

THE BOOK

OF

AURAS

José Cruz

Synopsis

For those who still do not know me by what I write, I can only illustrate this work about the Auras, reflects a stage of my Spiritual development, and therefore do not have much regard for many years. And much less turn it into the Book. But as a result of numerous people as knead me, in watching lectures and witnessing some knowledge in practical terms to my part, for human Auras, the making known to all, for the uses in its own benefit without. I felt I should move to the role that knowledge. Who presented issues? If only that each individual Aura, are aimed at people who felt that they needed help in their lives.

Always with the therapeutic purpose, giving only as a gift, but after writing "Reunion of Light", an early self-help books and personal development, my Spirit Illuminated, asked me to bring all these issues in a just, in Book,

Faced with such a request had to gather all the previous descriptions of Auras, this same work. Preopening to even more knowledge, which has since been acquired? For the purpose of people if they can rediscover themselves and identify their intimate, seeking and learning to relate for they.

For those already familiar with previous work in this follows the same term. To make known the true dimensions of the Sacred, and that touches the heart of each one.

Who knows a little about me, nothing is there to add just feel. For people who still do not know me. I comment that only have a 9th schooling completed about half a dozen years ago. And I present this humble form, stripped of what you want dogmas, prejudices and rationalism in a frank and pure, giving me complete freedom to address issues more complex the mind and the Human Spirit.

Due to not be religious or have to express myself through academic learning, give me the natural power of sharing the knowledge of my natural essence without taboos, as well as the Universe, only then, it is possible in an innovative, simple front and pass this message to ordinary people like me. Having the experience as the only Master and Spiritual Ground. In this life and previous Reincarnations, I have the ability to reach me only where this is required by the Universe, just using me the inspiration that is given me by my Spirit Illuminated, in times of No-Mind, as well as the Power of Intuition, without the need that many people feel to have a job, having to rely on doctorates, straws, etc. And then some of them and with respect for others just write straw or use vocabulary often incomprehensible for many readers, the so-called intellectual's vain academics, who write for fame or money.

Grateful

A Light of Wisdom

Throughout my life I got to know all kinds of people, and how to save me the target is something unknown to me at first. I was always taking notes through my consciousness, people who feel attracted or repelled that interact with them in many different aspects of my experience Ground. At that consciousness, were retained for many years of memories and behaviours of these facts people.

Up to that from the time that I began to feel enlightened by the Spiritual Light, now I feel Lights. I began to identify the colors of the Auras of things, animals, and plants through the 3rd Vision. The soft and squishy I felt compelled to unravel, to the extent that my view would be increasingly widening.

How I began to identify the colors of Human Auras.

Resembling as something sacred, by my Spirit, which began identifier intuitively these Auric colors. With the people I had been dealing, live and deep knowledge, either externally or internally for many years as a puzzle to treat you. Once through this Union of Spiritual Consciousness and the Universe went through the process of refinement that I was imposed by the Universal Law. Moving later to feel entitled, and never before to spread such knowledge and to whoever it was.

One could add that there is much that is described in this work, was acquired along the earliest times, through physical practice, meditation and Astral Travel. What is the result of the same can visit any part of the Universe, in times past, present or Future.

Thus it is possible to visit many places of learning, including any Universities Spiritual where you can read whatever it is related to Humanity. And then bring back to the Ground Dimension.

Introduction to Aura

The Aura is made up of four layers or fields.

1 st of the Physical Body Aura

2 nd Astral Aura

3rd Mental Aura

4th Etérico Body Aura

What I will mention is the Astral Aura.

During in your life have been the experience may have been dealing with someone or known about a person. When they get near them, you feel very close to that person, it appears Peace and Light, and his energy is contagious, it could almost be touched.

Others however, felt an unpleasant sensation of malaise, as if to suck our own energy.

This is where having the power to delete or Illuminate the environment, reflects the power of Aura. The Aura is made up of one or more colors.

Hence the essence of the Aura, all human thoughts and actions belong to good and evil. The thickness of the Aura and its color is proportional to the quantity and quality of good and bad thoughts. Inside when a person does well, feels a Conscientious satisfaction. These thoughts are converted into light, adding to the Light of the Spiritual body.

When the reverse, the thoughts and acts are evil, become dark clouds in the Spiritual body, so what changing the basic colors of Auras. It is due to such a person starts developing problems, mental and physical in the form going so slow its development Physical, Mental and Spiritual.

A brief Explanation of the Astral Aura

The Aura is made up of the vapors that rise from the physical body through breathing pores, which can get around the physical body, or up and focusing on the top of the head or around her. This movement is due to physical exertion, thoughts, emotions, and other sufferings. So that in contact with the heavenly light is reflected. Becoming a field of Light Aurica It can also be considered as magnetic field.

This is the Light that when they come into contact with other Rays of Light coming from the Cosmos, intensify type magnifying glass. Getting exposed so that they can be seen by people who have developed this ability!

