

The Devil Chapter One

The Weston Sisters

"Cassie get the last box from the kitchen" Kelsey said trying to put another box in the trunk of the car. Cassandra walked into the empty house and pick up the last box before she took a look around. Goodbye West Virginia and hello Brookfield, Connecticut she thoughts as she began walking out the now empty house. She put the box on the floor of the car and sadly smiled at her younger sister Rebecca. Cassandra felt bad that the three had to leave another home because Kelsey's job makes them move around more than other families. According to Kelsey who is the eldest sister this is the last time they would have to leave considering Cassie was senior in high school and Rebecca was now a freshman. They got in the car and Kelsey started to drive towards the high way. "How far is it?" Asked Rebecca who was resting her head against the window in the back seat.

"It's about 11 hours away" Kelsey answered as she turned on the A.C in the car

"Can I sleep?" She asked making the sister's nod. You can feel the awkward tension in the air of the car with each word that was spoken.

"Sure Becky" She nodded and rested her head against the pillow she had brought with her in the back and covered herself with her blanket. Cassandra turned on the IPod she always kept in her pocket and started to listen to Through the dark by One Direction. She don't usually listen to this song but it's on a playlist that Rebecca and her made for the trip so she don't really want to skip it because the list was limited. Her eyes started to slowly close and she rested her head against the car window putting her legs on the seat in a tucked position. Soon she'll be at the new home even if it was against her will. She wondered if it's any different than the last place they were at. Cassie didn't really talk to anyone in the town back in West Virginia were they had lived because she knew it was only a matter of time before they were going to move again but Kelsey promised the two girls that this time they were going to stay which means this can probably be a good start to make some friends for Cassie.

"Cass wake up, were here" She tried pushing away her sister only to have the car door open. Almost falling out the car considering the fact that Kelsey unbuckled her seatbelt when they first got to the house. She huffed before moving in the seat.

"Ugh whatever" She mumbled before opening her eyes. Both her sister's started laughing as she flipped them off, got a box and walked inside the house. Taking a look around she smiled lightly, it was nice she had to admit that. Nothing was a boring brown color. Kelsey wanted everything black and white. The walls had black polka dots and they had one couch white and another black, the kitchen had white cabinets and a black countertop. Everything was amazingly beautiful.

"Stop looking and go get another box. Kelsey wants this done before we go to dinner" Cassandra nodded my head as she walked out to the car. Grabbing another box and bringing it into the house they finally got everything out the car within' the hour.

"Let's shower, change and go get dinner" Kelsey said making the two sister nod and walk into each of the bathrooms to take a quick shower. Cassie got out the shower and got changed into black skinny jeans, a red top with a black vest over it and black boots. She pinned her hair to one side and put on some strawberry lip gloss. She walked out the room and down the stairs to see her sister's waiting for her.

"Ready?" She nodded and they walked out the house. Kelsey locked the doors and drove to a small diner that was close to the house. They walked inside and saw that hardly anyone was there. But who would come eat at almost 10 o'clock at night? The three sat in a booth and looked at the menus. Hearing the door open you could sense the bad vibe in the air and it didn't help that everything the workers were holding dropped to the floor making the three girls jump in mid-air. A guy with a black hood on pulled a seat at the counter and the waiter handed him a menu without looking into his eyes like a polite person would do. Cassandra put her menu down and got up to go to the bathroom.

"Excuse me?" She said making the workers turn to her

"Yes?"

"Where is the bathroom?"

"Through that door" She said point to the back door. Nodding she walked past the hooded figure sitting with a glass of soda in front of him. She pushed the back door open and went into the girls room. Closing the stall door she went to use the bathroom when the door opened. She looked through the crack of the door but didn't see anyone. As she went to the bathroom she heard the sound of footsteps walking around. Quickly making her choice she walked out the stall and looked around still not seeing anyone. She washed her hands and looked up into the mirror to see brown eyes staring at her from behind. Turning she didn't see anyone behind her.

"Ok Cassie just breath, it's ok" She wiped her hands and walked out the bathroom. Walking back out the door she saw her sister's eating. Once again she walked past the hooded figure that didn't seem to move she sat in her seat.

"Did anyone go into the bathroom while I was in there?" Her sisters shrugged but Kelsey spoke to answer knowing Cassandra hated when she didn't give a verbal answer.

"No why?"

"I just... I thought I saw someone"

"It's was probably nothing, eat before your food gets cold" She nodded and saw the hooded person looking at her when she turned her head taking in the appearance of the diner.

"Is it just me or is that guy staring at me?" Both her sister's looked but laughed as they turned back to her

"He wasn't even turned around. Are you feeling alright?" Rebecca said with a eye roll and a light smirk on her face

"I think I just need sleep" Both agreed after she spoke her last sentence.

"Or a mental pill" Becky mumbled. Cassie kicked her under the table just as they heard the door open again. A guy walked in with a red leather jacket and hood covering his head. He sat next to the one with a black hood and they both nodded to each other. Cassie guessed they were friends and didn't say anything.

“I’m telling you that he was looking at me” She said going back to the previous conversation

“No he wasn’t” Rebecca said for the 10th time getting annoyed with her older sister.

“Yes he was” Cassie said with a huff

“Oh for the love of God” Kelsey got out of her seat and started walking over to them

“Kelsey stop”

“No shut up” She tapped the guys shoulder and he turned his head to her with a cold glare

“What?”

“Were you looking at my sister?”

“And if I was?”

“Look kid, I just want to know if you were looking” There was a bang from the kitchen and he snapped his head to her with anger.

“Listen, you are obviously new in this town so I’ll let that slide. But you come up to me with that attitude again I’ll get the Devil on you” The who? Isn’t the Devil in hell? How can he get someone that isn’t even on earth? All those thoughts rushed through Cassie’s head “Whatever, Fucking prick” She turned around and sat down. The guys looked at each other and walked the diner. Shitheads didn’t even pay for their food.

“Anything else?”

“No thanks” The waiter nodded and Kelsey handed him the money. The three sisters left the diner and got to the car only to find that it was keyed and had red spray paint on it with it saying Warned on it. Kelsey was pissed over the top and all drove home was silent.

“If I see that prick again he is going to get my foot up his ass” Cassie laughed silently as they walked inside the house

“Go to bed you both have school tomorrow” Both younger sister’s nodded and went to there rooms. Cassie changed into pajamas and laid on the bed slowly falling asleep.

First Day of School

I got up to Rebecca pounding on my door yelling for me to shower and get ready. I got up from my bed and walked into my bathroom to take a shower and brush my teeth. After I took a quick shower I got out to get dressed. I walked into my closet and grabbed a top, my flats and a pair of shorts before walking out.

Dropping my towel I put on my bra and underwear than pulled on my shorts and top. Walking to the mirror behind my door I did my hair than went to the other mirror by my dresser to put on my makeup. I walked out my room and saw my sister in the hall waiting for me with her arms crossed. "Looking cute sis" I said with a smile. "Thanks, you too" We walked downstairs to the kitchen and saw Kelsey making breakfast.

"Morning" She turned and gave us each a plate with a pancake and bacon. I sat at the table and started eating.

"Now here are the rules" She said making me roll my eyes. Here we go again

"Ugh, Kelsey really? I'm 17 not 2 I think I know the rules by now"

"But you don't follow them. This school already has people that make the worker's job hard don't add to it. Please Cassie"

"Fine, I'll behave"

"Thank you, that's all I ask" I nodded and put my plate in the sink.

"Am I taking the car? Or are you driving us?" I asked Kelsey

"I'll take you today, your car is coming tomorrow night" I nodded and we walked out the house. We got in the car and she pulled out the driveway to take us to school. "Do you have everything?"

"Yep" I said

"What about you Becky?" Did she really have to always baby us? I'm almost an adult for crying out loud

"Yea, thanks for the ride"

"See you guys at home" We got out the car and she drove away leaving us in front of the school building. I looked at her and took her hand for encouragement

"Ready?"

"Ready as I'll ever been" We nodded to each other and walked inside. Once I opened the doors and walked in with Rebecca to see it was like a zoo. Guys were checking out girls, couple probably raping each other on the lockers, cheerleaders laughing in the circle, jocks throwing a football around.

"Let's just find the office" We walked through the hall passing through all the immature idiots and found the office. I opened the door and walked to the front desk.

"Excuse me?" Rebecca said to the woman at the front desk. The old woman didn't look up.

"I said Excuse me" Still nothing, she turned to me and I got annoyed so i shouted to get her attention

"HEY OLD BITCH" She looked up with a mad look on her face

"Can I help you?" She said with a glare

“We want our schedules and stuff” I said looking at her with the same expression

“Names?”

“Cassie Weston and Rebekah Weston” She went looking through the computer and printed out our stuff. She walked to the back and grabbed a few textbooks. She walked back over to us and gave Rebekah her freshman books and gave me my senior books.

“Here are your schedules”

“Later” I walked out after shoving the books in my bag. We walked into the hall way and saw no one was there.

We reached our lockers and I put all the books inside other than my English and Math. I turned to Rebekah after shutting my locker.

“See you in lunch?”

“Yup” I hugged her and walked the opposite way to get to my first class. We turned and smiled at each other before walking again. I walked through the halls and looked around to find the English class when I saw a black hooded figure walking in front of me. I saw he went into room 230 which was the English room. I opened the door and walked inside getting everyone’s attention on me.

“Oh you must be Cassandra Weston”

“Yes, you can just call me Cassie though” She smiled at me with a nod before pointing to the seats in the room.

“Well you can just find a seat anywhere” I looked around and there were only 3 seats available. One by a cheerleader, another by a nerdy looking guy and the last was in the back by a guy with a black jacket. I walked past the other two and went straight to the back. I heard the sound of shuffling of seats and I turned to see everyone looking at me with scared looks on their faces. I shrugged it off and sat in the chair noticing the guy staring at me. Everyone looked at him and he pointed straight.

“If anyone has something to say than speak. If not than look forward” Everyone turned their heads forward and I looked at him.

“Same goes for you” I rolled my eyes and went to turn my head but he grabbed my chin to make me look at him.

“Let go you prick” I said loud enough to get everyone’s attention

“Roll your eyes at me again and next time you won’t have any eyes left” I looked at face and opened my eyes widened and rolled them in front of his face on purpose. Next thing I knew I felt a sting on my right cheek. I held my cheek and he looked at me

“If you want to be a child, you will be treated as one”

“You have anger issues” I felt another sting go across my cheek and felt my eyes water. I turned to the teacher and she put her head down to avoid my gaze. I looked at everyone else but they all turned away

“Listen to me you little bitch, you do not disobey me. I will get the devil on you. You’re lucky I didn’t smack you that hard” I looked down and felt a tear roll down my cheek

“Cry all you want, no one is going to help you” The bell rang and I ran out of class and into the girls bathroom. I looked at my reflection and saw my cheek was red. I looked down and turned on the sink. I grabbed a paper towel and wet it to put it on my cheek because I didn’t want Becky to say anything. I looked in the mirror again and saw the black hooded figure looking at me again. It was the same one from the diner last night. I turned and didn’t see anyone behind me. I walked out the bathroom and went to Math. I didn’t see my sister in the hall so I guess she was in class. I opened the classroom door and walked inside. I saw a empty seat next to a girl and sat down. She turned to me and smiled.

“Hi I’m Lola, Your Cassie right?”

“Yea, nice to meet you”

“I heard about what happened in English”

“Who is that guy?”

“His name is Travis Dillon, he is friends with the Devil” I looked at her confused and the door opened.

"Who's the devil? I've been hearing a lot of talk about him but isn't he a fictional character?" She shook her head

“That’s the devil” She said pointing to a guy in black jeans, white t-shirt, black leather jacket and red Supra sneakers. He had earrings and his jacket was rolled up showing a sleeve of tattoos coming down his right and left arm

“Why do you call him Devil?” I asked taking his appearance. Holy fuck he was sexy but somehow i got a chill as he walked row by row getting closer to my row.

“He’s the most dangerous and scariest person you will ever see” Lola said with a whisper obviously not wanting attention by him.

“Why?”

“Let’s just say that you are lucky that you only dealt with his friend and not him. He isn’t like his friends, he won’t think twice about cutting your throat out” I nodded shakily and the teacher walked in. I turned my head and saw him staring at me with a straight face. I turned back around wanting for the bell to ring.

Soon enough I saw Becky by my locker.

“Hey”

“How’s your first day so far?”

“It’s alright, I met a few people” I nodded and we walked to the cafeteria.

“How’s yours?”

“This school isn’t what Kelsey thought it would be”

“What do you mean?”

“There are people here that aren’t known for being on honor roll”

“Oh” We got our lunch and I saw Lola with a girl. She waved me over and I took Rebecca with me.

“Lola, this is my little sister Rebecca , Becky this is Lola. I met her in Math”

“Nice to meet you, this is my best friend Yasmine”

“Hey” I smiled and sat down

“You’re that girl that got Travis pissed off. Damn, you’re brave”

“Thank? I think” She laughed and all movement in the café stopped once the two doors opened.

“Uh no”

“What?”

“Devil” I turned and saw him with 4 guys behind him all with the same black leather jacket

“Who’s Devil?”

“Someone that I don’t want you speaking or looking at” I told her and she nodded. She started eating her lunch and I heard footsteps getting closer.

“Don’t move” Yasmine said with a scared tone

“Why?”

“They’re coming to our table” She answered making me gulp as the footsteps stopped in front of the table. The one they call Devil leaned over and looked at me with his almost soul-less eyes digging into me

“Are you Cassie?” I looked at the girls and they looked scared

“I ASKED YOU A QUESTION” He shouted making me jump and nod

“Yes, yes I’m Cassie”

“Get up” His eyes were dark and to say I was scared was an understatement. I thought I was going to shit my pants because of how terrifying he was “Outside the café NOW” I got my bag and walked outside with them.

We walked outside and 2 of the guys stood in front of the doors making sure no one exited

“I heard you mouthed back to one of my guys”

“I-I didn’t mean to, I-I’m new here” He leaned against the locker trapping me as my back hit the cold lock. I felt his breath hit me when he spoke

“I’m letting you off with a warning, but if you ever disrespect one of them again. A slap on the cheek will be a good thing to what I will do to you” I nodded at him and they walked out the building. The doors opened and I fell to the floor breathing heavy

“Cassie are you alright?” I felt a hand touch my shoulder, I looked to see Rebecca and the girls

“I-I’m fine. I just want to go home”

“I’ll call Kelsey” I nodded and she walked to get her phone from her locker.

Soon enough Kelsey arrived and I left with Rebecca and the girls followed in Lola’s car. We got to the house and Kelsey sighed as she looked at me

“Are you sure your ok?”

“I’m fine, just a bit scared”

“What kind of dick puts his hand on a girl?” She was pissed

“It’s ok. I’ll just move passed it”

“No one did anything?” She said with a digusted tone

“What are they supposed to do? Everyone is scared of them”

“Stand up to them” She said in a duh tone making me look down

“And get themselves killed? I don’t think so” she nodded and got up without another word

“I’ll make you guys something to eat”

“Ok” We walked up to my room while Rebecca went to video chat her friend Mandy back home

“What did he say?”

“I have a warning, but he really scared me guys. I thought he was going to kill me”

“Just be careful” I nodded and after a while they left and I showered.

“Time for bed” Kelsey said at my door frame

“Night” She closed the door and I turned off my lamp

I felt a rush of cold air and turned on my light. The window was open and there was a note tapped to it

Black Eyes

I got up this morning with a scared look on my face. But wouldn't you be scared if you met "Devil" yesterday? I walked into my bathroom and brushed my teeth. Once I got out my room door opened and Rebecca walked in with two tops in her hands. Way to knock little sister, I love the communication in this house. Note My Sarcasm.

"Which one?"

"The Blue one with your blue vans"

"Why aren't you ready? We have to leave soon"

"Becky, if you get out than I will be getting ready"

"Right sorry" She closed the door behind her and I shook my head. But, you gotta love having a sister. I walked into my closet and got a top, shorts and my vans. I walked out and got a bra from my drawer since I don't sleep with one at night. I got dressed and did my hair and makeup. I walked out my room walked downstairs and nodded at Rebekah's outfit. We ate a bowl of cereal and Kelsey gave me my car keys. My car was dropped off last night by my cousin Ronnie.

"You ready to go?" I asked Becky. She nodded and we said bye to Kelsey. We got in my car and I started the car and started driving to school.

"Be careful today Cassie. Please?" I nodded

"I will, besides if I'm lucky they won't be here today"

"That's unlikely but ok" I sighed and parked the car.

"I'll see you later"

"Sure" I hugged her and she walked inside. I saw Yasmine and Lola in the front of the school and I smiled at them

"Hey, I'm surprised you're here"

"Why wouldn't I be?" I asked confused

"You know, being confronted my Devil yesterday. Everyone thought you were going to run away"

"If there is one thing I don't do it's run away from something or someone"

"Alright, see you in Math" Lola said

"Yea, bye" I walked into English and everyone stared at me

“What?”

“Your alive” I looked at the nerdy guy from yesterday push his glasses up more and nodded

“Am I supposed to be dead?”

“We just thought with the whole Devil thing at lunch”

“Whatever, I don’t care what any of you have to say anyway” I walked to my seat and didn’t see that guy Travis. Maybe I’m in the clear today. I hope at least.

The late bell rang and everyone started entering the class and I still didn’t see the guy that had smacked me yesterday. Fuck yeah I’m free for the day. The teacher walked in and we started to “learn” about Romeo and Juliet for what seemed like the 100 time in my life.

“Now, does anyone know what happened after the masquerade?” A few people raised their hands but the door opened and I looked to see the black leather jacket from yesterday. All of a sudden my cheek started to burn and I realized that it was because he was staring at me. No he was glaring at me, I shifted in my seat and looked down.

“Nice of you to finally join us”

“Shut up” he spat at her than walked to his seat. He leaned back in his chair and put his feet on the desk. To say that I wasn’t nervous was a complete lie. I was terrified to blink because I thought he was slap me again. I didn’t look up or talk the rest of the period. I walked out the class after the bell rang and walked into the girl’s bathroom. I really needed to relax or I was going to go into an anxiety attack I swear.

“Cassie” I heard someone say my name in my ear but when I looked in the mirror no one was there. I looked around the bathroom and under the stalls but didn’t see anyone.

“Check the mirror” I turned and saw the guy staring at me with a cold glare.

“W-what do you want?” He made a “come here” move with his index finger and I walked closer. Once I got to the mirror his reflection became more visible but before I knew who it was the mirror cracked and I only saw my reflection. This town is scaring the fuck out of me. Who is this dude that is in every mirror I look at? I walked out the bathroom and looked around watching everyone walk past me. I walked into the math room and saw Lola sitting at our table.

“Hey what’s up?”

“I need to ask you something”

“Ok what is it?”

“I keep seeing a guy in every mirror I look in other than the ones at home. Is that normal?” She looked at me like a was crazy

“No that’s not normal, that’s scary as fuck”

“I know, and someone was in my room last night” her eyes widened

“Who?”

“I don’t know, they left a note on my window saying that it a dangerous place and I need to be careful or something”

“Do you think there talking about Devil?”

“I honestly don’t know, I’m scared that he will take his warning back and I will be in serious shit”

“Ok, just breath and relax. I’m sure it’s nothing serious”

“I hope your right” She nodded and we focused on what the teacher was saying.

I walked into the café by myself and saw Rebecca with Yasmine and Lola at our table. I got on line for lunch when the two doors opened. Once again all movement stopped and I wanted to run. I saw them look at me and sit at a table. Each of the glares was cold as ice, I could feel the hate come off them and seep into my veins giving me goose bumps. My heart started racing and I paid for lunch. I looked for another way to get to the table instead of having to pass them but there was no other way. I took a breath and held it in hoping nothing would happen. I almost made it past there table when I heard a cough and I turned to see Him staring at me. I wanted to keep walking but my feet wouldn’t move, it was like I was stuck in that place.

“Have you caused any trouble Weston?” I swallowed the lump in my throat and shook my head fast

“Are you sure about that?” I nodded and he got up from his chair.

“I hope so, because if you did than we would have a problem wouldn’t we?”

“Y-yes” I managed to get out

“You should really let go of that breath your holding Cassie, wouldn’t want you to pass out now would we?” I shook my head and he smirked

“Now move along” I nodded and walked to my table.

“What did he say?”

“Nothing” I turned and saw him staring at me with a straight face.

“Are you alright?”

“What’s his story?”

“No one knows. He’s not someone that people talk to”

“Has anyone ever tried?”

“What do you think?” Lola said with a –hell-no look on her face

“Yea and maybe pigs fly” Yasmine said

“Look, no one talks or messes with him or his friends. If you want to keep breathing I suggest that maybe you stay quiet, and don’t speak to them”

“Ok”

“Promise?”

“I promise” But under the table I had my fingers crossed.

“Kelsey isn’t going to be home until late. She wants us showered, ate, and no trouble” Becky said. I nodded not really paying attention but still staring at their table

“Are you even listening?”

“Yea you said something about pigs flying” They face palmed themselves and Rebecca hit my arm

“The hell was that for bitch?”

“I said you know what forget it”

“Ok?” I said with a strange look on my face.

Finally the school day ended and I felt my heart rate go back to normal. I walked outside the school and saw Rebecca with a boy around her age. I walked up to them and smiled at him

“Hi, Becky ready to go?”

“Sure, uh Cass this is Todd. Todd this is my sister Cassie”

“Nice to meet you” I said to him.

“Hey” He said with a nod. Uh Ok? Rude much? Whatever I don’t have time for that “Come on”

“Can Todd come over?” I looked at her and she gave me those puppy eyes

“Fine” I said giving up

“Thanks” She took his hand and they walked to the car. Oh dear god don’t let me regret this. I started the car and saw them staring at the car as we drove past them. I got the chills down my spine and let out a shaky breath. Once we got home I told them to stay in the living room considering she’s 15 and there is no way in hell she is going to her room with a boy. I may be a screw up but I’m not letting that happen for my sister. I walked into my room and saw my window open and another note on the window.

Maybe You Should Look Up Todd Sanders. I’d Be Careful If I Were You Princess

Cold Stare

I hardly slept last night considering i was still scared that i would wake up and "Devil" will be standing over me with a gun in his hand ready to kill me. But, another reason is because i couldn't stop thinking about the guy in the mirror or the note that was on my window. Something tells me that i am been watched but i am too scared to find out who the fuck it is.

