparent, and its benefit ever increasing. And so pile me up with so many good things that they flood out.

67. As I have given so much in my life return to me the favor knowing that I would enjoy nothing more than sharing my wealth.
68. May I never be unable to provide meaningful gifts, on that I have the expenses to cover them.
69. Just remember always, it is The Devil whom is my Father. As it is I fell upon my ring finger and broke it that was the day I declared Satan to be my Father, and it will forever be
70. You will never again be above me as highly as he
71. And I have found you too negligent, too much of a dead beat, to be my Father
72. What love you give, give freely. Just as the nasty hateful words of your son who chimed "love your enemies and love in not seeking reward."
73. I ask that you take into account your son's own words of unconditional love and apply them to us, one and all, else you are a hypocrite.
74. It is Satan's Law that was fulfilled in me. Not your son's. Your son's law is damning and simply too unpalatable, tastes bad.
75. For the cause of my survival and we'll being I had to turn away from your gospel. And in so doing obtained my strength.
76. I ask that all necessary documents be opened unto me in regards of my own survival.

77. In matters of survival give me all the room I need to not only survive, but persevere, not only persevere, but thrive. And not to thrive but a day, but a thousand, and a thousand more
78. Those that love me continue them on in love of me. And keep in them a loving memory
79. But those that assailed me, whom almost always do so without good cause, put beneath their feet hot coals, that they may move no closer.
80. If a person is to be greater than me, then double for him what was required for me. As my work in getting where I am, that where I am today, should require no more for me. And I shouldn't easily be out done
81. Hurl lightning down on my aggressors, burning them to a crisp! And make an example of my enemies, bringing about dread in my ill seekers.
82. May it be an abomination to you that my water be not cold, that I have just regular water. May it make you antsy that my food be cold or be without taste.
83. And that I have no way to write and distribute what I say, as by machine. And that the tape it play only rap. While others sing around me and dance, sipping on Luke warm water, and that I am left with myself among them, because I was never theirs. Nor will I ever be. Have me stand strong alone, because when beside others, I am lost.

84. May help come to me timely. May I have at my charge great "higher" beings. May I be a voice of authority substantially.. or at least substantially.
85. May my finger command direction. May my mind guide well. May my voice speak influence and authority. And may my life project godliness.
86. May I strike awe in the sight of others. May my actions be irresistible. May my pen invoke all these, double, triple, more.
87. Increase me and multiply me, have me emulated, an image of perfection, the embodiment of it, whose success speaks volumes
88. Remove or disable those of doubt among me. Those that are jealous of me have them wallow alone. And may the person who seeks my harm never find comfort but misery. Equal or greater that a person wishes harm on me, return to them - return to him or her double, triple, more harm, and cripple them from acting against me.
89. Raise me in stature, make me one advanced and worshipped. Strip from me any aggressors and put them in dread. Put me on a throne everlasting and bring to me the company of fallen angels. May I be regarded as the best of all beings by them.

90. Settle then me into the role of The Anti Christ whose image is worshipped. Or at least Satan's Son. Amen.

Day Eleven Prayers

1. I pray for the implementation of chaos magic upon the face of the Earth, as needed. But I pray to for it's quick though powerful resolve
2. I pray for a thousand seeds for every yard and a torrent of rain fall from place to place.
3. I ask for the everlasting life of Earth and that it become thick with plants, brushes, massive trees, and vines to cover it's surface. More than that, but a place of many natural riches
4. But a home alone, far away from others whom the best of "higher beings" come to visit me. Who are worth having around, and apart from that have me left alone, apart from my family coming to see me
5. Make me a grey shepherd whose sheep return to him. And put me apart from goodness and iniquity, always someone in between
6. Keep for me a good bed, one warm, in a good home, alone most of the time, in fact most of the time

7. May my tastes be unique to me, particular, and carefully observed sometimes, and as such are brought to me, right into my hands
8. Let trivial matters be removed from my heart and mind, bringing to me the more worthwhile and leaving as Haven been worth doing
9. Save me on the day I would be captured and bring against them that would a bolt of lightning.
10. May what I learn be kept with me and with enough effort all things can be regained, my memories, the things I've learned, the things good to have embedded within me
11. Give me right to be an adult child. A child with an adult mind, and in no case a child's child. But rather a child with a working adult mind.
12. Let then my life be a little bit more fun, a little more creative, and more imaginative. Instead of the state worn out state of the adult.
13. Make my agenda benefit me daily. May daily my agenda benefit my future
14. As it is so with me that the wicked have no rest, but give me work I can do that helps my future very well in my pleasant regard of having retired to my ways.