The diameter of Auras as well as its thickness and color, which in many beings of Light cannot pass only a few centimeters, while other meters or kilometers as even possible to cover an entire Planet, as with Jesus, Buddha, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, among other beings of Light

Application of the Book

The Book of Auras is taken into account for various applications. In governing the welfare of people in any aspect, depending only and solely the good use, and a proper application that people want to give him consciously.

Whether a query to the person, to better recognize inwardly or outwardly, problems related to Health in general, or how to feel the quality of people that surround it, leading to figure out how to think, feel, and the form and manner to interact on a daily basis with them in a healthy way without them realizing it, thus adopting a way of being and interacting with these people, in many cases helping one way or another, to understand consciously to themselves, going somewhat against the Supreme Power that governs all. It also applies to personal and spiritual development. If extending to all Humanity.

Recognizing a certain color of right and Aura. Of anyone including the person himself, later I shall explain, the way it is possible to access this technique can be through the View or not that same Aura.

Is extremely important to identify a particular color of Aura, for a variety of applications that you want to give that a major and much attention to it, is intended only for the recovery of people, sick or otherwise destabilized, always aiming to do well. And never the other way around, but could be seriously hurt.

I repeat not want to be boring and very Careful Attention, as apply what is described in this Book, Going all the responsibility rests with each of you so sharp and aware.

When you access such a color Aura and the same exists or points in the same dark clouds.

It means, to the extent that those who are darker, the greater the problem the person has, whether physical or mental in the forum.

That person to develop the ability to view, and then correctly identify by focusing only on the affected area, or the problem itself, is likely to remove, depending only on the ability of each one, whether for your own sake or for others.

Meaning of the Auric Colors

The colors in the Rainbow are the same basic that can be found in Human Auras. And it is about those same colors which I will clarify their meaning, which they propose manifesting in person. There will be some doubts about the significance of people, and matching colors to themselves. This is only due to the fact that people were away over the life of your base color from birth. Like its natural essence.

Because of egos, intellectualism, malice, pride, addictions, social status, among other dependencies. If you should just forget that the person who was as a child, thus changing their behavior patterns and thus changing its basic color Consciously or unconsciously, allowing other colors to join this.

Visualization Techniques

For the Human Aura

1st Technical,

Well to view and identify to own Aura is as follows. Put yourself in front of a mirror with your back near a wall or sheet, and always white with some light whether natural or artificial. Being able to sit or stand at the beginning but should be seated, because sometimes it takes some time to show your Aura color. Then relax to the max, and will set your field of vision in the mirror in the middle of their eyes without blinking, as if staring off into the void always naturally and without thinking. And when you least expect it the first time, a time of no-mind, without any thought to his Aura is revealed to you.

As you are centered in the head, then see more near the head about two to four inches a white color, which covers the entire body like a veil in the oval. But do not call, this white dark, because it is the Aura of the physical body, which in time will also in detail View more.

The interest that presents itself on the head, the Astral, such as certain paintings come in a Golden Saints over his head radiating colors of Light When you see this color through its 3rd Vision, which is in the midst of his eyes, and only through it have access to this view, with the call look lamb evil dead. That is just looking and completely relaxed.

The predominant color as you can see, this is the basic color of your Aura, when this happens, it is to feel something in your intimate confirming this assurance. Even if you take practice sometimes takes some time, but you can always go training now in animals, plants, clouds, etc, to develop the Power of Visualization and become familiar with it, because everything has Auras, being able to extend to people, just always looking for a good backdrop, where color is preferably the lighter the better. Now attention that some people have such a total absence of color in your Aura, or black, and not its basic color, this usually happens to many women when they are pregnant.

Due to the fact that protect the little baby being that bring with them. Because the energy that circulates in the body drop to the region over the belly and legs, that's why the legs swell, not only because of excess pregnancy weight, but getting the Aura deprived of its energy and basic color on the top of the head region.

2 nd Technical

It presents a little easier and faster for people who do not have much time available. And do not want to broaden their knowledge on this part.

The person closes his eyes calmly, focusing on its 3rd Vision, with the eyes looking into your Chakra front of the eyes in half about 40 seconds.

And mentally question only once. Spirit tells me what color my Aura? Very soon the Spirit responds by telling him the basic color of your Aura, to realize the power of Visualization in others.

You see them between the eyes or the Front Chakra where lies the 3rd Vision of the person concerned, also for about 40 seconds without the person realizing it.

And then closes his eyes with that view, and asking the same way the Spirit, questioning the inside. Spirit tells me what color the person's Aura X; there is no need to apply names. May the Spirit of those who want to know how this comes in direct contact with the Spirit of the person concerned.

Then open your eyes and re-set again in the 3rd person view. But that is not the answer came, when he had his eyes closed, then will come. Remember always to thank after finishing his Spirit.

CRYSTAL

AURA

Chapter 1

The Being of Tomorrow

These new beings Crystalline only started more quantity will be born in about thirty years ago, which for the most part still are still babies or young people and others have gone through adulthood. Over the centuries they have always been born, but sporadically. As was the case of Jesus, Buddha and other enlightened beings of light completely and many of them never came to be known. I feel these babies having a massive energetic completely different, I regard it as being more subtle, bright and resplendent than any other color of Aura.