"Cassie were gonna be late hurry up" Becky said from outside my door.

"Be out in a second" I walked into my closet and grabbed my clothes. I got dressed and brushed my teeth, did my makeup and hair than opened the door to see her with a straight face. I walked downstairs with her and Kelsey smiled at us.

"I like your outfit Becky" She said with a smile

"Thanks "

"Come on were gonna be late"

"Be careful at school"

"Whatever" I got in my car and drove off the school.

We finally got to the school and i looked around after exiting my car. I didn't see "Devil" or his friends so i walked into the building.

"Are you ok?"

"I'm fine" She nodded and walked to her class. The bell rang and i went to my locker. I opened my locker and reached in for my books when my eyes and mouth were covered.

"Say a word and i will cut your throat out" I nodded quickly and felt my legs moving. I heard a door close and was seated in a cold chair.

"Want to tell me why Todd Sanders was in your car after school?" The person asked covering my eyes with what felt like a cloth.

"I-I he knows my sister"

"Do you always give people you don't know rides? Is that what you do Cassie?" I shook my head and felt a hand collide with my cheek

"S-stop please" I heard a dark chuckle from a place in the room.

"W-what do you want from me?" At this point i wanted to go home and hide my closet never to return to the outside world.

"Tell me Cassie, are you a virgin?" I didn't answer. I'm not telling this douche anything that can be turned against me. But, that didn't work out so well because i felt a hand collide with my cheek again.

"ANSWER ME BITCH"

"Yes, Yes i-i'm a virgin" I didn't have to see to know this prick was smirking. I felt something go between my legs and knew it was a hand.

"P-please let me go"

"I gave you a warning Cassie, because apparently it didn't matter to you the first time" Oh my fuckers i was taken by "Devil"

"P-please don't"

"I'd be careful if i were you, I can be very...very unpredictable" I felt his hand move up my thigh after every word. Than all of a sudden he pulled his hand away and I felt something glide down my arm and felt a tear roll down my cheek

"I'm begging you please"

"Listen to me carefully Cassie because one more slip up and i'm not going to be nice" I nodded shaking in the chair

"You are not to do stupid shit again. If i have to tell you one more time i will be your worst nightmare" I nodded to me

"Understand?" I whimpered and felt more tears roll down my cheek.

"I SAID DO YOU UNDERSTAND?"

"Yes, yes i understand"

"Good. I'm going to count to three and you will be back at your locker" I nodded

"One.....Two...." I didn't hear three.

"Hello?" I pulled the blindfold off and saw i was in front of my locker. I looked down at my arms but didn't see anything.

"Cassie" I heard my name being called. I looked around and saw the bathroom door shut. i walked to the bathroom and opened the door. I walked inside and looked around

"Cassie" I started to get chills down my back. I walked to the mirror and saw him.

"W-what do you want?"

"Come closer" I felt as if he was whispering in my ear. I walked to the mirror and saw he had a mask covering his face. He had a black jacket with the letter JB on the arm. JB? What the fuck is that?

"Who are you?"

"Don't trust anyone Cassie. It's not safe for you"

"Why?" I heard the bathroom door open and turned to see a girl with a freaked out look on her face.

"Freak" I looked back at the mirror but didn't see him there anymore. I walked out and went to my class. I walked inside and sat in my seat next to one of "Devil's" guys.

"Your bleeding" I looked at him and he pointed to my arms

"Oh"

"You should clean yourself up" He passed me a box of tissues from the end of the table and i took a few and whipped my arm. I cleaned the blood and my eyes widened at what was on my arm.

It was the letter J

Is that what he was warning me about?

Was that why i saw that on his jacket?

I'm so confused. Who do i not trust? What about Rebekah is she alright? Does anyone else see the guy in the mirror?

Why does "Devil" hate me? What did i do to deserve to be treated this way?

Soon it was lunch and i saw Devil's table looking at me. He got up from his seat with the others and walked towards me. I gulped hoping nothing would happen but his friends walked passed me.

"Outside in 5" He said as he walked past bumping our shoulder. I felt heat on the letter J as he hit my shoulder and saw it was red as blood.

"Ready for lunch?"

"AHH Holy fucking shit Lola you scared me"

"Sorry, wanna get food?"

"No, i uh have to do something"

"Oh well ok. See you later than" I nodded and walked out the cafe. I walked into the hall and saw him with his friends by the back door.

"Come on" He opened the door and walked out, his friends walked behind me to make sure i didn't run away. He stood under a tree and pulled out a box of cigarettes. He put one in his mouth and one of the guy lit it for him.

"You have a innocent looking sister Cassie"

"Please don't hurt her"

"I don't go for innocent, however, i do go for sexy virgins" He said looking at me from top to bottom. He let out a cloud of smoke and leaned against the tree

"What do you have to offer me?" What?

"I-I don't know"

"Tell me Cassie, how innocent are you?" I've never had sex, or given pleasure but he can't know that

"Not very" He smirked and nodded to one of the guys. I felt a hand go across my cheek and i was pushed to the floor

"I'm going to ask you one more time. How innocent are you?"

"Very, I'm very innocent" He chuckled and threw the cigarette on the floor stepping on it. He picked up his foot and pushed it against me making me fall to look at him

"I'll make you a deal Cassie"

"What kind of deal?"

"If you tell me what you know about Todd Sanders i'll let you go"

"I don't know anything" I said with my eyes watering. He grabbed my neck and pulled me up to his face. I felt his breath hit me and a tear rolled down my cheek

"Than i won't let you go"

"W-what do you mean?" He came to my ear and chuckled

"I Own You Bitch" He said dropping me on the floor and walking back into the building.

I told Rebekah to get a ride with Lola and Yasmine because i wanted to be alone. I drove to the boardwalk and stared at the ocean waved crashing onto the shore. I looked down at my arm and saw the J was still red.

"Cassie?" I turned and saw that guy Todd looking at me with a confused look on his face

"Oh uh hi" I said whipping my face

"Are you alright?"

"I'm fine"

"What happened to you arm?" He said with shock in his voice

"I uh was uh it's nothing. Want do you want anyway?"

"I don't know, i saw you sitting and figured you'd want some company"

"Thanks but i'm fine by myself Todd"

"Maybe it wasn't a option"

"Excuse me?"

"Get up" He said as his eyes went dark

"No"

"I said GET UP" He said grabbed my hair.

"Ouch let go of me. Your hurting me" I felt my body being dragged across the wood of the boardwalk.

"HELP SOMEONE HELP" Who am i kidding? No one is even here. I was shoved into the back seat of the car and he smirked at me.

"Seat belt" He said leaning over me to buckle up my seat belt. He walked to the front seat and started the car.

Fighting For Life

To say i was scared would make me seem weak but at this moment i don't give a flying fuck considering i can feel myself about to pee in my pants and my heart was pounding in my ears. I can feel his eyes burning a hole in my forehead as he looked at me through the mirror while he drives. After what seemed like forever he stopped the car outside a forest clearing. He got out the car and i let out a shaky breath. The back seat door opened and he unbuckled my seat belt.

"Turn around" I couldn't move, i felt as if my body went into shock. He pushed me on the seat and tied my hands together with something. He pulled me up and dragged me out the car to the front. He pushed me to walk, i felt my heart in the middle of my stomach and stopped walking.

"What the fuck are you doing?" Instead of answering him i puked on a near by tree and he groaned

"That is disgusting" Well maybe if you had left me the fuck alone than i wouldn't have thrown up from being scared.

"Keep walking" He pushed me again and we got to a small cabin that was in the middle of the woods.

"Get inside" He opened the door and pushed me inside making me fall on the floor. He closed the door behind him and looked around.

"TOMMY" He shouted, i heard footsteps and saw black boots in front of me. I was lifted off the ground and was face to face to a guy with piercing blue eyes.

"What's your name beautiful?" I could smell the weed coming from his mouth. I just stared at him, i'm not telling them shit even if they hurt me.

"Cat got your tongue?" I turned my head and he grabbed my chin making my head to turn his.

"What is your name?" I spit in his face and felt a hand come in contact with my cheek. What is with these people and slapping me.

"Take her upstairs" I was pushed towards the stairs and walked up and was pushed into a room.

"Enjoy your stay bitch" The door slammed shut and i looked around for something to get these shitty things off my hands.

I saw the window was broken and glass was everywhere. I turned around and pushed my hands front and back to get the rope. I felt the ropes loosen and my hands were free. I looked out the window and saw that it was a high jump. I heard footsteps coming up the stairs and looked back out the window.

"YES I KNOW" It was coming from outside the door. Oh fuck it, i climbed over the ledge and heard the door open

"HEY WHAT ARE YOU DOING?"

I turned back and he came running out to me but i let myself go and felt myself falling. I didn't know if i would die but at the moment i didn't really care. I wanted to go home. I landed on the inner part on a bush and looked up to see the guy with a pissed expression on his face. I got up after i knew he was gone and ran as fast as i could to find the clearing to get out of the forest. I heard footsteps and ran faster. I saw the entering and looked to see them getting closer. I got out the clearing and ran down the street trying to find someone to help me. I saw a car about to drive by when they hit the breaks. I was about to walk to the car when i was tackled to the ground.

"STOP IT"

I said struggling under the heavy Todd that was on me. I felt a heavy hand come in contact with my face and knew it was his fist. He went to hit me again when he was on the floor under a guy bigger than him. I got up and saw the car doors open but the driver one. I looked around and was in shock about who was defending me. I looked around and saw everything spinning.

"CASSIE" Was the last thing i heard before i hit the ground.

"Ms. Weston? Are you ok?" I heard someone say as my eyes were opening but blinding me by someone flashing a light in my face.

"Ugh, what the fuck happened?"

"Are you ok?" I looked around the room and saw my sisters with worried expressions on there faces but nodded

"I'm fine"

"Your lucky, you hit your head on the sidewalk and only have a few stiches" How is that lucky? The doctor or nurse i wasn't really paying attention to who she was checked my blood pressure and i was able to go home.

"What happened?" Kelsey asked

"I don't know, i remember that i was in the woods and saw people fighting. And than i woke up there" She nodded and i looked to the back to see Rebekah with tearing rolling down her cheeks

"Becky are you ok?" She shook her head and looked at me

"I thought you were gonna die. I was so scared that i would hear your annoying voice again" I laughed and took a hold of her hand from the other side of the car.

"I'm fine, no need to worry"

"I told you to be careful"

"I know and i'm sorry"

"Was it him?"

"Who?"

"You know, Did "Devil" take you?" I shook my head

"No, i don't know who it was" I can't tell her it was the guy she liked, she would jump into the conclusion that i was making it up and i couldn't let that happen.

"I'm happy your ok though"

"Thanks sis" She smiled and we got home. I walked into the house and let out a breath

"Are you hungry?"

"Yea actually i am"

"There's dinner in the microwave"

"Thanks Kelsey" She nodded and kissed my forehead before walking upstairs

"Night Cass"

"Night" Rebekah walked upstairs and i got my food out the microwave. I sat at the table and started eating when i heard a knock on the back door. I looked at the door with a weird look on my face but got up to answer it.

Once i opened the door my eyes widened at who was there.

"Miss me?"

The Devil Chapter Six
~Cassie~

Miss Me?

I blinked in pure shock to see him standing outside my door. My throat was dry, I could feel the blood in my body run cold. I shivered as he smirked at me, his brown eyes not leaving mine made me want to run away because he was completely unexpected

"What are you doing here? I asked still with a hint of fear Voice voice.

"What was my last warning Cassie?"

"Don't do anything stupid"

"and what did you do when Todd took you?"

"Something stupid" I mumbled to him still scared of what's to come.

"Now I'm not going to be so nice. Get upstairs" he said as his eyes got darker. I shook my head in fear as he stepped closer to me. He grabbed me by the hair and pulled me towards him .

"what did you say to me?" I felt my brain go into a panic and I wanted to scream. I opened my mouth but nothing came out. He took my upstairs without letting go of my hair and threw the door open. He threw me on the floor, turned around and shut the door. He stood over me with a cold glare.

"Please, d-don't hurt me "

"You disobey and disrespect me. And you don't think your deserved to be punished for it?" I swallowed as he put his hand in his jacket pocket. He pulled out something silver and turned on my lamp. My eyes widened as I saw the knife open in his hand as he walked closer to me.

"Please,I-I'm sorry. I'll listen I promise."

"I gave you twice as many chances but you just ran out of them. Get on your knees and put your hands behind your back." I felt tears roll down my cheek but did as I was told. He walked in front of me and smirked.

"Good girl, now open your mouth as big as you can." I obeyed again not wanting to get in more trouble. He bent down in front of me and took something out his jean pocket. He placed the folded cloth in my mouth and put his finger to his lips as if to say to be quiet. He got behind me and leaned me forward on my left arm and took the right arm onto his lap.

"If your not going to listen than I am going to make you feel the pain of it" he pushed my head down on my floor and I felt him move the knife against my skin. He drew something on it make sting like hell. I couldn't find the voice to scream. Once he was done he lifted me up and looked at my face.

"Did you feel the hurt? The pain? The suffering?"

"Yes"

"Good because if you don't listen to me one more time I will take the knife and shove it so far down your back your spine will crack in half making you lose the ability to walk again. Do you understand me Cassie?"

"Yes"

"Good now go clean your arm" I got up from my floor and walked into the bathroom.

"Cassie, I warned you. He is not to be messed with" I looked in the mirror and saw the hooded figure looking at me. I looked at his jacket and saw the B in JB was glowing. I felt a stinging in my arm and saw the J was red but next to it was a green glowing letter. I whipped my arm and my eyes widened

JB was written on my arm. I looked at the door and I watched as the knob turned.

"What is this?" I said as he walked in the bathroom.

"You will soon find out what you need to know" he threw me a leather jacket and walked out.

"Cassie let's go" Rebecca said knocking on my door.

"Putting on my shoe" I said as she opened the door

"Nice jacket"

"Thanks, it was uh a gift"

"From who? I want one" I couldn't exactly tell her who gave me the jacket so I came up with a lie. Don't judge I don't want her to know I "broke my promise"

"A friend from back home sent it yesterday"

"Oh that's nice" I nodded and got up.

"Ok let's go"

We walked downstairs and she put on her sneakers. We got in my car and I drove to school, I felt a stinging coming from my arm and now it was the letters that I was covering.

"See you in lunch?" I nodded and she got out the car to walk with Lola and Yasmine. I got out my car and got my bag.

"It fits well" I turned and saw Travis with Brandon looking at me

"What do you want?" i asked quietly scared that "Devil" was going to come out of no where

"Is that anyway to speak to your friends Cassie?"

"your not my friends. You slapped my across my face and you make fun of me" They smirked but walked closer to me.

"W-what are you doing?"

"We have a message to give you"

"W-what is it?"

"Meet us after school at the park, bring your sister home and come" I nodded and they walked inside. i looked around and saw him by a tree with his arms crossed. I felt my arm burn and i pulled up my sleeve. It was glowing and i looked back to see me nod at me and walked inside. I walked to English and saw Travis smirking at me.

"Nice of you to join us Ms.Weston"

"Your lucky i even came so fuck off" Everyone's eyes widened including my own

"Excuse me?"

"I-i'm so sorry, i don't know why i said that"

"Detention Ms.Weston after school" I looked at Travis and his face went straight

"She can't be here after school" She turned to him and gulped

"W-why not?"

"She has a meeting with Devil" She nodded and ripped up the detention sheet. I walked to the back and looked at him

"Thank you"

"What the fuck was that about?"

"I-I don't know" I said pulling down my sleeve

"What are you covering?"

"N-nothing"

"Give me your arm NOW" He spat at me. I laid my arm on the table and he pulled up my sleeve. His eyes widened and he looked at me

"Y-your marked"

"i'm what?"

"Oh fuck"

"What does that mean?"

"Fucking hell, That's why he needs to speak to you"

"TRAVIS WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON?" Everyone looked at me and the teacher crossed her arms

"WHAT THE FUCK YOU LOOKING AT OLD BITCH?" Her eyes widened and i felt my arm burning even more.

"Cassie relax, breath" I heard Travis say to me quietly

"W-what's happening?"

"We need to get out of here" he got my bag and took my hand

"Where are you going?"

"Out" He walked out the hall and looked around

"Stay right here and don't move" I nodded and the burning got worse.

"IT HURTS"

"I know but you need to shut the fuck up" He sat me on the bench and took out his phone.

"The guys are coming now but you need to relax"

"Not until you tell me what is happening"

"I can't tell you, Devil needs to tell you" I felt my heart pounding faster and all i could see is black through my eyes.

"T-travis i'm scared"

I heard footsteps as if people were running and felt someone touch my shoulder. My head snapped to them and there eyes widened

"Where is he?"

"he's coming, give him a minute"

"What is he doing?" I couldn't see anything anymore. I felt as if i was going blind.

"W-what's happening" I heard footsteps and a voice

"We need to get her to a mirror"

"Where?"

"The girl's room you idiot"

"Cassie, Brandon is taking you to the bathroom ok" I nodded and felt someone take my hand.

"It's going to be fine"

"What happening?"

"Devil will meet you after this, but you need to speak to someone first"

"Who?" Then i didn't hear him anymore.

"Hello?"

"Step closer" It was a dark voice and my vision was clear. I saw the guy in the mirror

"Oh my god" He pulled his hood off and i saw the brown eyes that have been haunting me for the past few days.

"What did you do to me?" I said still wanting to know what was happening.

"It wasn't the me in the mirror. I am but a reflection of him. Listen to me carefully Cassie, you have been marked. You will be having outbursts a lot from this time on"

"But what is happening?"

"Do you know what the letters mean?"

"No please tell me what is happening"

"Cassie you have come incontact with the devil himself. Well, Devil in training. His last lesson was to mark the girl he was written with. That is why you were brought to this town"

"What?"

"He will explain everything, you can't tell anyone about this. Do you understand Cassie?" I nodded and he disappeared from the mirror. I walked out the bathroom with a shocked face and saw the hooded figure with the guys.

"YOU DICK"

"Oh shit" I heard him say, I ran and tackled him to the floor

"WHAT DID YOU DO TO ME" He reached his hands up and took a hold of my face and i felt my heart rate slow down.

"Is that better?" I nodded

"What is happening?"

"We can't talk about this here. You need to go through this day and after school meet us at the park. Once your there i will answer every question you have"

"What if i go crazy again?"

"I am sending Brandon and Travis with you to each of your classes. They will protect you and help you. I need you to try to not get angry" I nodded and the bell rang

"I will see you later"

"Ok" He walked away with the other boys and i turned to Brandon and Travis

"Lola can't see you with me"

"Got that covered"

"What?"

"You'll see now come on" We got to math and i walked inside to see her smile at me.

"Hey" I sat down and she looked at me

"You've been marked haven't you" I looked at her

"What?"

"I heard about your outburst. It only happens to the ones who were marked"

"How do you know?" she looked around before lifting up her sleeve to show the letters. "TD"

"Yasmine has one too, her's are BH"

"What do they mean?"

"You will find out later" I nodded still confused but saw Travis and Brandon standing by the door. They smirked at me and the teacher started talking.

I walked through the doors of the cafe and saw Rebecca with a pissed look on her face.

"That's your sister?" Brandon said

"Yup"

"Oh fuck" She made her way to me and crossed her arms

"ARE YOU SERIOUS?"

"Rebekah just listen" But before i could explain i felt my head go in another direction and i looked back at her

"Did you just smack me?" I felt my heart racing and she had wide eyes

"Casie, i-i'm so sorry" I was about to attack her but was taken outside.

"Cassie look at me" i looked at Brandon and he took a breath

"Deep breaths come on" I started to breath and felt my heart beat go back to normal

"Maybe going there isn't a good idea"

"You think?" Brandon said to Travis

"Sorry" We ended up sitting in the hall way with our lunch.

The last period bell rang and i walked outside to see Rebecca by the car with a sad expression on her face. I walked up to the car and opened the door

"Cass i-" I cut her off and shook my head

"Get in the car. I'm taking you home and going out"

"Cassie please-" I glared at her

"NOW" I closed my door and she got in. I took her home dropped her off and drove to the park for the "meeting". I got out the car and saw Brandon with Travis waiting for me.

"Nice to see you again"

"How's your cheek?"

"Fine, i wish i could've hit her though"

"You would've killed her if we let you"

"True"

"Come on the others are waiting" We walked to a house past the park and i was in shock

"Who lives there?"

"Devil" They said at the same time.

The Devil Chapter Seven

~Cassie~

Devil Mansion

We walked into the house and i was in sudden awe as to everything that was seen before me. The living room had white couches, a coffee table, plasma Tv, the walls were painted white with black stripes. We walked into the kitchen and i smiled at it. The counters were black and there was white cabinets along with a black and white backslash. I felt someone take a hold of my hand and we walked up the stairs. I walked up the stairs to a door. I turned to Travis and Brandon as they nodded as if to say to go in. I closed the door behind me, the lights were off but as I made my way inside a same lamp was turned on.

"Take a seat Cassie, I've been waiting for you" I gulped and sat in the seat in front of a desk. He wasn't facing me but i could feel the intense air around me as the chair turned around slowly.

"Welcome to my house, i hope you like it"

"I-it's beautiful"

"You don't have to be afraid right now Cassie, i'm not going to hurt you" i nodded still a little nervous as to why he wanted me here.

"Follow me Cassie" He said as he got up from his chair. The door was opened and i got up walking out in front of him. I felt a hand on my lower back as we walked down the hall.

"I know your heart is racing Cassie, you don't need to be nervous. I don't have any reason to hurt you at the moment. Do I?" He said and i shook my head.

"W-why am i here?" i coughed hoping he didn't notice my stutter

"You are here for more than one reason" I looked at him with a confused face.

"Give me your arm" I handed him the arm with the letters on them and he opened a door.

"Walk inside and i'm sure all your questions will be answered" I stepped inside and noticed he wasn't with me

"Aren't you coming?"

"I am not allowed in the room until you figure out why you are here. I will stand out here until the room goes green" I walked away from the door and looked around at pictures that were around the room.