15. May I be more than acceptable to the people as a whole and be blameless, deserving no accusation.
16. Protect me against the false witness. May no harm come to me from liars. And may there lies be known, and the tables turned
17. Rush me into good favor and strip from me poor regard
18. Have my clothes speak well of me. May I be richly invested in them. And never have to go about in filth or rags.
19. Elevate me a little higher and make me a lot better than average, and one whom I'd a reliable source to turn to, filled with the right wisdom and fully capable to make just about anything better
20. Give me a trite portion of your wisdom in these things. But not too much. Give me a little microcosmic drop of your wisdom so that I can master my existence and reality
21. May my heart not settle on bitterness but be a person of his own pride that cannot be tarnished by others.
22. On my worst day, see me through

23. On my best day, have me remember. And return all perfectly well days to me time and again
24. On the day I suffer bring to me a good thing and make it better. Wipe from me tears of self pity. Let not my focus on the depressive mundane destroy me or eat me away.
25. Make me as one stable and reasonable, not much emotional but proud. Proud in his accomplishments and fully so, but not through self deceit, not when there is nothing there for which to be proud.
26. Mane not man an enemy against me. May human kind get along, nay science make our reality perfectly please tell for the sake of our relationship with one and the other.
27. Please have me know the better side of people. That side of them innocent and weak. That side of them that makes me sad to think of anything bad happening to them. That sensitive side coming from a person that just wants to be happy and well received.
28. Keep from my mouth poisonous words by putting in my mind the right perception that will dissolve it, usually the perception that evokes indifference or emphasizes self worth exposing them as jealous or exposing their own inadequacy.

29. Give to the scientist wisdom and give to the Earth things that man on his own could not divulge.
30. Bring man into such goodness, the things that improves him. The things that progresses him. Those things that thrust him into great might.
31. And resurface things old in their endeavor to make things better and in the spirit of not losing something.
32. Be with humankind in his creations and share with him all the things you gave him and he gave himself. Be among him and expand him to the point of breaking beyond boundaries that he assumed were impossible
33. In time to come and time again and after make him as an ever brighter star and that each person on the face of Earth become as very stars.
34. Let us do so quickly but fully and the things worth doing done precisely and without flaw.
35. Polish, rub, shine and scuff our his blemishes. Bathe and cleanse, coat over and preserve his better uses of science and technology.

36. I just want my life to be as good. Where my Harmony is and so with others. Having finished climbing up my mountains in life, though small but comparison of those before me. And before them it was like Everest on a cold day, and the many who died before me only arriving at so good a point. Collectively we have suffered for ages. I would like to see and take part of the day that I become fully immortal in the flesh and that all my heart could possibly desire is given me thanks to our advances in sciences which, at best, is a thanks to you.
37. Have man burrow beneath instead of merely towering up high. Have him go deep into the Earth and create a society underneath for the more liberally the more who decide that they want sin in their life and to take sin as a given, and wanted—they that must take the good with the bad in so deciding.
38. Make a limited space a space without boundaries.
39. Have us able to travel very, very far but as on well developed, advanced, Virtual Reality mechanisms
40. Take from man all cold and flu, salmonella and Ebola.

41. May he not thirst nor hunger. May he not be limited in what he drinks or eats thanks to science. May entertainment be fully engaging.
42. May driverless cars freely take him places. Along with a fuel basically free and abundant. That someday I can travel in an RV to any place I'd go, for free.
43. Develop AI and robotics in such a way that none have to work, unless they want to.
44. Give to people tech that prevents them from being harmed by others. Put a shield around every person. Then, we could walk around freely and without any fear
45. Make the weather always warm. Have it so that every person lives in his own desired temperature
46. Let every person on the Earth have their own basic things for free.
47. Let every bit of the Earth's resources become of perfect use
48. And have us walk on air with special shoes. Give us anti gravity mechanisms as we have long wanted.
49. Create for human kind a special place, indeed. But do not let him become lost within it.