It can also be noted that they are smart enough, with new colleges and developed is very talented and that aspect is, which will be welcome to enhance Humanity by those few who are here on behalf of Human Evolution.

It is they who began to take the place of Auras Indigos in the evolution of the Universe.

Indigos have come to clear the Company and the prejudices created by it, and thus paving the way for future immigrants Crystalline.

And they are beginning to awaken the consciousness of all Humanity, for the evil they have done to the Planet, as well as his fellows.

Just as with regard to Spiritual growth, which is in this state that most human beings need to evolve, the person with the color of Aura Crystal is a natural healer and medium. It uses personal energy or Cosmic Rays transforming it into bandages. It's way or the channel through which all beings need healing.

It has the personal power at Spiritual power to penetrate in the Souls, and from there start the process so that healing is possible, because only through the Soul is that anyone can be healed, both in the psyche as physical in the forum, for this to be is very difficult when there's no one to teach him how to deal with this natural gift of healing.

It is a type of person who does not like to be seen. It is often taken for granted in their Aura other colors, when much to protect themselves.

Only this way will it not being will change your energy field, thus sick for having retained a color in your Aura that is not yours. A lot of times to look good, unconsciously turns out to confuse others. When there's someone at your time will help you discover your energetic powers. It tends to hide the emotional part.

Chapter 2

Your Way to Being and Being

The person with this Aura color, is very sensitive physically, the noises and everything is clean and realistic. Because it is a being who lives in communion with the Light

So trying to create in the World will form a perfect, which displays through the Spirit. Where this is not takes refuge at home, opting for cleaning and tidying often.

Need plenty of room inside. It considers being his castle. How is a very intuitive person, like to have your private space where only allow family and friends closer, more intimate, disliking the meetings because they do not feel comfortable with the invasion of their intimate space.

Work on this earth to be stabilizing and is satisfactory, so the Aura crystal this exercise may be worth to feel better, gardening, taking care of indoor plants or growing and drying herbs, "teas" gives you an emotional satisfaction and physics, it is difficult to achieve in any other activity.

Working with the land also gives you plenty of time peaceful and serene, to be alone with his spirituality and nature, a need to balance your physical, mental, spiritual.

This gift is strong but somewhat secret, because a large part of his personality is conscious to maintain and safeguard these ways of healing.

Chapter 3

Ways of Learning

The Aura Crystal is to be well developed, with focus on the mental part. It is a person who loves to read information material daily to stay updated to the Society. Have a preference between film and theater, because it is from there as a young man learns to have proper behavior towards others and Society, in the preferred reading books to enable it to understand the habits and morals of contemporary Society. He also likes motivational books, letters, diaries, biographies, history, life stories, some poetry and philosophy.

Also being an adult continues to have a preference for books of jokes or cartoons that make you laugh and keep a good mood.

This person with this color of Aura spends much time thinking about what you believe in, meditating and analyzing the details of your life, but few people consider themselves Spiritual Aura Crystal, although they are quite. This is largely due to lack of knowledge of them. Staying connected unconsciously then more the mental part.

For this to be the powerful and Spirituality is a great size, not the poor who will feel sensations throughout life, increasing your own. When a Crystal Aura is not elucidated about the powers he has, by someone trained to do so, tends to spend a lifetime suffering to him. When you cannot identify the vital impulses that come from all over the Universe, at the same time would help to relate and develop deep, with the Divine in its evolution as a being of Light These internal drives when they are ignored, the person without realizing it begins to have health problems in many different ways, feeling your life is not flowing as it should be. Going to be increasingly confused as to what is happening inside, without understanding why you are living a life without meaning and connection, lives only rationally.

Your Development

This is Crystal's with this color Spectrum, from an early age like to learn. Everything and anything, hard work is conscientious and intelligent. Matters relating to foreign languages, accounting and mathematics will arouse little interest.

He did not care much, just only the essentials to thrive in society. These types of learning call you a level of dedication and effort that in many cases have similar difficulty.

But if you say that when it comes to all that is creative and applied it is very good.

Regarding the arts in general, it is always the possibility of putting in harmony their natural talents through their intuition.

The arts or healing, whether in medicine, psychotherapy, nursing, he shines.

In the arts in general, can harmonize your natural talents with his intuitive way to learn and create.

Regarding this being cures, can learn and develop all the professions that are somehow linked to health very easily, just by connecting with himself without hassle.

Chapter 5

Forms and Attitudes

The Aura Crystal person has the power to delay or absorb the other colors in the Universe, in proportional shares of the other colors Auras, the holding in his being for the time necessary for its implementation.

For example, a part of Crystal Aura of the person can turn green, when it interacts with another Aura Green. One of Crystal Aura has a capacity to camouflage their color by absorbing rays of other colors of Aura without any harm to another person.