The first one was of a man and woman holding a baby in their hands. The woman had the letter's RB on her left arm. I walked down the way and saw another picture of a woman and man. The woman had the letter's JB on her neck. I am guessing those are Justin's parents. She was holding a baby boy with the letters JB on his right leg. The floor started to shake and i turned to see Justin walk into the room. He made his way to me but i didn't move from this picture.

"Is that baby you?" Knowing he was behind me

"Yes"

"Those are your parents?"

"Yes again"

"I still don't understand what the marking means "

"Walk with me and i will answer the questions you have" He held out his hand and i took a hold of it making his picture glow red

"What is that?"

"It means i've found you"

"What?"

"My family isn't like your's Cassie, i was born in the middle of the battle between good and evil. At the moment i was born everything around me with glowing red and green. But as i opened my eyes for the first time i saw a little girl with a purple glow around her body. She had on a red dress, two pigtails and black sandals"

"What does that have to do with me?"

"Because the girl i saw was you Cassie , i have always been watching how you were supposed to grow up, the heart breaks you would go through, the death of your parents, all because i was born all those bad things that have happened to you is because of me"

"I don't understand, so because you were born my parents died, i've had my heart broken by guys?"

"Yes, if your parent's hadn't died when you were 8 than your sister would not taken care of you making you stay in Florida where you grew up. But when they died and your sister got that job for the company she works for, you wouldn't have been here"

"What would've happened?"

"If you hadn't come here, the day you turned 18 there would've been a fire at your house killing you, your parents and even Rebekah" I felt like i was in a fucking horror movie

"But that doesn't make any sense as to why i am here. Why you wrote JB on my arm, ANSWER ME WHY THE FUCK AM I HERE?" I felt as if my arm was on fire and felt a cold hand hold onto it.

"Look at me" I turned to him and felt my heart rate go down

"Why is this happening to me?"

"I never meant for you to go through this pain. But, it's my turn to take over the thorne and i need my mistress by my side or i lose it"

"What throne?"

"Everyone thinks the Devil lives in hell. Which is partly true, because he does. But what they don't know is that everyone in this town. This town is hell"

"Does that mean i'm dead?"

"No, everyone here is alive. But, ever since the first generation of my family line we have been the cause of every death, hurt, pain, scar, tear every bad thing that happened to anyone is because we have caused it"

"How?"

"Were close" He moved a curtain out the way and i saw tv's all around of shadows around every person in this town

"What are those things?"

"Those are the shadows of each person, there inner demons in this case. They make sure that anything bad that happens to the person is because they cause it. If they trip or break a bone it's because the shadows are doing there job.

"So i've had a shadow following me this whole time?"

"Yes, but i have given you a shadow that i know since i came to this place"

"Who's my shadow?" He turned and looked at me

"I am" I felt a rush of cold air go through the room and saw a black figure next to Justin

"Go get that mirror from the corner" I nodded and picked it up.

"What now?"

"Hold it up to your face" I held it up to see myself and my eyes widened

"What do you see?"

"I-I see you" I turned and saw the shadow with glowing red eyes looking at me

"I've been watching you ever since the day you were born"

He closed the door and placed his hand on my lower back

"Is that is?"

"I have one more thing that you need to see" I nodded and we walked downstairs. I heard laughter coming from the living room and turned to Justin.

"I believe you met Bryanna and Yasmine"

"What about them?"

"Go into the living room" I walked into the living room and my eyes widened.

"Holy shit" I saw them sitting on the couch with their arms glowing blue and yellow.

"They were make sure that i could trust you"

"What do you mean?"

"They were your first test. Friendship"

"What's the second test?"

"There are three test to make sure that i can have you with me by the throne. Your next test, Family"

"Family?"

"Your test is to meet my family, if they like you than you move onto the last test"

"Which is what?"

"Pleasure" I blinked to him

"What?"

"I was the one to make you were a virgin for the last test"

"B-but"

"You have 3 weeks until your first test. Lola and Yasmine are going to help you with my family" I nodded and he looked at the girls

"Take Cassie home, make sure that no one sees her mark"

"Yes sir" They got up from the couch and made their way to me. Lola pulled my sleeve to my jacket down and turned to Travis.

"Her mark stands for Travis Dillion and Yasmine's stands for Brandon Hanson"

"What happens now?"

"You go home, and talk to Rebekah. Tell her what Todd did to you and don't worry. I'll be around" He said with a smirk

"My mirrors"

"Exactly, be safe" I nodded and walked out the house with the girls.

The Devil Chapter Eight ~Cassie~

Week One Day One

I woke this morning with a burning in my arm and a massive headache. I got up from my bed and knew that he would be waiting for me in the bathroom before i shower. I grabbed a towel and walked into the bathroom turning on the light.

"Good morning Cassie"

"Go away, i want to shower" I said with a hint of annoyance in my voice

"Someone woke up on the wrong side of the bed"

"Unless you want me to break my mirror get the fuck out and wait in my room mirror"

"Fine" I waited for him to leave and than took off my clothes and got in the shower.

I got out the shower and wrapped the towel around my body. I walked out the bathroom and into my closet ignoring the fact that he was waiting for me in my mirror. Ever since i had the outburst in school i feel like i don't take shit from anyone and i honestly like it. I feel like i can control everything around me. I got my clothes and got dressed.

I walked over to my mirror to see what he wanted and he nodded in apporval of what i was wearing.

"What did you want?"

"I have a message for you"

"What?"

"Lola and Yasmine are coming to pick you up for school. Kelsey is taking Rebecca after her doctors appointment"

"Why can't i take my car?"

"Because last night i was in the mirror and someone put something in your car"

"Who?"

"Todd left something in the back seat of your car but i didn't see what it was"

"Ok" I heard a car horn from outside and walked outside and downstairs. I got my keys and got in Lola's car.

"Morning" I smiled at them and Lola drove off to school.

"Has he spoken to you about his parents?"

"No, do you know anything about them?"

"We've never even seen them. We've only seen pictures around his house of them. He doesn't see them unless they appear at his door"

"Appear?"

"You'll find out when they get here for your test" I nodded and she parked the car.

"You don't talk to him or the guys at school?"

"We weren't allowed any contact when you first got here. But now that you know, we can"

"Didn't people know your friends or whatever with them?"

"Yes but they knew not to speak or he would kill them"

"Oh" We walked inside and i saw them all by my locker.

"Good Morning Mistress" I looked at them confused but remembered what Justin said.

"Uh Morning?" I felt a hand on my lower back and turned my head to see him standing next to me. I looked up a little and felt a warmth on my cheek.

"Morning Cassie"

"Morning" I opened my locker and took out my books.

"What are we going to do about Becky?" I asked Lola and Yasmine

"You don't need to worry about her"

"What do you mean?" They looked at Justin and he nodded at them

"What's going on?"

"I've sent them on a little i guess you can say vacation"

"What did you do?"

"Let's just say that your sister got a new job in Huntington"

"There gone?"

"Yes, your stuff is being put into Lola's house until your trial is over"

"What if i fail?"

"Than your family line ends"

"What do you mean?"

"Forget it, it's early and you have to get to class" The bell rang and i walked to English with Travis.

We walked inside and i saw people looking at me with fearful looks.

"Why are they looking at like that?"

"Because they know your Justin's Mistress"

"What the fuck does that even mean?"

"After you meet his parents than you will know everything else"

"When will the fucking shadow leave?"

"After the trial is over" The teacher walked in and looked at me.

"Good Morning Mistress" I rolled my eyes and put my head on the palm of my hand bored of this day that had only began. During the class i was joking around with Travis and since i couldn't get in trouble the teacher didn't say anything. The bell finally rang and i got my bag and book.

"See you in lunch Mistress"

"Really Travis?" He laughed and walked off. I walked into my math class and sat in my seat next to Lola.

"So my friend, how's your day?"

"If someone calls me Mistress one more time i am going to rip them in half"

"Damn, someone's on edge"

"I had a massive headache"

"Maybe you should tell Justin, i'm sure that he can help" I put my head on the desk and closed my eyes. The door opened and i felt a hand on my back.

"Are you alright?"

"Her head is bothering her" I heard Lola say.

"Lift your head Cassie" I picked my head up and saw Justin in front of me.

"Look straight at me" I looked at him and he placed his hands on both sides of my head.

"Take a breath" I inhaled and he pushed on my temples and as i exhaled i didn't feel my headache anymore

"How's that?"

"Better"

"Mind if i take her Lola?"

"Nope, go ahead" He got my bag and notebook. We walked to the back and i sat in the seat next to his

"Doesn't some one sit here?"

"Yep"

"I don't want to take anyone's seat"

"It's fine. Just sit" I felt his hand on my lower back and i rested my head on his shoulder.

"Are you ok?"

"Tired but i'm fine. What happened to my headache?"

"You'll find out" The door opened and a girl walked in looking pale holding her hand.

"You gave it to her?"

"Yup, relax she'll be find after this period" I nodded and the teacher walked inside the room with a boy behind him. The guy looked at me and walked to the back table where i was.

"That's my seat" He made it seem as if he was brave and everyone was looking at him. I picked my head up from Justin's shoulder and looked at me

"Excuse me?" I said with a hint of annoyance in my voice. Does it look like i give a fuck if this was your seat? No so go the fuck away.

"I said that's my seat" I was about to say something when Justin looked at him

"Go sit next to Brandy in the second row or else"

"Yes sir" He mumbled and walked off.

Soon enough it was lunch and i saw Rebekah sitting at a table. I looked at the girls confused and they shrugged. The doors opened and everything went silent and i knew that Justin walked in. I felt a hand on my lower back and a warmth on my cheek knowing he kissed my cheek for the second time today.

"What's wrong?"

"I thought you said Rebecca and Kesley left town"

"They did"

"No she's over there" I said point at the fact that she was sitting at a table.

"What the fuck?" I saw the familiar laugh and turned to see Todd smirking.

"Thought she left huh? Looks like you were wrong"

"What did you do?" I felt Justin anger and i felt all his anger flow in me.

"Let's just say that they aren't going anywhere as of now"

"You know they have to leave town or Cassie and me won't be able to get the throne"

"Oh do I?" Justin stepped forward and Todd stood there with a smirk on his face.

"What are you gonna do? Send a shadow at me?"

"No, something far worse" I felt all the blood boil in my body and looked at the others.

"Holy shit"

"She's gonna kill him" I heard around me.

"I'm not gonna do anything to you" Justin said with a smirk

"What?"

"I won't have to"

"And what does that mean?" Justin moved and Todd's eyes widened

"Oh fuck" I felt my body shake and next thing i knew i was behind Todd with a bat in my hand. Where the hell did i get that from? And how did i get behind him?

"W-where'd she go?"

"Behind you" He turned and i lifted the bat and hit him in the head. He fell to the floor and i dropped the bat. I felt a cold hand on my lower back and relaxed.

"W-what did i do?" I gulped seeing his lifeless body and blood rushing out his head

"You just killed your first victim"

"What?" I saw Rebecca get up and walk out the door

"Where is she going?"

"She's listening to what i told her"

"She's leaving?"

"Yes"

The final bell rang and i couldn't get over the fact that i had killed someone today. Justin and the other's were happy for me and for some reason i felt as if i was happy too. But, that doesn't make any sense because i know that killing someone is wrong.

"It's not wrong if it's your fate" I turned to see Justin standing with his arms crossed

"Why am i happy that i killed him?"

"Because were connected so if i think something it happens"

"So if you want to kill someone i'm going to do it?"

"No, only if the person hurts you first than you do it. Todd took you against your will, you had hate towards him but my anger combined your hate sent you on the path to make you hurt him"

"Am i gonna get arrested?"

"No, but someone is"

"Who?"

"See for yourself" He said pointing behind me. I turned and saw the girl that he gave my head ache too being shoved into a police car.

"This is going to be a confused 3 weeks"

"Come on, let's get you to Lola's"

Lola's House

We pulled into her driveway and saw Travis's car parked by the sidewalk. I guess he came to help us or something. We walked inside and he went into the kitchen saying he needs a drink. I sat on the couch with Lola and she turned on the Tv to a movie i guess they were watching before. Travis walked into the living room and sat next to Lola . He had his arm around her and she was laying between his legs. I sighed and looked out the window.

"Cassie are you alright?" I heard Lola say, I turned my head to her and nodded slowly

"I'm fine, uh where am I sleeping? I'm kind of tired"

"Upstairs first door on your left. The bathroom is the door by the Tv and the closet is the one next to the bed"

"Thanks" I grabbed my bags from the door and walked upstairs. I opened the door and turned on the light to see a purple and gray room. I plugged in my charger and my phone since it was dead. I changed into my pajamas, laid on the bed and turned on the Tv along with my phone.

I started flipping through channels and ended up watching Pretty Little Liars on ABCfamily. I turned off the lamp and saw my phone light up. I looked over and saw a random number was calling. I bit my lip wondering if i should answer and reached over to it.

"Hello?"

"It's me" His voice sounded calm over the phone. As if he was finally relaxed and not hating me for an unknown reason.

"How'd you get my number?"

"I have ways"

"Let me guess, your Shadow"

"Correct, i just wanted to make sure your alright"

"I'm fine, It's weird being here though"

"Want some company?"

"Sure "

"Open your window" I heard a something hit my window and walked over to open it. I unlocked the window and saw him standing on the ground looking up at me.

"Hi" I hung up the phone and he started to climb up the side of the house to get to my room. Most people would find this romantic but i'm still a little scared of him so i'm inbetween romantic and scary. But i'm warming up to him as the days pass. He got into my room and i sat on my bed.

The bathroom door closed and he walked out in his boxers since i told him i didn't want a show. He put his clothes in a bag that was in his hand when he came and laid beside me. I turned to him and questioned if i should lay my head on his chest like Lola did to Travis.

"It's fine " I looked at him and he smirked

"Stay out my head"

"Can't help it" I laid my head on his chest and he put his arm around me rubbing my back lightly.

"Can you tell me about your parents?"

"What do you want to know?"

"What to do and not to do when i see and meet them"

"Don't tell them about Rebekah or Kelsey, you can talk to my mom about food, or anything about the kitchen. My dad is hard because he will judge on appearance so don't wear shorts, or a tank top and he hates heels. He likes when the girl is comfortable with herself so i'd say no makeup. Basically just wear jeans and shoes with a comfortable shirt" I nodded and felt my eyes start to close

"Night" He whispered before kissing the top of my head.

"Cassie get up, it's time for school" I moved my head under the pillow and threw up my middle finger telling whoever it was to fuck off but that didn't work considering i felt pressure on my ass and knew it was Justin.

"Go away" He chuckled and i felt a warmth on the back of my neck and felt my shirt being lifted up. I felt the same warmth leave my neck and move to my back and knew he was kissing my back. I rolled over and he smirked at me.

"Go get ready, we have to leave soon" I got up, walked into the bathroom took a shower and got dressed.

I got in Justin's car and he drove to school. Once we got there he opened my door and i felt everyone's eyes on us. I looked around and everyone looked away as my eyes landed on them. Are people scared of me now? I mean i know that i was marked to Justin but is it that scary that they can't talk to me now? We walked inside and i saw a guy by my locker with his arms crossed and a smirk on his face. Justin had his hand on my lower back as we walked making the guy glare at him. We reached my locker and i saw a guy i didn't know.

"Carter" Justin hissed at him and i moved away to open my locker

"So this is your girl Bieber?"

"Fuck off" I turned and saw the guy was dressed in white. Uh ok? Won't he get dirty? I shrugged it off and got my book.

"Aren't you going to introduce me?"

"No, now leave" The guy smirked and looked at me

"Hey, i'm Carter"

"Hey, i'm not interested" Justin smirked at me and put his arm around my shoulder. The bell rang and he turned to face me.

"Are you sure your ok to walk alone?"

"I'll be fine, Todd's dead which means i'm fine" I felt the guys eyes on us and looked at Justin's eyes.

Kiss me. He looked at me as if to say you sure? and i nodded at him. I pulled him by the jacket and he leaned down since he was taller. I felt his breath his my lips and saw them getting closer. I closed my eyes slowly and felt his lips press against mine. I moved my hands to reach around his neck and entangled my fingers together as he moved his left his to my neck and his right hand moved my shirt up a little and i felt his cold hand rubbing my side. I heard a cough but ignored it. His lips were unbelievably soft and gentle. I felt his tongue move against my lip and slid mine against his. He pushed me against the locker and i heard his growl. I felt my head be pulled away from his and turned to see Lola and Yasmine with a smirk on there face holding in a laugh.

"Are you done?" Brandon said with a chuckle

"Sorry" I looked at Justin and he winked at me

"Were late for class now" Travis took my arm and dragged me to class. I turned my head and smiled at Justin. He nodded his head once and walked off with the others.

"Late again Ms. Weston" I heard the teacher say. I looked at her and she turned around quickly to the board. Travis and I laughed as we made our way to our seats.

"Some make out session Weston"

"Shut up Dillion"

"I noticed that you met Carter"

"Yea, who's the douche?" He looked around before looking back at me.

"He's from the opposite side"

"So what? He's like an angel or something?"

"Yes, and he will try to ruin every chance you have of taking the throne with Justin"

"How?"

"There will be more tests coming your way. That is why you have the girls and us. We are to protect you and help you in every way we can"

"Is that what Todd was?"

"No Todd used to be a shadow" I looked at him confused and he sighed

"Todd's one thing to do was to keep track of the other shadows, but he took over someone's body. The person that was very close to Justin, that's why he was happy i guess you can say when you killed him. He always wanted him dead but he didn't have enough power to do it himself"

"I don't understand?"

"You have a lot of power when your with Justin. Even without him you have a power that none of us can even bare to control"

"What is it?"

"I can't tell you, Lord Bieber will tell you if you pass the test"

"Late again Ms. Weston" I heard the teacher say. I looked at her and she turned around quickly to the board. Travis and I laughed as we made our way to our seats.

"Some make out session Weston"

"Shut up Dillion"

"I noticed that you met Carter"

"Yea, who's the douche?" He looked around before looking back at me.

"He's from the opposite side"

"So what? He's like an angel or something?"

"Yes, and he will try to ruin every chance you have of taking the throne with Justin"

"How?"

"There will be more tests coming your way. That is why you have the girls and us. We are to protect you and help you in every way we can"

"Is that what Todd was?"

"I don't understand?"

"You have a lot of power when your with Justin. Even without him you have a power that none of us can even bare to control"

"What is it?"

"I can't tell you, Lord Bieber will tell you if you pass the test"

"Who?"

"Justin's father"

"Oh, wait you call him Lord Bieber?"

"That is his name "

"Really?"

"No, but that is what we call him. Only the lucky ones get to know and call him by his real name"

"Makes sense"

"Eva, you need to stay as far away from Carter and anyone in white as possible. It is extremely dangerous if you communicate with them. They will turn you to there side and Justin will not get the throne making the war of Good and Evil end"

"Is that a bad thing?"

"If Justin doesn't get the throne and Good wins there will be a world of no sex, drugs, drinking, nothing that his family worked hard for will be ruined and destroyed. We can't and won't let that happen"

"Ok" The bell rang and we walked out the room. We walked to Math and Lola was waiting for me inside.

"See you at lunch" I nodded and walked inside, i sat beside Lola and saw Justin in the back with his hood on

"Is he ok?"

"He's just worried about you"

"Why?"

"Carter, he's the most dangerous out of all the angels"

"How?"

"Because he was one of us, and the love of his life as others say had turned his against us. He worked for Todd but since he's dead he will stop at nothing but to take you"

"I won't let that happen"

"I hope not" We paid attention in class and next thing i knew we were in lunch. I sat at the table with Justin and the others talking about the test i have with his family. I'm nevous and right now i feel like i'm going to throw up but Justin said that i'll be fine and he will be there for the whole thing which relaxed me a bit.

I looked at Justin and saw him relaxed with me on his lap, his hand on my back. And to think that when i first met him he was a complete dick. Now he is really caring and gentle.

"Wow thanks Cassie" I looked at him and smiled innocently

"Sorry"

"What'd she think?"

"She said i was a complete dick" The others laugh and he flipped them off but turned his head to me

"I just had to make sure that you can handle the rough side of me because it comes out a lot"

"I can manage it" He leaned down since i was still shorter even on his lap and i felt his lips on mine.

"REALLY?" He laughed and pulled away laughing with the others.

Fight with Lola

It was finally the weekend and so far staying with Lola wasn't that bad. We usually hang around her house and watch movies or joke around. Today the others had to be here since i have to start getting ready for my first "test". Justin is already here taking a shower in my bathroom since he stayed over again just like he has since i first got to Lola's. The bathroom door opened and i smiled at him as he stepped into the room in a towel. Normally, other girls would feel a hint of Lust as they watch there "Match" walk out the bathroom in a towel but Justin said that i won't be able to feel lust, or as other people call it "horny" until his parents approve. He says that when i have there blessing everything that comes with it is: Relaxing on my outburst, Feelings of lust, and he said sometimes Hunger. Which i don't really get but if he says it does than i have to believe him since i'm still new to this. He dropped his towel and i just stared at him while he got dressed.

"It's not gonna work so stop trying" I heard him say. Fuck him and his ability to read my thoughts.

"Will you stop going in my head, one day i'm gonna think something that is going to hurt your feelings"

"Oh wow i'm so scared, what are you gonna think? About a dead dog or something? I don't feel hurt or did you forget that i have no feelings"

"You have love"

"No, i only get it if my family approves of you until than i'm a black hole of nothing"

"You suck"

"Whatever you say" I groaned and threw my head back on a pillow.

The doorbell rang and i heard talking as we walked downstairs. We reached the last step and walked into the living room where everyone was.

"Hey" I said as i sat next to Justin on the couch. I put my feet on his lap and leaned back waiting for them to start talking. I looked around and didn't see Lola or Travis anywhere though. I looked at Justin and he shrugged.

"Didn't i tell you stop going in my head"

"It's fun messing with you" I heard a crash from upstairs and looked around before we all ran to Lola's room. We opened the door and i saw Lola on the floor holding her face with tears running down her cheeks. I stepped to her and knelt down and hugged her.

"Are you ok?" She nodded and i looked at Travis who had a red face and looked like he was about to kill someone

"What did you do?"

"None of your concern"

"Lola is my best friend so it does concern me. Now what did you do?"