50. Whatever baggage man has at this point lighten making his life better every day. And make the day come that man's state as God's evolve into dawn.
51. Drive things even unto a molecular level that are consciousness be wherever we want it and quite a talent as to pull things out of thin air
52. Help me in all of these things without hesitation. Bring me unto the State of nature having become perfected in it's use.
53. Strip from me and man all limitations.
54. Give to me all favorite things there ever were.
55. And make me the embodiment of Q, a great god, as the good I'd want to be, Vegeta, who overcomes all things with strength and pride certainly earned, Prince, the one from Lexx, as a good I'd like to be, with his mentality much the same as mine, Palpatine, who played the universe like a deck of cards, Lex Luther, as the perfect villain, Nero, who had a very free life, Hermes, a person of great wisdom, Solomon too, also make my characteristics like Mantrid, LaVey, Satan, and Lucifer.
56. Make me embody becoming the embodiment of Q, Vegeta, Prince, Palpatine, Lex Luther, Hermes, Nero, Satan, Lucifer, LaVey,

Solomon, and Mantrid. They are “My Twelve Names.”

57. Wash me of all faults. Scrub away my filth. Remove the cancerous from me.
58. In making me a certain way make it be as the best characteristics of my twelve names and may they come together harmoniously.
59. Bring into me a piece one and from the other and those pieces I like give me another. But don't over feed me. But don't starve me of them.
60. As though they were rightly prepared cook them up in me.
61. Honor my life by invoking in me the traits and goings of my Twelve Name. Make me someone who embodies them fully and harmoniously.
62. When one trait of them conquers another find a better match for it to overcome it's own weaker.
63. And as I battle within myself, much unknown to me, have me “fight out and welcome in” traits one of these, another and the same.
64. The most persevering traits, traits lending to their perseverance, of these characters give into me.

65. Their best qualities put within me. And may I master all the things in my existence due to them.
66. May they be the very definition of my soul these 12 becoming as one within me. Q, Vegeta, Prince, Mantrid, Palpatine, Hermes, LaVey, Solomon, Lucifer, Satan, Nero and Lex Luther.
67. In all the making of my soul make it through them.
68. Make my existence out of all the things requested in this book. While I live, work them in me. When they are well applicable than invest them in me. And while I live yet on continue their work through me.
69. This book contains my deepest aspirations, desires both open and plain, and is a book I give to you, The God my maker, as a blue print of what I'd be.
70. Take my existence and enhance it with these words never feeling you have to shudder or refrain, never angry of what I ask, and being good to know what is best for me, but giving consideration to my wishes.
71. And after I have become the perfect being it would be due to your own hands. I would have been made a way most please tell to you, I promise, I will serve you on that day forward.

72. I have a good life currently. But any one who is used to the regular and never knows the better taste of realities new, knows not that by comparison this is a nightmare. Pull me out of this nightmare.
73. Lift me up. Never have me face death.
74. And as a truly gifted creation, have us all be.
75. Though blood is thicker than water, the spirit transcends them, the spirit put in me, that I may become what I wish to be. And those things I require, available for me, and nothing beyond my reach.
76. Make my image in my twelve names and give unto it the best possible image of myself.
77. May my flesh never tire, from walking to exertion. And may my body not require or need sleep yet my sanity remain in tact and I never tire.
78. My those whom I've determined to be true friends be kept with me. And may my enemies, especially those with power against me, be removed.
79. Time and Time again may I prevail. And give me the best instinct to do well.

80. Do not pass up my words as trivial, if little I speak. But bless me with your attention.
81. Make me Outlast and Excel over my competitors and become to be known as the best thing since Jesus.
82. Make my purposes be known far and wide and acted upon with care.
83. Make my words reach farther than Jesus, and by them the world transformed.
84. Make the world as Pippy, Link, Ler, Sefra, and Orion. Even Ramona. But also put before my great and large flea markets with things such as old video game machines. Because it is in those places I like to be.
85. I wish to be The Light the Light of Enlightenment, and I pray for that I become qualified. I ask to be a brightly burning light, one strong, a candle with a flame too strong to burn out. A fire light for those in need. And from their need comes me, and my reward.
86. As with whatever of mine is copied and sold I ask for a certain set of gifts as according to my likes and tastes.
87. I like plastic dinosaurs and toys, board game pieces and stickers, graph paper and trapper keepers, stencils, rubber stamps and colored pens, all sorts of candy, especially under the sweet tarts brand. I like wool blankets, and also sleeping bags, all things final fantasy and star wars, also Mickey mouse, I like duck tape, and things for my own thought up crafts, I like old video games, and consoles, I also like jewels, and jewelry, the best there is. I like green marbles, and little green army men. I like troll dolls. I like miniature figures, especially metal or crystalline ones, I like video game Manuel's, to collect like comic books, I like black iced tea, and cherry cider. I like guava soda, from Mexico. I like chili rejenos, and Reuben's, all sorts of pizza, especially Pizza hut. I like fried things, potatoes, fries, zucchini, and fried mushrooms with ranch sauce, I like old computer parts, mostly new, and new computer parts, and cell phones, and what comes after, I like twelve sided dice, I like anything that can aid me in writing. I like wool socks, and durable out door sandals. I like solid color cargo pants, and long johns, thick, top and bottom. I like clip belts, and fanny packs, large and durable ones, over coat coats, and turtle neck, idea shirts of my favorite things, like an eye of Providence, or final fantasy, I like blue quartz necklaces, and a Steeler's foot ball cap, as well as arm warmers that are comfortable, and as such wish to have. A Marine Sword, a Master Sword, and a Slayer band's Sword.. as well as antiques of all good kinds.