Conversely, when this happens, the person Aura Green, feel more vitalized and release as if a weight if it is. This is one of the gifts that a conscious Crystal Aura holds.

When you do this, can take various forms, features and languages, thoughts and attitudes, sometimes when necessary to reach Auras memories of other colors, these people are alive or dead.

These facts often confuse family and friends, when they are not attuned to it, can sometimes lead to small situations of misunderstanding between them.

About the children, the parents of Crystal Aura children seem not to care about the discipline, and forms of education.

Similarly, parents with other colors of Aura are upset when the children of Crystal Aura pull back on the emotional, without giving any indication of what they are thinking or feeling. In general, these parents find it very difficult to relate to a child, it changes its behavior at any instant.

About the mental level of the person Aura Crystal is not very flexible in their spontaneous responses more closely resemble the plays you like, makes use of such knowledge often acting as if he had a script before.

Therefore usually a shy person, retracting a lot and most of the time, he enjoys most part will be in different situations, just waiting and feeling.

It is a type of person who trusts too much in others, typically family members are always a few, as well as friends too. Often depending on them to identify him, to build their identity or to keep in contact and decide before the Society.

One of Crystal Aura is a very fragile mental costing you to keep your nervous system balanced. When this happens it tends to relate to their spirits, that's where you feel safe in the depths of his being. When later comes up other people are baffled by what happened to him.

This is Crystal color, rarely shows his deepest feelings. Even in times of crisis, what do you think is best but not spontaneously, as do other beings with other colors of auras?

Because of its strong intuition feels that their true feelings are misunderstood, so much to deny these to share the deepest parts of themselves. That's the way it is to digest the tension, turning to its interior, gives it an aura of coolness and mental impossibility.

This person's Aura Crystal is quite delicate humble, tender and fragile. Taking other people with other Auric colors has a stronger tendency to try to manipulate.

This is where he feels misunderstood, leading him to feel like part ignored in many situations for others. This only happens to you because it gives them power to do so.

Partly suffer for it, can sometimes feel bad for all that the mind makes you feel. And if it is misunderstood, this is due to their inability to make him understood.

Chapter 6

Social Behavior

A Crystal Aura when it has its open energy channels, through which flows the cosmic energy. Socially can heal others making use of their inner strength, detached from any emotional, personal, or money and therefore his work is pure.

In most cases the people he does not work nor do they make for it. However in a relationship, that his way of being and sometimes causes a deep pain and confusion in those who require it too.

Because among those closest to him somehow, he just wants to evolve by them since he was no more than a simple master, to clarify when necessary.

One of Crystal Aura is in part a bit lonely, because his nature is so. Friends and family need to learn to deal with it, but without the press a lot about responsibility.

Socially have a hard time when he is with others, and vice versa. Because of his shyness and lack of self-confidence in himself mentally and physically, become withdrawn and insecure in the booth.

It is often very critical moment for others, and even for him, thus overturning the low self-esteem he feels for himself.

It is very difficult for a person to have a Crystal Aura appropriate social behavior, because their consensus protocol is of the most diverse as cinema, radio, TV, books and others.

For this to be the life is like a play. He feels he has to represent but do not know how.

Because most of that time he feels like it does not belong to the Earth.

One of his biggest challenges is to stop trying to fool the meaning of his mission that brought him to Earth.

He need to stop pretending that you are following the rules imposed by society, just because you think it is his obligation.

Chapter 7

Sexuality

This human being has a tendency to have very low sex drive, because the sexually unite means you need to mix your Aura with the other person; it will deprive them of their autonomy, their individuality and their identity.

Withdrawing mentally gives an illusion of coolness. A big question for this type of being, is that it can really enjoy sex, but its consequences can be as physically and emotionally overwhelming that often does not feel at ease to get involved.

When abstinence lasts long, it tends to get pretty frigid. The solution to this problem is if the person of Crystal Aura and your partner come to sleep in separate beds, separate rooms or to practice Tantric.

Without a company that understands that, by middle age there is content to go without sex in a relationship, due to begin to turn more to Spirituality. Achieving change your lifestyle, often preferring solitude choosing to live alone because it gives you peace and security to rediscover himself.

With respect to earn cash in a creative way, this has to be very difficult. Can you feel more accomplished this partly through something already experienced by him, managing existing business or invest in property when possible.

Do not have that dynamic creativity to start a business, not managing to keep a good business without the help of others, but with a good support group made up of administrators and people who make decisions.

The Aura Crystal is able to keep away the need to make decisions over longer beaked.

New or newly established companies, require more personal interaction than he may not be able to take. A company's recent and not so well established, you need more than an administrator of an executive iron, is more suitable for him.

With regard to money and everything that involves finances are active, more real for him to deal with them at will.

The Aura Crystal is being very responsible and careful with their own money, do you feel that you have to pay taxes and all accounts to date certain, without ever being late. It is part of their social integrity.

The feeling of not acting properly, even so insignificant is not scary in any way wanting to lose their sense of freedom, which feeds both the mentally or spiritually.