"The fuck does it look like I did? Maybe if the bitch listened next time this won't happen" I felt my heart start to race and saw the other run to get Lola. Justin looked at me but i snapped my head to him

"If you touch me i will kill you myself and there will be no throne" He backed away knowing that i wasn't kidding and i turned back to Travis

"Your going to tell me what the fuck you did before i get more angry"

"She was getting annoying and started asking questions and shit, I told her if she didn't stop that i'd hit her but she kept going so i pushed her" He shrugged acting like it was no big deal but i felt even more angry and felt my body start to shake.

"What? Gonna hurt me? Sorry princess but you can't" Next thing i knew i was looking at the back of his head and had a whip in my hand. I lifted it up and hit him in the back making him fall to the floor.

"WHAT THE FUCK" I hit his leg and repeated the process over until i saw blood on him.

"Did you like getting hit?" His body started to shake and he shook his head

"ANSWER ME"

"N-no"

"THAN DON'T FUCKING HIT LOLA YOU UNDERSTAND?"

"Y-yes" I could sense the fear on him and i bent down to him

"If she comes to me telling me you hit her again i will make sure that i leave you in a hospital bed. You don't put your hands on a girl i don't give a fuck if she is your mate she could be your fucking dog and i wouldn't give a fuck. If i find out this happened again i will make you regret it"

"Y-yes Mistress"

"Now go clean your face and meet us downstairs for the meeting" He quickly got up and ran into the bathroom.

We walked back downstairs and i sat down on Justin's lap while Lola sat next to us.

"Are you ok?"

"I'm fine, Thanks for coming upstairs"

"I wasn't gonna let that douche hurt you" She laughed and he walked downstairs with open cuts on his arms and his jeans were ripped.

"SIT DOWN" He sat on the floor and Justin spoke first.

"We have 2 weeks until she meets my family. If they approve she will not be attending school or seeing anyone other than me or Lola due to the fact that she will start to have her symptoms of becoming one of us. If any of you see Carter Wilson within' 5 miles of her i want you to find a shadow and cause as much danger for him and get her somewhere safe" They nodded and he turned to Travis

"You are going to stay at the cabin on Wheeler Avenue until the trail is over. I do not want you contacting Bryanna or any one in the group or on the outside unless it me. You are not to leave the cabin even if it is burning on fire. Am i understood?"

"Yes" He mumbled

"Lola is going to stay with Yasmine and Brandon at there house while Cassie stays with me. If anyone contacts you tell me right away. I don't want anyone talking to someone outside of our group. If i find out or see you talking to someone outside of this group you will be put to death on the spot"

"What about your parents? They show up at random times"

"It is only 2 weeks until the trail which means that my mother is in Brazil with her friends and my father is in Peru with the council. My sister and brother will be coming next week but are staying in my family's mansion. Any other questions?" They shook there head no and Justin looked at me

"Get your things and let's go" I nodded and walked upstairs to start packing.

Justin pulled into the driveway and we walked inside the house. He turned on the light and led me upstairs past the room he had showed me when i first came here. We walked past his office and he opened a room two doors down.

"This is our bedroom" He walked inside, turned on the light and took my bag from me. I walked into the room and my eyes widened as i stepped inside.

"Through that door by the bed is the closet and through the door by the dresser is the bathroom. If you want to shower than go ahead. I will go tell Priscilla to start dinner"

"Thank you" He nodded and closed the door as he walked out the room. I walked into teh bathroom which was just as beautiful as the bedroom and turned on the shower. I took my time as i relaxed when the hot water hit my body and changed into my pajamas. I walked downstairs to the dining room and saw Justin sitting at the table with a plate of food infront of him.

"Take a seat Cassie" A lady pulled out my chair and i sat down as she pushed my chair in. A plate of food was brought to me along with a knife and fork.

"May i get you a drink?" A guy asked with a polite smile

"Sure, i'll take anything thank you" He nodded once and walked to the kitchen i guessed. I turned to Justin and smiled at him

"What?"

"You have a nice house"

"Thank you, it's my grandparents old house"

"Where are they now?"

"At the moment i don't know. But you will meet them when my parents and siblings come" The guy bought me my drink and we ate.

"Am i still going to school next week?"

"Only on Monday" I nodded and they took my plate when i was done.

"Would you like to go to sleep?"

"Yes" He took my hand and walked upstairs to the room. I laid down beside him when he laid down in his boxers. He turned the lamp off and i laid my head on his chest slowly falling asleep.

Test One Finally Approaches

I got up this morning at 3:40 am to get ready to be presented to Justin's parents. Apparently they called Justin last night and told him that my "presentation" will be at their families formal party tonight. Lola came to Justin's house at 2pm saying that it took hours for me to get ready. So here i am, at the hair salon changing my hair color from blonde to brown.

"It looks good" Lola said as she got her hair trimmed

"Thanks"

"What time is the formal party?"

"It starts at 6:30 but we have a lot to do" I nodded and once our hair was done we paid and left.

"Where to now?"

"Getting a dress" We got in her car and drove to the mall to get a dress for the party.

We walked into the mall and started to walk around the dress department. We walked around for a while and i think she made me try on almost 20 dresses until i found one that i really liked. It fit me perfectly and Lola liked it too. We paid and walked out the mall. We got back to the car. It was already 5:50 pm and we made our way back to Justin's house to get ready. We parked in the driveway and i unlocked the door.

"JUSTIN WERE BACK" He walked out the kitchen with a drink in his hand and i smiled at him

"You look nice"

"Thank you" He nodded once and i walked upstairs with Lola to change. We opened the door and went inside.

"I get the shower ready" I nodded and took my dress out the bag with everything else we bought for me. I laid it on the bed and Lola came out saying my shower was ready.

Once i was finished with my shower i walked into the room and started getting ready.

I was finishing the last curl in my hair when the doorbell rang downstairs. I turned to Lola and she finished straightening the last piece of her hair.

"Ready?" I nodded and we walked downstairs. I looked around and saw everyone in the living room but Justin.

"He's in the kitchen" I turned and saw Brandon with Yasmine on his arm.

"Thanks, and you guys look good together"

"Thank you Mistress" I looked at Yasmine confused than at the fact she called me Mistress. I walked into the kitchen and saw Justin sitting at the table with a glass in his hand looking at a wall.

"Hey" He turned his head to me and moved his chair back. I sat on his lap and looked at him

"What's wrong?"

"Nothing, you look very nice"

"Thanks, Come on we should get going" He nodded and we all left the house. I got in Justin's car and we drove for 2 hours until we were in front of a beautiful mansion.

"Oh my god" He turned to me and i was in pure shock as to the house that was in front of me.

"I think you'll like the inside too" He said as he helped me out the car. I didn't even notice that he opened my door.

We walked through the front door and i held onto Justin's forearm as we walked in. We were the last two people since Justin told the others to go first. Mostly because i was almost shitting in my pants. As the doors closed everyone's heads turned to us and i wanted to pass out and die. He walked past everyone as we got to an open spaced room.

"Wow" I said as everything around me was nicely decorated and beautiful. I heard a whistle be blown and we walked back to the front.

"Lord Bieber and his Mistress" The guy moved out the way and a guy walked in with a woman linking arms with each other.

"Are those your parents?"

"Yea" I tightened my grip on him and he looked at me

"Your gonna be fine, just remember the past 3 weeks" I looked to see his parents walked slowly up to us. His mother was short, but beautiful. She had soft eyes and a light smile that screamed welcoming but she's still Justin's father's mate. Justin's dad had cold eyes, and a straight line across his lips. He's scary as fuck.

"Hello Justin" The guy said with a darker voice.

"Father, Mother. I'd like for you to meet Cassie Weston" He moved away from me slightly and his father circled around me when he let go of his mom.

"Tell me Cassie, what is your age?"

"And your an only child?" I gulped remembering i can't tell them about Rebekah

"Yes"

"And what do your parents do?"

"There dead" He stopped walking and looked at me

"How long?"

"Since my 8th birthday"

"Who took care of you?"

"My aunt"

"How much do you know about my son?"

"Enough to know that if i fail this test my family line will cease to exist"

"You will have my ruling at the end of the night" I nodded and he walked away with Justin's mother. I felt a hand on my lower back and looked at Justin

"The hard part is over, now for the second part"

"Second part?"

"This part is to see how well you get along with my kind. All these people here are old Devil's" I looked around and saw that everyone here was young, they look like they were teenagers.

"But they look so young"

"We don't age after the age of 29. We stay like that forever"

"How old are you exactly?"

"I'm 19"

"I feel like i'm in a fucking twilight movie"

"Except i'm not a vampire and there are no gross werewolves" I laughed and he took my hand

"Come on i want you to meet a few people" We walked through the crowd until we got to a circle of people. There was an elderly couple but also two young couples. Justin coughed and the others turned to us.

"Cassie this is my sister Jazmyn, my brother Jaxon and my grandparents. And this is Jazmyn's mate Calvin and Jaxon's mate Alyssa"

"Nice to meet you" Jazmyn smiled at me along with Justin's grandmother and Jaxon's mate Alyssa.

"I like your dress" Jazmyn said with a smile

"Thanks, i like your shoes"

"Is this her first test?"

"Yes, she gets dad's ruling at the end of the night "

"Oh, well if we get along i'm sure he'll say yes" I nodded and looked around for Lola.

"She's in the backyard with the others" I looked at Justin and he smiled

"Really? Stop going in my head"

"Your such a dick Justin" Jazmyn said with a laugh

"Not my fault that she had interesting thoughts "

"Can we go see the others?" He nodded and took a hold of hand as we walked to the backyard.

It was coming to the end of the night and the same guy from the beginning blew the whistle again getting everyone's attention.

"Lord Bieber and his Mistress have come to a decision on the ruling" We walked up to his parents and i felt as if someone stabbed me in the heart. A rush of cold was seeping through my veins through my blood working it's way to my heart.

"W-what's happening?" Justin looked at me with a straight face

"It's the ruling" I felt my heart racing my blood was going cold. I felt everything that i never felt was hitting me all at once. Than everything stopped. I felt as if everything around me stopped moving than went into fast forward. I felt as if i was floating on air, my eyes became heavy and they slowly closed. And that was it.

"Cassie, wake up" I heard a voice say in my ear. I turned my head slightly opening my eyes slowly.

"Justin?"

"Hey" He said smiling lightly

"What happened?" He leaned down a little and pressed his lips on my forehead

"You passed, Casie were officially mates" My eyes widened and i felt a rush of cold air go through my body.

Adujsting

This morning was strange, i walked into the bathroom and didn't see the shadow looking at me. Instead of him i saw my reflection, i didn't have a burning ache in my arm and i felt my heart beating normal. I got in the shower and felt as if i was a new person. Once i got out i walked back into the room to see Justin on the bed with his hands behind his head watching Tv.

"Hey" He turned to look at me and smirked.

"Well hello" I walked to my drawer that he gave me and took off my towel to put on my bra when i felt a hand on my back moving to my stomach

"What are you doing?" I gulped wanting not to show that i had a burst of what felt like fire go through my stomach

"Just relax" I felt his breath on my ear. I was about to fall to the floor just from his hand placed on my stomach. He moved his hand up and i felt my heart racing.

"I can sense your excitment" I quickly turned around and pressed my lips against his. Forgetting that i was completely naked i jumped on him wrapping my legs around his waist. He moved backwards to the bed and fell back making me hover over him.

"I can get used to this" He said as i pulled off his shirt. I felt as if i had no control over my body, everything about him made me want to jump on his and rip his clothes off. He leaned up and kissed me. I felt his tounge slide in my mouth making everything much more heated and felt my body tempture rising.

"Why am i feeling like this?" I said as he moved to kissed my neck

"It's your instinct" I moved my hands down to his jeans and unbuckled his belt. He moved my hands higher and i felt his hands roam from my stomach to my boobs and back down to my ass. I couldn't help but feel the sexual tension. I took of his jeans and was about to reach for his boxers when the doorbell rang.

"That's probably the others"

"Such great timing they have" I said with a sarcastic tone. He laughed and kissed my lips quickly before i got off him. He put his clothes back and i put on my bra and underwear walking to the closet to get my clothes.

Once i was dressed we walked downstairs to the living room. Everyone was sitting around the couch and i sat with Justin on the couch by the window. I was still pissed that they came to the house without being invited and ruined my fun time with Justin. The others looked at me and i saw Travis smirking

"Say something and i swear i will cut your dick off" His eyes widened and he covered himself with a pillow

"What's up your ass?"

Yasmine said with a laugh. I glared at her and got up from the couch, i walked into the kitchen opened the fridge and took one of the beers that Justin had for his guys nights. I huffed and sat on the counter with three bottles next to me. I heard laughing coming from the living room than heard the sound of footsteps coming towards the kitchen. I lifted the bottle towards my lips and saw the girls walk in the kitchen

"Were sorry that we ruined your first chance at him"

"Is that what there laughing about?"

"Well you know Travis"

"Douche" I heard footsteps coming from the hall and Justin walked in the kitchen

"Are you ok?"

"Just fucking amazing" He pointed towards the exit and the girls walked out. He walked up to me and picked me up off the counter.

"What's wrong?"

"I wanted my fun time"

"We have eternity Cassie, or did you forget that?"

"I'm a fucking virgin, and i wouldn't be at this moment if those dick heads didn't fucking come here without telling us" His eyes widened and he coughed

"I know, but they are also a part of my family. It's something you have to get used to"

"No, i don't have to do shit. Or did you forget that?"

"Cassie, be reasonable"

"No, either get them out or i'm staying with Lola" He looked at me with his dark shades of his eyes but i wasn't backing down

"You don't tell me what to do"

"I believe i just did" He stepped closer and to be honest i found his very sexy when he was pissed off with me.

"I don't think you know who your talking to Cassie"

"Your sexy when your mad" I said holding onto the loops of his pants.

"Stop it, i'm mad at you right now"

"Oh come on, you know you can't stay mad at me" Where the fuck is this coming from? I've never said or done anything like that.

"Cassie stop it, it's just lust taking over"

"I want it to take over, please Justin?"

"Cassie i said stop" I leaned closer and placed a kiss on his neck.

"I will make it fun"

"Cassie that's enough" I kissed his neck a few more times until i was pushed against the counter.

"What the fuck is wrong with you? Your acting like a complete slut" I looked at him in shock and put the bottle on the counter. I felt a tear roll down my cheek and his face softened

"No Cassie i didn't mean it like that"

"FUCK YOU" I ran out the kitchen with tearing running down my cheeks and went upstairs to the room. I laid on the bed and stared at the window. I can't control this shit and he thinks he has the right to say i'm a slut? Maybe he should try feeling like this and than tell me how me feelings.

The door opened to the room and i turned to see Lola and Yasmine with a sad smile on there faces. They closed the door and locked it behind them. They sat on both sides of me and didn't say a word.

"He called me a slut" Lola snapped her head towards me with her mouth dropped

"What? Why?"

"I can't control my actions, it's like something takes over my body and i was trying to seduce him in the kitchen. I didn't mean to, but something took over me and it just happened"

"I'm sorry Cass" Yasmine said

"It's not my fault that i feel like this"

"We know, but they don't know how it feels when we transition. When i turned into Travis's Mistress i ate cartons of ice cream for 4 weeks straight"

"And when i became Brandon's i grew an obsession with cats. I had him get me a new cat every 10 minutes"

"Why does this have to happen to me?"

"We each go through different stages, your happens to be lust. Justin's family is the most high Devil which means everything hits you 10 times as hard as us."

"I didn't ask for this, i just want to go back to being Cassie Weston, the sister of Kelsey and Rebecca" The door opened and we turned to see Justin holding a key in his hand

"Cassie? Can we talk?"

"Wanna call me a slut again?"

"No, look i was out of line when i said that "

"Were just gonna give you guys some privacy" The girls left the room and Justin sat next to me

"I can't control the feelings in my body anymore"

"I know and i should've understood. It's just you were very demanding and i forgot that this was one of your struggles" I turned my head to him and he whipped a tear away from my eye.

"I didn't mean to make you feel like this "

"It's not your fault "

"I'm still sorry that i made you cry" I looked at him and rolled over so i was laying on him.

"What are you doing?"

"I want a hug" He chuckled and i felt his arms wrap around my waist

"I sent the other's home. We have the house to ourselves. Still up for fun time?"

"After what you said to me? Hell no, now you have to work for it"

"Knew it" I laughed and we laid like that for a few hours until dinner at least.

The Devil Chapter Thirteen

~Cassie~

Jazmyn and Jaxon Bieber

I was still upset about yesterday but Justin is kissing my ass to make me happy again. I got up today with no feeling of lust but of sadness. Mostly because today is the anniversary of my Parents death, which means I was born on midnight tonight. I haven't told Justin about the anniversary or the fact that it was birthday at midnight since he was busy in a meeting. Plus he was stressing over the fact that his siblings are coming at 5 pm. I was going to walk downstairs to help Priscilla and Liana set up for dinner when I heard a crash from Justin's office. I knocked on the door but heard yelling which meant they didn't hear me knocking. I opened the door and saw Justin glaring at a guy I didn't know, I looked down and saw a shadow. Oh no, might as well see what the noise was considering I'm already in here.

"Justin?" His head snapped to me and his face softened as his eyes went back to that sexy chocolate brown that I like.

"What are you doing in here? I thought the door was closed"

"It was but I heard a bang and wanted to make sure you were alright"

"I'm fine Cassie" he got up from his chair and made his way over to me. He put his hands on my waist and rested his forehead on mine. He kissed my forehead and smiled at me. "Why don't you go downstairs while I finish in here. I'll be down in a few minutes"

"Ok" I mumbled and he kissed me quickly as I walked out the office. I closed the door behind me than walked downstairs to help.

I haven't seen Justin since I walked into his office which was at 3 pm and his siblings are coming here in 5 minutes. I heard a cough from behind me and turned to see Justin standing there with a smile on his face.

"Everything alright? No more shouting?"

"Everything's fine"

"What happened?"

"One of the shadows disappeared and lost its host making them free to the angels. We had to track him turns out he was in the woods hiding behind a tree." I nodded and the doorbell rang, I heard the sound of heels hit the floor and turned to see Jazmyn with Calvin. She hugged Justin and than me while Jaxon walked in with Alyssa by his side. She looked about 14 maybe but that's only because they are still young. I think Jazmyn is 16 and Jaxon is 14. I'm not sure though.

"Hey Cassie, Justin" Jaxon said nodding his head

"Nice to see you again Jaxon"

We sat at the table and starting eating when I heard a voice in my head

"Are you alright?" I knew it was Jazmyn since she was looking right at me

"I'm ok"

"Wanna go upstairs to talk?"

"Sure" she nodded and we got up from the table.

"Where are you going?" Justin asked me

"Gonna talk to Jazmyn, I'll be back" he nodded and we walked upstairs to Justin and my room. We sat on the bed and she looked at me.

"What's up?"

"Today's the 10 year anniversary of the death of my parents" her eyes widened but then her mouth dropped

"But that means-"

"My 19 birthday is at midnight"

"You need to tell Justin"

"And have him go into a heart attack? No thank you" she laughed

"This is great news, it means that you can do your third test"

"I don't want another one. I just finished my first two"

"There's only 4 so your almost done"

"This sucks ass"

"I know but at least tell him. Maybe he can see if my dad can change the date" I heard footsteps coming fast up the stairs and the room door opened showing Justin with wide eyes

"Your birthdays in a few hours"

"Yes" he smiled grabbed me from the bed, he spun me around as Jazmyn laughed

"Justin your making me dizzy"

"Cassie this is great news"

"No it's not, I don't want another fucking test" he put me on the floor and looked at me "What?"

"I. Don't. Want. Another. Test"

"So you don't want me to get the Thorne?"

"Justin that's not fair, you know I do. You know I'd do anything to help but the last test made you so angry. I'm just... I'm scared."

"Cassie, nothing is gonna happen. This is one test that you wanted to do"

"What is it?" He came closer to my ear and whisper it to me

"Pleasure"

We all sat in the living room talking and laughing about there old family vacations and how there childhoods were when the clock hit 11:59 pm. They looked at me with a smile on all of there faces. Too say I'm nervous is a understatement I mean I'm gong to be 19 in one minute and only a minute after I will be losing my virginity to someone that I hardly know. "6.....5.....4.....3.....2" I heard a loud Ding from the clock and saw that it was midnight. "Happy Birthday Cassie" I looked at Justin and he smirked at me. I got up, walked to the kitchen and gulped down a glass of water.

"Feel any different?" I heard a voice from behind me. I turned to see Jazmyn

"Nervous but no"

"We're leaving, I wanted to say bye"

"Thanks"

"Hey, I'm sure that he won't pressure you into this whole thing. After all, he is my brother I think I know him pretty well" I smiled at her and hugged her.

"Thanks for coming and talking to me. It helped a lot"

"Your family now, I can't have you getting hurt for stupid shit" I laughed at her choice of words but nodded.

"See you soon?"

"I'm a shout away.... Literally"

"JAZZY LETS GO" Jaxon yelled from the living room

"Bye" she walked out the kitchen and I heard the door close.

I heard footsteps coming towards the kitchen and knew it was Justin.

"Hey" I smiled at him and started the dishes since I told Priscilla and Liana I'd do them tonight.

"What are you thinking?" He said as he put his arms around my waist and rested his head on my shoulder

"I'm scared that's for sure. We haven't know each other for that long and this is my first" "Cassie, we don't have to do this if your not comfortable" I turned around and looked at me

"Are you sure?"

"We're together for our lives. I'm sure that I can wait for when your ready. Not like we're going anywhere."

"When and how did you get so sweet?"

"Sweet to the ones that deserve and need it"

"Can we go to bed?"

"Sure" we walked upstairs to our room and I changed into my pajamas. I turned off the lamp and laid my head on his chest

"Night Cassie"

"Night"

The Devil Chapter Fourteen

Nightmares

She looked around trying to find an escape. The walls were caving in, the floor slowly disappearing beneath her feet. No windows, No Doors, Nothing can help her get out of the room. She was trapped, the lights were out, no candles. Cold air rushing through the room making her shiver in fear and get goosebumps from lack of warmth. She had no where to run, no way out. Her breathing started to become heavy, her eyes slowly closing as the walls became closer to her making it too much to bare. Than everything faded, and went black.