88. I tell you now that these are what I wish for and want more than any other thing.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit I pray.

Amen.

At last I have made my prayers known to God! I had prayed in such a way shown for years: while homeless, incarcerated and during much strife. And it came as a rehearsal because I knew someday I could put them forth into a book. So I reiterated hours of every day on what I especially wanted being gradually liberal and stripping away inhibition.

I think it is important to have put these into a book. I consider God a person to be "in the upper room" and that in making this book his servants below can send it up to him. And I say unto you now, if you are such a person/ being that is, then please show God this book. And may he forgive you if he finds it bothersome or unpalatable but I want my prayers to be known by him.

And as it would seem yes, I do believe that there are a certain type of beings on this Earth that observe and know us well, but not us them and cloaked in secrecy. I believe they can see us well under a microscope as far as it comes to the internet. And upon reading this if you have any authority to make my wishes true, please do so. Don't find .e quarrelsome with God, because that is just futile. I regard God as capable of all things. And when it comes to prayers made to him so, so many are humble, restricted, delicate. But I am a kind of "doesn't hurt to ask" person. I think of God as a helper more than anything. He just builds my house while I say "and o want this and I want that."

I wanted to make a blue print of what my perfect existence can be comprised of. Believe me, I've prayed exactly into it. And for the God who made me I have observed of what in my reality was lacking and how it could better be. I did well in this and I ask God one more time to fulfill my wishes and put me into the most perfect place I could be. And with that, be truly loved. God I pray, please make these things so. Amen.

A brief bio:

I have done and experienced much in my life.

I climbed mountains and camped, by forests and lakes, every summer in my youth. When I was eight I went to a Church camp and climbed Pike's Peak. I went to Ten Killer Lake, The Fox Cave of Riodoso, Billy the Kid Museum, theme parks, Six Flags, Walt Disney World, and Las Vegas.

When I was very you get, about seven, my two friends in a cafeteria were discussing magic. And one said to the other that with white magic you aren't condemned but using black magic on someone is damning. But my friend told my lesser friend that he likes black magic better. So I got involved in witch craft because of this. And there was a lot of books in the local library that we're about magic.

But finding that magic just didn't work, really too young to even know what the word ritual meant. And gradually doing things of limited appeal and no power. I started believing maybe if I was Satanic then my magic would work. That it was Good with all of the power. And after becoming engrossed in metal music such as Slayer, Morbid Angel, and Danzig, I made a lasting connection with the Devil, even selling my soul to him, and a whole new world opened up before me. I was evil, for sure, by the time I was fifteen? I was plain evil. And not in a moronic kind of way, but as one bent on Sacrificing a human to the Devil. I was someone with a murderous heart.

But as time went on I gradually slipped away from that side and matured quite well. I even came back to Christianity. And I tried joining the Marines, who removed me from basic training because I brought in LaVey's Satanic Bible. And hearing stories here and there about how The Satanic Bible was prohibited in other places. Actually – a lot of reasons made it a purpose of mine to create Christian Satanism.

It began as a term that applied to a Devil Worshipers, as it is a Christian doing his Satanic way derived from Christianity his Satanism. But what really appealed to me is it wasn't just another egg in the basket. So many were doing the same thing. And this concept of "gray" which is lacking anywhere and every where, should be surfacing, if not immediately.