It is with appreciation and a quiet dignity that delivers the Spirit, in causes such as nursing homes, hospitals and caring for patients, in most cases without charge.

If you can stand out as the spiritual master, teacher or leader of prayer groups, also feels like a fish in water.

This being feels compelled to drive intuitively and gently leading the disciples in the ways that lead to the study and a deeper understanding of themselves. This does not mean he does well in all forms of education.

The secular school system touches you very deeply, both teaching and learning, leaving him confused and disoriented, Due to predefined rules, and the demand of people. Primarily by contact with different identities which confuse its gentle Auric field. As regards the last part just looks.

Chapter 11

Spirituality

For the person holding a Crystal Aura, the topic Spiritual means living peacefully, knowing that soon it will be reabsorbed in essence that understands everything. What is the Source of Light which emanated to incarnate in a human The Crystal Color is a delicate and unique tone, breast, at the time of his birth.

Being with that color is easily Aura, because it has an internal mechanism Spiritual, to tune in accuracy to align the healing energies of love in the Universe and therefore available within it, beings like Crystal Aura Indigo is unique and separate from all other Auras of other colors, because both have special gifts and talents, especially psychic, psychic, paranormal and Spiritual.

With the discovery of new sophisticated technologies, turned to the polls again awakened Spiritual. And the permanent threat to the Planet and new alternatives are needed to resolve these situations World.

The survival of the species will depend increasingly attitudes and postures. What technology, intellect or brute force by the human being.

Because he did not channel the energy it absorbs from the Universe, with those that your bio-rhythm is abroad. Come to turn in own martyrdom, causing him to feel lonely and unpredictable, as if waiting for his own physical death.

Chapter 12

Energy Application

This is Crystal Light experienced and learned the life lesson of all other beings with Auras of other colors. And it presents an extreme anticipation. That during his youth absorbs, without having to experience living like the others.

Usually has a limited repertoire of behaviors, which gives a higher freedom in situations of healing. It is not restricted to the limitations that affect other people, feeling free to explore other symptoms, causes and points of entry of the disease in the physical, mental and Spiritual.

This is Aura Crystal is the link, the physical bridge between the Godhead, and the Source of Energy and the Human Beings.

Users of this practice have the ability to transform energy, sometimes narrowing them, focusing them and directing them to be used in specific situations and causes, always in the field of healing and nothing else. It is as if it were a funnel into which the energy is poured.

Then this energy is transmuted to specific therapies or cures, which in turn are applied to patients in different ways.

This being absorbs knowledge from different sources. Looking at them, breaking them, change them, catalog them and organize them in your mental file of information.

Can this be the long hours of satisfaction and well-being? In return also requires a way of life and peaceful existence and their own, away from the busy world.

This type of being, crystal tends to always be in training during most of his life, and only going to exercise the gifts that have until much later, due to the fact that the West over the centuries, have not evolved spiritually.

And so it becomes difficult to find a Spiritual master time he can train the teaching needed to use such powers and natural gifts.

It should be noted that many times physical frailty and mental vulnerability and a family atmosphere aggressive, due to misunderstanding by the people closest to interact with these beings. Prevent many people from Crystal Aura to become more open as to the accuracy of their true gifts, and the real meaning of his mission that brought them to Earth.

YELLOW

AURA

Chapter1

Habits

People of color Yellow Aura are the most affected by the biochemical balance in the body. When you do not take precautions that is to live constantly in the mind without paying attention to your intuition, tend to get physical addictions or habits, sometimes violent as well as developing bodily desires.

Need to learn and to recognize and act on the symptom that flows in the physical body. The joy we feel in life is the best way is to measure your success. When you feel any joy is when he touches your inner wisdom. In expressing his feelings through what he does, he can organize your life so that in everything he does, brings you a full satisfaction. It is through this example that while he teaches you what is in the Soul.

Chapter 2

The Sensations

This being with Yellow Aura realizes the meaning of things through the sensations you feel in your body. The Yellow is a color that most of the universes vibrate, just to say that this person with this color Aura has a physical reaction before it has a logical answer that comes through the mind.

For example when you enter a room with enough people, you feel immediately through its strong intuition and energy that exists in the air if it is negative or positive if you have a sense of well-being, means that energy is positive, if not neither heat nor the place immediately going away. It has well-developed biological mechanisms that capture these situations is everywhere and people. It is the power that gives it its color yellow Aura.

All these sensations make it somewhat sensitive, non-verbal communication with others. But when he goes inside to know the answers himself, but finds it difficult to admit to him and to others.

When you feel embarrassed by anything, manifested a restless or agitated behavior, such as tapping the table with the fingers or not sit still with your feet on the ground.

It is not intended to be rude; your body is asking you to keep moving. Your challenge is to recognize this behavior and rediscover the best ways to comply with him.

Chapter 3

The Instability Physics

Due to stimulation of the biochemical system, often wake up with headaches. Not sure of its location because he cannot translate it, that would help a lot to make sense of things in life in general. Often tries to ignore the pain they traded for a nice feel, so you can accept and can understand.