~Cassie~

"CASSIE, CASSIE WAKE UP" I felt my body being shaken and i quickly opened my eyes jumping up only to be comforted by two warm arms making there way around my shaking body.

"Are you alright?" The sound in his voice was so gentle, loving, concerned.

"I-It felt so r-real"

"What happened?"

"I-I couldn't breath, I-It's like I w-was actually there"

"Cassie, what happened? Breath and tell me" I nodded and took a breath.

"I was in a room, there were no windows or doors. No light or warmth. I could feel my feet become frozen to the wooden floors and it disappeared. The walls started caving in slowly and they got so c-close i couldn't breath. I-I thought i was gonna die"

"Cassie it's ok" I shook my head quickly

"It felt so real Justin. It's like i was really there, trapped with no help" I felt tears running down my face and he rubbed my back as i cried in his chest.

"Why don't you lay down for a while?" I slowly nodded and he laid down bringing me with him to lay on him. I rested my head on his chest and entangled our legs. He held me closer and i felt safe compared to what i had dreamt about. My eyes started to slowly close as i felt back asleep.

~Justin~

Cassie scared the fuck out of me when she woke me up shouting and kicking. Her body was shaking rapidly i thought she had having a panic attack but her eyes were closed. When she finally got up i couldn't do anything or want to anything but hold her. I just wanted her to feel safe and to know that it was a nightmare. She shouldn't be getting them because her shadow left her body when we were approved. Than i remembered that we didn't have sex on her birthday. My father knows it all, this much be her punishment for not completing the test. But, i understand her point, she doesn't want to lose her virginity to someone that she just met. When her breathing went back to normal i knew she was asleep. I moved her head to the pillow and covered her with the blanket. I ran hand back up and down her back as small snores left her mouth. I wanted her to feel safe, comfortable and in order to make that happen i'd need to speak with my father.

I got up from the bed after an hour of her sleeping with not waking up. I walked into my office and summinded my father for a talk. I felt the heat hit my body and knew he was here. He appeared in the chair in front of my desk and crossed his legs.

"What can i help you with son?"

"What did you do to Cassie?"

"I haven't done anything she didn't deserve. She didn't complete the test, therefore she must live with the after effect of her actions"

"That is not your call to make, when you approved of her you gave up your power to punish and destroy. She wants to make sure that she is ready and i'm not forcing her into doing anything that will make her hate me for the rest of her life"

"I will always be the first devil Justin"

"If you do something to Cassie again i will make sure that all my shadows take over you and watch you die. This is my mate not some toy you can play with and let her roam free. She is apart of my life and when she hurts i hurt"

"Very well son, I will cause no more harm to Cassie Weston"

"That is all i ask"

"Is that all?"

"Yes, thank you father" He nodded once and disappeared.

~Cassie~

I rolled over and didn't feel Justin next to me. I opened my eyes and saw his side of the bed empty and made nicely. I heard footsteps and a knock on the door.

"Come in" The door opened and Justin walked in slowly with a cup in his hand. He put the cup on my nightstand and sat by me taking a hold of my hand.

"How are you doing?"

"I'm ok, thank you for letting me sleep"

"You won't have to worry about the nightmares anymore"

"I thought that they were caused by shadows, you said after we were approved the shadow will leave me alone. Why did i have a night mare?"

"It's a long story. the point is that your safe. I've bought you some tea, i know you like it"

"What kind?"

"Jasmine tea, your favorite" I smiled and thanked him. I drank the tea and put the cup back down.

"I'm gonna shower and changed"

"I'll be here if you need me" I nodded and got up from the bed. I walked into the bathroom, turned on the shower and undressed than stepped in.

I got out the shower and wrapped a towel around my body. I walked out the bathroom and saw Justin looking at me with a smile.

"Sexy lady over there"

"Your such a corn ball" He laughed and i walked into the closet to get dressed. I walked out the closet and sat with Justin on the bed.

"How was your nap?"

"Peaceful, where'd you go?"

"I spoke with my father while you were asleep. I told him that if this was his doing it wasn't right" I nodded and rested my head on his shoulder. We stayed there for a few minutes when the doorbell rang. We got up and walked downstairs to see the others walking in one by one to the living room.

"Does they ever go home?" he laughed took my hand and we walked inside to the living room.

Communication

I sat on the living room couch waiting for Justin to get home from school. Apparently, i can't go back until my powers start to kick in and i can control them. Justin said i should be getting them soon because we have been bound. I sat on the couch watching Phineas and Ferb eating chocolate cookie dough ice cream when i heard a car pulling into the driveway. I knew it was Justin but i heard another voice coming from after he spoke and looked at the door confused. The door opened and a girl walked in with him laughing. She looked about our age, she had black hair, brown eyes and was a little taller than me. He had those brown eyes that he had charmed me with the first time he was nice to me. The same glow as if he could make you do anything. She reached over and kissed his cheek and i felt my blood start to boil. My vision started to become darker and i knew it was from my anger.

"Good to see your home" He turned to look at me and his mouth opened but quickly shut when he had nothing to say.

"Who are you?" I said with a fake smile as the plastic bitch held onto his arm trying to look cute.

"I'm Melissa, Justin's girlfriend" I looked at him with a glare.

"Girlfriend?"

"No, Cassie let me explain" Justin said stepping closer to me.

"Make another move and i will get my things and leave"

"I'm sorry, i didn't know Justin was expecting company when i parked outside"

"And i didn't expect him to have a slut as a girlfriend. I guess we all have something that is new to us. Don't we Justin?"

"Cassie can we talk?"

"Does she know? Have you told her about it yet?"

"Cassie"

"Oh so she's in the hiding too, what? Have another secret that we don't know? Is a kid gonna show up at your door saying your her father? Tell me Justin, did you have a girlfriend when you first started this shit?"

"Cassie that's enough"

"No i'm just getting started" I looked at the bitch and she had a confused look on her face.

"What's going on?"

"Justin hasn't told you about me? Well i'm Cassie Weston. Justin's Mate"

"Mate?"

"Mistress, future wife, bound for life" She turned her head to him and he looked pissed.

"That true?"

"Yes but you don't understand"

"Were you gonna tell me? Is that why i couldn't come to the house anymore? What about our future Justin? You said we were gonna last forever" "Melissa there's a lot you don't know about me. There are a lot of things that you won't understand even if i tell you"

"Try Justin, because i'm confused as fuck" "Let's sit in the living room" We walked to the living room and i sat across from Justin on another couch far away from Melissa. "How'd you meet her?" Melissa asked

"Let me start from the beginning" She nodded and he sighed and started to speak.

She had wide eyes and anger writing all over her face but i didn't know if it was towards Justin or the situation. She turned her head towards me and i felt her anger in my body.

"This is all your fault"

"Excuse me? I didn't ask to be his fucking mistress. I didn't ask for him to 'protect' me. I didn't ask for this life. It was forced on me and you know what if you weren't such a bitch than maybe he would've told you sooner. None of this is my fault, it's the fact that his family was born this way"

"If you weren't born than it would be me with Justin not you"

"Well i didn't ask for your opinion on my fate"

"Melissa, i know that this is hard for you. I've loved you for almost 3 years but we weren't gonna last. You were just there until i was able to get Cassie to town. I'm sorry but she is who i'm meant to be with. No matter what you or anyone says or does. We will always be each other's mate and you have to leave"

"You said you loved me"

"Please just go Melissa, your only hurting yourself more by being here" She nodded and got up from the couch. She grabbed her bag and looked at me

"I hope you die in hell"

"Were you not listening? Bitch were already in hell" She stomped her foot and walked out slamming the door behind her. I heard her car go down the street and looked at Justin.

"Why didn't you tell me?"

"I was planning on breaking it off with her before you found out. I was hoping you would've been upstairs when she came"

"So i'm not allowed to know anything about you?"

"Of course you are, it's just...There's a lot that you don't know about me Cassie"

"What do we do than? Because i need to know about you since were 'together'"

"Maybe we should try to get to know each other. Because your right, we are supposed to be together forever" He said getting up from the couch walking outside. He sat on the hammock and pulled me down with him to lay next to him.

"I'd like that"

"Really?" I smiled against his lips when i leaned up and nodded.

"Positive" He chuckled as his lips pressed against mine holding me by the back of my neck kissing me sweetly.

"Well, where should we start?" He asked

"How about your childhood?" He looked down at me with a light smile and nodded.

"Ok, well do you wanna start?" I asked

"Well, i was born in the middle of a war. During that time my parents were trying to protect me by sending me to this town on my 2nd birthday. When i was 7 i started getting these weird powers i guess you can say. I started hearing people's thoughts, i could move things by looking at it. I had never seen my parents in person after they took me to this house. Every week i would get a letter from them seeing how i was doing. And one day i told them about what was happening, they finally came to see me. I showed them my powers and they told me all about my family history. On my 10th birthday i started my practice of becoming the next Devil in line. During the whole process my family had told me that i needed to find a girl. He showed me a screen of girls of who they are and what they will look like in the future. I chose you because of what you were going to do in your future. I knew everything about you even before you were born"

We spent the next few hours talking about how he started with his first kill and his transformation. I've never felt so close to someone before. It was like i was connected to him. I could feel all his energy running through my body and felt everything he felt in me. It felt so safe and grounded. For the first time since i found out about this mistress thing i felt happy. As if i was happy to be with him, happy to have someone to hold me.

The Devil Chapter Sixteen

~Cassie~

Your Alive?

I sat on the porch with a cup of hot chocolate when the front door opened and i felt something being placed over me. I turned and saw Justin smiling at me taking his hands away from the blanket he placed on me.

"It's late, what are you doing out here?"

"Wondering" He sat next to me and took a hold of my hand.

"About what?"

"Would you have looked for me if my parent's were alive? Or was it because they died that you wanted me?"

"I would've try to find you, Like i told Melissa yesterday nothing and no one will keep us apart Cassie. Besides, without you i'd not been able to get my throne"

"Is that all you care about? Your throne? What about me Justin? What about what i want?"

"And what do you want?"

"I want to be able to be in love, I want to have a family some day. I want to be happy all the time with you but all you care about is your fucking throne" He sighed and looked at me

"I wanna show you something" He got up pulling me with him

"What?"

"Come on" We walked inside the house and walked into the basement not letting of my hand.

"It's dark down here"

"There's a light switch on the wall" He flipped the switch and i saw newspapers hung up on the walls, pictures of when i was younger to now, some of my toys from my childhood"

"What is all this?"

"I meant what i said when i told you that i know everything about you. I even know something's that you don't know"

"Can i ask you something?" I asked him making him turn from the wall

"Sure"

"What are my parents? I mean if this is hell are they in heaven?" He looked away from me and picked up a book

"Justin? What are you not telling me?"

"There's a lot that you still don't know Cassie, a lot that i can't even tell you but wish i could"

"Why? Why can't i know? There are so many questions that i've asked but i still have no answers" He sighed and shook his head

"I'm sorry, but i can't"

"I'll be in the guest room" I mumbled and walked upstairs.

"CASSIE" I ignored him and walked into the guest room. I locked the door behind me and laid on the bed. I was already in my pajamas so i didn't bother with going into our room. I laid on the bed and slowly fell asleep.

The sun light shined through the room as my eyes opened slowly to adjust to the light. I got out of bed and got up to get my clothes so i can shower. I slowly opened the door to the bed room and saw Justin sleeping on the bed with his hand on my side of the bed. I sighed and felt a little guilty for how i treated him last night and how i blew up on him. I got my clothes and walked into the bathroom. I turned on the shower, brushed my teeth and stepped into the shower. The door opened and i put my head out the curtain to see Justin walking past me. He brushed his teeth and my eyes widened when he almost took out his dick to pee in front of me. I quickly put my head back in the shower and heard a flush before the sink turned on. I turned off the shower and wrapped a towel around me, i walked out the shower and he looked at me.

"Still mad at me?"

"I'm sorry for being a bitch, i don't know what's wrong with me"

"It's your powers, As they start to come into progress your emotions, thoughts and actions are multiplied by 10" I walked towards him and put my head in the crook of his neck as he hugged me.

"Even when you in a towel your sexy as fuck"

"Shut up" I said hitting his head jokingly. I got dressed after he walked out the bathroom when the doorbell rang from downstairs.

I walked downstairs and saw Justin with a annoyed look on his face. I walked over to him and put my arms around his waist, he turned around and smiled at me as he put his hands on my waist and i moved mine up from his to his neck

"What's wrong?"

"There's someone here to see you, but you need to stay calm"

"Why? Who is it?" I heard the sound of heels hit the floor and slowly turned to see a short woman smiling at me.

"Cassandra?"

"Who are you?" I said looking at her confused

"My name Melanie, Melanie Weston"

I was still confused, i never met this woman so why is she here to see me?"

"Cassie, this is your mom" My eyes widened as Justin told me and i felt angry all of a sudden.

"Why are you here? How did you find me?" I had so many questions but all she did was look at me

"ANSWER ME DAMN IT, YOUR SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD" Her eyes widened and Justin held me tighter to him

"Breath Cassie, you don't have control over your powers yet"

"Who let her in?"

"Cassie, she isn't who you think she is "

"What do you mean?"

"He means that the only reason he found you as a child is because of who your family is. Who you are"

"And who am I?"

"Your half witch in a way"

"Yea and i'm part dog, funny there are no such thing as witches"

"Your great parents and all of those before them had practice the arts. I thought i stopped the lines of it after i left with your father but i didn't"

"How is that possible? How are you alive?"

"You should sit down Cassandra"

"Cassie, my name is Cassie" She nodded and i walked to the couch without letting go of Justin. We sat on the couch and i looked at her.

"How did you find me?"

"With the help of a figure named Carter, he said that you were here" I looked at Justin and he got up

"Get out" She looked at him

"What?"

"GET THE FUCK OUT" She quickly got up and looked at me

"I'm in town for a few days, i'm staying at the hotel near by. Please Cassie, i'd love for us to talk"

"Either you get out of my house or i will throw you out"

"Thank you for your time" She said as she left. I looked at Justin and he was pissed.

"I'm gonna kill him"

"Justin, may we should just see what she wants"

"No, i made sure she was dead after the accident. I was the one that checked for a pulse on both of them. She's dead Cassie, I was at there funeral"

"Than how is she here? How is she alive right now?"

"I don't know, but she's lying to you"

"About what?"

"Your not a fucking witch, that's impossible because they don't exist. But you do have certain powers because your my mate but your not a witch" I sighed and put my head in my hands

"I don't want you seeing her Cassie, do you understand me?"

"Yes"

"Good, i'm going to see Travis and Brandon later. Do you want me to take you to Lola's or Yasmine's?"

"Can they just come here?"

"Yea, i'll call Travis to tell him and Brandon" I nodded and he walked out the living room.

How is it possible that my dead mother is alive?

I don't understand what is going on.

The Devil Chapter Seventeen

~Cassie~

Disrespecting

Justin had left the house after a few minutes of talking on the phone to Brandon and Travis. I told him that i was going to meet the girls at Starbucks and he gave me his Range Rover while he took the Frisker Karma. I started the car and made sure that he didn't have the tracking device on and i pulled out the driveway. I drove down the street and looked around until i saw the place i was searching for. I parked infront of the place and got out the car. I locked the doors and looked around before walking inside. I really hope that Justin won't come here.

"Hi, may i help you?"

"I'm looking for Melanie Weston" The woman typed a few things on her computer and nodded

"She's staying in room 321, it's on the second floor"

"Thank you" She nodded and i swear that i saw a familar person standing by the door but when i looked back no one was there. I shrugged and walked into the elevator. I got to the second floor and looked for room 321. Once i found it knocked on the door and looked around until it opened.

"Cassandra?" Melanie said with a shocked voice.

"C-can i come in?" She nodded and i walked in as she opened the door wider.

"Would you like something to drink?"

"No, i uh just...I just want to know the truth, i think i at least deserve that" She nodded and we sat on the couch.

"When you were born, there was something wrong with you. You had darker eyes when you would cry and light eyes when you were calm. There was always a shadow standing over you as if it was watching. On your 8th birthday your father and I were on our way to get you a cake when the car started to let out smoke. It quickly became a fire and it went from the hood of the car through the AC ducts. After a while it became too much, the bottom of the car was melting slowly underneath our feet as the door started to melt making it cave into the seat. It started to become too much for us to breath, and after that i blacked out. Next thing i knew i was standing next to a guy in white. He said his name was Carter and that he would help me find you. I spent the last few years in hiding. And a few weeks ago a red glow was shown from things house, and than a few days after a green one was shown. And I-I knew it was you, i'd finally found you"

I stared at her looking any signs of the truth and found nothing.

"You know, your the biggest liar in the world. Justin was so right, your nothing but a pawn in Carter's fucked up game. Well you tell him i said that if he wants me than he can get me himself and we'll see how far he gets" I got up and walked out the door slamming it shut. I walked out the hotel and got in the car. I saw a silver Frisker Karma drive past me as fast speed and knew it was Justin. I got home and saw the car in the driveway.

"I'm in so much trouble" I walked inside the house and saw the lights were off. I closed the door behind me and i turned on the light. Justin wasn't around so i walked upstairs to his office. His door was shut and there was no light inside. I opened the door and turned on the light, walked inside when the door shut.

"You completely disobeyed me Cassie" I jumped and turned to see Justin said with dark eyes.

"I had to find out the truth, Justin you don't understand"

"I understand that you don't care what i say. I'm trying to protect you and all you do is forget it" He looked pissed, hurt and dissappointed. I felt my heart starting to break as he shook his head disapproving with me. I was about to speak when he put his hand up and spoke again

"Are you that interested in trying to get yourself killed? Do you not understand how dangerous they are? Cassie, you have to think before you do that shit" I looked down and felt a tear roll down my cheek

"I'm sorry"

"Sorry won't cut it" He stepped closer to me and put a piece of hair behind my ear.

"I'm trying to keep you safe but you took a big not to mention stupid risk today"

"I just wanted to talk to her, find out the truth of what happened to them on that day"

"And did you find out the truth? Did you get what you wanted?" I didn't say anything because i knew that he knew i didn't find out anything. Everything was a big lie, my whole life was a huge lie.

"I'm so sorry" He sighed and pulled me into his embrace.

"You should've just asked me if you wanted to know what happened that day, i would've told you everything about that day. Cassie, i know you have a lot of questions that i can't answer but i will answer the ones i can"

"What happened the day they died?"

"We should sit down" We walked outside to the hammick and i laid beside him.

"I'm listening"

"The day you were born was the most powerful day because you were born on a full moon, I got a letter from my parents saying that you were born and i had to send my most powerful shadow to keep you protected from the Angels. I didn't trust just any shadow so i gave you mine. I told him to keep you out of harms way but let you feel certain pain. On your 8th birthday your parents came in contact with the most powerful Angel of them all. His name was David, he was around our age at the time. I'd say 19? He told your parents about my shadow and they wanted to rush home to get to you when i felt a rush of cold air run through my house. Which is strange considering there is not to be any cold air in this place. I knew something was wrong, i tried to get in contact with my shadow but he wouldn't answer. So i used one of my powers to get to your house. I saw your parents pouring a Liquid around the house and over heard there conversation about setting the place on fire. My shadow was hovering over you trying to keep you safe when a fire broke out downstairs. I told him to get you out of the house and take you to my house, i ran into your sister's rooms and got them taking them with me. Kelsey was the only one that really knew what was going on"

"So you saved me?"

"I did what i felt was right and what i had to do was keep you safe"

"What happened after?"

"When we got you here we figured the only way to keep you safe was to wait for Kelsey to get older. We took you and Rebekah to my parent's castle in Vildora"

"What about Kelsey?"

"She stayed here, she needed training to keep you safe"

"Is that why i never could remember what happened after 8th birthday? Why i can't remember anything until i turned 11?"

"Yes, my parent's castle was protected by a spell that the guardians made. You call them witches but they are actually guardians. The castle was protected with a spell to keep the remembrance of mortals that were taken there from knowing what happened during there time there. After Kelsey's trainging was done, and she was legal we sent her to the castle to get you both she was supposed to bring you back here a few weeks before you turned 18"

"So she knew about this?"

"Yes"

"But why did she leave when we got here?"

"Because it's her job to keep the Angels from finding you"

"And what about Rebecca?"

"Rebekah is in Vildora, training for the battle along side with Kelsey"

"Battle? What battle?"

"The battle for the throne, the battle of good and evil"

We laid down on the bed and he smiled at me.

"Tired?" He asked as i yawned and tiredly smiled back

"Yeah"

"Get some sleep" He kissed my forehead and i laid my head on the pillow as he covered me with the blanket. My eyes slowly closed and i drifted into a sleep like no other. Literally

There one stood with a black robe over his body and a hood covering his head. He told me to stay calm and try not to move as he uncovered me with my blanket. He stood over me with his left hand on my forehead and the other on my stomach. His eyes were focused on mine. He removed his right hand from my stomach and took out something from his pocket. It looked like a stick.

"What is that?"

"Don't speak" His voice sounded raspy with a gentle touch to it. I nodded and he placed the stick looking thing on my stomach.

"Cassandra Joy Weston you now have full power"

The Devil Chapter Eighteen

Power

The light struck my eyes and i knew it was morning. I turned over and laid my head on Justin's chest trying to block out the sun even though it wasn't really working that well. He put his hand on my back and played with my hair with his other hand. I felt him move my hair out my face and i looked up sleepy.

"Morning"

"I feel like shit" He laughed and i pressed my hand against his chest. His eyes widened and he pushed me off him. Rude much? Dick face

"What the fuck was that Cassie? Your hand was hot as fuck" I looked at him with a confused look and turned to look at my hand. I had a fire red hand that looked like it was on burning. I looked at him and he held his chest where i touched him.

"Cassie what is that?"

"I-I have no idea"

"What do you mean you don't know? That's your hand. How would you not know?"

"I remember sleeping and having some guy in my dream than waking up and rolling on your chest" He stood pacing and looked at me.

"What guy? What did he look like?"

"Black robe, brownish hair, gold brown eyes, he had some sort of staff thing that he placed on my stomach before i woke up" He looked shocked at first but than smiled like i've never seen him smile before.

"Cassie that means your getting your gifts" I swear he looks more excited than i am.