People Aura Yellow almost entirely, in an attempt to ignore the pain in the morning are taken to make something of painkiller, acquiring certain specific habits, such as that of coffee, chocolate, or medicine.

As they lose control of themselves, they advance to the alcohol or tobacco, often simultaneously, making them dependent on them, in many cases. What with the drag of time can give to ingest drugs harder to maintain order during the day.

The Aura Yellow feel the world through your physical body, but does not always understand the body stimulus feels. Why be one focused more on the mental part, and this part has no explanatory power to these feelings, because it already belongs to the Spiritual jurisdiction. One of his major objectives is to find practical ways of dealing with physical pain and the inconvenience that this brings. The trick is to trick the body into other addicting substances; biochemicals are produced naturally by the body and are harmless. As the endorphins that are released by the brain at times.

What may appear to develop any physical activity without straining too much, or through meditation? Because the cycle by lowering brain slows the mind and the pain is offset by the brain releases endorphins.

For this to be, life is a tightrope to be on call. On one side are the substances that constitute a dangerous dependence. Like, coffee, soft drinks, chocolate, processed foods, white flour etc, drugs, alcohol, tobacco and other synthetic substances.

That is all that is against a good energy flow, narrowing the channels through which passes this energy, giving you an illusion of well-being.

On the other hand, are the natural endorphins produced by the body, which give the feeling of peace various activities, can help you produce these substances? As exercise, sex, meditation and laughter etc.

Chapter 4

To the extent, because it has no rational words or concepts to express what you will in the soul. When (ai ai) is hurt in your mind, resembles an animal that shows their suffering through physical movements.

So when dealing with traumatic situations such as abandonment, betrayal or rejection, can break all the dishes, or hit up the walls, or simply turn their backs to the situation and leave the house to relax, until you spend fussing.

This becomes to be very strange about your mindset, because if you could give to others all that is bad for you, including pain and frustration to others would. But when they do not, can even become violent, at certain times to the point of assaulting physically to relieve emotional suffering itself. (I know that even animals without biting lemons like to relieve this tension).

You see that inside there is this potential for physical violence, is very difficult to open, to trust others and to express that experience, you feel physically and mentally. As the cover tends to remain inaccessible in the innermost part, this gap when not understood by friends and partners, it becomes very difficult to deal with this type of person Red.

His animalistic instincts or the desire not interpret life or sex as something unnatural.

At the moment of orgasm, corresponds to a Spiritual experience in some other beings with Auric colors.

INDIGO

AURA

Chapter 1

Who Is?

This is with the indigo blue, is a being that only began to be born a hundred years ago, in large numbers. It was a color rarely seen before in Human Auras.

But when the needs of the whole change, it is necessary that there are also changes in the constituent parts of the whole. With the Aura also works the same way.

This new color indigo appeared to increase markedly powers, faculties and physical development as well as a much more different from the other auric colors.

Parents of young Aura Indigo are facing a very perplexing challenge, how to care for and deal with these children so special. Some parents of some of these children accept and support these differences.

They feel so proud to have children, which consider the super talented. And if these early fathers only teaching them the basics of life, are often tempted to learn from these Indigo children still at an early age things that were unthinkable before they were born.

Other young Aura Indigo unfortunately no longer have the same luck, the guardians or parents, during the initial growth of these Indigos, not understanding and not to take them to whom I understood the law.

Pure and simply begin to look aside as being different from other children or young people. That in turn, and misery and suffering in all aspects of Indigo beings, are labeled as mentally and physically disabled.

But just what happens in reality is that these beings are well advanced in time, and most people do not understand them, much less feel them.

One of the hardest things for the Indigo is to develop patience and tolerance for others who still do not understand.

Not that he lacks compassion. However, its form of compassion is to give other human beings, time and space enough to draw their own conclusions.

This being Auric Indigo has a biochemical system, different from other people with different Auras, as well as their needs.

He has the ability to feel the physical, mental and Spiritual, a higher frequency.

Due to having this ability, while still not know how to control, this being easily Indigo discharges, if someone will not have time to instruct.

Allergy disappears automatically. Because of his highly sensitive nervous system, it needs a quiet environment.

When bound to be a long time to perform certain tasks, it requires more energy than you have, feel nervous and then to get angry causing him to be unwell, including having no vomiting but no vomiting, is only to expel negative energy, which is in excess.

These beings seem too spoiled, but in truth have very different needs, in order to survive in this world. Need to stimulate the logical side of the brain (left brain). So the intuitive side (right brain) very active is free to roam in astral travel and more.

The Indigo will be to get used to relax the most, either through meditation or music with vibrating tones that identify with your being. That is why he maintains a relationship with the music very strong.

The sexual sensation you feel when you relate with your partner, is so deep that the physical expended during the act is incomprehensible for this to be Indigo.

Early this being Auric Indigo, generally at around two years old, he already has a remarkable understanding of what is abstract. There is early. In fact it is said that Indigo represents the being of the Future.