"But i can't use them" Justin's father said that when i get my powers i am not allowed to use them unless it's training or the battle. Apparently, if we have sex my inner animal will come out and i can't let that happen. Oh yeah another reason to stay a virgin. I laughed to myself while Justin stared at me with a smile on his face. I felt myself being lifted off the ground and spun around. I saw Justin smiling wide and i put my arms around his neck to support myself.

We walked into the kitchen and breakfast was already on the table waiting for us. I said hi to his workers and started eating when i felt something melt in my hands. I looked down and didn't see my fork anymore. I looked at Justin who was eating and on his computer.

"Justin" No answer

"Justin" I said louder but still not getting any reaspone

"JUSTIN" He jumped and looked at me

"What? Why aren't you eating?"

"My fork melted" He looked at me wide eyed and i nodded showing him my hand where the melted fork was.

"Holy shit, it's your heat. You need to drink a lot of water to keep your temp down"

"Ok" He asked one of the workers to get me water and i laid my head on the table.

"This fucking sucks" He rubbed my back and a glass of water was infront of me soon enough. I drank it and felt a little calmer. I touched Justin's face and he flinched a little

"Still hot but your cooling down"

"I'm sorry for buring you"

"It's alright, come on let's go see the book for what other powers you have" I nodded and we walked back into the room to get the Shadow book.

We opened the book and saw all these different names. I saw Justin's, his parents, his siblings, his grandparents, Lola, Yasmine, and even the boys. It's like everyone i talk to is here on the list. He turned more pages and i saw the power chapter. We looked through it and apparently i have Heat, power to move things with my mind, Projection and that's about it. Justin's father appaeared after we closed the book and he had a light smirk on his face and a gift in his hands. I looked at him confused but he said to open it and when i did i saw a blacelet with a letter J on it.

"What is this?"

"It's to keep your power down, each person get's once. Just happens that i have given you our family's bracelet.

"Thank you" He nodded and disappeared. I turned back to Justin and he helped me put it on. it didn't melt just i guess meant it was working.

Justin was in his office working on some plan with one of his best shadows. I sat on the couch with hot chocolate in my hands. It's coming closer to Decemeber and getting colder outside. Apparently the battle will take place soon. Which means i'd had to start my training in Valdora soon. There are good things to that but one bad thing. What if we lose? I mean Justin won't get his throne, and my family line won't continue which means i won't had kids, and i'd die. I heard the door close from upstairs and turned to see Justin walking downstairs with Blake his lead shadow for this task. Justin said were gonna need an army to win this battle. Which means he is sending his shadows around the world turning Mortals.

"Hello Mistress" Blake said bowing

"Hi Blake, Are you two finished?"

"Yea, there leaving tomorrow for a week. But i'm not sending all of them"

"Who are you sending?"

"Blake, Charlie, Mario, Tabitha, Emily and Whitney" I nodded and Blake shimmered out. Justin walked to the couch and sat down next to me. I laid my head on his chest and looked at him

"What's wrong?"

"What if we lose? You won't your throne"

"Cass, you need to not think about that and think about if we win you get to have your sister's back. Once we get the throne this place is legally ours and not my parents. We'd own Valdora and good will finally end"

"Growing up everyone said Good will always beat Evil though"

"Well we won't let them win. Cassie, the only way we don't win is if i don't fight. And unless something happens to you i'm standing by you fighting for our throne" I looked at him with a smile and shuffled onto his lap

"What are you doing?"

"You said Our throne" He smiled and tucked a piece of my hair behind my ear

"I did didn't I?"

"You really want me to be there?"

"Of course i do Cass, I-" we were interrupted by the door bell and i groaned

"That's probably the guys"

"Leave it, they can shimmer in"

I moved my head lower and placed my lips on his. He grabbed the back of my neck and pulled me closer. My right hand moved to play with his hair as the other slid under his shirt. His left hand moved to my hip making a cold sensation flow through out my body. I've never realized how cold he really was. His hand moved higher under my shirt as my right hand tightened in his hair. He smirked and moved higher giving me a shiver. I pulled away and he smiled at me.

"Why are you so cold? I never felt you that cold"

"I've always been this cold. I have ice in my blood. Your gift is heat and mine is cold"

"Kind of like fire and ice?"

"Exactly" I heard a cough and saw Travis standing with his arms crossed and the others shimmered in at the same time.

"Oh uh hi"

"Are you finished? We need to talk"

"I guess" I rolled my eyes and he pushed me off Justin.

"Dick" He flipped me off and i felt my eyes fire up.

"Cassie breath" I heard Justin's voice . I looked at Travis and got up from the couch. Justin reached for me but when he touched my hand he got burned.

"What the hell Cassie?" Justin yelled. I ignored him and touched Travis's neck. His loud screams could be heard in every ear. His skin was disappearing as i pressed harder.

"Cassie your gonna kill him" Justin shouted at me but i pressed harder.

"Cassie s-stop it" Travis said still in pain. I pulled my hand back and saw he had a huge burn mark on his neck.

"What the fuck Cassie?"

I blinked and felt myself go back to normal. I looked around the room and saw everyone with shocked faces. Justin's face read disappointment and i ran. I ran out the front door and down the street. I just wanted to run, i wanted to get out of the house. I can't hurt anyone else. I found the woods clearing and ran inside. I sat on the leaves that had fell last month and picked one up. It burned in my hand right away.

I wanted to cry, i had no idea what i was doing. What if this is who i become because of this 'gift'.

"If this is what happens because of it, you can have it back. I don't want it" A tear rolled down my cheek and i laid on the ground. I felt something hit my head and looked at up to see it was raining. I didn't move, it started to pour and i pulled up my hood that i grabbed before i let since it was on the couch. I heard my name being called in the distance but i thought i was imagining things. My eyes started to close and my breathing started to slow down everything felt weird.

"CASSIE" Was the last thing i heard before my head dropped into a pile of leafs

The Devil Chapter Nineteen

~Justin~

Don't You Remember Me?

When Cassie ran out the house i instantly got worried. She has people after her and now that she has power's she is even more danger since she doesn't know how to use them. Once i made sure Travis was alright i grabbed my jacket from the couch and ran out to my car. If something happens to Cassie than someone will be killed. I saw her running down the street and lowered my window. I shouted her name but she ran faster, i followed her until she ran into the woods entering. I got out my car and the cold air hit my face but at the moment i didn't care. I looked around making sure no one was around and ran inside the woods. I looked around and saw something move. I ran towards it and saw Cassie on the ground face first into a pile of leaves with a person standing over her. My eyes widened when i saw who it was and ran to tackle them.

"STOP" I pushed him on the ground and took Cassie's body in my lap. She looked so pale, her lips were blue. It was almost 30 degress out here but for her it's probably colder considering her body heat is running low because she hasn't mastered her power of heat yet. I picked up her body and took her to my car. I looked around to see the person shimmer out. I looked at where he once stood confused. How'd he do that? He wasn't one of mine.

I pulled into the driveway of the house and took Cassie out the car and inside. Everyone was still here and looked at Cassie with a shocked face.

"I'm taking her upstairs, no one interupt understood?"

"Yes sir" I walked upstairs with Cassie in my arms and laid her on our bed. I covered her with the blanket and took her hand in mine. I flinched from the coldness on her hand and looked at her face. I moved her hair out her face and sighed.

"What were you thinking?" She didn't move and i kissed her lips softly before getting off the bed. I walked downstairs to get her something warm to eat when i saw the others still in the living room.

"We just wanted to know if she was alright" Lola said with concern written all over her face.

"I don't know, she's asleep" They nodded and shimmered out after that. I heard a crash from upstairs and ran to see if Cassie was alright. She was on the floor holding her head with confusion written on her face.

"Cass, you alright?" She looked at me with a confused look and looked around the room.

"Cassie?" She got up and pointed to herself.

"Me?"

"Your the only Cassie in the house"

"I-I'm sorry. Who are you?"

"You don't know me?" I said with shock in my voice

"No, are we friends?" I coughed and shook my head

"No were uh...were sort of together" Her head tilted to the side and she bit her lip.

"You don't look familiar. Are you sure that i'm the girl?"

"I'm positive, maybe you should lay down" I walked towards her but she backed away

"What's wrong?"

"I can do it myself thank you" I nodded and she got in the bed. She covered herself with the blanket and i sat next to her.

"What do you remember last?"

"Depends, am i still in Washington?" I looked at her shocked

"Cassie you haven't lived in Washington for almost 3 years. Your in Conneticut, Brookfield to be exact"

"When did i get here?"

"Almost a month ago" I got up from the bed and looked at her

"I'll be right back don't move" She nodded and i walked to my office. I closed my eyes and called for my father and waited for him to shimmer in. He smiled at me but his face went straight when he saw my face.

"What is it?"

"Someone whipped Cassie's memory"

"What?" He said in anger

"She doesn't remember where she is, who i am or who she is. Dad, this will fuck up the who battle. If Carter finds out he will make her change sides"

"Ok just take a breath, let me think" I nodded and sat in my chair behind my desk.

"Do you still have contact with Jessica and Gina?" I nodded and he sat down

"Call them and tell them to bring the blue dust. It's a memory dust that will undo anything" I nodded again and he shimmered out. Gina and Jessica are Windago's. They protect the earth kind of like mother earth but more fun to have around. I picked up the phone and dialed the number.

"Hello?" I heard the familar voice speak

"Gina, it's Justin"

"What's up Devil? How can i help you?" I can tell that she was doing something but this is important to me so she will have to suck it up in the end.

"I need you or Jessica to bring me the blue dust"

"Vixen Memory? Justin that's dangerous"

"I know but it's important"

"What is it?" She said concerned

"It's Cassie, something put a hex on her and made her forget everything"

"The ruler or your mistress?"

"Mistress"

"Jessica will bring it now" And with that she hung up. I walked back to the room and sat next to Cassie.

"Are you alright?" She nodded and looked at me

"How did we meet?"

"That's a long story" But i was interupted before i could talk.

The doorbell went off and i saw Cassie jump. I told her to stay in the room and i went to see Jessica. I opened the front door and let her in.

"Did you bring it?"

"Yes, now remember Justin only a sprinkle"

"I know, thanks Jess"

"No problem" She walked out the house and i let out a breath before walking upstairs. I sat back on the bed and she smiled at me.

"What's that?"

"Powder?" I said it more as a question

"Can i have some?"

"Sure just uh let me open it" I 'accidently' sprinkled a little in her face when i opened it and she coughed. She blinked a few times and her eyes were still filled with confusion.

"Can i have some now?"

"W-what? It didn't work" I threw my head back in frustration and closed the bottle

"I thought you were sharing"

"Just go to bed. You can use it tomorrow" She nodded and laid down. I covered her in the blanket and turned off the light as i walked out. I looked at the bottle and went into my office. I called Jessica and waited for her to answer

"Hello?"

"What the fuck Jessica? You said a sprinkle would work"

"Didn't you read the damn bottle Justin?"

"No why?"

"It takes a few hours to kick in you idiot" I coughed and hung up. I walked back to the room and saw her sleeping peacefully. I laid next to her and sleep asleep myself hoping the dust worked and she'd be my Cassie again tomorrow.

Change In Eyes

I heard a moan coming from Cassie who was still asleep. Her head on my chest and her arm around my stomach tightly holding onto me. She was burning hot and i was starting to get worried. She was covered in sweat and her nose was blazing red. I didn't know what to do so i shook her a little and moving her hair out her face. She opened her eyes and blinked a few times.

"Justin?" I sighed in relief that the dust from last night worked and kissed her forehead only to feel the hot sensation from her body heat on my lips. I pulled back and she smiled into my chest.

"Look at me" I said quietly yet smoothly. She slowly looked up at me and my eyes widened. Oh my fucker

"What's wrong?"

"Your eyes...There red" She looked at me confused and blinked and when her eyes opened they went back to the creamy brown i loved.

"What happened last night?"

"You collapsed in the woods, i brought you back here" She nodded and i leaned down a little to kiss her.

"No i need to brush my teeth" I chuckled and picked her up from the bed. I walked into the bathroom with her and she brushed her teeth while i turned on the shower.

"We leave to Valdora December 15" She nodded and i walked behind her putting my arms around her waist and my head on her shoulder. I moved her hair to one side and kissed her neck.

She turned around and i let go of her since i knew she was going in the shower. She pulled off her shirt and i gulped. She didn't have a bra on, she pulled off her pants and underwear and i could sense that i was getting excited.

"Nice boner Justin" I looked down and covered my boxers and felt my heart race. She always knew how to make me feel embarrassed. I walked out the bathroom wondering what i should do for the next few minutes. Once i was relaxed i laid on the bed with my computer on my lap. I made sure Cassie still had the water running before clicking video call.

I heard shouting from the other side of the camera and saw the familiar face come on the screen.

"Hey Kelsey" She smiled and waved at the camera

"How's the training?"

"Going well, Rebekah was having problems with aiming her fireball but she's doing well. Your parents are worried though"

"Why?"

"Cassie is supposed to start training December 15 and your parents' don't think she will be ready for battle"

"She'll be fine. She has a good teach" I said smirking to myself

"Don't get cocky over there Mr.Bieber" I laughed and heard the shower turn off

"Yea, bye" She hung up and i closed the computer waiting for Cassie to come out the bathroom. She walked out in a towel and smiled at me.

"Fuck, Cassie's done showering. I'll see you in a week or so"

"Everything alright?" I nodded my head and she kissed me before walking into the closet. I let out a breath and realized i was sweating out of nerves. I got up from the bed and told Cassie i was going to shower. She said alright and i walked into the bathroom with my clothes and towel. I turned the water on and stepped in. I started to think about what Kelsey said about Cassie. I mean she is kind of right about everyone training now and Cassie won't be training until a week or so before Christmas. If we even make it to Christmas... The battle is supposed to be on December 20th. Which doesn't give Cassie a lot of time to train. I knew what i had to do. I got out the shower, got dressed and walked out to see Cassie on the bed.

"We need to talk about something"

"Ok"

"How would you like to train for battle now?"

"As in today?"

"Well no, i mean like tomorrow. The battle is on December 20 and we leave to Valdora on December 15 which doesn't give you that much time to practice and understand your powers" She nodded and i smiled at her.

"Now, we need to get to school so come on" I took her hand as i shimmered out the house with her by my side. The only reason i ever took my car was because i needed her to see the town as 'normal' once i knew she was the girl and she started to uncover the truth i started to use my powers more often. We got to the school and i stood with her by the lockers. The doors opened and i turned to see the others.

"I should apologize to Travis" I heard Cassie mumbled from next to me. I squeezed her hand tight and they approached us.

Travis looked at Cassie and i saw him gulp.

"Good Morning Mistress" I looked at Cassie and she smiled at him before pulling him in for a hug. He seemed shocked at first but hugged her back.

"I'm sorry about yesterday, i am just getting used to having these shitty powers" He laughed and shook his head

"I understand" The bell rang and Travis took a hold of Cassie's hand. I looked at him and he laughed.

"We have the same class" I nodded and looked at her. She smiled at me before they shimmered out.

"Dick"

"I heard that" I laughed and went to first period. I sat with Lola in the back of the room. I noticed she had a red mark on her neck and it sure as hell wasn't a hickey. It looked like a person's hand print. I moved her hair to one side and she had wide eyes. As she went to put her hand around her neck i hit her hand and looked at it.

"Did he do this?" She looked down and i heard a sniffle

"Lola, talk to me" I was close to her out of everyone in the group minus Cassie of course. Lola was the first person that i actually opened up to about my child hood and stuff like that. We told each other everything. We trusted each other with our lives.

"Please don't tell Cassie" Was the first thing that came out her mouth.

"Lola, you know the rules"

"Justin please, i'm begging you. She will kill him please" Lola really did love Travis, he may put his hands on her and sometimes cheats but she really loves him.

"Ok, i won't tell her but you have to promise me that you will tell me if that happens again" She nodded and i took a hold of her chin, i pulled her head towards me and stared at her

"Promise me Lola"

"I Promise" She hugged me and as always we go in trouble from Mr.Beck I rolled my eyes at him and he started teaching again.

Soon enough it was lunch and i saw Lola covering her neck, Cassie was staring at her but every time she would try to glance at Lola's neck i'd kiss her or poke her. Lola owes me so much for this. I hate lying to Cassie, hell i hate not telling her anything that happens but Lola is like a sister to me and i'd protect her from anything. Even if it's my girlfriend's over protectiveness of a friend who is getting pushed around by her boyfriend. As long as she isn't really hurt i can't and won't get involved or unless i see him put his hands on her.

The Devil Chapter Twenty-One

~Cassie~

Broken

Justin walked out the room with his face red of anger. He wouldn't tell me what he was so mad about but i didn't dare ask. He is scary as fuck when he is mad. I waited for him to come back to the room not knowing if i should leave in case something was to happen. The door to the room opened and he looked at me. His eyes weren't that sexy brown that i liked they were black and cold as ice. I felt my heart racing and walked towards him. He stood at the door and i reached him. His face was straight and i was shaking in my own body. I reached my hand up to touch his cheek when my body went flying back and i hit the wall on the opposite side of the room. I looked up to see him putting his hand down. H-He pushed me. To say i was in shock is beyond the truth but i was also scared as shit. He's never touched me like that before.

"J-Justin?"

"You want to fight? Get up" I shook my head and felt my body being lifted off the ground. I felt tears running down my face and he showed no emotion. I felt a sting go across my face and held my cheek in my hand as tearing rushed out.

"Stop it" I whispered mostly to myself.

"Your nothing but a worthless shit. I only wanted you so i can get my throne. You really think i would fucking want you?" He said with hate in his voice. He's right, i am worthless. I did think he liked me. But as everyone say's 'No One Is Who They Seem To Be'. He pushed me harder against the wall making me hit my head and fall on my side. I hugged my legs waiting for this to be over. He stood over me and rammed his foot into my stomach.

"Look at you all broken and crying" And that was it, that was the time he broke me. That moment: Justin Bieber 'You Have Broke Me'

I felt someone shaking me and my eyes opened to see Justin smiling over me.

"Hey, about time you woke up" What did he just say? I stared at him and his face went from smiling to concern.

"Cass what's wrong?"

"I-it's was a dream?" He looked so worried and i felt myself being pulled into his chest. He rubbed my back as i cried.

"What happened?" I shook my head and he kissed the side on my head.

"I'm gonna shower" He looked at me concerned but i kissed him gently to show him i was alright.

"Ok" I got up from the bed and walked into the bathroom, i turned on the water for the shower and brushed my teeth before stepping in. The water hit me and i broken down in the shower. That dream felt so real as if it was going to happen. When i saw him as my eyes opened i felt as if my heart dropped to the floor. My blood ran cold and i felt my body shake as he looked at me with those captivating brown eyes. I got out the shower and the bathroom door opened. I screamed and saw Justin standing in the door frame.

"What's wrong?"

"N-nothing" He looked at me and nodded. He handed me my clothes that were on the bed and walked out. I let out a sigh of relief and got dressed.

I walked out the bathroom and saw him on the bed, what is this follow Cassie around day? he smiled at me and patted the spot next to him but i shook my head and sat on the floor. I heard ruffling and his face was in front of mine.

"What's going on? You never like this" I could tell i was hurting him but just being around him is scaring me at this point.

"Will you ever hurt me?" His eyes widened in shock. At least i hope it was in shock

"No, I'd never lay a hand on you"

"Promise me?"

"What's going on Cassie?"

"Promise me Justin"

"I Promise" A tear rolled down my cheek and he got off the bed and sat next to me.

"Cass? What's wrong?"

"I just don't want to get hurt"

"I'd never hurt you Cass"

"You don't understand" I mumbled

"What don't i understand? Cass your not making any sense" I turned to him and tears were flowing down my face.

"You broke me" I said and got up from where i was sitting.

"What do you mean?"

"Before i met you everything was normal. My sister's were here and i wasn't involved in this fucked up battle shit"

"Cassie what are you talking about?"

"I don't want this Justin"

"Don't want what?"

"This, Power, Fighting. I just want to be normal"

"Cassie you can be, all we have to do is get rid of them and you will be as normal as you want back in Valdora"

"No you don't get it. I want to be normal, without you" He opened his mouth to say something but closed it after a second. He got up from the floor and walked out the room. I never wanted this life. I wanted to live as normal as i could and i can't do that with him. But this is my new life and i have to accept that but it's hard without my sister's being here. I walked out the room and downstairs to see him sitting on the couch.

"I didn't mean to upset you"

"I never asked for this either. I never asked to be born to fight this battle. I never asked to be the Devil. I never asked for any of this. I wanted to be able to go to college, get a real job"

"I'm sorry"

"I need you to be honest with me Cassie"

"Ok"

"If you had the choice to leave would you?" I looked at him and then at the ground.

I hadn't said anything for a while. I finally looked at him and he was staring at me with fear in his eyes.

"No, i don't think i'd leave" He smiled at me and kissed me gently. His left hand on my cheek and the other on my waist. He pulled away and smiled at me.

"Good" He whispered against my lips and pressed them against mine again.

Visions

It's been a few days since i had that dream about Justin. Things are doing fine i guess you can say. Justin has been coming and going from Valdora while i've been at his house bored out my mind. Today he was going to help me train using my powers. I'm scared but another part of me is completely excited. Justin walked into the room smiling at me and i got off the bed.

"Ready?"

"As i'll ever be" He took a hold of my hand and i closed my eyes as we shimmered to my target class. Once i opened my eyes i saw a beautiful meadow surrounding us. I looked at Justin and he made a hand motion clearing a path of dirt from where we stood to the end of the meadow.

"Get ready" I nodded and once he shimmered out people in black robes with red eyes appeared. I took a breath just like he told me and raised my left hand as one ran towards me. I closed my eyes but felt myself being pushed to the ground.

"Ouch" I mumbled

"Cass, you need to focus" Travis said in the black robe suit. I nodded and he went back to position. Lola ran at me and i went to stop her by levitating and kicking her but landed on my back again. She helped me off the ground and Brandon was next. Once again i landed on my ass. Yasmine was next and her power was temptation. I tried using my mind power to block everything out but nothing worked. I still saw images of my weaknesses.

"I can't do it" Justin appeared next to me and looked at me.