Serving up their powerful intuition, he is not with half measures, going immediately to the marrow of things outright. Do not be fooled by what appears to be.

These kids are completely independent without being arrogant, know exactly what they are, and who are unable to achieve.

The normal school system, with its traditional way of learning has nothing to do with this being Indigo.

Chapter 6

Learning

Learning about being Indigo, loves to be reminded of what we already know in your heart. Topics and ideas cannot exist in isolation to be this. He feels the world and share ideas as to unite the whole.

Trying to understand something without taking into account its implications in other areas of knowledge, is something incomprehensible to him. He needs to feel like the pieces fit entirely in absolute perfection. And then simply forget what they learned mentally. Relying on the power Universal will again give first-hand whenever you need, what you previously learned.

Indigo this needs its own space they inhabit. Due to its high magnetic field is highly individual, need to be alone as a way to auto-load.

Sometimes have difficulty expressing your feelings and views to others, getting talking to anyone who hears, exemplifying until you feel that the person understood it. Not that it has to touch the depths of the listener, to get the message that he has to give, if you do not feel sorry for failing to achieve this.

When you feel that this is the establishment of education has nothing to remind them, he simply drops out, turning to the inner or spiritual study, as a way to rediscover himself, with or without outside help. Just feel it should. And when the decision takes intuitive or dissuades someone or something such.

Chapter 7

Self-Consciousness

Parents and caregivers of an Indigo, should know to respect and talk to him, in an open, frank and clear in all conscience. Because only in this way is that it assumes new data to the inside. Otherwise it is impossible to get him to do anything that he does not feel and want.

But cooperation is not brightly when treated with superiority. It may seem cold when it is underestimated, or simply do something happy, that makes people feel an intense inner joy. This is one of the potential that this being has to be able to exercise over people, to take them to meet their own.

Other higher levels may be auric say that Blue Indigo child is never even sees the child through the first years of life. It gives the feeling of being older than other children the same age.

Reacting to news empathetically that life gives you, as well as in the most adverse and negative. Nothing is more than simply their way of being true and being.

However, the Indigo does not hold a grudge against those who hurt. Just remember sporadically, starting immediately to initiate a screening of people who deserve your consideration, going to be cautious in offering its confidence.

When you feel happy or when you overcome a barrier, do not feel excited. Because he was intuitively expected that this barrier will be overcome, just did not know exactly when it was.

Chapter 9

Communication

These beings Aura Indigo Blue in general, can only communicate in a way peculiar closely with very few people.

Seizing an early age to be cautious, and selecting the people you can trust to share, conclusions and feelings of every kind. They are obliged to make that choice because most people do not have capabilities to its height or greater than themselves.

Dai revealing that when trying to communicate with people of their caliber less, or give evil, or else it's like talking to a doll, getting up many times by the reserve itself.

Indigo is one often feels lonely and detuned from others; because he has a high-frequency magnetic waves catch.

It absorbs large amounts of other, harmful energies from your auric field. While this does not know Indigo give back to the text, feels it is better to suffer the isolation, instability energy in all its integrity is.

Unfortunately when you cannot resolve this feeling of loneliness, that most people interpret it as such, is taken to depend on drugs. This gathering is a time as need yes, the power in the Universe you conceive him to be in tune with himself, but without drugs or other addictions.

In this way he came to discover the most appropriate way to overcome this phase. Which, though a bit confusing at first, but over time there will. If an indigo master will find a time to take him to discern the real from the imaginary, is a breeze. If it is only by your foot becomes more difficult and suffering, taking longer.

This can often be Indigo, uniquely represent a completely selfless human being, you can incorporate into all of life's challenges. When you are born already know that life is made up of joy, not avoiding pain but accepting it with compassion.

A person does not realize Indigo almost no money, and sees it as part of the social system, used by some people to control and direct the most disadvantaged about work, because he likes it, and because you feel good working, if you find boring or an occupation which requires more effort than has been established, it leaves you asking or salary increase.

Lazy has nothing, but only performs the tasks he enjoys. That puts him in a situation that makes him think, how he can make money doing what you love. Living in order to share expenses and responsibilities works well in a relationship with him.

Any Indigo is very skilled in dealing with electronic devices. What makes him a much sought after is because it has a futuristic vision.

It can also be a great doctor, parapsychologist, writer, biologist or scientist.

Rather professions that have to do with justice, political, or domestic work no longer have anything to do with it.

Chapter 12

Spirituality

This is Indigo Blue Auric feel the Spirituality, as that part of himself, which is a reflection of the Divine. For him, spirituality is related to reality, things as they are in fact good.

As it grew in part be wise, due to mutation and biochemical energy that allows you to enter empathic connection with everything.

He sees the human search for Spirituality as something secular.

But it is curious that this is an Indigo Aura of beings with better capabilities for secular Spiritual practices. Do not apply them.

He even likes to meditate, just out of curiosity, as he likes to objects for Religious ceremonies.

Some rituals and objects to those terms that the indigo can use, are not seen by him as a way to have fun. But to some extent he respects the Religion, when they fulfill the purpose for which they are intended.