"You just need to relax your mind. Try not to think of what move to make and just let it flow through you. Breath, close your eyes and let it out"

"I'll try"

"One more time" I took a breath, closed my eyes and felt the ground move underneath my feet. My eyes shot open and i saw Travis running at me. I lifted my hand as fire shot out making him fall to the ground. Next was Lola with her kick boxing. I jumped off the ground and kicked her making her fall. Brandon had the power of body control. I closed my mind to him and flipped him on the ground. Lastly was Yasmine. She showed me a image of Justin making a small amount of Lust rush into me but i closed my eyes and opened them to show her her weakness.

After a few hours of training i got a little better than when i first started. Justin appeared next to me with a smile on his face which made me happy. I felt a pair of eyes on me and turned to see a guy in white staring at me with a sad expression on his face.

"I'll be right back"

"Where are you going?"

"I thought i saw something, i'll be back" He nodded and i walked away from them and made my way to the person that hiding. I saw a little boy standing there with a sad look on his face.

"Are you lost?"

"Your crazy for helping him" I looked at him with a confused look on my face

"What?"

"You have no idea what will change if he wins this battle"

"What do you mean? Who are you?"

"My name is Potter. I'm a Angel in training" I gulped. I'm not supposed to talk to these people

"Oh, i uh gotta go" I said getting up to my size.

"Wait, c-can i show you something?" I looked to see Justin looking at me with a weird look on his face and than i looked back at the boy

"Make it quick"

"Give me your hands" I gave him my hands and he closed his eyes. I closed mine and what i saw scared the shit out of me.

Everything was black, no sunlight, no life, everything was ugly. I saw people in all black no smile on there face. Everything was scary. Than the image changed, i saw Justin sitting on a throne with my standing next to him as he held my hand. My hair was black, i had a black dress and Justin had all black on, his hair was spiked up as usual but he had black eyes. A girl was at our feet crying and we showed no emotion. Justin lifted his hand and she was dead a second later. I felt his hands let go of mine and i looked down to him.

"This is what happens if he wins. Do you want this to happen?" I shook my head

"Than tell him your not fighting, don't let him win Cassie. It will destroy everything"

"CASSIE ARE YOU COMING?" I heard Justin shout. I nodded at him and looked at the boy

"Bye" He nodded at me and i walked to Justin.

"What were you looking at?"

"Death" He looked at me with a weird look and i shrugged.

"Uh ok? Were gonna get food" I nodded and he took a hold of my hand.

We walked to the small diner that was near us and walked inside. As we walked inside everything stopped moving. We walked to a table and i kept hearing things that people were saying.

"That's Cassie, Devil's mistress"

"There the ones that will kill with no second thought" We sat down and i looked at Justin.

"Are you ok?"

"Can i ask you something?"

"Sure"

"If we win the fight, what will change?"

"Everything, we'll be in control of the world. All the angels will be dead"

"Can i show you something?"

"What is it?"

"Give me your hands" He gave me his hands and i closed my eyes. I let him see what Potter showed me and once the vision was done i opened my eyes to see him looking at me.

"What the fuck is that?"

"That's what the world will be if you win"

"Cassie no it won't. Who told you that?" he said laughing

"Remember how i said i saw something"

"Yea"

"It was a boy, he was in white and showed that to me"

"You spoke to an angel?"

"Justin i had questions on a lot and he showed me that"

"Do you want to see what will become of the world? The truth of it"

"Sure" He held my head in his hands and took a breath.

I saw myself with Justin and my sister's. We were sitting in front of a nice view of people living life. I looked around and saw Justin playing with a little girl as she laughed. He turned his head to where i was and smiled at me. I felt something touch my hand and turned to see Kelsey smiling at me.

"She's beautiful isn't she"

"Is she yours?" She looked at me and shook her head

"She's yours" Justin picked up the little girl and handed her to me. I looked down and saw her blink making a bottle of milk appear in her mouth. She's mine?

"Her name's Penelope Marie Bieber" I heard Rebekah say as she walked next to me. I blinked and saw Justin taking his hands off my head.

"That's what will happen if we win"

"It's beautiful"

"Angel's aren't the good guys Cass, we are. They want to make everything harder for us. That's why i didn't want you to listen to them"

"Ok"

That was it, after i saw that i knew we had to win this battle. Not for me, not for Justin's throne but for Penelope. If i wanted her i'd had to win this battle. Everything changes now. I'm doing this for her.

Valdora Demons

Location: Valdora, Bieber Castle

Everyone was sitting at the long length table getting ready for dinner. Lord Bieber and his Mistress were at the head of the table along with Jazmyn and Jaxon Bieber. Next to them was Rebekah and Kelsey. Only two people know that the Weston girls are related to Cassie. Jazmyn looked at Rebekah with a glare as Calvin looked at Rebekah with hunger in his eyes. Questioning what was going on with the two she decided to read Rebekah's thoughts along with Calvin's. Hoping nothing was to suspect she looked at Kelsey that had a annoyed look on her face as Rebekah smiled goofy.

"Kelsey? May i speak with you please?" Kelsey turned her head to Jazmyn

"Yes Princess" Jazmyn and Kelsey got up from the table. They walked through the grand doors out the dining room.

"Yes?"

"Is something going on with Rebekah and Calvin?" Jazmyn could sense that Kelsey was nervous. Knowing she was onto something she decided to continue.

"Are you going to answer me?"

"I uh Becky" Kelsey took a breath knowing she had no choice but to tell Jazmyn the truth as her duty of a protector.

"Calvin and Rebekah have been sleeping with each other for a few weeks" Jazmyn felt as if her blood had ran cold. Her eyes became darker as her face became red in anger.

"Thank you"

"Please don't hurt her" She said as Jazmyn walked away. Jazmyn turned around and was about to say something when she had a image appear in front of her. She blinked and saw Kelsey with a confused look on her face.

"Go get my brother and parents"

"What's going on?"

"Just do it" She ran to tell the guards to keep all doors locked and to stay with there weapons ready.

Kelsey ran inside the dining room and across to the end of the table.

"Lord Bieber, Mistress something's happening. Jazmyn went to warn the guards" They got up along with Jaxon and followed Kelsey out closing the doors behind them. Once the doors closed Jazmyn appeared in front of them.

"Jazmyn what's going on?" Lord Bieber asked her as she had a scared and worried face on. She was breathing heavy as she prepared herself about what was about to come.

"It's the demon's. They've escaped. There coming" Lord Bieber's face became full of worry and panic.

"Get everyone to there rooms, lock all the doors and don't come out until there gone" No one moved.

"GO" Lord Bieber shouted scaring everyone to warn the others. Kelseys ran into the dining room telling everyone to get to there rooms and stay are guard. Jazmyn ran up to the north tower, and grabbed onto the phone that was by her bed. Dialing a number quickly she antisipated for the person to answer.

"Hello?"

"We need help" She said fast and straight to the point

"Why? What's happening"

"Just get to Valdora QUICK" A loud scream was heard on the other side of the phone making the connection lost.

Location: Brookfield, Conniticut.

~Justin~

I sat on the couch with Cassie watching some movie that she had been waiting for. One thing that didn't change during the transformation is her love for Christmas. She decorated the whole fucking house with lights and shit. Put a Christmas tree with Lola and Yasmine. I swear my house looks like the fucking north pole itself.

"Fa la la la" Cassie sang along with the words as the people sang there Christmas carols or what ever it was. Me? I don't celebrate anything, but if Cassie wants to celebrate Christmas than i guess i'll do it for her. We watched the movie peacefully until the phone rang. I looked at her with a confused look on my face and picked it up off the coffee table.

"Hello?" I asked playing with Cassie's hair as her head was on my lap.

"We need help" I heard Jazmyn shout in panic. I pushed Cassie off me and shot myself up from the laying down position

"Why? What's happening?"

"Just get to Valdora QUICK" I heard a loud shatter and scream and the line went dead. I looked at Cassie who looked confused and called the others. I told them to get to the house fast, i didn't care if they had to shimmer inside they needed to hurry up. Not even 14 seconds later they were all here.

"What's going on?"

"Something's happening in Valdora" There eyes widened in fear and i looked at Cassie.

"I need you to stay here with Brandon and Yasmine"

"No i'm coming with you"

"Cassie i'm serious"

"Justin i can help. I can use my powers"

"I said no. I want you to stay here and do not leave this house am i understood?"

"Yes" She mumbled quietly with a nod. I looked up at Travis and Lola

"Let's go" I put on my jacket and pulled my hood over my head.

I shimmered out the house and before my eyes i saw my home. Welcome to Valdora. I looked around and saw everything was destoryed. At first i thought it were the Angels. We walked further to the front gate and i saw a giant swallowing a guard. I walked up to the giant and stood in front of him. He turned his head and laughed loudly.

"They sent a small boy to handle us? How cute"

"I order you to leave" He crossed his arms and looked down at me

"And who are you?"

"Justin Drew Bieber, Prince of Valdora" His eyes widened as he looked at me.

"Sir, i had no idea that you were here"

"Who has sent you to destory my home?" Ignoring his last comment

"Carter sir, Carter leader of the angels had sent us. We wanted no harm but we had no choice"

"LEAVE.....NOW"

"Yes sir" He said with fear in his eyes. One thing you should know about me is that even though that guy could have ate me i'm still the most feared in any place i go to.

Devil is not to be messed with. Especially if it causes harm to his family.

She's Back

Justin had finally come back from Valdora, once he shimmered in he grabbed me by my waist and i smiled at him. He rested his forehead against mine and i felt his breath hit my face. He moved his head down to my lips and grabbed me by the back of my neck pulling me closer as his lips were placed on mine. It started off nice and sweet everything was perfect. He bit my bottom lips and pulled at it as his tounge slid into my mouth and moved mine. I felt myself being lifted off the ground and was placed on the counter. He spread open my legs and stepped between them still moving his tounge against mine. I reached up with my hands and tugged on his hair. He pulled away from the kiss and i felt my breath trying to go back to normal as he kissed my neck. I leaned my head back on the cabinet and tighten my grip on his hair. A moan escaped my lips as he started to suck and bit where he kissed. He moved his hand from my neck down my arm rested it on my thigh. I wrapped my legs around his waist pulling him closer.

"Justin?" I whispered to him making him stop his actions.

"Yea?" He said looking into my eyes.

"Your hands are cold as fuck" He laughed and moved his hand up higher.

"Don't"

"I have no idea what your talking about Cass" He said moving it higher. I heard the door open and close.

"About fucking time your done. I'm surprised you haven't ripped her clothes off yet" I looked up to see Travis with the others holding in the laugh.

"What?"

"We shimmered in to see you to almost having sex in the kitchen. Honestly Cass, i would've expected you to be the bedroom type of girl but if the counter works for you than that's fine too" He said with a laugh. I held my hand out and had a fire ball in my hand. His eyes widened and he stopped laughing.

"Put it out Cassie" Justin said closing my hand.

"B-but"

"I'll deal with him later, but don't go setting people on fire in the house. Take him outside for that" I nodded and he kissed my cheek.

We walked to the living room and i sat on Justin's lap. We were all relaxing for the day. It's getting closer to the battle time but i'm not worried about that. I know that we will win because i need to save Penelope.

I need to have her in my future i just have to. But i'm also happy because it's getting close to Christmas and it's always been my favorite holiday. Lola and Yasmine are the same as me, we love Christmas. I laid my head on Justin's chest when the doorbell rang. I picked my head up and got off his lap to answer the door. I opened the front door and almost choked on my own spit. What the fuck is she doing here? She pushed me out the way and stood in front of him with a smile on her face. Everyone seemed to be in shock and she sat down next to him. He turned his head to me with a confused look on his face but i was too angry to even look at him.

"What are you doing here Melissa?"

"I came to see Justin" She said as if it's the most obvious thing in the world

"Why?"

"He's my boyfriend" I looked at her as if she was dumb and Justin got up from the couch. He walked over to me and placed his hands on both sides of my head.

"I need you to breath, i can still hear your thoughts and your giving me a headache" I sighed

"I'm sorry, it's just--"

"I know, i'll tell her to leave ok" I nodded and looked down. He picked up my head and smiled at me.

"Hey, don't go all sad on me. I like when you smile" He said and pecked my lips before turning around.

"Melissa i think you should leave" She turned her head to him and had a sad face on

"What? Why?"

"Because not to long ago i told you that we weren't in a relationship and that i was with Cassie now"

"Well, she's going to die anyway so i guess i would come back as of now"

"What do you mean i'm going to die?" I said to her. She smirked and got up from where she sat. She walked closer to me and stood in front of me.

"It means exactly this" I felt myself being pushed and she opened her bag. I stared at her with a annoyed expression as she looked for something.

"I know it's in here somewhere, just one second" She said turned around to get it out of her bag. I looked at Justin and he stared at me.

Can i kill her now? I thought making him laugh but nod.

"Got it, now where was I?"

"No more like where was I" I said picking up my hand making her knife fly out her hand.

"That was mine"

"Oops I don't care" I held a fire ball in my hand and threw it at her. Her screams were heard as her body started to become nothing but ash. I sat on the couch and looked at the Tv.

"Well, who wants to watch a Christmas movie?" Lola asked clapping her hands.

"Hell yeah" Yasmine and I said making everyone laugh. Justin waved his hand over Melissa's body making it disappear. He sat next to me and kissed me.

"You did good"

"Think so?"

"Yeah" I moved so i was sitting on his lap facing him.

"Maybe good enough to celebrate tomorrow night?" His eyes lit with excitement and nodded. He grabbed my face in his hands pressed his lips hard against mine.

"Your not going to be innocent Cassie after tomorrow. I'm so happy" I laughed and turned around so i could watch the movie. I laid my head back on Justin's chest and felt his play with my hair. I looked up at him and he smiled at me. I want to tell him i love him but i don't know how he will react to it. He's been so stressed lately that i'm scared to tell him. Don't get me wrong i mean i want to tell him but i don't want to be a distraction to him.

"Cass? You alright?" I snapped out of my thoughts to see Justin's eyes with concern

"Yeah i'm good" He nodded and i went back to watching the movie.

The Devil Chapter Twenty-Five

~Cassie~

Giving Him Everything

I woke up this morning to see Justin's eyes closed and his arm wrapped around my waist holding me close to him. I smiled to myself because of what he said last night. I moved his hand off me and walked into the bathroom to shower and brush my teeth. I turned on the shower and let it run as i turned on my Ipod loud in the bathroom and started to brush my teeth. I hit the playlist that said Christmas and let the song take over. I whipped my face and undressed as i sang to myself and stepped in the shower. I showered and turned off the water, grabbed the towel that was on the shower door and wrapped it around myself. I opened the door and stepped onto the rug that was on the floor. Dancing and singing to myself i got dressed. Once i was done i dried my hair and curled it.

I walked out the bathroom to see Justin looking at me with a smile. I was in a good mood today and nothing was going to ruin that. Justin told the guys not to come to the house or call us because he wanted time with me and only me. He said that he was leaving Travis in charge for today but if something happened than to call us but not to show up at the door or shimmer into the house. I jumped on the bed landing on him and he laughed.

"Why do you smell like peppermint?" I asked him

"Maybe because i took a shower in the other bathroom"

"Oh forgot about that one" He laughed and flipped me over so he was hovering over me.

"Well Ms.Happy"

"Hi"

"What do you want to do today?"

"Movie first" He leaned down and kissed me quickly before getting up.

"Where are you going?"

"I have movies in the closet" I nodded and he came out with a box. He put the box on the bed and i opened it to see all of my favorite movies.

I picked up the movie How The Grinch Stole Christmas and handed it to him. He nodded, put the box on the floor and put the movie in. He clicked on the intercom and told Priscilla to bring some stuff up. He turned off the lamp that was on and i laid my head on his chest as we watched the movie. The door opened and she walked in with a tray. She smiled at us and put the tray on the nightstand and walked out. I turned my head to Justin and he looked down at me.

"What?" I wanted to blurt out that i loved him but i couldn't so i just shook my head.

"Cass?"

"It's nothing, uh can you hand me my soda?" He reached over and grabbed my Sprite that was brought up. I held it in my hand and smiled when he started to rub my arm. I moved closer to him and snuggled into him making him hold me tighter.

It was almost 5:30 and Justin said that i had to change because he was taking me somewhere. Of course me being the curious person i am had to ask but as i predicted he said it was a surprise. Cassie :Devil: - Polyvore I walked downstairs to see him waiting for me with a smile on his face.

"Ready?" I nodded and he took my hand, we walked out to his car and he opened the door for me. I liked that he can be romantic with me. It shows that he does care for me and gives me a little hope that he will love me back. He started the car and started to drive down the street. I let out a sigh and he turned his head to me with a smile on his face.

"What?"

"I'm just happy today"

"Well i'm happy that your happy" He said taking a hold of my hand as he drove with the other one. We drove for a few minutes until we got to what looked like a restaurant. He got out and walked around to open my door. I got out and took a hold of his hand as we walked inside. I was beautiful inside.

"Justin this is amazing" He looked at me with a smile

"Were not eating here" I looked at him confused

"Wait, than why did you--" He cut me off by taking through the place. He opened a door in the back and led me inside.

"Were eating here" He said turning on the lights. My eyes widened at the site of it all. I turned around to see him smiling at me.

"This is the best thing anyone has ever done for me" He took my hand and we walked through the open doors and outside to the back.

He let go of my hand and pulled out my chair. I smiled at him and sat down as he pushed my chair in. He sat across from me and took a hold of my hand. He rubbed his thumb on my knuckles and smiled at me.

"You look beautiful"

"Thank you" The waiter came and gave us our food. Justin knew what i liked to eat so i didn't even have to order when we got here. I looked at him and smiled at him.

"What?"

"This is really nice of you to do"

"I'd do anything for you Cass"

"Justin there's something i need to tell you"

"What is it?" I went to open my mouth when the waiter came back with my drink. I sighed and he left

"You were saying?"

"Forget it, it's not important" He nodded and we ate. Once we were done Justin paid and got up from his chair.

"Come on, there's one more thing i wanna show you until we get home" I took his hand and got up. We walked out the front and he opened my door. I got in the car and he started to drive again. I leaned my head on the seat and looked out the window.

"You look like your at peace"

"I just love spending time with you, Just us"

"I do to" The car came to a stop and i looked out the window

"Where are we?"

"I want you to see someone" I nodded and he got out the car, he walked to my side and opened the door for me. I got out and he wrapped his arm around my waist as we walked. He led me to a rock that was on the beach and i saw the back of a person.

"Go" He whispered in my ear. I started walking towards them until i tapped them on the shoulder. They turned and my eyes widened.

"Holy shit" I jumped on them and gave them a hug only making them laugh

"W-what are you doing here?"

"Justin wanted me to see you. I heard your doing great with training"

"Yea, he said that i'm learning at a fast pace. Where's Becky?" She didn't say anything but looked away

"Kelsey? Where's Becky?"

"She uh she's dead" I stared at her with tears in my eyes and she hugged me

"Why? How? Where?"

"She was sleeping with Cavlin, Jazmyn found out and killed her and Calvin because of it"

"She was only 15"

"I know but hey, at least you have me" I smiled and nodded

"True" She looked behind me and waved.

"You should get back to him. I love you Cass"

"Love you too" I kissed her cheek and walked back to Justin.

"Ready to go?" I nodded

We got to the house and walked to our room. I walked into the bathroom and took off my make up and changed into my pajamas. I walked out the bathroom to see Justin on the bed. I smiled at him and climbed on the bed. Tonight was it, Cassandra "Cassie" Joy Weston was losing her virginity to the guy she loved.

"Are you sure about this?" He asked making me turn my head to him.

"I've never been more sure about anything" He nodded and pressed his lips against mine.

He hovered over me as i felt his tounge slide against my lips. He knew i wanted this to be slow because it was my first time. Letting his tounge run against mine i felt shivers running down my body. His hands started to slowly pull up my shirt and he pulled away from the kiss. I leaned up a bit letting him take off my shirt but covered myself with my hands once it was off. I shook his head and kissed my forehead. He pulled my hands away and tangled our fingers together. He started at me waiting for my cue as if to say ok and i closed my eyes letting out a breath. I nodded leaned up, his cold hands reached behind me and unclasped my bra but didn't take it off. I opened my eyes to see him staring at me.

"Are you sure about this?" I nodded and he pulled it off. I felt myself relax a bit and reached for his shirt. I grabbed the hem of it but didn't pull it over his head.

"Cass, it's ok" I pulled his shirt over his head and put it on the floor with mine.

He laid me flat on the bed and moved down slowly not taking his eyes away from mine. He placed his hands on my pajama pants and I nodded to say ok. He slowly pulled them down and my face flushed. He placed his hand on my stomach and I opened my eyes to see him smiling at me.

"Your fine Cass, just breath" I nodded and he pulled off my panties. Letting out a sigh I looked at him to see he wasn't looking at my body but at my eyes. He didn't want to make me feel uncomfortable and I liked that. I sat up not taking out from our eye contact and reached forward to his jeans. I unbuckled his belt and his jeans.

"Were in no rush, take your time. I want you to be relax the whole time" He said to me and I nodded. I took a breath and pulled off his jeans.

"C-can you take off your boxers yourself?" I asked scared to see what was always hiding. He nodded and I laid on the bed closing my eyes. The bed shifted and I felt movement.

"Open your eyes" I opened them slowly and saw him hovering over me.

"I'm not going to hurt you Cass, I will try to go as slow as possible but you can't be tense" I nodded and he kissed my forehead.

"Ready?"

"Yes" I let out a breath as I felt something almost break me in half. My eyes widened as the pain grew.

"Justin stop" I let tears fall from my eyes and he whipped them away.

"Are you alright?"

"I-it hurts"

"I know, but I need you to not think about the pain. I need you to look straight in my eyes and focus on them ok"

"I-I'll try"

"Ready?" I nodded and wrapped my arms around his neck. I looked straight into his eyes like he said and felt a tear.

"How you doing?"

"Better" He nodded and I felt his hips rock against mine. The whole time he made eye contact with me the pain wasn't as bad as i thought. I let go of his neck and relaxed as i let myself go.

"You ok?" I nodded and he slowly picked up his pace. I bit my lip as everything started to feel better as we went and before i knew it i felt my body shake. Scared i opened my eyes and saw Justin smile

"Just go with it, you'll be fine" I shut my eyes and felt my body relax and i grabbed the sheets on the bed. I sighed loudly and he smiled at me. A few minutes later i felt him grow and i got scared.