He feels that since there is a small Universal setting, which has very little to do with the norms and rules that people have created.

In conclusion, this is Auric have got indigo blue, knows and feels all that is holy.

But also due to its recent appearance in the World, which he still was unable to adapt properly. Rules emanating from the Society of which he is a part. Is still quite confusing where it came from, and what came to, he is often between a rock and, slowly trying to feel where the most affordable way to meet face to face with God.

Meaning of Colors in

Secondary Human Auras

Secondary Colors

Most people visualize the Auras, many of them, beyond the basic color of their auras. Have other secondary color, mixing with the original or often blurred in one form or another, thereby changing the lives of all people, and there are some additional knowledge, the basic colors that have been described thus far, through the colors what constitutes a spectrum of the Universe. I will give you some knowledge of signs and colors that can also be viewed, beyond their basic colors that exist after the birth of any human being. The same / to have their representation in the daily lives of every person in all the symptoms and problems they are a forum physical, mental or Spiritual.

Then the colors that present themselves as pure are as the name indicates the total purity. Identify that the person is in good health, or that may be raised to a higher level, that its basic color. Or is it to alter its basic color to a color more superior in terms of quality of life in relation to health in general and in terms of Spirituality.

If you have specific color matte, will mean that there is a problem with the person themselves, in the area of the body where it will be seen through the display.

That should be in any part of the body, an organ or indentify member in a situation weakened.

I must add that for anyone reading Aurica made by anyone, a little more developed on these visualization techniques, described throughout this book, You should always bear in mind that should not be charged in addition to whatever it is for that, but loses the power of visualization, corresponding to what we had.

It should always be aware of what identifies you without be able to make a mistake, to whomever. Because this may endanger a person's life viewed in any respect.

(SO I trained a lot)

Also I will mention that when someone asks you to read the Aura. You must certify always necessary if this is in terms of assessing the health of the person concerned, or simply just out of curiosity. If the latter, tell the person to go for a walk or do something different that has nothing to do with you. Because if they choose to request that someone's curiosity, do not forget that that same someone, many sounds on or off it seems, is trying to suck the life force that has the ability to visualize any Aura.

Also add that when one takes a completely serious visualization, and so it should always be well done, to get a full result, and Pure, total visualization of all, to another person.

Same as the Aura will be read, you must advance also to find a place to acquire, with a quiet no noise at normal room temperature without drafts and relying entirely on the person that you will read the Aura. This person to visualize, you will need to undress completely, because only in this way is it possible to do a reading at 100 / °, and not otherwise, because the clothes do not assist in this visualization, dragging their colors to the Aura of the person, that way confuse the person who reads the Aura. Only in this way is it possible a perfect reading, in the entire body.

But if not a thorough reading so you can just stand at the head region. But it is to take into account that the person presents himself to be visualized trunk, naked or with a piece of clothing that white area, as well as the background the same color.

But just visualize on more superficially, as described earlier in the techniques of Visualization, at the beginning of the Book, It's just not as reliable.

Pure Colors

Signs Aura as Identifier

During an Aurica View will have a lot more attention to several signs that are beyond the basic color as well as the secondary colors, joined or overlapping involving the Human Aura? That way you will know how to recognize these signs, which are extremely important for an interpretation, and correct reading of the Human Aura in more depth.

Signs attached to the base color and the secondary colors, lead to discern all the problems that a person has, or will have, as a whole evolutionary status.

These signs are visible and identified as clouds, holes, evasions, bosses, and flashes of light and glare, or mental forms.

These are not only visible on the Aurica over the head but throughout the body, because the entire Aura adds.

When they are on a Chakra or a member, this indicates that it is bad.

Clouds

Identify themselves as energy blockages. Usually come in dark gray. This means that the person already has a health problem already well entrenched old, bringing you all kinds of imbalances to the person in all aspects.

Evasions

As a rule are colored gray, dark or white. Such evasions are due to energy losses, which come out through the Aura by the type of a chimney of a blast furnace. But this only happens when there is excess energy in person.

Nuances

This type of signal indicates that the person already has a problem. And that indicates that it will aggravate, usually detected by a color ranging from gray to board.

Flashes of Light and Glare

This type of motion signal represents astral and mental, being attached to the sentimental person. And that same feel anxious in finding something. That normally has to do with spirituality.

Holes

The holes define notorious Pranic severe power shortages, so one tends to develop more diverse pathologies. As the poor blood circulation for example.

Protrusions

These correspond to energy stagnation. To be found mainly in people who lead a more sedentary life, presenting color gray.

Mental-Forms

The thought forms that are generated in the mind are notorious forms now in the most varied objects, or symptoms such as anger and negativity.

This happens because of a mental fixation for a long time the person on so many different situations without resolve, often dragging on for years.

Thanks

I am humbly grateful to all who had the privilege of reading all these lines, but the felt, but now back to reread in Consciousness. And this consciousness is to act only in accordance with it.

Grateful