"Relax, take a breath" I could tell that he knew it hurt me and i felt something rush in me. He rolled over and pulled me with him making me hover on me. I felt him pull out and my breathing was still heavy. He looked at me and i smiled at him.

"Thank you"

"Are you ok?"

"I've never been better" I looked at my side of the bed and saw a little blood he picked me up.

"Relax, it's fine that's normal" He turned on the shower and gave me a towel.

"Shower and i'll go get you another pair of pajamas" I nodded and felt myself relax.

Smiling to myself i knew that i'd have to tell Justin at some point. I Cassandra "Cassie" Joy Weston am in love with Justin Drew "Devil" Bieber.

Welcome Home Cassie

I got up this morning smiling as the sun came in through the windows. I felt something on my waist and turned to see Justin's arm was around me. I sighed out of happiness and moved closer to him. His body was cold as ice but with my heat it became the perfect tempteture. I felt his hand rub my stomach and i turned to see him smiling at me.

"Morning" He said into my hair.

"Thank you" He looked down at me and kissed my forehead.

"Come on" I groaned and pulled him back

"Can't we stay like this for the day"

"I'd like that but sadly i have something to do with the boys today"

"What?"

"That is a surprise you'll find out later" I rolled my eyes and felt him poke my nose. I smiled at him and kissed his chest.

"Now lets go" We got up and i leaned down picking up his shirt from last night and putting it over my body.

"Cute "

"Thank you"

We took a shower, brushed our teeth and walked downstairs to the living room. I laid on the couch and he sat by my feet. I put my feet on his lap and he took off my slippers. I felt him massage my feet and i smiled. He always knows how to relax me. I still think i should tell him but i don't think this is the right time.

I sat on the couch waiting for Justin to get back from being with the guys. I laid myself on the couch watching Tv eating chocolate when the door busted open making me jump around to see a scary looking Justin. He had a huge ass smile on his face and i've never seen him like that.

"Are you high?"

"What? No, get packed. Everything you own i want you to pack it up"

"Your kicking me out?"

"No just do it come on" He said running up the stairs. I got up from the couch and walked into our room to see him shoving clothes into a suitcase.

"Where are we going?"

"Somewhere now hurry up. We have everything there just pack all your clothes"

"Ok?" I walked into the closet and got my bags. I started putting my stuff away until Justin just shoved everything inside and zipped it up.

"HEY"

"Hurry up Cass, i want to show you something"

"Justin it looks like your gonna shit your pants relax" He laughed and grabbed my hand.

"Justin don't you dare" He closed his eyes and next thing i knew he was shimmering out of the house. Fucking idiot.

I opened my eyes to see myself in front of a unknown house. I looked at Justin and he smiled.

"Come on" He took my hand and we walked inside. He turned on the light and my mouth dropped.

"Holy, it's amazing in here"

"Do you like it?"

"I love it" He wrapped his arms around my waist and a key was shown in my face.

"Good, because it's ours" I snapped around to him and he nodded

"Is that why you look like this?"

"Yeah, you said that you'd love a house like this so i figured why not" I smiled at him and hugged him

"Thank you"

"I have one more surprise for you"

"What is it? A pony?"

"Um no" He took my hand and walked me upstairs to a purple door. I looked at him confused but he ignored it and turned the knob.

"Go inside"

"Is this another one of those rooms that i have to find out about"

"No, this one you'll like" I turned on the light and looked around.

"Wow" He walked inside and put his arm on my waist.

"And this will be Penelope's room" I smiled and looked at the crib that was inside.

"It's perfect, did you do this yourself?"

"I had a little bit of help" I laughed and he put his hands on my waist.

"Welcome Home Cassie"

"It's good to be home" He leaned down and placed his lips on mine. I smiled into the kiss and ran my fingers through his hair.

He took my hand and we walked out the room, he opened a door to another room and walked inside. He turned on the light and i smiled as i looked around.

"This is our room" I smiled at him and laid on the bed.

"Cass there's something i need to tell you"

"What is it?" He opened his mouth but smiled as my face became interested.

"Nevermind, i'll tell you in a few days"

"Why a few days?"

"Because tomorrow is the day that everything will change" I sighed and nodded

"Do you think we'll win?"

"I think the only way we'll lose is if something happens to you. I don't think i'd be able to do anything with out you Cass. Your everything i ever wanted and more. Your not just my mate but my best friend" I smiled at him and kissed him softly. There was a knock on the door and Justin told them to enter. His father walked in with a light smile on his face and nodded once at me.

"Hello Cassandra"

"Hello Lord Bieber, nice to see you again"

"As well. I've come to ask you both a question"

"Sure"

"After the war, if you and the other's win would you like a classic wedding or something small" My eyes widened and i looked at Justin

"Wedding?"

"Didn't i mention that?"

"No"

"Well uh"

"It is known for the mistresses to marry there Devil Cassie, it's the only way that you'll be bound and tied"

"It's the only way to Penelope isn't it?"

"Yes, without the blessing of the Devil's when she is born she will be put to death"

"Ok, but i don't want a small wedding. I would like all your family there please"

"As you wish, now Justin do you know the rules?"

"Yes father"

"I will see you both tomorrow morning than, good night Cassie. Justin"

"Goodnight Lord Bieber thank you for coming" He shimmered out and i looked at Justin

"What rules?"

"For us to wed... A person needs to die"

"Who?" He looked down and i stared at him

"Who?!"

"Cassie, i didn't mean for this to happen"

"FOR THE LOVE OF ALL THAT YOU WHO IS IT?!"

"It's Kelsey" My mouth dropped opened and i stared at him.

"W-what?"

"I'm so sorry"

"B-but, Justin"

"I know"

"She's all i have left"

"I never meant for this to happen. But Rebekah created a mischarge and now Kelsey has to pay for it"

"But why?"

"Because the proficy says that the youngest sister of the Devil shall be sacrificed. Rebekah is already dead and now Kelsey takes her turn"

"No"

"Cassie"

"She won't die Justin. I won't let that happen"

"It's not your call"

"Listen to me carefully. My sister is not dying because i'm meant to be your damn wife. You will fix this damn thing and fix it now"

"Ok, i'll talk to my father after tomorrow"

"She can't Justin, she just can't"

"I'll gonna try to fix this Cass, trust me"

"Ok"

Valdora War Part One

Location: Bieber Castle

Today was the day, this morning everyone was meeting at Valdora to set the world how they want it to be. Angels Vs. Devils. The fight everyone has been training and waiting for is finally here. I sat on the bed while Justin was in his office getting a few things. Were fighting on Valdora's center. Not to far from the castle but close enough to see what is happening if you see from a window. Justin walked in the room as i zipped up my boot. He had something in his hand and stepped in front of me.

"What is this?"

"If something happens to me i want you to take this and keep your self safe" He took my hand and placed something inside. I looked at it to see a necklace that said love on it. I looked back at him and he bented down to me.

"You will always keep me motivated, your the person that keeps me happy, you Cassanadra Cassie Joy Weston are the love of my life. No matter what happens today i want you to stay safe" He placed his hand on my stomach and looked at me

"You keep her safe, please" I was in shock at the words he spoke

"J-justin" I felt a tear roll down my cheek.

"I love you Cassie, forever and always i love you" He said taking my face in both of his hands.

"I love you too Justin. I love you too" He pulled my face closer to his and placed his lips on mine. It wasn't forced or intease it was the kind of kiss that means if i don't come home tonight i want you to know that i'll always love you.

We pulled away from the kiss and he looked straight into my eyes.

"Are you ready?"

"Yes, let's go safe our daughter" I said to him making him smile

"Our daughter. She will have one hell of a life" I took a hold of his hand and closed my eyes. I felt my body floating and knew that we were transporting to Valdora. I've never been to Valdora but apparently it's amazingly huge. I opened my eyes and saw bright grass infront of me. It was bright outside, almost as if it was summer. The air smelled like fresh rainfall and the site was beautiful. I looked straight ahead and saw the home to Justin. It was huge and beautiful. I took a hold of Justin's hand making him turn his head.

"Ready?"

"Let's do this" We walked to the door and he opened it as we stepped inside.

"MOTHER?! FATHER?!" I heard footsteps and turned to see Mistress Mallette

"Hello Cassie"

"Hello again Mistress"

"Are you ready for today?"

"Ready as i'll ever be" She nodded and we stood in the hall as everyone came. Lola and Travis shimmered in along with Yasmine and Brandon. Jazmyn came in with Jaxon and there father. Kelsey came in with Jarid and i smiled at her.

"Is everyone ready?" We nodded and walked out the door. Justin held my hand tight as we walked to the holy ground. After a while i knew why he told me to wear boots. The ground was covered in snow, whiteness everywhere covering the surfaces.

We stood at the ground staring into the distance as we waiting for them to show up. I saw a group of people walking towards us making me swallow heavy. I looked at Justin and he nodded at me as if to see this was it.

"It will be fine" I blinked and saw them staring at us.

"Welcome Bieber's"

"We've been waiting for this day Carter"

"So have we" Justin made a hand signal and next thing i knew all the shadows came to us. I could see Carter getting nervous, he gulped and stood there doing nothing. No one made a sound, no one made a move.

"NOW" Carter shouted signaling all his angels to try to gain what belonged to us. We were stronger, we all knew it even Carter. We didn't fight back at first, Justin said it's only far to show them that they could win. I placed my hand over my stomach and Carter's eyes widened.

"STOP" Everything stopped moving.

"It seems we have a carrier" Justin gripped my hand tighter and i looked at him. He started to walk towards me until he was in front of me with a smirk on his face.

"May i touch?" I looked at Justin and he nodded. I moved my hand and he placed his hand on my stomach. His eyes widened and i smirked

"You planned this" I let go of Justin's hand and placed my hand on Carter's chest and head. His screams were heard throughout the holy ground. His face started to burn and his skin was peeling off. I let go of him and he laid on the ground.

"Y-you have-"

"Power? Fuck yeah i do" I lifted my hand and a fireball appeared.

"Wanna see it?" His eyes screamed scared but i didn't give a shit. I threw the fireball at him making his body catch fire and burn into the snow. He became ash before our eyes. Screams and shouting was heard from the angels as they were weeping the death of there leader.

I could feel my heart rate increasing as my angry built inside me. I felt a rush of heat burst through me as the angel ran towards us. I lifted my hand as fire shot out killing most of them. The others were already fighting them but Justin stood next to me knowing that if he let go i'd be weak enough to die. My heart started beating faster and i knew he felt it.

"Cassie that's enough"

"No"

"Cassie, your killing yourself"

"Shut up" I told him as i felt myself getting weaker. Justin let go of my hand and i felt as if my body had shut down. I saw an angel appear infront of me but lucky a shadow appeared but i felt to weak to do anything else. I found it hard to breath, it was like my throat was closing. And the next thing i know i heard my name being screamed and my body hitting something cold.

"CASSIE" Once again. After that everything became fuzzy and blurry. The person talking seemed like they were miles away and i couldn't hear them again. I felt my eyes closing to the point where all i saw was black.

Baby Penelope & Valdora War Part Two

I knew that having Cassie fight would be a risk. I should've known better than to tell her that it was ok for her to even be apart of this. She still doesn't know but she's already pregnant. Kelsey and Lola have the gift of sight and they told me before we started fighting that she was already having the baby. I was happy but i should've told Cassie not fight. She wouldn't be laying in the damn hospital bed if i had just told her.

I sat outside of the room as the doctors tested her even nothing is wrong with her. It was just because she used the powers too much but my mom being well my mom brought her here because she thought it would be best. The door opened and i got up from the chair to see the doctor smiling at me.

"Was i right?"

"Yes, there's something there alright" I smiled

"Can i see her? does she know?"

"Sure and no i figured you'd want to tell her"

"Thank you" he nodded and i closed the door as i walked inside. She turned her head to me and smiled.

"Hey, how are you feeling?"

"Good" She waved me over to her and i sat in the chair

"Did we win?" I laughed

"Your in a hospital and your wondering if we won a stupid war?"

"It's important" I took a hold of her hand and smiled.

"Yes, yes we won" She smiled and looked at her stomach

"Does that mean?" I nodded

"She's in there" She smiled as a tear rolled down her cheek.

The door opened making us turn our heads to see the doctor.

"Can she come home?"

"Yea she's free"

"Thank you" he nodded at her and gave me a paper

"It's just a schedule for her. She has to be careful during this stage"

"Ok" He walked out and she got up from the bed. I shimmered out with her and we appeared at the castle.

"Come on, everyone's waiting" I took her inside and we walked into the living room. My family was waiting because i told them that we had news for them. Once we walked in everyone smiled at us.

"What did you need to say?" my mom asked as soon as we sat down. I looked at Cassie and placed my hand on her stomach. Jazmyn was the first to get it.

"REALLY?!" We nodded and she ran at Cassie. She hugged her making us laugh and she hugged me.

"Wait, i'm lost" My parents said

"SHE'S HAVING A BABY" Jaz said in a happy voice. My mom's face broke out into a smile and she hugged Cassie than me. Jaxon said congratulations but i wanted to know what my dad was going to say.

"Dad?"

"You knew the rules Justin" I nodded and looked down

"But" I snapped my head up to him

"Because your my son, i'll give you my blessing" I smiled and hugged him.

"Thank you"

"Your welcome. Now Cassie"

"Yes?"

"I would like to give you a piece of information that no one knows"

"What is it?"

"My name" Her eyes widened and nodded

"It's-----"

We got back to the house and i took Cassie upstairs. I lifted her shirt and looked at her stomach.

"Hi Penelope, are you ok in there?" Cassie laughed but knew that i had more than one gift.

"Wanna hear her?"

"Is that allowed?"

"No but want to anyway?"

"Sure" I took a hold of her hand and placed my other one on her stomach.

"Close your eyes" I heard a pounding and i smiled. It was her heartbeat. I moved my hand higher and heard a popping sound.

"She sounds so cute"

"That's our's Justin, she's ours"

"Are you happy?"

"Very" I smiled at her and kissed her.

I sat on the bed as Cassie was in the shower. Travis shimmered in with a smile on his face and Lola appeared with the other after him.

"What?"

"Well, did you tell her?" I smiled

"Yea, i told her"

"And?"

"She's happy" the next thing i knew i was being tackled by them on the bed making me laugh.

"Get off me you idiots "

"Now that is something you don't see everyday" The moved to see Cassie in her pajamas and a smile on her face.

"Congrats Cass"

"Thank you, now Travis get your fat ass off of my side of the bed"

"Fine pushy" She hit his arm and laid next to me.

"Can i see her?" Lola asked

"Sure" she placed her hand on Cassie's stomach and smiled. She opened her eyes and smiled at us.

"Well?"

"She's healthy and looks like little peanut" We laughed and she hugged Cassie.

The other's were in the living with Cassie as i sat in my office looking around remembering how long it took to get here. I start my day of being a real Devil after Christmas. I'm excited but i'm more happy to know that Cassie will be standing by my side. I picked up the box that was on the floor of my office and took off my old Devil and replaced it with a picture of Cassie and another of Cassie and I. Soon i'll fill a space with Cass, Me and Penelope. I smiled at the thought of my daughter.

Just to know that soon enough i'll be holding her in my arms makes me smile. Ever since Cassie came along my life has changed from working on the battle to finally getting to love the one that you want to be with for your life. Some people say that love fades but when i look at Cassie i see life, happiness, love, joy, and sometimes i see a scary as girl but that's only when she gets angry.

Cassie is and always will be the one girl that i can say i changed everything for her. I never wanted to see my family unless it was war related. I hardly spoke to Jazmyn and Jaxon. The other's were my family and no matter how much of a dick i was to them they still stood by me supporting me as i waited for Cassie. Did i grow annoyed that it took so long? At times but than i remembered that once she came she'd be here forever. It sucks that Rebekah won't be able to see her niece grow up because of stupid mistakes she made but Kelsey will be around along with my sister and the girls. Plus she has Jaxon, the boys and my family.

I think that we'll be fine.

Because with Cassie by my side i'm not just another Devil.

I'm The Devil

Devil's Haunting Chapter One

Year 1869

"Justin stop it" Hannah said with a small giggle as he chased her through the woods that they claimed as there own. Lifting her into the air and spinning in a circle she wrapped her legs around his waist.

He stood in the middle of the woods smiling at her, this was the moments he loved. She knew his secret, and yet she loved him anyway. She knew about his power and what his calling was and she wanted to be the one to stand behind him at all times.

"I love you Hannah, Devil or not" He whispered against her lips.

"You'll always have me Justin, don't forget that. Nothing can separate us" She said as his lips pressed against hers.

Present Time: 2013

Justin

"Daddy can we go in those woods and play?" Asked Penelope as she stared out the back door to the dark creepy woods. Justin felt a strange feeling coming from them, almost as if there was something wrong with them.

"I don't think so sweetie, come on go eat breakfast before your mother gets angry with me about not feeding you" She let out a little giggle and sat in what she called "the big girl chair".

"Daddy, there's a man that comes to see me everyday. He looks like you and has the same name" He looked at his 6 year old daughter confused

"Where does he visit you baby?" He said as he placed a plate in front of her. She started eating and swallowed before answering.

"He comes to my room at night, he says that he is protecting me" A odd feeling formed in Justin's stomach.

"What else does he tell you Penelope?"

"He calls mommy Hannah and says she's a bad person. He says that she will hurt me" Justin searched his head for someone named Hannah but came up with nothing.

"If you see him tonight i want you to come into my room, i don't want you talking to him anymore. Am i understood?" He said with a cold voice that he knew Penelope would listen to

"Yes Daddy" Nodding he ate and they went to check on Cassie who was still asleep in there bedroom.

Year 1869

Anger was all you could see in Justin's eyes as he looked at his lover. She had tears running down her face as she held onto her daughter's hand.

"How can you do this to me? To our family?" He said with a cold and dark voice

"Justin it's for your own good, this isn't you" Hannah said in a panic

"Rosaline come here" He said to his daughter who ran towards him scared to be with her mother.

"Justin just listen please, the power has come to your head, don't let it destroy us. He can help" His eyes turned black, he told Rosaline to go find her aunt and he shut the door making sure Hannah had no escape.

"He's going to kill me because of you, i trusted you Hannah, i fucking married you and you betrayed me" Fear grew in her eyes

"But, before he does that to me i'm making sure your gone too" Hannah gulped

"W-what do you mean Justin?" He took her by her hair and disappeared out the room and appeared in the woods that were known as their's.

"Your a dead man Hannah, i'm going to make sure of it" He said throwing her against a tree.

Present Time: 2013

Justin

"What's wrong?" Cassie asked as we laid on the couch watching Penelope play with her toys. My arm around her as our legs were tangled together.

"Nothing, just thinking" She turned her head and looked at me with concern

"Can i know?" She asked as she pouted making me smile and kiss her nose.

"Now who can say no to that face?" I sighed and nodded as she carefully looked at me knowing not to interupt.

"Penelope told me that someone that looks like me and has the same name as me has been coming into her room at night while were sleeping. She said that he calls you Hannah and that your going to hurt her. I don't know what's going on but she asked me if she can play in the woods today. When i looked at them i got a strange and bad feeling and i told her no"

"Justin i think you should talk to your dad about this, maybe he knows something and can help" All of a sudden the fireplace that was in the living room went off causing Cassie and Penelope to jump and look at me. Looking closely at the fire i saw a face but it wasn't just a random face, it looked just like me and than it just vanished.

"I'll talk to him when he get back from the capital a lright" She nodded and we went back to watching Penelope play.

Year 1869

He watched as she burned, her body slowly becoming ash, the smell of burning flesh taking over and filling his nose causing him to smirk as his eyes turned black. He's as evil as they come maybe even worse, he's been alive for over 2,000 years. Life after life becoming different from the last. Some he found love, other's he murdered and killed with no remorse. This life in 1869? He does both, why? Well no one really knows that answer.

Her screams were heard through out the forest, tears running down her face but hidden behind the flames. Ash is becoming apart of her disforming body. He felt nothing, she was useless to him, kept him human when he should've been soul-less. This was her fault, she put herself here. She made him kill her, he loved her and she turned against him. She betrayed him, turned him to the capital, she was just another disgusting human in his mind. She needed to die, just like the rest of the m.

Hearing footsteps coming towards the sight he didn't stop the process. He knew who it was, he knew what they wanted, but he didn't care. He was a dead man anyway, but if he was going away he wanted to make sure she was gone too. He wanted to protect his family, his siblings from being discovered. They were finally getting used to the life they were given, he wasn't about to let the capital take that away. Even if that meant he had to sacrifice himself.

"Justin" A dark voice was heard and he turned once her body was only ash and a pile of blackness.

"Father" He said nodding at him knowing what was about to come.

"I'm sorry son" Shaking his head at his father he held his hand up.

"I do not wish to hear a apology, i know why you've come "

"Why Justin? You knew it was dangerous"

"I have no answer, please just do it quickly" Walking towards his son Lord Bieber pushing his hand through Justin's chest. Taking a grip of the heart he kept inside, squeezing it in his hand without taking his eyes off his son's.

"I'll might you again father, i'll be back "

"I hope you do not make the same mistakes" A smirk grew on Justin's face

"We shall see my dear father" His body began limp, Lord Bieber pulled his hand out the dead body making it fall to the dirty ground. Standing over the body Lord Bieber felt one tear roll down his cheek. It was rare for a devil to cry, and when it happened it meant he was brave.

"Soon my son, soon" He whispered before disappearing deeper into the woods without another glance at Justin's dead body that laid next to his former lover Hannah.

Present time: 2013

Justin

Shooting up from my pillow i began breathing heavy as sweat ran down my body. Feeling a tense presense next to me i turned to see Cassie looking at me with concern in her eyes. She reached her hand up and took a hold of my hand.

"What is it?" My breaths were uneven, sweat coming down without a stop

"Justin" She said with a sad tone

This has been happening for over a few days, and i have no idea what these dreams or nightmares mean. Is my past life coming back to haunt me? I turned my head and looked at Cassie.

"I love you" She smiled and kissed the back of my hand

"I love you too, now get some sleep" Nodding i put my head on the pillow and felt her lay on my chest as my arm went around her small frame. She kissed my chest and i closed my eyes.
